(1) Divide the aggregate pounds of producer milk in Class I milk (including inventory except as provided in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, and "overage", but adjusted to eliminate duplications due to interhandler and intermarket plant transfers) under this part and Part 1033 of this chapter (Greater Cincinnati order) for the second, third, and fourth months preceding by the aggregate pounds of producer milk receipts under such parts for the same months, multiply the result by 100 and round to the nearest whole number. The result shall be known as the "Class I utilization percentage";

(3) For the third month this subparagraph is effective, the monthly ending inventory of packaged fluid milk products for the month preceding such month shall be deducted in computing the 3 months' Class I milk total under subparagraph (1) above and the same adjusted monthly Class I milk total shall be used in the two successive 3 months' Class I milk total in subparagraph (1).

§ 1034.52 Class II milk prices.

Subject to the provisions of § 1034.53, the prices per hundredweight for Class II milk for the month shall be computed by the market administrator as follows:

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the amount for the month computed pursuant to § 1034.50, but not more than the sum of the amounts computed pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph (rounded to nearest cent), plus 10 cents:

(1) From the Chicago butter price computed pursuant to § 1034.50, subtract 3 cents and multiply by 4.2; and

(2) From the weighted average of carlot prices per pound of spray process nonfat dry milk for human consumption f.o.b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published for the period from the 26th day of the preceding month through the 25th day of the current month by the Department, deduct 5.5 cents and multiply by 8.2.

(b) For skim milk in producer milk used to produce cottage cheese the amount computed for the month pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section plus 20 cents.

§ 1034.53 Butterfat differentials to handlers.

(a) Class I price. Multiply the Chicago butter price computed pursuant to § 1034.50 for the immediately preceding month by 0.120.

(b) Class II price. Multiply the Chicago butter price for the month by 0.115.

§ 1034.54 Location adjustment to handlers.

(a) The price for Class I milk at a plant located outside the marketing area and more than 50 miles by the shortest hard-surface highway distance as determined by the market administrator from the nearest of the main post offices of Dayton, Piqua, Springfield, Urbana, or Wilmington, Ohio, shall be the price computed pursuant to § 1034.51(a) reduced according to the rates set forth in the following schedule for the distance of the plant from such nearest basing point:

Distance from basing point	Rate per hundredweight (cents)
Less than 50 miles	0
More than 50 miles but not more than 60 miles	9.0
For each additional 10 miles or fraction thereof in excess of 60 miles, an additional	1.5

(b) Fluid milk products received by a handler at a pool plant from another pool plant shall be assigned for Class I location adjustment credit, at the appropriate distance rate as set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, in a volume not in excess of 110 percent of Class I milk (exclusive of producer milk diverted as Class I milk to nonpool plants) at the transferee plant less the sum of receipts at such plant directly from producers and Class I milk assigned to receipts from other order plants and unregulated supply plants. Such assignments shall be made first to transferor plants at which no location adjustment credit is applicable and then in sequence beginning with the plant at which the least location adjustment would apply. If a pool distributing plant has direct receipts from producers less than 110 percent of Class I milk at such plant any bulk transfers to such plant from another pool plant to which a location credit applies shall be assigned to the Class I disposition at the transferee plant prorated with the sum of receipts at such plant of producer milk and the pounds assigned as Class I to receipts from other order plants and unregulated supply plants.

§ 1034.55 Use of equivalent prices.

If for any reason a price quotation or factor required by this part for computing class prices or for other purposes is not available in the manner described, the market administrator shall use a price or factor determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to the price or factor which is required.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

§ 1034.60 Producer-handlers and Governmental Agencies.

(a) Sections 1034.40 through 1034.55 and §§ 1034.61 through 1034.88 shall not apply to a producer-handler.

(b) None of the provisions of this part except § 1034.14 shall apply to a plant operated by a governmental agency.

§ 1034.61 Plants subject to other Federal orders.

The provisions of this part other than §§ 1034.30, 1034.31, 1034.32, 1034.33, and 1034.34 shall not apply to:

(a) A distributing plant during any month in which the milk at such plant would be subject to the classification and pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the Act, unless such plant qualified as a pool plant pursuant to § 1034.13(a) and a greater volume of fluid milk products is disposed of from such plant to retail or wholesale outlets in the Miami Valley, Ohio, marketing area and to pool plants under this part than in the marketing area and to pool plants regulated by such other order during the current month and each of the three months immediately preceding.

(b) A supply plant meeting the requirements of § 1034.13(b) which also continues to have pool plant status under another Federal order.

§ 1034.62 Obligation of a handler operating a partially regulated distributing plant.

Each handler who operates a partially regulated distributing plant shall pay to the market administrator for the producer-settlement fund on or before the 25th day after the end of the month either of the amounts (at the handler's election) calculated pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) of this section. If the handler fails to report pursuant to §§ 1034.30 and 1034.32 the information necessary to compute the amount specified in paragraph (a) of this section, he shall pay the amount computed pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section.

(a) An amount computed as follows:

(1) (i) The obligation that would have been computed pursuant to § 1034.70 had such plant been a pool plant. For purposes of such computation, receipts at such nonpool plant from a pool plant or an other order plant shall be assigned to the utilization at which classified at the pool plant or other order plant, transfers from such nonpool plant to a pool plant or an other order plant shall be classified as Class II milk if allocated to such class at the pool plant or other order plant and be valued at the weighted average price of the respective order is so allocated to Class I milk. There shall be included in the obligation so computed a charge in the amount specified in § 1034.70(f) and a credit in the amount specified in § 1034.84(b)(2) with respect to receipts from an unregulated supply plant, unless an obligation with respect to such plant is computed as specified in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph.

(ii) If the operator of the partially regulated distributing plant so requests, and provides with his reports pursuant to §§ 1034.30 and 1034.32, similar reports with respect to the operations of any other nonpool plant which serves as a supply plant for such partially regulated distributing plant by shipments to such plant during the month equivalent to the requirements of § 1034.13(b), with agreement of the operator of such plant that the market administrator may examine the books and records of such plant for purposes of verification of such reports, there will be added the amount of the obligation computed at such nonpool supply plant in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as for the partially regulated distributing plant.

(2) From this obligation there will be deducted the sum of:

(i) The gross payments made by such handler for Grade A milk received during the month from dairy farmers at such plant and like payments made by the operator of a supply plant(s) included in the computations pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; and

(ii) Any payments to the producer-settlement fund of another order under which such plant is also a partially regulated distributing plant.

(b) An amount computed as follows:

(1) Determine the respective amounts of skim milk and butterfat disposed of as route disposition (other than to pool plants) in the marketing area;

(2) Deduct the respective amounts of skim milk and butterfat received as Class I milk at the partially regulated distributing plant from pool plants and other order plants, except that deducted under a similar provision of another order issued pursuant to the Act;

(3) Combine the amounts of skim milk and butterfat remaining into one total and determine the weighted average butterfat content; and

DETERMINATION OF PRICES TO PRODUCERS

§ 1034.70 Computation of the net pool obligation of each pool handler.

The net pool obligation of each pool handler during each month shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator as follows:

(a) Multiply the quantity of producer milk in each class for such handler, as computed pursuant to § 1034.45(c), by the applicable class prices (adjusted pursuant to §§ 1034.53 and 1034.54) and add the resulting amounts.

(b) Add the amount obtained from multiplying the pounds of overage deducted from each class pursuant to § 1034.45(a)(11) and the corresponding step of § 1034.45(b) by the applicable class prices.

(c) Add the amount obtained from multiplying the difference between the Class II price for the preceding month and the Class I price for the current month by the hundredweight of skim milk and butterfat subtracted from Class I pursuant to § 1034.45(a)(6) and the corresponding step of § 1034.45(b).

(d) Add an amount determined by multiplying the difference between the Class I price for the preceding month and the Class I price for the current month by the hundredweight of skim milk and butterfat subtracted from Class I pursuant to § 1034.45(a)(3) and the corresponding step of § 1034.45(b). If the Class I price for the current month is less than the Class I price for the preceding month the result shall be a minus amount.

(e) Add an amount equal to the difference between the value at the Class I price applicable at the pool plant and the value at the Class II price, with respect to skim milk and butterfat in other source milk subtracted from Class I pursuant to § 1034.45(a)(4) and the corresponding step of § 1034.45(b).

(f) Add an amount equal to the value at the Class I price adjusted for location (in the manner provided pursuant to § 1034.54) of the nearest nonpool plant(s) from which an equivalent volume was received, with respect to skim milk and butterfat subtracted from Class I pursuant to § 1034.45(a)(8) and the corresponding step of § 1034.45(b).

(g) Add, with respect to a cooperative association which is allocated shrinkage of skim milk or butterfat pursuant to § 1034.42(c)(3), an amount computed by multiplying hundredweight of such shrinkage by the Class II milk price (adjusted pursuant to §§ 1034.53 and 1034.54).

§ 1034.71 Computation of uniform price.

For each month the market administrator shall compute the uniform price per hundredweight of producer milk, of 3.5 percent butterfat content, as follows:

(a) Combine into one total the values computed pursuant to § 1034.70 for all handlers, except those of handlers who failed to make payments required pursuant to §§ 1034.80 and 1034.84 for the preceding month;

(b) Add an amount equal to the sum of the location differential adjustments computed pursuant to § 1034.82;

(c) Subtract, if the weighted average butterfat test of all producer milk is greater than 3.5 percent, or add if the weighted average butterfat test of such milk is less than 3.5 percent an amount computed by multiplying the difference between such weighted average butterfat test and 3.5 by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 1034.81;

(d) Add an amount representing not less than one-half the unobligated balance in the producer-settlement fund;

(e) Divide the resulting amount by the sum of the following for all handlers included in these computations:

(1) The total hundredweight of producer milk; and

(2) The total hundredweight for which a value is computed pursuant to § 1034.70(f);

(f) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents per hundredweight. The result shall be the "weighted average price" and, except for the months specified below, shall be the "uniform price" for milk received from producers;

(g) For the months specified in paragraphs (h) and (i) of this section, subtract from the amount resulting from the computation pursuant to paragraphs (a) through (d) of this section an amount computed by multiplying the hundredweight of milk specified in paragraph (e)(2) of this section by the weighted average price;

(h) Subtract for each of the months of April, May, June, and July an amount computed by multiplying the total hundredweight of producer milk for such month by the following amounts: 20 cents in April, 25 cents in May and June, and 30 cents in July;

(i) Add for each of the months of September, October, November, and December, 20, 30, 30, and 20 percent, respectively, of the obligated balance in the producer-settlement fund pursuant to § 1034.83(b) on August 31, immediately preceding;

(j) Divide the resulting sum by the total hundredweight of producer milk included in these computations; and

(k) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents per hundredweight. The result shall be the "uniform price" for milk received from producers.

PAYMENTS

§ 1034.80 Time and method of payment for producer milk.

(a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this section, each handler shall make payment for producer milk received during the month as follows:

(1) On or before the 27th day of each month to each producer who did not discontinue shipping milk to such handler before the 15th day of the month not less than the Class II price for the preceding month computed to the nearest 50 cents multiplied by the hundredweight of milk received from such producer during the first 15 days of the month, less proper deductions authorized by such producer to be made from payments due pursuant to this subparagraph;

(2) On or before the 17th day of the following month to each producer, not less than the uniform price, adjusted by the butterfat and location differentials to producers, multiplied by the hundredweight of milk received from such producer during the month, subject to the following adjustments:

(i) Less payments made to such producer pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph;

(ii) Less marketing service deductions made pursuant to § 1034.87;

(iii) Plus or minus adjustments for errors made in previous payments made to such producer; and

(iv) Less proper deductions authorized in writing by such producer.

(3) If by such date for final payment, such handler has not received full payment from the market administrator pursuant to § 1034.85 for such month, he may reduce pro rata his payments to producers by not more than the amount of such underpayment. Payments to producers shall be completed thereafter not later than the date for making payments pursuant to this paragraph next following after the receipt of the balance due from the market administrator;

(b) Payments required in paragraph (a) of this section shall be made to a cooperative association, qualified under § 1034.5, or its duly authorized agent, with respect to milk of producers which the market administrator determines have authorized such cooperative association to collect payment for their milk and the cooperative association has presented the handler with a written request for such payments. Payments to the cooperative association under this paragraph shall be made 1 day in advance of the applicable payment dates in paragraph (a), subject to the condition that the association has provided the handler with a written promise to reimburse the handler the amount of any actual loss incurred by such handler because of any improper claim on the part of the cooperative association;

(c) On or before the 15th day of the following month, each handler shall pay to each cooperative association for milk the handler receives during the month from a pool plant operated by such association, not less than the minimum prices for milk in each class, subject to the applicable location and butterfat differentials;

(d) On or before the 15th day of the following month, each handler, in his capacity as operator of a pool plant, who receives milk for which a cooperative association is the handler during the month pursuant to § 1034.8(c) shall pay such cooperative association for such milk at the uniform price, adjusted by applicable butterfat and location differentials; and

(e) None of the provisions of this section shall be construed to restrict any cooperative association qualified under section 8c(5)(F) of the Act from making payment for milk to its member producers in accordance with such provision of the Act.

§ 1034.81 Butterfat differential to producers.

The uniform price for producer milk shall be increased or decreased for each one-tenth of 1 percent that the butterfat content of such milk is above or below 3.5 percent, respectively, at the rate determined by multiplying the pounds of butterfat in producer milk allocated to Class I and Class II milk pursuant to § 1034.45 by the respective butterfat differential for each class, dividing the sum of such values by the total pounds of such butterfat and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest one-tenth cent.

§ 1034.82 Location differentials to producers and on nonpool milk.

(a) For the purposes of § 1034.71, the uniform price at a pool plant shall be reduced on the basis of the applicable amount or rate for the location of such pool plant pursuant to § 1034.54;

(b) For the purpose of computations pursuant to § 1034.84 the weighted average price shall be adjusted on the basis of the applicable amount or rate pursuant to § 1034.54, applicable at the location of the nonpool plant from which the milk was received.

§ 1034.83 Producer-settlement fund.

The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund known as the "producer-settlement fund", which shall function as follows:

(a) All payments made by handlers pursuant to §§ 1034.62, 1034.84, and 1034.86 shall be deposited in such fund and out of which shall be made all payments pursuant to §§ 1034.85 and 1034.86, except that any payments due to any handler shall be offset by any payments due from such handler; and

(b) All amounts subtracted pursuant to § 1034.71(h) shall be deposited in this fund and set aside as an obligated balance until withdrawn to effectuate § 1034.80 in accordance with the requirements of § 1034.71(i).

§ 1034.84 Payments to the producer-settlement fund.

On or before the 14th day of the following month each handler, including a cooperative association which is a handler, shall pay to the market administrator the amount, if any, by which the total amount specified in paragraph (a) of this section exceeds the amount specified in paragraph (b) of this section:

(a) The sum of the net pool obligation computed pursuant to § 1034.70 for such handler for the month; and

(b) The sum of:

(1) The value of producer milk received by such handler at the applicable uniform price specified in § 1034.71 (in the case of a cooperative association as a pool handler pursuant to § 1034.8(c) the value of milk so delivered to the pool plant of another handler shall be computed as a receipt of the latter); and

(2) The value at the weighted average price(s) applicable at the location of the plant(s) from which received (not to be less than the value at the Class II price) with respect to other source milk for which a value is computed pursuant to § 1034.70(f).

§ 1034.85 Payments out of the producer-settlement fund.

On or before the 16th day after the end of each month the market administrator shall pay to each handler the amount, if any, by which the amount computed pursuant to § 1034.84(b) exceeds the amount computed pursuant to § 1034.84(a). The market administrator shall offset any payment due any handler against any payments due from such handler.

§ 1034.86 Adjustments of errors.

Whenever audit by the market administrator of any handler's reports, books, records, or accounts discloses adjustments to be made, for any reason, which results in monies due (a) the market administrator from such handler, (b) such handler from the market administrator, or (c) any producer or cooperative association from such handler, the market administrator shall promptly notify such handler of any such amount due, and payment thereof shall be made on or before the next date for making payments set forth in the provision under which such error occurred.

§ 1034.87 Marketing services.

(a) Deductions. Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler shall deduct an amount not exceeding 6 cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as the Secretary from time to time may prescribe, from the payments made pursuant to § 1034.80, with respect to all milk received by such handler during each month from producers (not including such handler's own production) and from associations of producers, and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 14th day after the end of such month. Such moneys shall be used by the market administrator to verify weights, samples, and tests of such milk received by handlers and to provide such producers and associations of producers with market information, such services to be performed in whole or in part by the market administrator or by an agent engaged by him and responsible to him.

(b) By cooperative associations. In the case of producers for whom a cooperative association is actually performing as determined by the Secretary, the services set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall make, in lieu of the deductions specified in paragraph (a) of this section, such deductions from the payments to be made to such producers as authorized by such producers and, on or before the 16th day after the end of the month, pay over such deductions to the cooperative association rendering such services.

§ 1034.88 Expense of administration.

As his prorata share of the expense of administration of the order, each handler (excluding a cooperative association in its capacity as a handler pursuant to § 1034.8(c) with respect to milk delivered to pool plants) shall pay to the market administrator on or before the 14th day after the end of the month, 2 cents per hundredweight or such lesser amount as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to:

(a) Producer milk (including such handler's own production);

(b) Other source milk allocated to Class I pursuant to §§ 1034.45(a)(4) and 1034.45(a)(8) and the corresponding steps of § 1034.45(b); and

(c) Packaged Class I milk disposed of from partially regulated distributing plants as route disposition in the marketing area that exceeds the hundredweight of Class I milk received during the month at such plants from pool plants and other order plants.

§ 1034.90 Effective time.

The provisions of this part, or any amendments to its provisions, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated.

§ 1034.91 Suspension or termination.

The Secretary may suspend or terminate this part or any provision of this part, whenever he finds that it obstructs, or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act. This part shall terminate, in any event, whenever the provisions of the Act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

§ 1034.92 Continuing power and duty of the market administrator.

(a) If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part, there are any obligations arising under this part, the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any handler, by the market administrator, or by any other person, the power and duty to perform such further acts shall continue notwithstanding such suspension or termination. Any funds collected pursuant to the provisions of this part, over and above the amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses necessarily incurred by the market administrator or such person in liquidating and distributing such funds, shall be distributed to the contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this part for the payment of money.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this part shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate 2 years after the last day of the month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on the milk involved in such obligation, unless within such 2-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain but need not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said 2-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligations are made available to the market administrator or his representatives.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this part to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this part shall terminate 2 years after the end of the month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed, or 2 years after the end of the month during which the payment (including deduction or set off by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed, unless such handler, within the applicable period of time files, pursuant to section 8c(15)(A) of the Act, a petition claiming such money.

4. Elimination of provisions which permit pool plant status of reload facilities and as points for pricing producer milk;

5. Providing for the proration of receipts among several handlers with respect to split deliveries of a bulk tank load of producers' milk;

6. Providing for nonproducer milk status on milk from other markets (not Federal order markets) used solely for manufacturing purposes under the Puget Sound order; and

7. Miscellaneous and conforming changes.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions on the material issues are based on evidence presented at the hearing and the record thereof:

1. Classification and pricing of milk used in manufactured products. The order should be amended to divide the present Class II classification into two classes. The new Class II should include all skim milk and butterfat used to produce ice cream, ice cream mix, frozen desserts, aerated cream products, plastic cream, soured cream dressing, yogurt, eggnog, cottage cheese, bakers' cheese, pot cheese, cream cheese and neufchatel cheese. Condensed milk and skim milk used to produce any Class II milk product, and fluid milk products disposed of in bulk to a commercial food processing establishment should also be classified as Class II.

Class III would include all other manufactured dairy products currently classified as Class II. The principal items in Class III would include all skim milk and butterfat used to produce evaporated milk, condensed milk and skim milk (not otherwise classified as Class II), butter, nonfat dry milk solids, powdered whole milk, casein, Cheddar and Italian cheeses, milk in shrinkage and in fluid milk products dumped, or disposed of for livestock feed.

The new Class III would be priced at the present Class II price and the new Class II utilization would be priced 25 cents above that figure.

The order presently provides for a two-class pricing system whereby most manufactured products are classified as Class II. The Class II price is based on the Minnesota-Wisconsin price series, not to exceed a limit related to butter and nonfat dry milk values.

In addition, the order now provides for a plus 25 cent per hundredweight location adjustment applicable to milk in certain Class II uses (principally condensed, cottage cheese, ice cream and ice cream mix) at District 1 plants or those located in the counties of Kitsap, Mason, or Pierce.

The United Dairymen's Association, representing about two-thirds of the producers on the market, proposed a new Class III to include skim milk and butterfat used to produce butter, nonfat dry milk, powdered whole milk, Cheddar cheese, milk dumped and in shrinkage. They modified their proposal on the record to include in Class III milk utilized in all cheeses (including Cheddar) having 50 percent or more butterfat on a dry basis (generally cheeses manufactured from whole milk) and in Class II, all other cheeses not meeting this butterfat standard. Other items proposed for inclusion in Class II were evaporated milk and the products to which the special Class II location adjustment is now applicable in the District 1 area, mainly condensed milk, cottage cheese, ice cream and ice cream mix.

The association proposed a Class III milk price the same as the present Class II, and a price for skim milk and butterfat utilized as Class II products 25 cents over such Class III price and, with one exception, subject to the same location differentials as are now applicable to Class I milk. Location adjustments for this purpose would be limited to a maximum of 25 cents per hundredweight.

The association proposals for classification and pricing in effect would extend the present plus adjustment (25 cents per hundredweight) now applicable to usage in certain Class II products in certain parts of the market to apply on a marketwide basis, as well as making it applicable to additional products, principally evaporated milk and cheeses having less than 50 percent butterfat on a dry basis. At plants outside District 1 and not located in Kitsap, Mason, or Pierce Counties, the proposed Class II price would be adjusted by the location differentials now applicable to Class I milk.

In support of their position on these proposals the proponent association indicated that handlers in the market have demonstrated a preference for Grade A milk and skim milk for use in the manufactured products in the proposed Class II classification.

The Cow Milkers' Association and most regulated handlers generally objected to an increase in order minimum prices for certain manufactured products, particularly for skim milk and butterfat utilized in evaporated and condensed milk and in the Italian and other types of cheeses having less than 50 percent butterfat on a dry basis. Generally, their testimony was directed to the similarity in the competitive situation relative to the sale of evaporated and condensed milk and the Italian type cheeses with butter and powder on a national market. Mozzarella cheese, the principal Italian variety of cheese manufactured in the market, is sold in Washington and Oregon and some quantities are sold to outlets located in Alaska and Japan. A substantial distribution of evaporated milk products is made to outlets located in Utah and as far south as the Mexican border.

It is concluded that the present Class II products for which the Class II premium location adjustment is now applicable in District 1 (and the three-county area), principally cottage cheese, ice cream and ice cream mix and condensed milk, should be included in the new Class II classification and be priced 25 cents per hundredweight higher than the present Class II milk price. Skim milk and butterfat utilized in manufactured products such as evaporated milk, butter, hard and Italian type cheeses and dry milk solids, whole or nonfat, should be classified as Class III and priced on the basis of the present Class II pricing formula.

Condensed milk utilized in the manufacture of any product as here defined as Class II should also be classified as Class II. Condensed not so utilized should be Class III.

Ice cream, ice cream mix, and cottage cheese constitute a substantial outlet for reserve market supply of producer milk. Also, the ice cream and cottage cheese market is a year-round market requiring regularity of supply of producer milk to meet the market needs. During 1965, about 25 percent of producer milk was so utilized. The principal use of condensed milk in the market is in the manufacture of these products.

Although there is no requirement throughout the area that Grade A milk be used in the manufacture of ice cream, ice cream mix and cottage cheese, there is, however, a general demand by handlers for Grade A milk and skim milk on a regular basis for such uses.

Handlers manufacturing ice cream and cottage cheese in this market rely upon cooperative associations for a substantial quantity of the Grade A supply of producer milk for such purposes.

The added value now associated with producer milk in such uses in the District 1 area above that of other manufactured products should attach also to all the milk so utilized by handlers regulated under the order. This, together with appropriate adjustments for location as hereinafter adopted, will promote uniformity in pricing among handlers, regardless of the location of their plants, and will return uniformly to all producers on the market the proceeds for such higher valued uses.

The Everett-Seattle-Tacoma metropolitan areas are the predominant population centers in the market and thus represent the principal outlets for fluid milk products as well as ice cream, cottage cheese and other Class II products.

Slightly more than two-thirds of the milk which would be classified and priced as Class II is now received at District 1 plants. Of the remainder, some moves to the market in the form of cottage cheese. This cheese is manufactured at a plant located at Chehalis, Wash., which is in District 3.

Much of the remaining milk which would be classified as Class II and which is received at plants outside District 1 is moved in the form of condensed skim for use in ice cream and ice cream mixes. The volume of milk moving to the central market in condensed form has been increasing steadily.

Inasmuch as handlers located in the central market area generally are dependent upon supplemental Grade A milk supplies from the other pricing districts of the marketing area, the differences in cost of transporting producer milk for the higher valued Class II uses should be reflected in the relative returns to producers in the respective districts.

The proponents recommended that the location differentials applicable to Class II milk be at the same rate as those applied to Class I milk.

As noted above, however, a very substantial and increasing proportion of the milk which would be classified as Class II at plants located outside District 1 moves to District 1 plants in concentrated form. The cost of moving skim milk in the form of cottage cheese or condensed is much less than the cost of moving an equivalent volume of fluid skim milk in an unconcentrated state. Hence, to allow location differentials based on the cost of moving whole milk or skim milk in a volume equivalent to the solids in the concentrated product would result in producers paying the cost of transporting to District 1, the water which was removed from the skim milk at the country plants.

To prevent this, the rate of location differential on Class I products should be established at one-half the rate applicable to Class I milk. No change should be made in the rate of the location differential applicable to the uniform price paid to producers.

Proponents proposed that the location differential on Class II milk should not exceed 25 cents regardless of the location of the plant. Otherwise, producers could receive a price less than the Class III price for a portion of their milk. Fixing the location differential for Class II milk at one-half the rate established for Class I milk will eliminate the possibility, since the maximum rate applicable to Class I milk is 40 cents per hundredweight.

While Italian type cheeses and evaporated milk in many cases contain Grade A milk, they are not products required under the applicable health regulations to be made from Grade A milk. They are storable, easily transported and compete in the national market with similar products from other sources (both federally regulated and unregulated) where the applicable price approximates the Puget Sound Class III price (the present Class II price).

As stated earlier, Mozzarella cheese processed by regulated handlers in this market is sold throughout the entire coastal region as well as to outlets located in Alaska and Japan. Evaporated milk produced by local plants is regularly disposed of to outlets as far away as the Mexican border.

Mozzarella and other varieties of cheese manufactured at plants located in Wisconsin and elsewhere are obtainable in the Puget Sound market at prices competitive with those of the local manufacturing plants. Unrealistically high prices for Italian type cheeses and evaporated milk would only discourage the use of producer milk in their manufacture, resulting in a loss of important outlets for reserve milk supplies.

The order should continue to include evaporated milk and all cheese except cottage cheese (and specialty cheeses, i.e., baker's, pot, cream, neufchatel) in the lowest surplus classification together with butter, dry milk solids and related products. The three-class system as here adopted provides for classification and pricing of manufactured dairy products similar to that provided under the Inland Empire order market, the nearest federally regulated market to the Puget Sound market.

The changed basis for establishing and classifying skim milk and butterfat used to produce manufactured dairy products requires various changes in the order. These are necessary since a handler must not only account for Class II and Class III products produced in his plant but also must establish his actual disposition and month-end inventory of such products. The necessary changes in this regard are provided in the attached order.

2. Computation of the location adjustments for excess milk. Money paid by handlers for Class II milk in excess of the Class III price should be distributed to producers in all districts through the excess milk location adjustment in a manner similar to that now provided for in District 1. The funds made available through the pool would for any month be prorated over all producer excess milk pooled for that month. This will assure that all producers on the market will share uniformly in returns in utilization in the higher valued Class II products.

The amount available should first be applied to excess milk except that the location adjustment rate to apply on excess milk should not exceed a maximum of 25 cents per hundredweight for District 1 and specified lesser amounts in other districts. Any amount in excess of that required to pay the excess location adjustment should be added to the base pool.

3. Location adjustments. The order now divides the marketing area and adjacent portions of the milkshed into several districts for the purpose of pricing producer milk in accordance with its location value. Certain of these districts should be redefined as follows: (1) Thurston and Grays Harbor Counties, now in District No. 1, where there are no applicable location adjustments, should be included in the 15-cent and 20-cent per hundredweight location adjustment zones, respectively; and (2) Mason County (not a part of the designated marketing area) now included in the zero location adjustment zone, should be, for location pricing only, included in the 15-cent per hundredweight zone. The present five districts should be regrouped into four districts, numbered from one to four generally in order of distance from and the cost of transporting milk to the market. No change in the boundaries of the defined marketing area, however, is involved in these amendments.

The United Dairymen's Association proposed to include Grays Harbor County with Lewis and Pacific Counties in the 20-cent location adjustment zone; Mason County (not in the defined marketing area) and Thurston County in the 15-cent zone; and the three northern tiers of townships in Snohomish County in a new 10-cent zone. Presently the counties of Grays Harbor, Mason, Thurston, and Snohomish are a part of District 1 where no location adjustments apply.

The most economical means for supplying the Class I needs of the market is for nearby milk to be delivered from farms to bottling plants to the full extent available and for more distant supplies to be delivered only when needed. Seasonal day-to-day reserves can then be diverted economically to manufacturing plants in areas where there are facilities. This optimum arrangement may be more nearly achieved by the redistricting as here adopted.

Producer groups and handlers generally were favorable to the proposed redistricting of Grays Harbor County. Controversy centered chiefly on the change with respect to Thurston County.

Grays Harbor County is located at the base of the Olympic Peninsula of Washington and is presently one of the counties comprising District 1, in which there are no applicable location adjustments on Class I milk. The principal population center in the county consists of the neighboring cities of Aberdeen and Hoquiam.

Since the inception of the Puget Sound order in 1951, Grays Harbor County has been included in District 1. At the outset of regulation for this market, a high percentage of Grade A milk produced in the Aberdeen-Hoquiam milkshed (generally Grays Harbor and Mason Counties) was utilized as Class I milk. During 1951, 72 percent of such producer receipts at plants located in Grays Harbor County was disposed of as Class I route disposition. Since this time, however, most local bottling and manufacturing outlets have closed. A case in point is the plant located at Satsop which at one time provided an outlet in Grays Harbor County for the manufacture of reserve milk not required for fluid use. Substantial quantities of the milk produced in this area now move to manufacturing facilities located to the east such as the plant at Chehalis, Wash. (located in the 20-cent location adjustment zone) or to plants located in the Seattle area.

The principal remaining bottling plant operation in the county is located at Hoquiam, Wash. Except for this relatively small plant, the principal suppliers of fluid milk and fluid milk products on routes in the consuming centers of the county are located outside the county. Since 1961, less than 30 percent of the producer milk in the Grays Harbor milkshed has been utilized as Class I milk.

The 20-cent location adjustment as adopted herein for Grays Harbor County is the current hauling rate filed by handlers with the Public Utility Commission in Olympia, Wash.

A witness testifying on behalf of a small association of producers located in the county favored the continuation of the present location zone status of Grays Harbor County but indicated that the application of a 20-cent per hundredweight location adjustment for the county probably would result in no long-term disadvantage to the producers. This association presently ships, on a monthly basis, approximately 385,000 pounds of milk to the Hoquiam bottling plant and approximately 850,000 pounds to outlets located in Seattle. Seattle is the primary market for their producer milk.

The changed marketing situation characterizing Grays Harbor County is similar to that which has occurred in Thurston County, now in the district (District 1) where no location adjustments are applicable. Bottling plants which in the past were located in the county are no longer in operation.

Milk produced in this area has since tended to move to local regulated supply plants for manufacturing into such products as cheese and ice cream. At the present time because of its location in District 1, no location differential applies to this milk. Accordingly, the incentive for the movement of this milk to the principal population center, namely Seattle and Tacoma, for use in the higher valued fluid milk products is lacking in that producers are paid the same uniform prices at these outlying manufacturing facilities as they would receive if their milk were shipped to bottling plants in Seattle or Tacoma.

The present absence of a location adjustment applicable to this county, therefore, tends to hinder the efficient movement of milk to nearby Tacoma and Seattle, where the milk is needed for use in Class I. As a consequence, plants located in the central market have had to draw upon more distant sources in the market to supplement their needs and at an additional cost to producers sharing in the marketwide pool.

Currently, Mason County (although not a part of the marketing area) is included in the defined area in which no location differential applies.

There are presently no known regulated plants in the county to which such provisions are applicable. If, however, a plant located in the county should become regulated, the producer milk should be subject to the same 15-cent per hundredweight location differential as is adopted herein for regulated plants located in Thurston County. The same marketing conditions which warrant the inclusion of Thurston County in the 15-cent per hundredweight adjustment zone apply equally to the marketing situation with respect to Mason County.

In the case of Thurston and Mason counties, no filed hauling rates are indicated on the record. However, the 15-cent per hundredweight rate corresponds closely to filed rates in other parts of the marketing area where conditions and terrain are similar. The rate conforms also to hauling costs experienced by the proponent association in moving milk from this area.

The proposal to redistrict a portion of Snohomish County was not sufficiently supported by evidence in the record to warrant consideration at this time and is, therefore, denied.

The following portions of the marketing area definitions and handler location adjustment provisions of the order reflect the changes adopted by these findings.

Puget Sound, Wash., marketing area. "District 1" shall include that portion of the marketing area in King, Pierce, and Snohomish Counties. "District 2" shall include Thurston, Skagit, and Island Counties. "District 3" shall include that portion of the marketing area in Grays Harbor, Lewis, Pacific, and Whatcom Counties. "District 4" shall include San Juan County.

Location adjustments to the Class I and uniform prices:

Plant location	Differential cents per cwt.
District 1 or Kitsap or Pierce Counties	0
District 2 or Mason County	15
District 3 (including the entire counties of Lewis or Pacific) or Kittitas County	20
District 4 and other locations outside the marketing area	40

4. Reload points. Present order provisions which provide pool plant status to reload facilities should be eliminated. This change would effect a shift in the point of the pricing of such milk from the location of the reload point to the location of the pool plant.

Currently, the buildings, premises, and facilities of a reload point which meet the approval by an appropriate health authority, constitute a "plant" as defined under the order unless all milk handled through such reload facilities during the month is moved to a single plant in the same district. Reload facilities which have "plant" status likewise have the status of a pool supply plant under the order if such facility is located in the marketing area, or if it is located outside the marketing area and moves specified percentages of its Grade A milk in fluid form to pool distributing plants during the month.

The United Dairymen's Association requested that the reload points be eliminated from the pricing provisions of the order.

The Cow Milkers' Association supported the elimination of reload points for pricing purposes but was opposed to any change which would affect its own status as a handler under the order by virtue of its being an operator of a reload facility, a qualified pool plant under the order. The association representative stated, however, that the maintenance of handler status under the order is a temporary problem inasmuch as they had applied to the Department for recognition as a cooperative under § 1125.5 of the order. Official notice is taken of the fact that this association has now been recognized as a qualified cooperative association under the terms of the order. As such, the association would be a handler with respect to its bulk tank shipments of milk from member farms to pool plants or by diversion of the milk of its member producers from a pool plant to a nonpool plant. With this exception, there was no opposition to the changes in reload pricing as adopted herein.

Appropriate order provisions relating to the handling of milk through reload points must conform to the functions of reload facilities in a particular market. Such functions vary from one market to another. A case in point is that reload points used as a point of transfer for milk moving to the market from distant sources of supply is not characteristic in the Puget Sound market as it is in certain other markets. Further, the functions of reload facilities change over time in a market as evidenced from testimony on the record.

Five reload points were in operation as of January this year, all located in District 1 of the marketing area. Such facilities located at Stanwood and Arlington (Snohomish County) are operated by Carnation Company and the Cow Milkers' Association, respectively. The remaining three facilities are located in Snohomish, Thurston, and Grays Harbor Counties and are operated by affiliates of United Dairymen's Association.

Testimony of representatives of United Dairymen's Association and the Cow Milkers' Association was directed to certain marketing practices relating to the movement of milk through reload points which were disruptive to the orderly marketing of milk in the area. It was the consensus of these witnesses that the advantages of reload pricing were far outweighed by the uneconomical practices which developed as a consequence.

Milk is being moved from districts in the marketing area where a 15 to 20 cent per hundredweight location differential is applicable to reload facilities in District 1 (area of no location differentials) and then moved back to plants in the originating district for processing into manufactured milk products. The costs of such uneconomical movements of milk are reflected in lower returns to all producers on the market. Pricing milk at the location of the pool plant which processes the milk received through the reload facilities will serve to eliminate such marketing practices.

It is concluded that treatment of a reload point under the order in a manner identical to that of a pool supply plant with respect to pricing, location differentials to handlers and performance requirements for pool status is no longer serving the conditions of orderly marketing in this area and should be discontinued. A reload point used primarily as a location at which milk is transferred from one farm pickup tank truck to another or to an over-the-road tank truck should not, therefore, be considered a plant. This would shift the location of pricing on milk moving through reload points from the location of the reload point to the location of the processing pool plant.

Any reloading operations on the premises of a plant engaging in other milk handling and processing operations should, however, continue to constitute part of the operations of such plant.

5. Proration of receipts on split deliveries of bulk tank milk. Producer milk received at two or more plants from one load shall be priced at the point of actual receipt. Receipts at each plant location shall be prorated among the producers making up the load.

In a corollary proposal to reload pricing, the United Dairymen's Association requested a change in the point of pricing and "accountability" for milk of two or more producers which is commingled into one bulk tank load and subsequently split between two or more plants. In such a situation, they recommended that the receipts of such milk at the several plants be prorated among the producers whose milk makes up the load.

The present marketing practice for fixing the responsibility for purchase, and thus the compliance with order requirements for payment and accurate reporting, rests with the operator of the first plant at which milk is received after it leaves the farm.

The marketing conditions discussed earlier in these findings with respect to changing the pricing of milk moving through reload facilities apply equally to the circumstances relating to the splitting of a bulk tank load of commingled producer milk among several handlers. Under the present terms of the order, a handler may "receive" a token portion of a tank load of milk at a District 1 plant and cause the remaining portion to be backhauled to plants located in the outlying areas where location adjustments are applicable. Since the entire load is considered to have been received at the first plant, the producers of such milk receive the uniform price f.o.b. the central market even though the milk is actually utilized at a plant where location differentials apply. This actually results in the cost of the extra transportation being borne by all producers on the market.

6. Provision for "other market" milk. Provisions for defining producers for other markets (not Federal order markets) in order that milk which is surplus to another market's requirements might be disposed of for manufacturing use by handlers regulated under the Puget Sound order without such milk becoming pooled should not be adopted at this time.

Although producer proponents pointed out that a similar provision relating to milk from other Federal order markets is already provided for under the terms of the order, testimony failed to show that a serious problem now exists with respect to milk imports from unregulated markets. The association's proposal was not included in the notice of hearing. If at some future time the situation is shown to contribute to market instability, a hearing may be held giving all interested parties the opportunity to be fully heard.

7. Miscellaneous and conforming changes. The adoption of various proposals necessitates, of course, certain changes in the specific provisions involved, as well as conforming changes in several other sections of the order. The establishment of a three-class system of pricing milk has also required numerous changes with respect to references to "Class II milk" throughout the order.

Two dairy farmers testified briefly that in certain milk markets of the U.S. powdered whole milk and nonfat dry milk solids are used in combination with nondairy ingredients in the manufacture of products which are competitive with milk sold for fluid bottling use.

Although their testimony suggested a reclassification of nonfat dry milk solids and powdered whole milk to a higher use classification than is now provided under the Puget Sound order (Class II), the relevancy of such a development elsewhere in the country to the current marketing situation in the Puget Sound market was not established. Full consideration of this matter, therefore, should be deferred until such time that a development of this nature may be shown to affect the orderly marketing of milk in the area.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs and proposed findings and conclusions were filed on behalf of certain interested parties. These briefs, proposed findings and conclusions and the evidence in the record were considered in making the findings and conclusions set forth above. To the extent that the suggested findings and conclusions filed by interested parties are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions set forth herein, the requests to make such findings or reach such conclusions are denied for the reasons previously stated in this decision.

General findings. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Recommended marketing agreement and order amending the order. The following order amending the order as amended regulating the handling of milk in the Puget Sound, Wash., marketing area is recommended as the detailed and appropriate means by which the foregoing conclusions may be carried out. The recommended marketing agreement is not included in this decision because the regulatory provisions thereof would be the same as those contained in the order, as hereby proposed to be amended:

§ 1125.6 [Amended]

1. In § 1125.6, the last paragraph is revised to read: "'District 1' shall include that portion of the marketing area in King, Pierce, and Snohomish Counties. 'District 2' shall include Thurston, Skagit, and Island Counties. 'District 3' shall include that portion of the marketing area in Grays Harbor, Lewis, Pacific, and Whatcom Counties. 'District 4' shall include San Juan County."

2. Section 1125.7 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1125.7 Plant.

"Plant" means the land, buildings, surroundings, facilities and equipment, whether owned or operated by one or more persons, constituting a single operating unit or establishment, which is maintained and operated primarily for the receiving, handling and/or processing of milk and milk products. The term "plant" does not include:

(a) "Bulk reload points" which comprise the buildings, premises and facilities, including facilities for washing tanks, used primarily as a location at which milk is transferred from one farm pickup tank truck to another or to an over-the-road tank truck. Any reload point approved for such use by an appropriate health authority and located on the premises of a plant engaging in other operations shall constitute a part of the operations of such plant.

(b) "Distribution points" which comprise the buildings, premises and storage facilities at which are stored, enroute in the course of disposition, fluid milk products that have been processed and packaged in consumer-type packages at a distributing plant. The following shall apply with respect to the operations of a distribution point:

(1) Operations of such a distribution point located on the premises of a nonpool plant or a supply plant shall not constitute a part of the operations of such plant; and

(2) Fluid milk products moved through a distribution point shall be classified on the basis of disposition from the distributing plant at which processed and packaged, unless the following conditions are met, in which case such products may be classified on the basis of disposition from such distribution point:

(i) Such distribution point is located west of the Cascade Mountain Range;

(ii) Fluid milk products are not received during the month at such distribution point from more than one plant; and

(iii) The handler operating such distributing plant notifies the market administrator of his intent to report regularly on the basis of disposition from such distribution point.

§ 1125.8 [Amended]

3. In the first sentence of § 1125.8(b) (pool plant definition) the parenthetical phrase "(including any reload point constituting a plant)" is revoked.

§ 1125.12 [Amended]

4. In § 1125.12, the word "and" is deleted where it appears at the end of paragraph (b)(2)(ii); at the end of paragraph (c) the period is changed to a semi colon and the word "and" is added; and a new paragraph (d) is added to read as follows:

(d) In the case of any bulk tank load of milk originating at farms and subsequently received in part at two or more plants, the proportion of the load received at each such plant shall be prorated among the individual producers on the basis of their percentage of the total load.

§ 1125.22 [Amended]

5. Section 1125.22 is amended as follows: The parenthetical phrases "(and within Class II, the utilization specified in § 1125.54(c))" and "(and within Class II, to the utilization specified in § 1125.54(c))" where they appear in paragraph (l) are revoked; and paragraph (k) is revised to read as follows:

(k) Publicly announce by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate the prices determined for each month as follows:

(1) On or before the 5th day of each month the minimum price for Class I milk pursuant to § 1125.51(a) and the Class I butterfat differential pursuant to § 1125.52, both for the current month, and the minimum price for Class II milk pursuant to § 1125.51(b) and Class III milk pursuant to § 1125.51(c) and the Class II and Class III butterfat differentials pursuant to § 1125.52, all for the preceding month; and

(2) On or before the 13th day of each month, the weighted average and uniform prices computed pursuant to §§ 1125.71 and 1125.72, the location adjustments for excess milk computed pursuant to § 1125.81(a)(2), and the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 1125.82, each applicable to milk received during the preceding month;

6. Section 1125.41 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1125.41 Classes of utilization.

Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 1125.42, 1125.43 and 1125.44, the classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(1) Disposed of in the form of a fluid milk product, subject to the following limitations and exceptions:

(i) Any products fortified with added nonfat milk solids shall be Class I in an amount equal only to the weight of an equal volume of a like unmodified product of the same butterfat content;

(ii) Fluid milk products in concentrated form shall be Class I in an amount equal to the skim milk and butterfat used to produce the quantity of such products disposed of; and

(iii) Products classified as Class II pursuant to paragraph (b)(3), and as Class III pursuant to paragraph (c)(3) and (4), of this section are excepted;

(2) Contained in monthly inventory variation of fluid milk products; and

(3) Not specifically accounted for as Class II or Class III utilization.

(b) Class II milk. Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat:

(2) Used to produce a product other than a fluid milk product as specified in paragraph (a)(1) of this section or a Class II product;

(3) In fluid milk products disposed of for livestock feed;

(4) In fluid milk products dumped after such prior notice and opportunity for verification as may be required by the market administrator;

(5) In shrinkage at each pool plant as computed pursuant to § 1125.42(b)(1) but not to exceed the following amount:

(i) Two percent of receipts in producer milk pursuant to § 1125.12(a)(1) and (2); plus

(ii) One and one-half percent of receipts of fluid milk products in bulk from other pool plants; plus

(iii) One and one-half percent of receipts from a cooperative association in its capacity as a handler pursuant to § 1125.10(f), except that if the handler operating the pool plant files notice with the market administrator that he is purchasing such milk on the basis of farm weights and individual producer tests, the applicable percentage shall be 2 percent; plus

(iv) One and one-half percent of receipts of fluid milk products in bulk from an other order plant, exclusive of the quantity for which Class II or Class III utilization was requested by the operator of such plant and the handler; plus

(v) One and one-half percent of receipts of fluid milk products in bulk from unregulated supply plants, exclusive of the quantity for which Class II or Class III utilization was requested by the handler; less

(vi) One and one-half percent of fluid milk products disposed of in bulk to other plants, except, in the case of milk diverted to a nonpool plant, if the operator of the plant to which the milk is diverted purchases such milk on the basis of farm weights and individual producer tests, the applicable percentage shall be 2 percent;

(6) In shrinkage at each pool plant as computed pursuant to § 1125.42(b)(2); and

(7) In shrinkage resulting from milk for which a cooperative association is the handler pursuant to § 1125.10 (e) or (f) not being delivered to pool plants and nonpool plants, but not in excess of one-half percent of such receipts, exclusive of those for which farm weights and individual producer tests are used as the basis of receipt at the plant to which delivered.

§ 1125.42 [Amended]

9. Section 1125.44 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1125.44 Interplant movements.

Skim milk and butterfat moved by transfer, and by diversion under paragraph (c) of this section, as fluid milk products from a pool plant shall be assigned (separately) to each class in the following manner:

(a) To a pool distributing plant: As Class I milk to the extent Class I milk is available at the transferee plant after computations pursuant to § 1125.46(a)(7) and the corresponding step of § 1125.46(b), subject to the following provisions:

(1) In the event the quantity transferred exceeds the total of receipts from producers and other pool plants at the transferor plant, such excess shall be assigned to the available milk in each class at the transferee plant in series beginning with Class III;

(2) If more than one transferor plant is involved, the available Class I milk shall first be assigned to pool plants located in District 1, and the counties of Pierce and Kitsap, and then in sequence to the plants at which the least location adjustment applies;

(3) If Class I milk is not available in amounts equal to the sum of the quantities to be assigned pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph to plants having the same location adjustments, the transferee handler may designate to which of such plants the available Class I milk shall be assigned;

(4) Notwithstanding the prior provisions of this paragraph, any such skim milk and butterfat transferred in bulk from a pool plant to a pool distributing plant in which facilities are maintained and used to receive milk or milk products required by applicable health authority regulations to be kept physically separate from Grade A milk shall be classified in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section; and

(5) If the transferor plant received during the month other source milk to be allocated pursuant to § 1125.46(a)(6) and (7) and the corresponding steps of § 1125.46(b), the skim milk and butterfat so transferred up to the total of such receipts shall not be classified as Class I milk to a greater extent than would be applicable to a like quantity of such other source milk received at the transferee plant.

(b) To a pool supply plant as Class III milk, subject to the following conditions:

(1) The skim milk or butterfat so assigned to Class III milk shall be limited to the amount thereof remaining in Class III milk in the transferee plant after computations pursuant to § 1125.46(a)(7) and the corresponding step of § 1125.46(b) for such plant, and any additional amounts of such skim milk or butterfat shall be assigned to Class II milk to the extent such utilization is available. Any additional amounts of such skim milk and butterfat shall be assigned to Class I milk and credited to transfers from transferor plants in the sequence at which the least location adjustment applies;

(2) If more than one transferor plant is involved, the available Class III and/or Class II milk shall first be assigned to transferor plants located outside District 1 and Kitsap and Pierce counties, and then in sequence to the plants at which the greatest location adjustment applies;

(3) If Class III and/or Class II milk is not available in amounts equal to the sum of the quantities to be assigned pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph to plants having the same location adjustments, the transferee handler may designate to which of such plants the available Class III and/or Class II shall be assigned; and

(c) To a nonpool plant:

(1) Except as provided for in subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph, as Class I milk, if transferred or diverted to a nonpool plant located outside the marketing area.

(2) As Class I milk, if transferred or diverted to a producer-handler as defined in any order (including this part) issued pursuant to the Act, or to the plant of such a producer-handler;

(3) As Class II milk to the extent such utilization is available and then to Class III milk, if transferred or diverted to a nonpool plant from which fluid milk products are not distributed on routes, subject to the following conditions:

(i) The transfer or diversion shall be classified as Class I milk unless the market administrator is permitted to audit the records of the nonpool plant for purposes of verification;

(ii) If such nonpool plant disposes of fluid milk products to any other nonpool plant distributing fluid milk products on routes, the transfer or diversion shall be classified as Class I milk up to the quantity of such disposition to the second nonpool plant; and

(4) As follows, if transferred to an other order plant in excess of receipts from such plant in the same category as described in subdivision (i), (ii), or (iii) of this subparagraph:

(i) If transferred in packaged form, classification shall be in the classes to which allocated as a fluid milk product under the other order;

(ii) If transferred in bulk form, classification shall be in Class I if allocated as a fluid milk product to Class I under the other order, in Class II if allocated to Class II under an order that provides three classes and in Class III if allocated to Class III under the other order or if allocated to Class II under the order that provides only two classes (including allocation under the conditions set forth in subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph);

(iii) If the operators of both the transferor and transferee plants so request in the reports of receipts and utilization filed with their respective market administrators, transfers in bulk form shall be classified as Class II or Class III to the extent of the Class II or Class III utilization (or comparable utilization under such other order) available for such assignment pursuant to the allocation provisions of the transferee order;

(iv) If information concerning the classification to which allocated under the other order is not available to the market administrator for purposes of establishing classification pursuant to this subparagraph, classification shall be as Class I, subject to adjustment when such information is available; and

(v) If the form in which any fluid milk product is transferred to an other order plant is not defined as a fluid milk product under such other order, classification shall be in accordance with the provisions of § 1125.41.

[Docket No. 7791; Notice 67-36]

PRIVATE PILOT SOLO CROSS-COUNTRY EXPERIENCE

Requirements for Applicants on Isolated Islands

The Federal Aviation Administration is considering amending Part 61 of the Federal Aviation Regulations to expand the scope of § 61.85(b) to cover all applicants for private pilot certificates who are located on isolated islands and can only complete the cross-country requirements of § 61.85(a)(3) by making long overwater flights.

Interested persons are invited to participate in the making of the proposed rule by submitting such written data, views, or arguments as they may desire. Communications should identify the regulatory docket or notice number and be submitted in duplicate to: Federal Aviation Administration, Office of the General Counsel, Attention: Rules Docket GC-24, 800 Independence Avenue SW.,

Washington, D.C. 20590. All communications received on or before October 9, 1967, will be considered by the Administrator before taking action on the proposed rule. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received. All comments submitted will be available, both before and after the closing date for comments, in the Rules Docket for examination by interested persons.

Section 61.85(b) was originally promulgated as SR-434 on July 9, 1959, in response to the petition of Naha Flying Club located on the island of Okinawa. Student pilots on that island could not comply with the requirement of a 100-mile solo cross-country flight and landing without conducting an extended overwater operation in a single-engine airplane. The purpose of this flight, i.e., development of navigational skills, seemed to be served just as well by a flight over the island itself. Therefore, SR-434 was promulgated to allow the issuance of private pilot certificates to applicants located on Okinawa who had not made the 100-mile flight, with a limitation on passenger carrying privileges to flights over that island.

Recently, the FAA received similar petitions for exemption from flying clubs on the islands of Kwajalein and Guam. The Kwajalein group has only one other airport available that is 50 miles away at the other end of the Kwajalein Atoll. The pilots on Guam meet the cross-country requirements by flying to Saipan, a 130-mile overwater flight. In addition, there may be other islands where pilots face difficulties in making cross-country flights. Therefore, it appears that the exception to the cross-country flight requirements in § 61.85 should be broadened to encompass any student pilot located on an island from which those flights cannot be accomplished without making long overwater flights. Since the FAA feels that a student pilot should not have to fly overwater more than 10 miles from the nearest shoreline, this proposal would use that distance to determine an applicant's eligibility under § 61.85(b).

This proposal differs from the present provisions of § 61.85(b) in two major respects. First, under the proposed rule the certificates of those pilots who do not meet the solo cross-country flight requirements of § 61.85(a) will contain a limitation prohibiting them from carrying passengers on flights that proceed more than 10 miles away from the shoreline. Second, under the proposed rule it would not be necessary to make the 100-mile solo flight, or log 10 hours of solo cross-country flights with landings at a place more than 25 miles from the point of departure, if such flights require overwater flights more than 10 miles from the nearest shoreline. The proposal would not require any of the private pilot cross-country experience requirements for student pilots in these situations. In lieu of the cross-country flight time, if other airports that permit civil operations are available, the applicant would be required to make two round trip solo flights between the two airports that are farthest apart.

In consideration of the foregoing, it is proposed to amend § 61.85 of the Federal Aviation Regulations by amending subparagraph (a)(3) and paragraphs (b) and (c), and by adding new paragraphs (d) and (e), to read as follows:

§ 61.85 Airplane rating: Aeronautical experience.

(3) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, at least 10 hours of solo cross-country flight time, during which each flight included a landing at a place more than 25 miles from the place of departure; and during which at least one flight included a landing at a place more than 100 miles from the place of departure; and

• • • • •

(b) Paragraph (a)(3) of this section does not apply to an applicant who shows that he is located on an island from which the required flights cannot be accomplished without flying over water more than 10 miles from the nearest shoreline. However, if other airports that permit civil operations are available to which a flight may be made without flying over water more than 10 miles from the nearest shoreline, he must show that he has completed two round trip solo flights between those two airports that are farthest apart, including a landing at each airport on both flights.

(c) The pilot certificate issued to a person under paragraph (b) of this section must contain the following limitation:

The holder may not pilot any aircraft carrying passengers on flights more than 10 miles from the nearest shoreline of [appropriate island].

The above limitation may be amended to include another island if the applicant complies with paragraph (b) of this section with respect to that island.

(d) If an applicant for a private pilot certificate under paragraph (b) of this section does not have at least 3 hours of solo cross-country flight time including a round trip flight to an airport at least 50 nautical miles from the place of departure with at least two full stop landings at different points along the route, his pilot certificate is endorsed as follows:

The holder does not meet the cross-country flight requirements of ICAO.

(e) The holder of a private pilot certificate with the limitation or endorsement prescribed in paragraph (c) or (d) of this section, is entitled to have that limitation or endorsement removed if he passes the test prescribed by § 61.87(b)(3) and presents satisfactory evidence to an FAA inspector that he has complied with the requirements of paragraph (a)(3) of this section.

These amendments are proposed under the authority of sections 313(a), 601, and 602 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, 1422).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on August 4, 1967.

Director, Flight Standards Service.

As a result of the development of VOR and VOR/DME public instrument approach procedures to serve the new east, west runway at Kansas City, Mo., Mid-Continent International Airport, utilizing the Kansas City VORTAC as a navigational aid, it is necessary to alter the control zone at this airport in order to protect aircraft that will be executing these approach procedures.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Federal Aviation Administration proposes to amend Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations as hereinafter set forth:

In § 71.171 (32 F.R. 2071), the following control zone is amended to read:

KANSAS CITY, MO.

That airspace within a 5-mile radius of Mid-Continent International Airport (latitude 39°18'05" N., longitude 94°43'35" W.), and within 2 miles each side of the Kansas City VORTAC 276° radial extending from the VORTAC to 14 miles west of the VORTAC, excluding that portion which coincides with the Kansas City, Mo., and Leavenworth, Kans., control zones.

This amendment is proposed under the authority of section 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1348).

Issued at Kansas City, Mo., on July 21, 1967.

TRANSITION AREA

Proposed Alteration

The Federal Aviation Administration is considering amending Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations so as to alter the transition area at Springfield, Mo.

Interested persons may participate in the proposed rule making by submitting such written data, views, or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Director, Central Region, Attention: Chief, Air Traffic Division, Federal Aviation Administration, Federal Building, 601 East 12th Street, Kansas City, Mo. 64106. All communications received within 45 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Administration officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Division Chief. Any data, views, or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

A public docket will be available for examination by interested persons in the Office of the Regional Counsel, Federal Aviation Administration, Federal Building, 601 East 12th Street, Kansas City, Mo. 64106.

Turbojet and turboprop aircraft operations are on the increase in the Springfield, Mo., terminal area. In order to improve air traffic service in this terminal area, it is necessary to establish additional holding patterns for these aircraft and to alter the 1,200-foot floor transition area at Springfield, Mo., to encompass these holding patterns. The present 700-foot floor transition area at Springfield will not be changed as a result of this proposal.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Federal Aviation Administration proposes to amend Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations as hereinafter set forth:

In § 71.181 (32 F.R. 2148), the following transition area is amended to read:

SPRINGFIELD, MO.

That airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface within a 7-mile radius of the Springfield, Mo., Municipal Airport (latitude 37°14'35" N., longitude 93°23'20" W.); within 2 miles each side of the 324° bearing from the Springfield RBN, extending from the 7-mile radius area to 8 miles northwest of the RBN; within 5 miles west and 8 miles east of the Springfield ILS localizer south course, extending from 1 mile north to 12 miles south of the OM; and that airspace extending upward from 1,200 feet above the surface within a 25-mile radius area of the Springfield Municipal Airport; within 7 miles northwest and 10 miles southeast of the Springfield VORTAC 210° radial, extending from the 25-mile radius area to 44 miles southwest of the VORTAC; within 7 miles northwest and 10 miles southeast of the Springfield VORTAC 240° radial, extending from the 25-mile radius area to 37 miles southwest of the VORTAC; within 7 miles south and 10 miles north of the Springfield VORTAC 261° radial, extending from the 25-mile radius area to 51 miles west of the VORTAC; within a 25-mile radius area of the Springfield VORTAC; within 7 miles northeast and 10 miles southwest of the Springfield VORTAC 237° radial, extending from the 25-mile radius area to 40 miles northwest of the VORTAC; within 7 miles southeast and 10 miles northwest of the Springfield VORTAC 028° radial, extending from the 25-mile radius area to 41 miles northeast of the VORTAC; within 7 miles southeast and 10 miles northwest of the Springfield VORTAC 058° radial, extending from the 25-mile radius area to 44 miles northeast of the VORTAC; and within 8 miles southeast and 11 miles northwest of the Dogwood, Mo., VORTAC 053° and 233° radials, extending from 7 miles northeast to 14 miles southwest of the VORTAC.

This amendment is proposed under the authority of Section 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1348).

Issued at Kansas City, Mo., on July 21, 1967.

CONTROL ZONE AND TRANSITION AREA

Proposed Alteration

The Federal Aviation Administration is considering amending Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations so as to alter the control zone and the transition area at Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Interested persons may participate in the proposed rule making by submitting such written data, views, or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Director, Central Region, Attention: Chief, Air Traffic Division, Federal Aviation Administration, Federal Building, 601 East 12th Street, Kansas City, Mo. 64106. All communications received within 45 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Administration officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Division Chief. Any data, views, or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

A public docket will be available for examination by interested persons in the Office of the Regional Counsel, Federal Aviation Administration, Federal Building, 601 East 12th Street, Kansas City, Mo. 64106.

Due to a one-degree change in the radial for the VOR Runway 8 approach procedure to Cedar Rapids Municipal Airport and the modification of the NDB (ADF), ILS and VOR approach procedures to this airport by placing the procedure turns on the south side of the approach courses, it is necessary to alter the Cedar Rapids control zone and 700-foot floor transition area to protect aircraft executing these approach procedures. It is also proposed to alter the Cedar Rapids 1,200-foot floor transition area and add a 3,500-foot MSL floor transition area in order to permit the Chicago Air Route Traffic Control Center to provide more efficient air traffic radar vectoring services to aircraft operating in the Cedar Rapids and Iowa City, Iowa, terminal areas.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Federal Aviation Administration proposes to amend Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations as hereinafter set forth:

(1) In § 71.171 (32 F.R. 2071), the following control zone is amended to read:

CEDAR RAPIDS, IOWA

That airspace within a 5-mile radius of Cedar Rapids Municipal Airport (latitude 41°53'05" N., longitude 91°42'45" W.), within 2 miles each side of the Cedar Rapids ILS localizer west course extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 8 miles west of the OM, within 2 miles each side of the Cedar Rapids, Iowa, VORTAC 264° radial extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 8 miles west of the VORTAC, and within 2 miles each side of the Cedar Rapids VORTAC 092° radial extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 9.5 miles east of the VORTAC.

(2) In § 71.181 (32 F.R. 2148), the following transition area is amended to read:

CEDAR RAPIDS, IOWA

That airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface within a 7-mile radius of Cedar Rapids Municipal Airport (latitude 41°53'05" N., longitude 91°42'45" W.), and within 5 miles north and 10 miles south of the Cedar Rapids, Iowa, VORTAC 090° and 270° radials extending from 3 miles east to 13 miles west of the VORTAC; and that airspace extending upward from 1,200 feet above the surface within an area bounded by a line beginning at latitude 42°05'00" N., longitude 91°00'00" W., thence south along longitude 91°00'00" W., to and west along the north edge of V-434, to and north along longitude 92°00'00" W., to latitude 41°21'00" N., thence northwest along a line extending from latitude 41°21'00" N., longitude 92°00'-00" W., to latitude 41°30'00" N., longitude 92°15'00" W., thence north along longitude 92°15'00" W., to and west along the north edge of V-6, to and northeast along the southeast edge of V–294, to and north along longitude 92°15'00" W., to and east along latitude 43°06'00" N., to the point of beginning; and that airspace extending upward from 3,500 feet MSL within an area bounded on the north by the arc of a 29-mile radius circle centered on the Waterloo, Iowa, VORTAC, on the east by longitude 92°15'00" W., on the south by the north edge of V–172, on the west by longitude 93°53'00" W., and on the northwest by the southeast edge of V–161, and within an area bounded on the north by the south edge of V–172, on the east by longitude 92°15'00" W., on the southeast and south by the northwest and north edge of V–294, and on the west by longitude 92°53'00" W.

These amendments are proposed under the authority of section 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1348).

Issued at Kansas City, Mo., on June 15, 1967.

CONTROL ZONE AND TRANSITION AREA

Proposed Designation and Alteration

The Federal Aviation Administration is considering amending Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations so as to designate a control zone and alter the transition area at Mitchell, S. Dak.

Interested persons may participate in the proposed rule making by submitting such written data, views, or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Director, Central Region, Attention: Chief, Air Traffic Division, Federal Aviation Administration, Federal Building, 601 East 12th Street, Kansas City, Mo. 64106. All communications received within 45 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendments. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Administration officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Division Chief. Any data, views, or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposals contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

A public docket will be available for examination by interested persons in the Office of the Regional Counsel, Federal Aviation Administration, Federal Building, 601 East 12th Street, Kansas City, Mo. 64106.

Since qualified personnel of North Central Airlines have agreed to provide weather reporting services at the Mitchell, S. Dak., Municipal Airport on a daily part-time basis, a part-time control zone can be designated at this location. The weather reporting services will be provided during the hours that the control zone is effective, initially from 0600 to 2100 hours local time daily. The proposed control zone, during the times it is in effect, will provide controlled airspace protection for departing aircraft in their climb to 700 feet above the surface and for aircraft executing the prescribed instrument approach procedures during descent below 1,000 feet above the surface. In addition, the VOR special instrument approach procedures for Runways 12/30 and the VOR public instrument approach procedure for Runway 12 for the Mitchell, S. Dak., Municipal Airport have been modified. Therefore, it is necessary to alter the Mitchell transition area to protect aircraft executing these revised approach procedures.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Federal Aviation Administration proposes to amend Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations as hereinafter set forth:

(1) In § 71.171 (32 F.R. 2071), the following control zone is added:

MITCHELL, S. DAK.

Within a 5-mile radius of Mitchell Municipal Airport (latitude 43°46'25" N., longitude 98°02'26" W.); within 2 miles each side of the Mitchell VOR 149° radial, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 8 miles southeast of the VOR; and within 2 miles each side of the Mitchell VOR 300° radial, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 8 miles northwest of the VOR. This control zone is effective during the specific times established in advance by a Notice to Airmen. The effective date and time will thereafter be continuously published in the Airmen's Information Manual.

(2) In § 71.181 (32 F.R. 2148), the following transition area is amended to read:

MITCHELL, S. DAK.

That airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface within a 9-mile radius of Mitchell Municipal Airport (latitude 43°46'25" N., longitude 98°02'26" W.); and that airspace extending upward from 1,200 feet above the surface within 6 miles northeast and 10 miles southwest of the Mitchell VOR 300° radial, extending from the VOR to 19 miles northwest of the VOR; within 4 miles southwest and 8 miles northeast of the Mitchell VOR 149° radial, extending from the VOR to 12 miles southeast of the VOR; and within 5 miles each side of the Mitchell VOR 120° radial extending from the VOR to 12 miles southeast of the VOR.

These amendments are proposed under the authority of section 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1348).

Issued in Kansas City, Mo., on July 21, 1967.

EDWARD C. MARSH,
Director, Central Region.

REGROOVED TIRES

Sale or Delivery for Introduction in Interstate Commerce

On September 9, 1966, the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1966 (the Act) was enacted. Section 204 (a) of the Act prohibits any person from selling, offering for sale, or introducing for sale or delivering for introduction in interstate commerce, any tire or motor vehicle equipped with any tire which has been regrooved. Subsection (b) of section 204 makes violators of the section subject to civil penalties and injunction. Section 204(a) allows the Secretary to permit the sale of regrooved tires if they are designed and constructed in a manner consistent with the purposes of the Act. One request for permission to sell regrooved tires was received July 13, 1967.

Preliminary investigation indicates that regrooved tires are still being used, particularly on commercial vehicles.

Section 110 of the Act provides that "whenever practicable, the Secretary shall give notice to any person against whom an action for injunctive relief is contemplated and afford him an opportunity to present his views, * * *".

Pursuant to the provisions of sections 204(a), 204(b), and 110(a) of the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1966, anyone who sells, offers for sale, or introduces for sale or delivery for introduction into interstate commerce any tire or motor vehicle equipped with any tire that has been regrooved is hereby given opportunity to present views, information and data as to why the Secretary should not seek an injunction in a U.S. district court to restrain such action. Persons subject to this notice are further offered the opportunity to supply information and data which, to their best knowledge and belief, would form the basis for a request to the Secretary to permit the sale of regrooved tires pursuant to section 204(a) of the Act. Such information and data should include but not be limited to the safety of such tires under the following conditions or combinations of conditions, for the full range of highway operating speeds:

Wet, dry or icy surfaces;

Rigid or flexible pavements; and Various vertical and horizontal highway alignments.

An original and 15 copies of statements in response to this notice shall be filed no later than the close of business August 31, 1967, with the National Highway Safety Bureau, Washington, D.C. 20591.

Any other person may also submit written statements in response to this notice.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on August 2, 1967.

Federal Highway Administrator.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Docket No. 18730; Order No. E-25488]

AIR CARRIER DISCUSSIONS

Order Concerning Air Freight Credit, Billing and Collection Practices

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 3d day of August 1967.

By petition filed July 5, 1967, the Air Freight Forwarders Association (AFFA) on behalf of its 29 members[1] requests approval for joint meetings between the forwarders and the direct air carriers to discuss air freight credit, billing and collection practices, and for meetings among the air freight forwarders themselves involving the same matters. AFFA cites the recent order[2] of the Board authorizing discussions among the direct air carriers on the same subject and states that the matters to be discussed are of concern to the forwarders in their role as customers of the airlines. In addition, AFFA states its belief that the forwarders should sit jointly with the direct air carriers to consider expansion of the airlines' interline settlement plan (clearing house) to include forwarders, as well as the prospect of the total air freight industry reaching a common agreement on some or all of the practices applicable to the customers of the whole industry, such as uniform credit and billing arrangements, and customer credit criteria. AFFA states that is would undertake to notify all Board-authorized AFFA-nonmember forwarders of all meetings, invite them to attend and participate fully in the discussions, and to become signatories to any agreements reached.

No objection to the AFFA petition has been received.[3]

Upon consideration of the request, the Board will authorize the domestic air freight forwarders to discuss and agree on their credit practices and rules. It is reasonable and desirable that the forwarders, as an industry, strive for uniform rules and practices,[4] with respect to themselves and their customers, and it is evident that any revision of direct air carrier rules and practices might necessitate a revision by the forwarders. The Board does not agree, however, that forwarders and airlines must jointly establish uniform credit and billing rules and practices with respect to their mutual customers.[5] We would note in this regard that the direct carriers have not expressed an interest in attempting to develop a joint direct-indirect air carrier agreement. It is appropriate, however, for the forwarders to appear at the meetings of the direct air carriers, and, since the Board's prior order (E-25340, supra), provides for shipper and indirect air carrier comments and appearances, no revision of the terms of the Board's prior order is necessary or warranted in this respect.

It is not the intent of the Board, however, to preclude joint exploration of a form of interline settlement between forwarders and airlines.

Accordingly, pursuant to the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, and particularly sections 204(a), 412, and 414 thereof,

It is ordered, That:

1. All air freight forwarders engaged in interstate or overseas air transportation are authorized for a period of 120 days from the date of this order to engage in discussions with respect to air freight credit, billing, and collection practices in interstate or overseas air transportation;

2. A notice of any meeting called pursuant to this order to be attended by air freight forwarders only, and an agenda of matters to be discussed, shall be filed with the Board in this docket at least 5 calendar days in advance;

3. A notice of any meeting called pursuant to this order to be attended by both air freight forwarders and shippers, and an agenda of matters to be discussed, shall be filed with the Board in this docket at least 15 calendar days in advance;

4. All meeting notices and agendas shall also be mailed to shippers and all air freight forwarders with such notice to include an invitation to submit comments upon the agenda matters and to request appointments for personal appearances at the carriers' meetings;

5. The Board reserves the right to have one or more observers in attendance at all meetings of the carriers;

6. Complete and accurate minutes shall be kept of all meetings and a true copy thereof filed with the Board not later than 15 days (excluding Saturdays and Sundays) after the conclusion of each meeting;

7. Any agreement or agreements reached as a result of such discussions shall be filed with the Board in accordance with section 412 of the Act and approved by the Board prior to being placed into effect; and

Inc., H. G. Ollendorff, Inc., Pacific Air Freight, Inc., Panalpina Air Freight, Inc., Penson Forwarding Corp., Routed Thru-Pac, Inc., Traffic Dynamics, Inc., WTC Air Freight.

[2] Order E-25340 dated June 23, 1967, Docket 18720.

[3] Several shippers have advised the Board that they would like to be notified of the carrier meetings in order to attend and present their views.

[4] An agreement on uniform credit, billing, and collection practices is currently in effect among 18 forwarders (Agreement CAB 16648, approved by the Board on Oct. 10, 1962, Order E-18896).

[5] As to credit, billing, and collection periods, the current forwarder agreement cited in [4] above is unlike the existing direct air carrier agreement referred to in Order E-25340, supra (Agreement CAB 6150-A32, approved by the Board on September 4, 1962, Order E-18769). The airline agreement was filed with the Board on Aug. 13, 1962, followed by the forwarder agreement 18 days later (Aug. 31, 1962), and in most respects, the forwarder agreement is more liberal than the airline agreement.

8. The petition of Air Freight Forwarders Association in Docket 18720 is denied in all other respects.

This order will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Secretary.

[Docket No. 18753; Order No. E-25492]

FLORIDA AIR TAXI, INC.

Order To Show Cause; Establishment of Final Service Rate for Transportation of Mail

Issued under delegated authority August 4, 1967.

Florida Air Taxi, Inc. (Florida), an air taxi operator providing air transportation under the provisions of Part 298 of the Board's Economic Regulations, by petition filed June 30, 1967, has requested the Board to establish a final service mail rate of 6 cents per pound for the transportation of mail by aircraft between Gainesville and Fort Myers on the one hand, and Tampa, Fla., on the other.

In its petition requesting establishment of this final service mail rate, Florida states it considers its proposed rate to be fair and reasonable for the services performed. In its answer, the Post Office Department supports the proposed rate, and states that the proposed service will provide substantially better mail service than can be obtained under the existing transportation arrangements. No objection has been filed to the level of the proposed rate.

By Order E-25491, August 4, 1967, in this docket, the Board determined to permit Florida to provide the proposed air transportation of mail for the period terminating December 31, 1968. Since no mail rate is presently in effect for this carrier, it is necessary to fix and determine the fair and reasonable rate of compensation to be paid Florida by the Postmaster General for the air transportation of mail.

The Board, therefore, finds it in the public interest to fix and determine the fair and reasonable rate of compensation to be paid to Florida by the Postmaster General for the transportation of mail by aircraft, the facilities used and useful therefor, and the services connected therewith, between the aforesaid points. Upon consideration of the petition, the Postmaster General's answer thereto, and matters officially noticed, the Board proposes to issue an order[1] to include the following findings and conclusions:

1. That the fair and reasonable final service mail rate to be paid to Florida Air Taxi, Inc., pursuant to Section 406 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 for the transportation of mail by aircraft, as authorized by Order E-25491, August 4, 1967, the facilities used and useful therefor, and the services connected therewith shall be six cents per pound for all mail transported.

2. The final service mail rate here fixed and determined is to be paid in its entirety by the Postmaster General.

Accordingly, pursuant to the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 and particularly sections 204(a) and 406 thereof, the regulations promulgated in 14 CFR 302, and the authority delegated by the Board in 14 CFR 385.14(f),

It is ordered, That:

1. All interested persons and particularly Florida Air Taxi, Inc., the Postmaster General, National Airlines, Inc., and Eastern Air Lines, Inc., are directed to show cause why the Board should not adopt the foregoing proposed findings and conclusions and fix, determine, and publish the final rate specified above as the fair and reasonable rate of compensation to be paid to Florida Air Taxi, Inc., for the transportation of mail by aircraft, the facilities used and useful therefor and the services connected therewith as specified above;

2. Further procedures herein shall be in accordance with 14 CFR Part 302; and, if there is any objection to the rate or to the other findings and conclusions proposed herein, notice thereof shall be filed within 10 days, and if notice is filed, written answer and supporting documents shall be filed within 30 days after the date of service of this order;

3. If notice of objection is not filed within 10 days, or if notice is filed and if answer is not filed within 30 days after service of this order, all persons shall be deemed to have waived the right to a hearing and all other procedural steps short of a final decision by the Board, and the Board may enter an order incorporating the findings and conclusions proposed herein and fix and determine the final rate specified herein;

4. If answer is filed presenting issues for hearing, the issues involved in determining the fair and reasonable final rate shall be limited to those specifically raised by the answer, except insofar as other issues are raised in accordance with Rule 307 of the rules of practice (14 CFR 302.307); and

5. This order shall be served upon Florida Air Taxi, Inc., the Postmaster General, National Airlines, Inc., and Eastern Air Lines, Inc.

This order will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[SEAL] HAROLD R. SANDERSON,
Secretary.

[F.R. Doc. 67-9381; Filed, Aug. 9, 1967; 8:49 a.m.]

[1] As this order to show cause does not constitute a final action and merely affords interested persons an opportunity to be heard on the matters herein proposed, it is not regarded as subject to the review provisions of Part 385 (14 CFR, Part 385). The provisions of that Part dealing with petitions for Board review will be applicable to any final action which may be taken by the staff in this matter under authority delegated in section 385.14(g).

ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

[Docket No. PRM-40-11]

FENWAL, INC.

Notice of Filing of Petition for Rule Making

Notice is hereby given that Fenwal Incorporated, Ashland, Mass., by letter dated May 19, 1967, supplemented by letters dated June 7, 1967, and July 20, 1967, has filed with the Commission a petition for rule making to amend the Commission's regulations pertaining to the licensing of source material.

The petitioner requests that the Commission amend its regulation "Licensing of Source Material," 10 CFR Part 40 so as to increase the quantity of uranium which is exempt from licensing requirements pursuant to § 40.13(d) of 10 CFR Part 40. The petitioner requests that the quantity of uranium specified in § 40.13 (d) for use in fire detection units be increased from 0.005 microcurie to one microcurie of uranium.

The petitioner states that "the basis for the request is that with the increased quantity, the cost and reliability of the detector could be appreciably improved and, with the proposed method of bonding the uranium to the substrate as described in the petition, there will be no safety hazard."

The petitioner states that it has considered several types of alpha sources and has selected U^{nat} as giving a "sufficient amount of ionisation current per given area along with a reasonable half life."

A copy of the petition for rule making is available for public inspection in the Commission's Public Document Room at 1717 H Street NW., Washington, D.C.

Dated at Washington, D.C., this fourth day of August 1967.

[APTA No. 6-001]

CERTAIN WORKERS OF FORD MOTOR CO., PENNSAUKEN, N.J.

Notice of Investigation Regarding Possible Termination of Certification

On April 14, 1966, the Automotive Agreement Adjustment Assistance Board certified a group of workers of the Ford Motor Co., Delaware Valley Parts Depot, Pennsauken, N.J., as eligible to apply for adjustment assistance (31 F.R. 5982). The Board has reason to believe that the operation of the United States-Canadian Automotive Products Agreement is no longer the primary factor in causing separations of workers from this subdivision of the firm. Therefore, in accordance with the Board regulations (48 CFR 501.15), the Board is initiating an investigation to determine whether the certification should be terminated. If the investigation should result in a termination, it will not affect any workers who have already been certified.

Interested persons may make written submission of their views within 10 days of the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The Board may also provide an opportunity to present views orally if anyone so requests within the 10-day period.

Written submission or requests to present views orally should be addressed to Edgar I. Eaton, Executive Secretary, Automotive Agreement Adjustment Assistance Board, c/o U.S. Department of Labor, 14th and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D.C. 20210.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket Nos. G-3894 etc.]

ATLANTIC RICHFIELD CO. ET AL.

Findings and Order After Statutory Hearing

JULY 31, 1967.

Findings and orders after statutory hearing issuing certificates of public convenience and necessity, canceling docket numbers, amending certificates, permitting and approving abandonment of service, terminating certificates, canceling rate schedule, redesignating proceeding, and accepting related rate schedules and supplements for filing.

Each of the Applicants listed herein has filed an application pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the sale and delivery of natural gas in interstate commerce, for permission and approval to abandon service, or a petition to amend an existing certificate authorization, all as more fully described in the respective applications and petitions (and any supplements or amendments thereto) which are on file with the Commission.

The Applicants herein have filed related FPC gas rate schedules and propose to initiate or abandon, add or delete natural gas service in interstate commerce as indicated by the tabulation herein. All sales certificated herein are at rates either equal to or below the ceiling prices established by the Commission's statement of general policy No. 61-1, as amended, or involve sales for which permanent certificates have been previously issued; except that the sales from the Permian Basin area of Texas are authorized to be made below the applicable area base rates and under the conditions prescribed in Opinion Nos. 468 and 468-A.

By order issued June 21, 1966, in Docket Nos. G-6832 et al., a certificate of public convenience and necessity was issued in Docket No. CI66-1054 to H. B. Lively authorizing the continuation in part of the sale of natural gas theretofore authorized in Docket No. CI61-353 to be made pursuant to Harold R. Billingsley, trustee, et al., FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 2. The contract comprising said rate schedule was also accepted for filing as H. B. Lively FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 4. Billingsley has advised the Commission that Lively has succeeded to the entire interests covered by Billingsley's certificate and rate schedule. Therefore, the certificate issued in Docket No. CI61-535 will be terminated, the related rate schedule will be canceled, and the certificate in Docket No. CI66-1054 will be amended to denote a complete succession in interest.

The Commission's staff has reviewed each application and recommends each action ordered as consistent with all substantive Commission policies and required by the public convenience and necessity.

After due notice, a petition to intervene by Long Island Lighting Co. and a notice of intervention by the Public Service Commission of the State of New York were filed in Docket No. CI67-46, in the matter of the application filed on July 14, 1966, in said docket. The petition to intervene and the notice of intervention have been withdrawn, and no other petitions to intervene, notices of intervention, or protests to the granting of any of the respective applications or petitions in this order have been received.

The Commission finds:

(1) Each Applicant herein is a "natural-gas company" within the meaning of the Natural Gas Act as heretofore found by the Commission or will be engaged in the sale of natural gas in interstate commerce for resale for ultimate public consumption, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, and will therefore, be a "natural-gas company" within the meaning of said Act upon the commencement of the service under the respective authorizations granted hereinafter.

(2) The sales of natural gas hereinbefore described, as more fully described in the respective applications, amendments and/or supplements herein, will be made in interstate commerce, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, and such sales by the respective Applicants, together with the construction and operation of any facilities subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission necessary therefor, are subject to the requirements of subsections (c) and (e) of section 7 of the Natural Gas Act.

(4) The sales of natural gas by the respective Applicants, together with the construction and operation of any facilities subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission necessary therefor, are required by the public convenience and necessity and certificates therefore should be issued as hereinafter ordered and conditioned.

(5) It is necessary and appropriate in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that Docket Nos. CI67-1525, CI67-1574, and CI67-1656 should be canceled and that the applications filed herein should be processed as petitions to amend the certificates heretofore issued in Docket Nos. CI64-1349, G-10158, and CI65-925, respectively.

(6) It is necessary and appropriate in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act and the public convenience and necessity require that the certificate authorizations heretofore issued by the Commission in Docket Nos. Billingsley, trustee, et al., FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 2 should be canceled, and that the certificate in Docket No. CI66-1054 should be amended as hereinafter ordered.

(9) The sales of natural gas proposed to be abandoned by the respective Applicants, as hereinbefore described, all as more fully described in the respective applications and in the tabulation herein, are subject to the requirements of subsection (b) of section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, and such abandonments should be permitted and approved as hereinafter ordered.

(B) The certificates granted in paragraph (A) above are not transferable and shall be effective only so long as Applicants continue the acts or operations hereby authorized in accordance with the provisions of the Natural Gas Act and the applicable rules, regulations, and orders of the Commission.

(C) The grant of the certificates issued in paragraph (A) above shall not be construed as a waiver of the requirements of section 4 of the Natural Gas Act or of Part 154 or Part 157 of the Commission's regulations thereunder, and is without prejudice to any findings or orders which have been or may hereafter be made by the Commission in any proceedings now pending or hereafter instituted by or against the respective Applicants. Further, our action in this proceeding shall not foreclose nor prejudice any further proceedings or objections relating to the operation of any price or related provisions in the gas purchase contracts herein involved. Nor shall the grant of the certificates aforesaid for service to the particular customers involved imply approval of all of the terms of the respective contracts particularly as to the cessation of service upon termination of said contracts, as provided by section 7(b) of the Natural Gas Act. Nor shall the grant of the certificates aforesaid be construed to preclude the imposition of any sanctions pursuant to the provisions of the Natural Gas Act for the unauthorized commencement of any sales of natural gas subject to said certificates.

(D) The grant of the certificates issued herein on all applications filed after April 15, 1965, is upon the condition that no increase in rate which would exceed the ceiling prescribed for the given area by paragraph (d) of the Commission's statement of general policy No. 61-1, as amended, shall be filed prior to the applicable date, as indicated by footnote 27 in the attached tabulation.

(E) The initial rates for sales authorized in Docket Nos. G-3894 and G-7223 shall be the applicable base area rates prescribed in Opinion No. 468, as modified by Opinion No. 468-A, as adjusted for quality, or the contract rates, whichever are lower; and no increases in rate in excess of said initial rates shall be filed before January 1, 1968.

G-3894 and G-7223 deviates at any time from the quality standards set forth in Opinion No. 468, as modified by Opinion No. 468-A, so as to require a downward adjustment of the existing rate, a notice of change in rate shall be filed pursuant to the provisions of section 4 of the Natural Gas Act: Provided, however, That adjustments reflecting changes in B.t.u. content of the gas shall be computed by the applicable formula and charged without the filing of notices of changes in rate.

(G) Within 90 days from the date of initial delivery Applicants in Docket Nos. G-3894 and G-7223 shall file rate schedule quality statements in the form prescribed in Opinion No. 468-A.

(H) The initial rate for sales authorized in Docket Nos. CI67-495, CI67-993, and CI67-1500 shall be 15 cents per Mcf at 14.65 p.s.i.a., including tax reimbursement, plus B.t.u. adjustment; however, in the event that the Commission amends its policy statement No. 61-1, by adjusting the boundary between the Panhandle area and the "Other" Oklahoma area so as to increase the initial wellhead price for new gas in the area involved herein, Applicants thereupon may substitute the new rates reflecting the amount of such increases, and thereafter collect such new rates prospectively in lieu of the initial rate herein required.

(I) The certificates issued herein in Docket Nos. CI67-1587 and CI67-1617 are subject to the following conditions:

(1) It is the express understanding of all parties involved in the subject sale that the pricing provisions of the contract covering said sale are intended to be consistent, and not in conflict, with the provisions of section 154.93 of the regulations under the Natural Gas Act, and in particular with paragraph (b-1) of said section, which paragraph was added by the Commission's Order No. 329, issued December 1, 1966, in Docket No. R-296, and reads as follows:

Section 154.93 rate schedule defined. * * * the permissible provisions for a change in rate are: * * * (b-1) Provisions that permit a change in price to the applicable just and reasonable area ceiling rate which has been, or which may be, prescribed by the Commission for the quality of the gas involved; and

(2) The initial rate shall not exceed 15 cents per Mcf at 14.65 p.s.i.a. adjusted for B.t.u. content of the gas as provided for in the contracts.

(3) In the event the Commission, by amendment of its policy statement No. 61-1, adjusts the boundary between the Panhandle area and the "Other" Oklahoma area so as to increase the initial wellhead price for new gas in the area of the sales involved herein, Applicants may thereupon substitute the new rates reflecting the amount of such increases, and thereafter collect the new rates prospectively in lieu of the initial rate herein required.

(J) A certificate is issued herein in Docket No. CI67-1462 authorizing Applicant to continue the sale of natural gas which was initiated without prior Commission authorization by the predecessor.

(K) A certificate is issued herein in Docket No. CI67-1694 authorizing Applicant to continue the sale of natural gas which was initiated without prior Commission authorization.

(L) Applicant in Docket No. CI67-1555 shall file three copies of a revised billing statement reflecting a rate of 15 cents per Mcf at 14.65 p.s.i.a.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

INCOME FUND OF BOSTON, INC., ET AL.

Notice of Application for Temporary Exemption

AUGUST 4, 1967.

Notice is hereby given that an application has been filed pursuant to section 6(c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act") by The Income Fund of Boston, Inc. ("Fund"), its investment adviser, Boston Administrative & Research Co., Inc. ("Adviser"), and Securities Co. of Massachusetts Inc. ("Securities"), 581 Boylston Street, Boston, Mass., the sole underwriter of the Fund, requesting an order of the Commission exempting Adviser and the Fund from the requirements of sections 15(a) and 15(c) of the Act respectively, during the period from May 24, 1967, to and including the final adjournment of the special meeting of shareholders to be held on August 31, 1967, and exempting Securities from the requirements of section 15(b) for the period from May 24, 1967, to May 31, 1967. All interested persons are referred to the application which is on file with the Commission for a statement of the representations therein which are summarized below.

The investment advisory agreement between the Fund and Adviser and the distribution contract between the Fund and Securities contain the provisions required by section 15 of the Act that they shall terminate automatically in the event of their "assignment", which under the Act includes any direct or indirect transfer of a controlling block of the outstanding voting securities of the investment adviser or the principal underwriter.

On May 24, 1967, Joseph Furst, holder of all the outstanding capital stock of Adviser and Securities died at Boston, Mass., leaving a will. The stock of Adviser and Securities is presently held as an asset of the estate of Joseph Furst to be administered by the executors named in the will. Four executors are designated to serve under the will, of whom one is a director and chief executive officer of the Fund, Adviser and Securities; one is an officer and director of each such corporation; and two are directors of the Adviser.

On May 31, 1967, the Board of Directors of the Fund by affirmative vote of the directors who were not also directors or officers of Adviser approved continuation of the present investment advisory contract with Adviser pending approval by the shareholders of the Fund of a new investment advisory contract at the special meeting of shareholders to be held August 31, 1967. In addition, those directors of the Fund who were not also directors or officers of Securities voted to approve and authorize execution of a new distribution contract with Securities containing terms and conditions identical to the distribution contract which automatically terminated when Mr. Furst died.

This application for exemption is conditioned upon the undertaking of each of the applicants to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission such additional applications for exemption and of the Fund to secure such further approval of its shareholders as may be required under the Act in connection with any transfer or distribution, in whole or in part, by the executors under the will of Joseph Furst of the capital stock of the Adviser and of the Underwriter, respectively, presently held as assets of said estate as hereinabove set forth.

Section 15(a) of the Act provides, among other things, that it shall be unlawful for any person to serve or act as an investment adviser of a registered investment company except pursuant to a written contract which has been approved by the vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities of such registered investment company and provides in substance for its automatic termination in the event of its assignment by the investment adviser.

Section 15(b) provides, among other things, that it shall be unlawful for any principal underwriter for a registered open-end company to offer for sale, sell or deliver after sale any security of which such company is the issuer except pursuant to a written contract with such company, which contract shall provide for its automatic termination in the event of assignment by such underwriter.

Section 15(c) provides, among other things, that it is unlawful for any registered investment company having a board of directors to enter into, renew, or perform any investment advisory or underwriting contract unless the terms of the contract and any renewal thereof are approved by a majority of the directors who are not parties to such contract or affiliated persons of any such party or by the vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities of such company.

Fund and Securities request an order exempting Securities from the provisions of section 15(b) for the period from May 24, 1967, to and including the close of business on May 31, 1967, because Securities received and accrued income from the sale of shares of the Fund during that period when no written underwriting contract was in effect.

Fund and Adviser request the order exempting Adviser and Fund from the provisions of section 15(a) and 15(c) of the Act respectively, in order that the normal operations of Fund may continue without interruption pending approval by Fund's shareholders of a new advisory contract.

Section 6(c) of the Act provides that the Commission, by order upon application, may conditionally or unconditionally exempt any person or transaction from any provision of the Act or of any rule or regulation thereunder, if and to the extent that such exemption is necessary to or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than August 24, 1967, at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request and the issues of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request shall be served personally or by mail (airmail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon application at the address stated above. Proof of such service (by affidavit or in case of an attorney-at-law by certificate) shall be filed contemporaneously with the request. At any time after said date, as provided by Rule 0-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application herein may be issued by the Commission upon the basis of the showing contained in said application, unless an order for hearing upon said application shall be issued upon request or upon the Commission's own motion. Persons who request a hearing or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered will receive notice of further developments in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

For the Commission (pursuant to delegated authority).

Assistant Secretary.

These rules provide, among other things, that a protest to the granting of an application must be filed with the Commission within 30 days after date of notice of filing of the application is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Failure seasonably to file a protest will be construed as a waiver of opposition and participation in the proceeding. A protest under these rules should comply with § 1.247(d)(3) of the rules of practice which requires that it set forth specifically the grounds upon which it is made, contain a detailed statement of protestant's interest in the proceeding (including a copy of the specific portions of its authority which protestant believes to be in conflict with that sought in the application, and describing in detail the method—whether by joinder, interline, or other means—by which protestant would use such authority to provide all or part of the service proposed), and shall specify with particularity the facts, matters, and things relied upon, but shall not include issues or allegations phrased generally. Protests not in reasonable compliance with the requirements of the rules may be rejected. The original and one copy of the protest shall be filed with the Commission, and a copy shall be served concurrently upon applicant's representative, or applicant if no representative is named. If the protest includes a request for oral hearing, such requests shall meet the requirements of § 1.247(d)(4) of the Special Rule, and shall include the certification required therein.

Section 1.247(f) of the Commission's rules of practice further provides that each applicant shall, if protests to its application have been filed, and within 60 days of the date of this publication, notify the Commission in writing (1) that it is ready to proceed and prosecute the application, or (2) that it wishes to withdraw the application, failure in which the application will be dismissed by the Commission.

Further processing steps (whether modified procedure, oral hearing, or other procedures) will be determined generally in accordance with the Commission's General Policy Statement Concerning Motor Carrier Licensing Procedures, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue of May 3, 1966. This assignment will be by Commission order which will be served on each party of record.

The publications hereinafter set forth reflect the scope of the applications as filed by applicants, and may include descriptions, restrictions, or limitations which are not in a form acceptable to the Commission. Authority which ultimately may be granted as a result of the applications here noticed will not necessarily reflect the phraseology set forth in the application as filed, but also will eliminate any restrictions which are not acceptable to the Commission.

How To Find U.S. Statutes and United States Code Citations

[Revised Edition—1965]

This pamphlet contains typical legal references which require further citing. The official published volumes in which the citations may be found are shown alongside each reference—with suggestions as to the logical sequence to follow in using them. Additional finding aids, some especially useful in citing current legislation, also have been included. Examples are furnished at pertinent points and a list of references, with descriptions, is carried at the end.

This revised edition contains illustrations of principal finding aids and reflects the changes made in the new master table of statutes set out in the 1964 edition of the United States Code.

Title 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter VII—Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (Agricultural Adjustment), Department of Agriculture

SUBCHAPTER B—FARM MARKETING QUOTAS AND ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS

[Amdt. 10]

PART 728—WHEAT

Subpart—Regulations Pertaining to Acreage Allotments, Yields, Wheat Diversion and Wheat Certificate Programs for Crop Years 1966–1969

COUNTY ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS FOR 1968 CROP OF WHEAT

The regulations governing the 1966–69 wheat program (31 F.R. 8758), as amended, are hereby further amended by adding §§ 728.346 and 728.347 to read as follows:

§ 728.346 Basis and purpose.

(a) The county acreage allotments for 1968 crop wheat contained herein have been determined under section 334 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended. The purpose of this document is to apportion among the counties of each State the respective State wheat acreage allotments, less reserves for (1) new farms and (2) appeals, corrections and missed farms as recommended by the respective ASC State committees for 1968.

(b) Section 334(b) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, provides that the State acreage allotments for wheat, less a reserve of not to exceed 3 per centum thereof for new farms, shall be apportioned by the Secretary among the counties in the State on the basis of the preceding year's wheat allotment in each county, including all amounts allotted to the county, adjusted to the extent deemed necessary by the Secretary in order to establish a fair and equitable apportionment base for each county, taking into consideration established crop rotation practices, estimated decrease in farm allotments because of loss of history, and other relevant factors.

(c) The 1968 State acreage allotments for wheat less reserves for (1) new farms, and (2) appeals, corrections, and missed farms were apportioned among the counties in the various States as follows:

(d) (1) To each 1967 county wheat allotment determined under section 334(b) of the act, as amended, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of August 4, 1966 (31 F.R. 10449) and increased 15 percent by further amendment published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of September 9, 1966 (31 F.R. 11859) was added the sum of 1967 allotment acreage allocated to counties in each State from the special national acreage reserve to increase allotments on eligible farms in designated counties where wheat is a major income-producing crop. The resulting preliminary apportionment bases for each county were (i) adjusted to reflect the net plus or minus change in 1967 wheat allotment resulting from the transfer of farms to other counties for administrative purposes, and (ii) were adjusted downward to the extent of the sum of 1967 wheat allotment received from farms going out of agricultural production.

(2) Adjustments in county preliminary apportionment bases for established crop rotation practices and other relevant factors were made to the extent deemed necessary to establish a fair and equitable apportionment base for each county. The State wheat acreage allotment less a reserve for new farms and a reserve for appeals and corrections and missed farms was distributed pro rata to counties on the basis of each county's apportionment base determined in accordance with the foregoing.

(e) The tables contained in § 728.347 hereof show the apportionment of the 1968 State wheat acreage allotment to counties. The reserve acreage for new farms and the reserve for appeals, corrections of errors and missed farms withheld from the State allotment are listed at the end of the allotment tabulation for each State. The reserve acreage withheld by county committees for appeals, corrections of errors, and missed farms prior to apportioning the county allotment to individual farms is indicated in the appropriate column on the tabulation.

(f) Since farmers in the winter wheat area will begin 1968 wheat planting operations shortly, it is hereby found that the apportionment and determinations herein shall become effective upon the date of the filing of this document with the Director, Office of the Federal Register.

§ 728.347 Apportionment of the 1968 State wheat acreage allotment to counties.

AUTHORITY: The provisions of this Subpart G issued under 5 U.S.C., 301; Orders of Secretary of Agriculture, 29 F.R. 16210, 32 F.R. 6650.

§ 1823.181 General.

This subpart prescribes the policies and authorizations for planning, developing, and carrying out Rural Renewal Programs in designated rural renewal areas, including providing technical assistance in developing rural renewal plans and making Rural Renewal loans. The building of industrial parks and the establishment of private and commercial enterprises are not authorized. Emphasis should be placed on rural renewal projects that will not only accomplish the primary purpose of correcting maladjustments in land use, but will also help to revitalize the economy, combat rural poverty, and increase the living standards and security of farm families and other rural residents.

§ 1823.182 Objectives and methods.

(a) The basic objective of Rural Renewal Programs is to encourage and assist local public agencies and nonprofit corporations in designated rural renewal areas in initiating, sponsoring, and carrying out land conservation and land utilization (rural renewal) projects needed to correct maladjustments in land use. This will be accomplished through such projects (including practices) to:

(1) Control soil erosion.
(2) Promote reforestation.
(3) Preserve natural resources.
(4) Protect fish and wildlife.
(5) Develop and protect recreational facilities.
(6) Mitigate floods.
(7) Prevent impairment of dams and reservoirs.
(8) Conserve surface and subsurface moisture.
(9) Protect watersheds of navigable streams.
(10) Protect public lands.
(11) Protect health, safety, and welfare of rural residents through rural renewal projects that provide facilities which produce that result.

(b) In achieving the above objectives and methods, maximum use will be made of all resources available in the rural renewal area. This will include leadership and support from local citizens, public officials, and organizations, and also any assistance available through local, State, and Federal governmental sources, as well as from private sources.

§ 1823.183 Farmers Home Administration responsibilities.

The Farmers Home Administration (FHA) is responsible for coordinating, directing, and supervising Rural Renewal Programs. The broadest possible use will be made of all existing authorizations of the U.S. Department of Agriculture and other departments and agencies of Federal and State Governments in assisting to promote the conservation and better use of land resources in designated rural renewal areas.

§ 1823.184 Definitions.

(a) State agency. This is any executive, administrative or regulatory agency or instrumentality of a State government with planning or supervisory jurisdiction over land conservation and utilization programs, and the investigation of conditions and factors affecting land conservation and utilization in rural renewal areas. If no single State agency has adequate statutory authority, the State agency will be the Governor or a State agency designated by him.

(b) Local agency. This means one or more local public agencies or local nonprofit corporations that are recognized by the State agency as being authorized to undertake land conservation and land utilization programs in the rural renewal area. The local agency may be a Rural Development Authority.

(1) Local public agency. A local public agency is a county, municipality, or other subdivision, instrumentality, or agency of the State. This includes public agencies created by, or pursuant to, State law for making improvements of a public nature even though some of the improvements may be on privately owned land.

(2) Nonprofit corporation. The term "nonprofit corporation" includes mutual and other irrigation, water supply, drainage and waste disposal companies or associations, ditch companies, grazing, recreation, and forestry associations, and similar organizations that are incorporated and are generally designated as private corporations operating on a nonprofit basis if their membership or stock ownership is broadly based, and if they have authority to make available services and facilities of the types authorized in this subpart.

(i) A private corporation even though organized under general business corporation laws may come within this definition if it actually will be operated on a nonprofit basis under its charter, bylaws, mortgage, or supplementary agreement provisions that may be required as a condition of loan approval.

(c) Rural renewal area. This is a rural area, as defined in § 1823.2(c), designated by the Secretary of Agriculture.

(d) Rural renewal plan. This is a plan developed for the rural renewal area by the local agency with the assistance of FHA and other Federal and State agencies:

(1) Designed to achieve the Rural Renewal Program objectives and carry out one or more of the rural renewal projects described in § 1823.182.

(2) Having the approval of the authorized State agency and the Secretary of Agriculture, or his delegate.

(3) Limited to purposes for which Rural loans may be made under § 1823.191.

(e) Rural renewal projects. This is a specific land conservation or land utilization development, improvement, adjustment, or activity located in a rural renewal area, covered by the rural renewal plan, and eligible for Rural Renewal loan or technical assistance. Project proposals are the basis for action in the Rural Renewal Program.

(f) Rural Renewal loan. A Rural Renewal loan is an FHA loan from rural renewal funds to a local agency to carry out one or more rural renewal projects consistent with the rural renewal plan and loan purposes outlined in this subpart.

§ 1823.185 Designation of rural renewal areas.

(a) Made by Secretary of Agriculture. A rural renewal area may be designated by the Secretary when he determines that:

(1) The area is primarily rural where agriculture, forestry, and related businesses represent its economic base but provide inadequate income to support a reasonable level of living for a substantial number of the residents of the area.

(2) There is a need to correct maladjustments in land use through one or more of the rural renewal projects described in § 1823.182.

(3) Rural renewal projects will likely accomplish the objectives set forth in § 1823.182.

(4) The area has sufficient resources and potential to indicate that a Rural Renewal Program can result in significant improvement in the total economy of the area.

(5) There is sufficient evidence of interest among the local leaders and other residents of the area to feel assured that they will initiate and strive hard to carry out a program of land conservation and land utilization.

(6) It is evident that needed land conservation and utilization activities cannot be planned or carried out effectively unless technical or financial assistance is provided through the Rural Renewal Program.

(7) There now exists or there will be established in the area a local agency responsible for developing and implementing the Rural Renewal Program.

(b) Size of area. A designated rural renewal area may range in size from a part of a county to one or more counties, depending on the needs and circumstances peculiar to each situation. However, it must be a contiguous geographic area in which the land conservation and land utilization problems and needs are fairly general and similar, and in which there is a common interest in planning and carrying out an effective Rural Renewal Program that will benefit the entire area.

(c) Request for designation. A request for rural renewal designation may be initiated by a local agency, or any other responsible group representing the area. As soon as the County Supervisor becomes aware of the interest of the local group in having the area designated as a rural renewal area, he should meet with the group or appropriate representatives of the group, to explain the procedure to be followed in making and processing a formal request for rural renewal area designation as follows:

(1) Action by local agency. A letter of request addressed to the State Director will be prepared by the local agency, or other responsible groups which will present a factual justification for the designation. The County Supervisor will assist as necessary in the preparation of this letter of request. When completed, the letter will be delivered to the County Supervisor in an original and three copies for appropriate review and handling. The following information, as a minimum, will be prepared and included in or attached to the letter:

(i) Name, address, and description of agency or groups making the request, including the names and occupations of representative leaders and an explanation of any community, civic, and other positions of leadership held.

(ii) Map of area recommended for designation.

(iii) A brief statement reviewing the maladjustments in land use, economic trends and problems of the area, the type of agriculture, number and size of farms, number of farm families, number of other rural residents, other sources of employment in the area, income levels of residents in the area, and such other related factors as would be necessary for a good understanding of the problems of the area and the need for Rural Renewal Program assistance.

(iv) Nature, description, and purpose of rural renewal projects proposed for the area.

(v) Extent to which the proposed projects can be carried out with assistance available through existing private or local, State, and Federal governmental sources.

(vi) Purposes for which Rural Renewal loan funds may be needed.

(vii) An indication of the need for technical assistance not now available in planning or carrying out the Rural Renewal Program in the area.

(viii) Evidence of the interest and desire of people in the area to participate in the program.

(ix) Any other pertinent information which will be helpful in reaching a decision on the request for rural renewal designation.

(2) Action by County Supervisor. Upon receipt of the required copies of the letter requesting a designation and the attached information, the County Supervisor will review the proposal with the County Technical Action Panel (TAP) and the County Rural Areas Development (RAD) Committee, or similar groups. He will obtain their comments and recommendations and submit them with his own recommendations and the letter requesting rural renewal designation and related information to the State Director.

(3) Action by State Director. Upon receipt of the request for designation, the State Director will obtain, in writing, the comments and recommendations of the State TAP and the State RAD committee. The State Director will forward to the National Office such comments and recommendations and the letter of request, including all supporting data and recommendations. He also will attach a letter setting forth his comments and recommendations along with any supplementary factual data which he feels is necessary to indicate the problems and needs of the area recommended. In addition to any other observations made by the State Director, he will comment specifically on the extent to which the area meets the requirements for selection of rural renewal areas. The State Director will obtain and attach an opinion from the Office of the General Counsel explaining the status of the local agency that will apply for Rural Renewal loans and its legal sufficiency under State laws to obtain such loan, use rural renewal funds, give security, and make loan repayments.

(4) National Office action. The request for rural renewal designation along with the attached information and comments will be reviewed in the National Office.

(i) If a determination is made by the Administrator that the proposed rural renewal area meets the qualifications to receive assistance under the Rural Renewal Program, he will submit the request to the Secretary of Agriculture with a recommendation for designation of the area for rural renewal assistance.

(ii) If the Administrator determines that the area should not be designated, he will so advise the State Director with an explanation of his reasons, and will request that the State Director inform the group initiating the request.

(iii) When a rural renewal area is designated by the Secretary of Agriculture, the National Office will notify the State Director. The State Director will in turn notify the County Supervisor. The local agency or initiating group will then be advised by the County Supervisor to request the State agency to designate the official local agency, if this has not already been done. The State Director will notify the County Supervisor when a Rural Renewal Program leader will be assigned to work in the area to assist the local agency in obtaining needed technical and financial assistance in connection with planning, developing, and carrying out the Rural Renewal Program.

§ 1823.186 The rural renewal plan.

A rural renewal plan will be developed as soon as possible after a rural renewal area is designated. It will point out the maladjustments in land use and describe the corrections and improvements proposed by the local agency. The plan will be developed under the supervision, guidance, and direction of the local agency with every effort being made to obtain the active participation of all interested groups and individuals in the area. In connection with this planning, the Rural Renewal Program leader will ascertain what plans have been developed for the area by regional, county, and local planning agencies or groups and will inform the local agency of such plans. In the development of rural renewal plans, such planning agencies or groups will be given an opportunity to participate.

(a) Establishing committees. The local agency should establish a planning committee to be primarily responsible for developing the rural renewal plan. It also should establish necessary subcommittees. Such subcommittees might include steering, community coordination, agriculture, forestry, industry, rural credit, recreation, tourism, education, health, welfare; old age assistance, local government, roads, community facilities, schools, hospitals, commerce, small business, land use planning, transportation, parks, and others that may be of assistance in developing land conservation and land utilization plans. Each subcommittee should make regular reports to the planning committee, which will summarize the results and accomplishments as shown by the reports.

(b) Rural Renewal Program leader. The Rural Renewal Program leader will assist the local agency in:

(1) Organizing and establishing planning committees.
(2) Determining planning needs.
(3) Developing a planning outline.
(4) Obtaining statistical, economic, and historical information.
(5) Informing the local agency of services available from Federal and State agencies.
(6) Analyzing resources and inventories.
(7) Obtaining the services of all Federal, State, and local agencies or groups in providing planning assistance.

(c) Planning assistance from other agencies. In order to develop a rural renewal plan, the program leader will be responsible for assisting in obtaining the services of appropriate technicians from local and State TAPs or other State and Federal agencies without cost, and from other sources at cost when there is need for a highly specialized type of technical assistance which cannot be provided by local or State TAP representatives or other State or Federal agencies.

(d) Preparing rural renewal plan. The program leader will coordinate reports of the planning committee and subcommittees and will prepare a draft of the rural renewal plan for the local agency. The proposed plan will be submitted to the County TAP and RAD Committees for review and suggestions, comments, and recommendations. The plan, including any revisions, will be submitted to the State Director who will review it with the State TAP and RAD Committees, and obtain their comments and recommendations. The State Director will then submit the rural renewal plan to the State agency for review. Before a rural renewal plan is approved, it must have been submitted to and not disapproved by the State agency within 45 days. After favorable action has been taken by the appropriate State agency, the State Director will notify the local agency that the plan has been approved.

§ 1823.187 Rural renewal project development.

The Rural Renewal Program may involve many kinds of rural renewal projects, as described in § 1823.184(e). Detailed plans must be made for carrying out each project. These plans will include description, maps, specifications, scope, locations, costs, means, methods, time schedules, technical and financial assistance needed, and will indicate private and public sources from which needed assistance will be obtained. Many of these projects will be accomplished with technical and financial assistance from sources other than Rural Renewal loans. The Rural Renewal Program leader is responsible for assisting the local agency in obtaining technical assistance and loans from U.S. Department of Agriculture agencies, other Federal agencies, State agencies, and non-Government sources. The program leader should explain where and how such services can be obtained and assist in making arrangements with representatives of various Government agencies to meet with the local interest groups. The program leader will assist interested groups in the rural renewal area to get in touch with appropriate agency representatives; however, he should not establish himself as a representative of these agencies or assume responsibility for performing their functions.

§ 1823.188 Funds for technical assistance.

Technical assistance funds may be used in connection with providing specialized type of assistance that cannot be otherwise obtained from existing programs and services of local, State, or Federal agencies without additional cost regardless of whether the projects are actually financed with Rural Renewal loans. This will include assistance required in developing the Rural Renewal plan as well as in determining the feasibility of projects related thereto.

(a) Application. When the local agency and the Rural Renewal Program leader determine that there is a need to secure technical assistance in addition to that available from existing agencies, they will request technical assistance funds for such services. The Rural Renewal Program leader will assist the local agency in developing requests for funds for technical assistance. The local agency will give the Rural Renewal Program leader the request for technical assistance in an original and two copies for forwarding to the State Director. The agency or firm likely to be requested to provide this technical assistance will usually assist with development of the request which should include the following:

(1) Name of the agency or firm being requested to provide the technical assistance.

(2) Purpose, nature, description, and scope of technical assistance.

(3) Time schedule for completion.

(4) Determinations or findings to be made.

(5) Kind of information to be provided including reports, charts, and maps.

(6) Estimated cost by fiscal years.

(7) Recommended method of payment for services rendered.

(8) Justification for technical assistance including benefits to the rural renewal area, job opportunities, resource development, and economic gain.

(b) Processing and approval. The State Director will make a determination as to whether the source and type of assistance being requested is appropriate and is reasonable of accomplishment, has been properly described, and services are being requested from the appropriate agency or firm. If the State Director finds that these conditions have been met, actions will be taken in accordance with the following sources of assistance:

(1) Federal agency. The State Director will submit the request with his recommendations to the National Office. The National Office will develop an agreement between FHA and the agency involved. A copy of the signed agreement together with a memorandum outlining any additional actions or steps to be taken will be forwarded to the State Director. The State Director will notify the appropriate Federal agency representative, the local agency, and the Rural Renewal Program leader that the draft agreement has been approved.

(2) State agency. The State Director will develop an agreement with the State agency and forward it to the National Office for approval. If the Administrator approves the agreement, he will inform the State Director by memorandum specifying any approval conditions which must be met and authorizing him to execute the agreement with the State agency. An original and two copies of the agreement will be executed. The local agency and Rural Renewal Program leader will be notified as soon as the agreement is executed.

(3) Private or commercial firm. The State Director will develop an agreement between FHA and the local agency for furnishing technical assistance. He will also develop a contract between the local agency and the firm being requested to perform the services. The proposed agreement and contract will be forwarded to the National Office for review. If the Administrator concurs with the provision of the documents, he will authorize the State Director to execute the agreement and endorse the contract, specifying any conditions which must be met. The State Director will sign an original and three copies of the agreement and send them to the Rural Renewal Program leader for signatures of the appropriate official of the local agency. The State Director also will endorse the original and three copies of the contract.

(i) Subsequent requests for technical assistance from private or commercial firms will be processed in accordance with this subpart. It usually will not be necessary to execute a subsequent agreement between the FHA and the local agency. However, separate contracts will be required for each technical assistance request.

§ 1823.189 Eligibility for Rural Renewal loans.

A local agency is eligible for a Rural Renewal loan for authorized purposes provided it is unable to obtain needed credit from other sources; can provide security in accordance with § 1823.194; has reasonable prospects of repaying the loan; has authority under State and local laws to borrow funds, acquire necessary land rights, buy, sell, improve, develop, operate, and maintain property, and raise revenues to repay loans and meet other obligations; and is financially sound and so organized and managed that it will be able to provide efficient service. A local agency may receive assistance for more than one of the major purposes listed when it is organized with the necessary powers conferred by State law to engage in multiple purpose activities. Any questions on eligibility will be resolved prior to development of a loan docket.

(a) Nonprofit corporations—(1) Membership. The membership or stock ownership of nonprofit corporations should be broadly based and representative of the rural areas benefiting from the facility. Membership on the governing board of the corporation will be limited to those living in the area to be benefited unless for justifiable reasons the State Director gives prior approval for other than local rural residents to serve on the board of directors.

(2) Eligibility for assistance. To be eligible for financial assistance, a nonprofit corporation must propose a rural renewal project which will be used primarily by, or which will generate other substantial tangible benefits primarily for farmers and other residents of the rural renewal areas; located in the rural renewal area to be served; and controlled by farmers and others living in the rural renewal area.

(i) When a recreational project loan is made to a nonprofit corporation, at least two-thirds of the corporation's members or stockholders must be farmers and others residing in the rural renewal area.

(ii) A Rural Renewal loan will not be made to a nonprofit corporation to serve an area that can be served by a local public agency which has adequate authority to provide the needed service, unless prior approval of the National Office is obtained.

§ 1823.190 Loan purposes.

Rural Renewal loans may be made in rural renewal areas only, and only for carrying out projects in such areas that are listed in § 1823.182 and bear directly upon economic development and related facilities necessary to carry out such land conservation and land utilization projects. Although the primary purpose of such projects must be land conservation or land utilization, or both, to correct maladjustments in land use, projects that meet that test will not be approved unless they also will contribute to community benefit and economic improvement of the rural renewal area. Subject to such requirements and the limitations in § 1823.191, Rural Renewal loans may be made to eligible local agencies for the following purposes:

(a) Recreational developments. To install or improve rural community outdoor-oriented recreational facilities requiring substantial land use, such as:

(1) Ponds, lakes, and streams for fishing and boating.

(2) Sports areas, including little league fields, athletic fields, golf courses, target ranges, swimming pools, swimming areas, and ski slopes.

(3) Rodeo and horse show facilities, for the use of participants and performers who are primarily local residents using livestock from the immediate area.

(4) Picnic and camping areas and parks.

(5) Forest trails, caves, and other natural scenic attractions.

(6) Hunting and fishing areas and preserves.

(7) Access roads necessary to connect recreational areas with public roadways.

(8) Historical sites and areas.

(9) Domestic water, irrigation, drainage, or waste disposal facilities, parking areas, buildings and other improvements, equipment and facilities that are essential to the recreational development.

(b) Rural homesite developments. To purchase and develop tracts of land and construct modest dwellings thereon to be sold to low-income rural residents, provided the basic purpose is to correct maladjustments in land use and thereby protect the health, safety, or welfare of residents of the rural community, as distinguished from such purposes as merely providing improved housing, or attracting new residents, businesses, or industry to the area. Such developments include the construction of essential access roads, streets, utility lines, water facilities, sewer facilities, parks, playgrounds, lakes, outdoor-oriented recreational facilities, and other related buildings, facilities, and equipment necessary to the completion and use of the development.

(c) Soil and water development, conservation, control, and use facilities. To install, repair, or improve the following to effectuate one or more of the rural renewal projects listed in § 1823.182 through:

(1) Works of improvement for flood prevention, sediment control, erosion control, and other soil and water management purposes.

(2) Irrigation facilities including storage reservoirs, diversion dams, wells, pumping plants, canals, canal lining, pipelines, sprinklers, and other such items.

(3) Open or closed drainage facilities in farm areas otherwise too wet for sustained agricultural production.

(4) Soil conservation and water control facilities such as dikes, terraces, detention reservoirs, stream channels, ditches, and other special land treatment and stabilization measures or structures needed to protect farms and rural residences from water damage, provided such facilities cannot be installed or improved under, and will not conflict with other public programs like those administered by the Corps of Engineers.

(5) Water storage facilities, including outlet works for such purposes as immediate and future water supply and pollution abatement by streamflow regulation and saline water intrusion control. A loan for this purpose may include funds for pipelines and any necessary pumping facilities to convey the water from the reservoir to the existing or proposed treatment facilities or the nearest practicable point on a water distribution system.

(d) Shift-in-land-use facilities. Develop other shift-in-land-use project measures including association grazing, forestry, and other facilities through:

(1) Conversion of land to pasture, forest, wildlife areas, and preserves.

(2) Reorganization or reconstitution of farm management units, grazing areas or districts, or irrigation areas.

(3) Substantial reorganization of an existing land use through a system of controlled grazing or sustained yield forestry management practices.

(4) Conversion of land to uses which promote better conservation of soil and water resources.

(5) Conversion of land to uses such as greenbelts, and other open spaces which better serve a rural community.

(e) Acquisition of facilities, equipment, and services—(1) Purchase basic facilities and equipment. Facilities and equipment necessary for the purposes listed in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d) of this section may be purchased when it is determined that ownership and operation thereof by a local agency are necessary to provide efficient service; or the owner is either unable or unwilling to make such facilities and equipment, and any necessary repairs, improvements, or enlargements, or extensions thereof available to rural renewal area residents at reasonable rates.

(2) Purchase or rent special purpose equipment. Such equipment may be purchased or rented when it is needed to install or maintain facilities described in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, or to establish on farms, soil and water conservation measures such as terraces, ponds, land leveling for irrigation or drainage, subsoiling, seeding, tree planting, and removal of brush, scattered trees, and stumps, provided:

(i) Such equipment is not otherwise available at reasonable rates when needed;

(ii) There is sufficient need and local demand to justify ownership or rental; and

(iii) Rates to be charged on such rented equipment are sufficient to pay the rental; or on such purchased equipment if sufficient to include, among other things, an allowance for depreciation, obsolescence, and replacement based upon the recommendations of the equipment manufacturer or the experience of contractors engaged in providing services for similar types of work.

(3) Purchase or rent forestry equipment, services and facilities (other than shift-in-land use). This includes basic special-purpose equipment, facilities and supplies needed to establish approved conservation practices for the development, use, and control of land and water resources on farms and in forests. Special-purpose equipment will include such items as tractors, dozers, plows, planters, trucks, loaders, firefighting equipment, and sprayers. Facilities will include such items as ponds and reservoirs, pipelines, buildings for storage of equipment and supplies, nurseries, access roads, fire lanes, and lookout towers. Supplies will include such things as seed, seedlings, fertilizers, fencing, and pesticides. Loans for these purposes may be made only when the equipment, supplies, and facilities to be provided:

(i) Are not otherwise readily available at reasonable rates when needed; or

(ii) Are justified by the local need and demand;

(iii) Will be made available to users at rates which, in case of rented equipment, will pay the rental; and in case of purchased equipment, will cover loan amortization, obsolescence, replacement, operation; and, in the case of supplies, at least pay their cost; and

(iv) Will more efficiently serve the group through cooperative effort.

(f) Acquisition of land, sites, and rights. Acquire land, interests in land, and rights such as water rights, leases, permits, rights-of-way, and other evidence of control when acquisition of such land and rights is necessary for sites or other purposes in connection with the development of the rural renewal project.

(1) Site acquisition. A local agency may acquire sites for works of improvement in advance of construction for the purpose of reserving such sites for rural renewal project development and use.

(2) Water rights. When it is necessary to acquire a water supply or water rights, the land on which the water supply or water right is presently being used may be purchased when:

(i) The water supply or water right cannot be purchased without the land and it is determined that legally and actually the water right can be transferred from the land after the purchase; and

(ii) The value of the land is only an incidental part of the total purchase price.

(3) Public use areas. Acquire and develop land for any public use of a type listed in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d) of this section.

(g) Refinancing. Refinance debts incurred by or on behalf of the applicant prior to an application for a Rural Renewal loan when all of the following conditions exist:

(1) The debts were incurred for the property, facility, or service to be installed, repaired, or improved with the Rural Renewal loan.

(2) Arrangements cannot be made with the creditors to extend or modify the terms of the debt so that a sound basis will exist for making a Rural Renewal loan without refinancing such debts.

(3) The prior approval of the National Office will be obtained when the proposed amount to be advanced for refinancing will exceed 50 percent of the total loan.

(h) Buildings, fences, roads, secondary facilities, and relocation. (1) Construct buildings of modest design, size, and cost essential to the successful operation or protection of authorized facilities or project measures.

(2) Construct secondary facilities such as gas or electric service lines to convey fuel or energy, or construct utilities for the control of authorized primary facilities.

(3) Build or relocate roads, bridges, utilities, fences, and other improvements when necessary to provide rights-of-way, or construct or operate the authorized facility.

(i) Services and fees. Pay costs incidental to facilities or services accomplishing any of the above purposes including, but not limited to:

(1) Paying fees or other legal expenses of establishing a water right through appropriation, agreement, permit, or court decree.

(2) Acquiring a water supply by the purchase of water stock or membership in an incorporated water users association.

(3) Paying for hired labor, technical or professional services, and fees to be incurred in obtaining the loan, and in planning and completing the facilities or services to be financed with loan funds.

§ 1823.191 Loan limitations.

Loans will not be made for:

(a) Building industrial parks or establishing private industrial or commercial enterprises.

(b) Purchase of land to be used primarily for industrial use, but this does not prohibit advances for the purchase of a tract of land a portion of which might be set aside for an industrial park. However, loan funds may not be advanced to develop such a park or to construct facilities on the portion of the tract set aside for industrial purposes.

(c) Purchase of tracts of land primarily for later resale to private developers or individuals for agricultural or nonagricultural use.

(d) Land treatment on private or individual land units.

(e) Payment of that part of the cost of facilities, improvements, and practices which could be earned by participation in agricultural conservation programs, unless such cost cannot be covered by purchase orders or assignments of conservation payments to material suppliers or contractors. If advances are made for this purpose and the portion of the payment for which the funds are advanced is likely to exceed $500, the applicant will assign the conservation payment to FHA.

(f) Payment of obligations proposed to be incurred before loan closing, except with the prior written permission of the State Director upon his finding that a necessity exists for incurring obligations before loan closing, the obligations will be incurred for authorized loan purposes, contracts and construction plans meet FHA standards, and the applicant has the legal authority to incur the obligations at the time proposed. The State Director's letter will specifically state that the permission granted is on the condition that the Government is not committed to make a loan and assumes no responsibility for any obligation incurred by the applicant because of permission granted and that the applicant must subsequently meet all FHA requirements for a loan.

(g) Treatment plants and distribution systems when that is the primary purpose.

(h) Drainage facilities primarily for the benefit of other than rural areas.

§ 1823.192 Rates and terms.

The interest rate for loans is the average rate payable by the U.S. Treasury on its marketable public obligations outstanding at the beginning of the fiscal year in which the loan is made, which are neither due nor callable for redemption for 15 years from date of issue. Loans will be scheduled for repayment in amortized annual installments of principal and interest over periods not to exceed 30 years from the date of loan closing, except that annual principal and interest payments may be deferred up to 5 years when there will not be sufficient income to make earlier payments.

§ 1823.193 Amount of loans.

The loan will not exceed $250,000. It will be based on the proposed cost of the project being financed, and the applicant's resources and ability to repay the loan. In determining repayment ability, consideration will be given to all available sources of income such as taxes, assessments, fees, leases, rentals, and the sale of securities or property. If a subsequent loan is requested that would cause the total amount loaned to the applicant to exceed $250,000, a docket will not be prepared until advice has been obtained from the National Office as to whether there is any basis on which the loan might be made.

§ 1823.194 Security.

Loans will be secured in such manner as will protect the interest of the Government. Security will usually be contract liens on property, tax or assessment liens, or project revenues pledged for repayment of the loan.

§ 1823.195 County Committee action.

The County Committee will review each loan application and supporting information and will recommend whether there is a need for the proposed development for which loan funds are to be used.

§ 1823.196 Loan application.

(a) Form. The application will consist of a letter addressed to the State Director, prepared with the assistance of the program leader and containing the following:

Such appraisals will be made to determine the present market value in accordance with the policy outlined in Part 1809 of this chapter.

PART 316a—RESIDENCE, PHYSICAL PRESENCE AND ABSENCE

§ 316a.4 [Amended]

This order shall be effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Compliance with the provisions of section 553 of Title 5 of the United States Code (P.L. 89-554, 80 Stat. 383), as to notice of proposed rule making and delayed effective date, is unnecessary in this instance because the amendment to § 100.4(c)(2) deletes several inoperable ports; the amendment to § 103.1(g) is editorial in nature; the amendment to § 103.10 provides for greater access to Service records; the amendment to § 204.2(e)(1) relieves restrictions; the amendment to § 212.4 (c) is clarifying in nature; the amendments to § 214.3 (b), (c), and (e) are editorial in nature and relate to agency procedure; the amendment to § 235.1 is clarifying in nature; and the amendments to §§ 238.3, 238.4, and 316a.4 merely add additional transportation lines and an organization to those listings.

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

SUBCHAPTER C—DRUGS

PART 148n—OXYTETRACYCLINE

Oxytetracycline Hydrochloride-Polymyxin B Sulfate-Benzocaine for Otic Solution

Under the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 507, 59 Stat. 463, as amended; 21 U.S.C. 357), and delegated by him to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs (21 CFR 2.120), § 148n.28 Oxytetracycline hydrochloride-polymyxin B sulfate-benzocaine for otic solution is amended as follows to effect an editorial change and to change the specified moisture test:

1. The first sentence of paragraph (a)(1) is changed to read "Oxytetracycline hydrochloride-polymyxin B sulfate-benzocaine for otic solution is a dry powder of oxytetracycline hydrochloride, polymyxin B sulfate, and benzocaine, packaged in combination with a suitable diluting solution which contains a preservative."

2. In paragraph (b)(2), the portion that reads "in § 141a.5(a) of" is changed to read "in § 141a.26(e) of".

This order merely effects an editorial change and a change in testing procedure that improves quality control. These amendments are nonrestrictive and noncontroversial in nature; therefore, notice and public procedure and delayed effective date are not prerequisites to this promulgation.

Effective date. This order shall be effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Chapter I—Federal Aviation Administration, Department of Transportation

SUBCHAPTER C—AIRCRAFT

[Docket No. 7096; Amdt. 25-14]

PART 25—AIRWORTHINESS STANDARDS: TRANSPORT CATEGORY AIRPLANES

Fuel System Lightning Protection

This amendment adds fuel system lightning protection design requirements for transport category airplanes. This amendment is based on, and reflects public comments concerning, item 11 of notice of proposed rule making 65-43, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (31 F.R. 93) on January 5, 1966. (Rules based on the remainder of the items proposed in Notice 65-43 were published as miscellaneous Aircraft Propulsion System Design Requirements in 32 F.R. 6908 on May 5, 1967.)

Public comments generally agreed that fuel system lightning protection should be given design consideration. The only objections submitted concerned the degree of detail in the proposed regulation. One comment stated that the proposal was too general, was overly open to interpretation, and should be withheld until more detailed criteria are prepared. One comment took the opposite approach, stating that the proposal was too detailed and too closely tied to current knowledge of the effects of lightning on aircraft. The FAA agrees with the latter comment. While it is recognized that any general regulation requires that certain details be supplied by administration, it is believed that such flexibility is necessary and desirable in this case. The current state of knowledge concerning the protection of aircraft from lightning is expanding rapidly. Further, the need for lightning protection is too widely established to be treated only by special conditions in individual cases. The FAA therefore believes that the best course of action is to prescribe the basic design objectives contained in the notice—which include protection from direct lightning strikes, swept lightning strokes, and corona and streamering—and administer these design objectives to reflect current progress in lightning protection techniques.

With respect to swept strokes, the notice covered each area of the airplane in which they "may occur." However, with respect to direct strikes, the notice covered only areas where there is a "high probability" of stroke attachment. A swept stroke is in fact a series of successive direct strikes swept across the surface of the airplane by the motion of the airplane. The probabilities of these two kinds of events are thus closely related. It was not the intent of the notice to require investigation of swept strokes other than those associated with the direct strikes that are covered, namely those in the areas of high probability of stroke attachment. For this reason, this amendment refers only to swept strokes in areas where they are "highly probable."

One comment requested that the FAA look closely to continuing research for new solutions to lightning hazards, and that the possibility of inerting the airspace in the tanks be considered. The FAA agrees, and will administer this amendment to give full consideration to any solutions that research and experience show to be feasible and effective in meeting the complex hazards of lightning and its associated phenomena.

The notice proposed a new § 25.981. However, since this amendment is general in nature, it is more appropriate to add a new § 25.954. This is done.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this amendment. All relevant matter submitted has been fully considered.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 25 of Subchapter C of Chapter I of Title 14 of the Code of Federal Regulations is hereby amended, effective September 10, 1967, by adding a new § 25.954 to read as follows:

§ 25.954 Fuel system lightning protection.

The fuel system must be designed and arranged to prevent the ignition of fuel vapor within the system by—

(a) Direct lightning strikes to areas having a high probability of stroke attachment;

(b) Swept lightning strokes to areas where swept strokes are highly probable; and

(c) Corona and streamering at fuel vent outlets.

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Boeing Models 707 and 720 Series Airplanes

A proposal to amend Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations to include an airworthiness directive designed to prevent an explosion of fuel vapors in the fuel tanks in the event of lightning-induced ignition at the fuel tank vent outlet on certain Boeing Models 707 and 720 Series airplanes was published in 31 F.R. 8833 on June 24, 1966. To accomplish this, the proposed directive required installation of a flame suppression system in the fuel tank vent outlet system or the installation of an auxiliary vent tube with a flame arrester to the vent system surge tank, or any other approved equivalent means of providing the necessary protection of the vent system.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the amendment and due consideration has been given to all comments received. In this connection, comments were received objecting to the proposal on the grounds that investigations and tests conducted subsequent to the Boeing aircraft accident at Elkton do not support a finding that the explosion in the fuel tanks on that airplane resulted from ignition of fuel vapors through the fuel tank vent outlet. Although investigations and tests have failed to disclose the precise mechanism of ignition which triggered the explosion in the fuel tank that occurred in that accident, the investigations do indicate that there is a possibility that lightning-induced ignition through the fuel tank vent outlet could cause such an explosion. Therefore, the FAA considers it appropriate, as a precautionary measure, to adopt requirements designed to prevent such an occurrence, particularly in view of the catastrophic nature of fuel tank explosions. This action is consistent with previous airworthiness directives that require, as precautionary measures, the incorporation of other modifications to protect the fuel tank and fuel vent surge tanks from lightning strikes.

Comment was also received concerning the need to provide protection against the ignition of fuel by other ignition sources, such as ground fire through the vent. The comment further suggested that the FAA should also consider the possibility of lightning-induced ignition at other locations on the Boeing aircraft, such as filler caps and access plates. With respect to the matter of fuel ignition by ground fire through the vent, the FAA presently has that problem under study and it is recognized that it is a problem generally applicable to all aircraft. On the other hand, the access plates on the Boeing aircraft subject to sparking have been modified to ensure adequate bonding to the wing structure in accordance with a previous airworthiness directive. Moreover, the filler caps on the Boeing aircraft are not located in areas which are vulnerable to direct lightning strikes.

In addition, certain of the comments referred to an auxiliary vent system as being of questionable effectiveness and possibly subject to clogging by ice. Moreover, it was pointed out that this system does not protect against ignition through the vent by a ground fire. The FAA is aware that the auxiliary vent system has been shown by flight tests to be an effective means for preventing the efflux of fuel vapors through the main vent outlet. Vapor efflux would be through the auxiliary vent which is protected by a flame arrester. Moreover, the clogging of the auxiliary vent by ice would not impair the operation of the vent system. Insofar as protection from ignition through the vent by ground fire is concerned, as previously pointed out, the FAA has this problem under current study.

A comment was also made that all jet aircraft types, including other series of Boeing airplanes, should be covered under the protective requirements of this AD as finally enacted. The FAA has investigated the matter of lightning hazard to the fuel system on other jet airplanes, as well as other series of Boeing airplanes. Investigations to date of the vent system configuration of such airplanes has not shown that a retrofit modification of those vent systems is necessary.

Finally, a request was made for a compliance time of 7,000 hours' time in service rather than the proposed 6,000 hours, in order to fit the directive into the scheduled maintenance programs of the various operators. The FAA considers that this is a reasonable request in the light of the modifications required for compliance with this directive and the compliance time has been changed accordingly.

In consideration of the foregoing and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (14 CFR 11.89), § 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

BOEING. Applies to Model 707 and 720 Series airplanes, except 707-300B and -300C Series.

Compliance required within the next 7,000 hours' time in service after the effective date of this AD unless already accomplished.

To prevent explosion of fuel vapors in the fuel tanks as a result of lightning-induced ignition at the fuel tank vent outlet, accomplish one of the following, or an equivalent, approved by the Chief, Aircraft Engineering Division, FAA Western Region—

(a) Install a flame and explosion suppression system in the fuel tank vent outlet system to prevent flame propagation through the vent system following ignition of vapor by lightning at the vent outlet; or

(b) Install an auxiliary vent tube, with flame arrester, to the vent system surge tank to provide, during flight, continuous airflow inward through the existing vent outlet and outward through the protected auxiliary tube.

This amendment becomes effective September 10, 1967.

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, AND REPORTING POINTS

Alteration of Control Zone and Transition Area and Revocation of Transition Area

On June 21, 1967, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (32 F.R. 8818) stating that the Federal Aviation Administration was considering amendments to Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations that would alter the Huntsville, Ala., control zone and transition area.

Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to participate in the rule making through the submission of comments. All comments received were favorable except those submitted by Mr. George F. Epps, owner of Epps Air Park, Harvest, Ala. who requested that Epps Air Park be excluded from the 700-foot transition area. Since this exclusion would have no effect on controlled airspace requirements, it is necessary to alter the 700-foot transition area accordingly.

Subsequent to the publication of the notice, it was determined that the Decatur, Ala., transition area could be revoked as the required airspace protection for Pryor Field is contained in the Huntsville, Ala., transition area.

Since these amendments lessen the burden on the public, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary and they are incorporated in this rule.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended, effective 0001 e.d.s.t., October 29, 1967, as hereinafter set forth.

In § 71.171 (32 F.R. 2071) the Huntsville, Ala., control zone is amended to read:

HUNTSVILLE, ALA.

In § 71.181 (32 F.R. 2148) the Huntsville, Ala., transition area is amended to read:

HUNTSVILLE, ALA.

That airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface within a 15-mile radius of Redstone AAF (latitude 34°40'29" N., longitude 86°40'54" W.), excluding the airspace within a 1.5-mile radius of Epps Air Park (latitude 34°51'50" N., longitude 86°46'15" W.); within 2 miles each side of the 356° bearing from the Redstone RBN, extending from the 15-mile radius area to 11 miles north of the RBN; within 2 miles each side of the new Huntsville ILS localizer south course, extending from the 15-mile radius area to 14 miles south of the south end of runway 36L; within a 6-mile radius of Pryor Field (latitude 34°39'09.6" N., longitude 86°36'45.1" W.); within 8 miles west and 5 miles east of the Decatur VOR 352° radial, extending from the VOR to 12 miles north; within a 15-mile radius of latitude 34°40'00" N., longitude 86°37'30" W.; and that airspace extending upward from 1,200 feet above the surface within a 31-mile radius of latitude 34°46'30" N., longitude 86°36'50" W.

In § 71.181 (32 F.R. 2148) the Decatur, Ala., transition area is revoked.

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, AND REPORTING POINTS

Designation of Transition Area

The purpose of this amendment to Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is to designate the Pampa, Tex., transition area.

On June 7, 1967, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (32 F.R. 8182) stating the Federal Aviation Administration proposed to designate the Pampa, Tex., transition area.

Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to participate in the rule making through submission of comments. All comments received were favorable.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended, effective 0001 e.s.t., October 12, 1967, as herein set forth.

In § 71.181 (32 F.R. 2148) the Pampa, Tex., transition area is designated as follows:

PAMPA, TEX.

That airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface within a 7-mile radius of Perry Le Fors Airport (latitude 35°36'25" N., longitude 100°59'55" W.), and within 2 miles each side of the 001° bearing from the Pampa RBN (latitude 35°36'40" N., longitude 100°59'45" W.), extending from the 7-mile radius area to 8 miles north of the RBN.

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, AND REPORTING POINTS

Designation of Control Zone and Transition Area

On June 28, 1967, there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (32 F.R. 9172) a notice of proposed rule making, F.R. Doc. 67-7280, regarding the designation of a control zone and a 700-foot transition area for the new Sacramento County Metropolitan Airport, Sacramento, Calif.

Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to participate in the rule-making through submission of comments. Due consideration was given to all relevant matter presented.

One objection was received, this from the representative of Spangler Bros., Inc., Nicholas, Calif. The basis for the objection was that the designation of the proposed control zone and 700-foot transition area for the new Sacramento County Metropolitan Airport would adversely affect the aircraft operations of Spangler Bros., Inc., including the utilization of aircraft for planting, spraying, dusting, inspecting, and duck herding. According to the objection received, these operations are presently being conducted in airspace that will be part of the controlled airspace proposed.

Designation of Sacramento County Metropolitan Airport control zone and 700-foot transition area as proposed affects the above operations of Spangler Bros., Inc., as well as similar operations of others, only to the extent that these operations must now be conducted in accordance with the applicable provisions of Parts 91 and 137 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (FARs) relating to operating within a control zone and controlled airspace in general. The incidental effect of subjecting an operation to the provisions of Parts 91 and 137 of the FARs does not afford sufficient basis for altering the control zone and 700-foot transition area, as proposed, where the designation of this controlled airspace is otherwise justified and required.

The Federal Aviation Administration has determined after a comprehensive review of the airspace for the new Sacramento County Metropolitan Airport that a 5-mile control zone and extensions to the north and south are justified and required to protect aircraft executing prescribed instrument approach and departure procedures while operating below 1,000 feet above the surface. The 700-foot transition area is justified and required to provide controlled airspace to protect aircraft executing prescribed instrument approach procedures during decent from 1,500 to 700 feet above the surface and during climb from 700 to 1,200 feet above the surface.

Therefore, good cause exists to establish the proposed Sacramento County Metropolitan Airport control zone and 700-foot transition area as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (32 F.R. 9172).

Effective date. This amendment shall be effective 0001 e.s.t., October 12, 1967.

Issued in Los Angeles, Calif., on August 4, 1967.

LEE E. WARREN,
Acting Director, Western Region.

In § 71.171 (32 F.R. 2071) the following control zone is added:

SACRAMENTO, CALIF. (SACRAMENTO COUNTY METROPOLITAN AIRPORT)

That airspace within a 5-mile radius of the Sacramento County Metropolitan Airport (latitude 38°41'43" N., longitude 121°36'01" W.), and within 2 miles each side of the Sacramento County Metropolitan Airport localizer (latitude 38°40'32" N., longitude 121°36'09" W.) N and S courses, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 6 miles north and south of the airport; and including that airspace adjoining the McClellan AFB and Sacramento Municipal Airport control zones between latitude 38°41'43" N. and the Sacramento VORTAC 351° T radial.

In § 71.181 (32 F.R. 2247) amend the Sacramento, Calif., transition area by deleting, "• • • that airspace northeast of Sacramento within an arc of a 38-mile radius circle centered on the Sacramento VORTAC, bounded on the west and southwest by the east edge of V-23 • • •", and substituting therefor, "• • • that airspace within an arc of a 38-mile radius circle centered on the Sacramento VORTAC, bounded on the west by the west edge of V-23, and on the southwest by the northeast edge of V-23 • • •."

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, AND REPORTING POINTS

Designation of Control Zone and Transition Area

On page 9706 of the FEDERAL REGISTER dated July 4, 1967, there was published a notice of proposed rule making to amend Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations by designating a control zone and transition area in the Worland, Wyo., area. Interested persons were given 30 days in which to submit written comments, suggestions, or objections regarding the proposed airspace actions.

No objections have been received and the proposed amendments are hereby adopted without change.

Effective date. These amendments shall be effective 0001 e.s.t., October 12, 1967.

Issued in Los Angeles, Calif., on August 3, 1967.

LEE E. WARREN,
Acting Director, Western Region.

In § 71.171 (32 F.R. 2071) the following control zone is added:

WORLAND, WYO.

Within a 5-mile radius of Worland Municipal Airport (latitude 43°58'10" N., longitude 107°56'50" W.), and within 2 miles each side of the Worland VOR 352° radial, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 8 miles north of the VOR.

In § 71.181 (32 F.R. 2148) the following transition area is added:

WORLAND, WYO.

That airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface, within 8 miles west and 6 miles east of the Worland VOR 352° and 172° radials, extending from 13 miles north to 7 miles south of the VOR; that airspace extending upward from 1,200 feet above the surface, within a 23-mile radius of Worland VOR.

SUBCHAPTER F—AIR TRAFFIC AND GENERAL OPERATING RULES

[Reg. Docket No. 8810; Amdt. 548]

PART 97—STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURES

Miscellaneous Amendments

The amendments to the standard instrument approach procedures contained herein are adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety. The amended procedures supersede the existing procedures of the same classification now in effect for the airports specified therein. For the convenience of the users, the complete procedure is republished in this amendment indicating the changes to the existing procedures.

As a situation exists which demands immediate action in the interests of safety in air commerce, I find that compliance with the notice and procedure provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act is impracticable and that good cause exists for making this amendment effective within less than 30 days from publication.

In view of the foregoing and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 5662), Part 97 (14 CFR Part 97) is amended as follows:

1. By amending the following low or medium frequency range procedures prescribed in § 97.11(a) to read:

LFR STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURE

Bearings, headings, courses and radials are magnetic. Elevations and altitudes are in feet MSL. Ceilings are in feet above airport elevation. Distances are in nautical miles unless otherwise indicated, except visibilities which are in statute miles.
If an instrument approach procedure of the above type is conducted at the below named airport, it shall be in accordance with the following instrument approach procedure, unless an approach is conducted in accordance with a different procedure for such airport authorized by the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Agency. Initial approaches shall be made over specified routes. Minimum altitudes shall correspond with those established for en route operation in the particular area or as set forth below.

RADAR STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURES

Bearings, headings, courses and radials are magnetic. Elevations and altitudes are in feet, MSL. Ceilings are in feet above airport elevation. Distances are in nautical miles unless otherwise indicated, except visibilities which are in statute miles.

If a radar instrument approach is conducted at the below named airport, it shall be in accordance with the following instrument procedure, unless an approach is conducted in accordance with a different procedure for such airport authorized by the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Agency. Initial approaches shall be made over specified routes. Minimum altitude(s) shall correspond with those established for en route operation in the particular area, or as set forth below. Positive identification must be established with the radar controller. From initial contact with radar to final authorized landing minimums, the instructions of the radar controller are mandatory except when (A) visual contact is established on final approach at or before descent to the authorized landing minimums, or (B) at pilot's discretion if it appears desirable to discontinue the approach, except when the radar controller may direct otherwise prior to final approach, a missed approach shall be executed as provided below when (A) communication on final approach is lost for more than 5 seconds during a precision approach, or for more than 30 seconds during a surveillance approach; (B) directed by radar controller; (C) visual contact is not established upon descent to authorized landing minimums; or (D) if landing is not accomplished.

SUBCHAPTER C—INTERSTATE TRANSPORTATION OF ANIMALS AND POULTRY

PART 74—SCABIES IN SHEEP

Interstate Movement

Pursuant to the provisions of sections 4 through 7 of the Act of May 29, 1884, as amended, sections 1 and 2 of the Act of February 2, 1903, as amended, and sections 1 through 4 of the Act of March 3, 1905, as amended (21 U.S.C. 111–113, 115, 117, 120, 121, 123–126) Part 74, Subchapter C, Chapter I, Title 9, Code of Federal Regulations, as amended, is hereby further amended in the following respects:

1. Section 74.2 is amended as follows:

(1) By changing the heading and the introductory paragraph to read, respectively:

§ 74.2 Designation of free areas.

Notice is hereby given that sheep in the following States, Territories, and District are not known to be infected with scabies, and such States, Territories, and District are hereby designated as free areas:

* * * * *

(2) By inserting "Illinois," in alphabetical order in the list of free areas in paragraph (a)(1); and

(3) By deleting "(1)" preceding the list of free areas in paragraph (a)(1) and by deleting all of subparagraph (2) and paragraph (b).

2. Section 74.3 is amended to read as follows:

§ 74.3 Notice concerning sheep scabies.

Notice is hereby given that although sheep scabies is not known to exist in any State, Territory, or District designated as a free area in § 74.2 at this time, scabies is a disease which by its nature may exist without showing symptoms during the summer months and reappear during cold-weather months. Historically some outbreaks of scabies have occurred in areas which immediately theretofore appeared to be free of scabies. Therefore in view of the nature of the disease and its prior existence in the United States, it is necessary to continue surveillance over flocks in the areas designated as free areas and to continue to regulate the interstate movement of sheep as provided in this part.

(Secs. 4–7, 23 Stat. 32, as amended, secs. 1, 2, 32 Stat. 791–792, as amended, secs. 1–4, 33 Stat. 1264, as amended, 1265, as amended; 21 U.S.C. 111–113, 115, 117, 120, 121, 123–126; 29 F.R. 16210, as amended; 30 F.R. 5799, as amended)

The foregoing amendments terminate the designation of De Kalb County and Lake County, Ill., as infected areas and eradication areas, and classify Illinois as free area for purposes of the regulations. The amendments relieve restrictions heretofore applicable to the interstate movement of sheep from or into infected or eradication areas, but leave in effect other provisions of the regulations relating to the interstate movement of sheep from or into free areas. The amendments must be made effective promptly to be of maximum benefit to persons subject to the restrictions which are relieved. Accordingly, under the administrative procedure provisions of 5 U.S.C. section 553, it is found upon good cause that notice and other public procedure with respect to the amendments are impracticable and unnecessary, and good cause is found for making the amendments effective less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Effective date. The foregoing amendments shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. However, the revocation by such amendments of the designation of infected areas or eradication areas shall not affect violations of the regulations that occurred, liabilities that were incurred, or rights that accrued prior to said effective date.

Done at Washington, D.C., this 8th day of August 1967.

F. J. MULHERN,
Deputy Administrator,
Agricultural Research Service.

Title 17—COMMODITY AND SECURITIES EXCHANGES

Chapter II—Securities and Exchange Commission

[Release No. 34-8135]

PART 240—GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS, SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

Rules Regarding Conduct, Supervision and Records of Brokers and Dealers Not Members of National Securities Association

On October 25, 1966, in Securities Exchange Act Release No. 7904, and in the FEDERAL REGISTER of October 29, 1966 (32 F.R. 13919), the Securities and Exchange Commission published a proposal to adopt Rules 15b10–1 (17 CFR 240.15b10–1) (Definitions), 15b10–2 (17 CFR 240.15b10–2) (General Business Conduct), 15b10–3 (17 CFR 240.15b10–3) (Suitability of Recommendations), 15b10–4 (17 CFR 240.15b10–4) (Supervision of Associated Persons), 15b10–5 (17 CFR 240.15b10–5) (Discretionary Authority) and 15b10–6 (17 CFR 240.15b10–6) (Record Keeping) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as amended. The Commission has considered the comments and suggestions received and has adopted the rules as stated below effective October 2, 1967. As adopted, the rules relating to suitability of recommendations, supervision and record keeping have been modified.

These rules establish standards of supervision, general business conduct, and suitability of recommendations, regulate discretionary accounts, and impose additional recordkeeping requirements upon brokers and dealers who are registered with the Commission and not members of a registered national securities association.[1]

For many years members of the NASD and the exchanges have been subject to rules of these self-regulatory associations regulating selling practices and setting forth just and equitable principles of trade and standards of high commercial honor. Suitability standards have been applicable to brokers and dealers who are members of self-regulatory organizations, including the NASD, under the rules of conduct of such organizations. Section 15(b)(10), which was added to the Exchange Act by the Securities Act Amendments of 1964, contemplates that the Commission also will adopt rules in this area to be applicable to broker-dealers who are not members of a registered national securities association. Rule 15b10–3 (17 CFR 240.15b10–3) and the other rules are being adopted pursuant to the responsibilities placed upon the Commission by section 15(b)(10), which are intended to correspond to the responsibilities of the NASD in this area with respect to its members. Section 15(b)(10) provides:

No broker or dealer subject to paragraph (8) of this subsection shall effect any transaction in, or induce the purchase or sale of, any security (otherwise than on a national securities exchange) in contravention of such rules and regulations as the Commission may prescribe designed to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to provide safeguards against unreasonable profits or unreasonable rates of commissions or other charges, and in general to protect investors and the public interest, and to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market.

Despite the long-standing existence of the NASD rules on suitability and related matters, the Commission believes that it is not inappropriate to delay the effectiveness of the new rules beyond the minimum 30-day period required by the Administrative Procedure Act section 4, as codified, 5 U.S.C. Section 553 (1966) in order to permit broker-dealers who will be subject to the new rules an adequate opportunity to familiarize themselves with the regulatory standards and to establish appropriate record keeping and supervisory practices to comply with the procedural aspects of the rules. The rules will accordingly not become effective until October 2, 1967. In addition, the Commission expects to publish releases from time to time reflecting interpretations of the new rules, and broker-dealers who have any questions concerning the applicability of the rules to particular situations may request an interpretation from the Chief Counsel of the Division of Trading and Markets, either before or after the date on which the new rules go into effect.

[1] At present, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. ("NASD"), is the only such association.

Rule 15b10–1 (17 CFR 240.15b10–1). Definitions. Rule 15b10–1 (17 CFR § 240.15b10–1) defines the terms "nonmember broker or dealer," "associated person" and "complaint" as they are used in Rules 15b10–2 through 15b10–7 (17 CFR 240.15b10–2—15b10–7) inclusive.

Rule 15b10–2 (17 CFR 240.15b10–2). General business conduct. Rule 15b10–2 (17 CFR 240.15b10–2) requires that nonmember brokers and dealers and their associated persons adhere to high standards of commercial honor and just and equitable principles of trade in the conduct of their business. The rule is intended to impose a general ethical standard of fair dealing on such persons.

Rule 15b10–3 (17 CFR 240.15b10–3). Suitability of recommendations. Rule 15b10–3 (17 CFR 240.15b10–3) is intended to require a nonmember broker-dealer, or an associated person, to concern himself with securing the facts and circumstances pertaining to the transaction and the customer to permit him to make a reasonable judgment that the transaction recommended to the customer is not unsuitable for him. Under the rule the broker or dealer, and his associated persons, when recommending a transaction to a customer, are expected to make reasonable inquiry concerning the customer's investment objectives, and his financial situation and needs. Information concerning financial situation and needs would ordinarily include information concerning the customer's marital status, the number and age of his dependents, his earnings, the amount of his savings and life insurance, and his security holdings and other assets. The broker-dealer and his associated persons may rely on the information furnished by the customer.

The nature and extent of the inquiry to be made by the broker-dealer will depend on all the facts and circumstances. Thus, depending on the length of the interval between recommendations, it might be sufficient simply to ask the customer whether there has been any material change in his circumstances since the previous inquiry. Moreover, the broker-dealer is not precluded from making a recommendation because the customer, after a reasonable inquiry, declines to furnish information concerning his investment objectives, financial situation and needs.

Rule 15b10–3 (17 CFR 240.15b10–3) is not an attempt to second-guess the exercise of the reasonable business judgment of a broker-dealer or to make him an insurer of favorable investment performance. The recommendation must be judged in the light of the information available to the broker-dealer after reasonable inquiry as to the customer's situation at the time of the recommendation and not by reference to subsequent events. The rule will not affect legitimate sales efforts in the securities industry, and it is not intended that a general distribution of a market letter, research report or other similar material would in itself constitute a recommendation within the meaning of this rule.

The rule, which is not being adopted under the antifraud provisions of the Exchange Act, would not affect the obligations of broker-dealers under those provisions of that Act or the rules thereunder[1] which prohibit or prevent fraudulent conduct.

Rule 15b10–4 (17 CFR 240.15b10–4). Supervision of associated persons. The rule has been modified so that the broker or dealer will have increased flexibility in determining how best to satisfy the duties imposed by the rule.

Rule 15b10–4 (17 CFR 240.15b10–4) imposes a general duty on nonmember brokers and dealers to supervise diligently the securities activities of their associated persons.[2] As part of this general duty each nonmember broker-dealer is required to maintain and enforce written procedures setting forth the measures adopted by the broker-dealer to comply with the duties imposed by the rule. Each nonmember broker-dealer must keep a copy of these procedures in each business office. Furthermore, each such broker-dealer is required to designate certain of his associated persons as supervisors. Every associated person of the broker-dealer must be subject to the supervision of one such supervisor.

The rule requires that the written procedures include the review and written approval of the opening of new customer accounts; frequent examination of customer accounts; and the prompt review and written approval of all securities transactions and correspondence pertaining to the solicitation and execution of all securities transactions. Written approval may be made on copies of order tickets or confirmations, the daily blotter, or by any other method which would indicate a proper review of the transactions by the designated supervisor.

In addition, the rule requires that the written procedures include special supervisory treatment for discretionary accounts. A supervisor is required to approve in writing the delegation by any customer of discretionary authority with respect to his account to a stated associated person of the broker-dealer and is required to approve promptly in writing every discretionary transaction effected on behalf of such customer.

Further, a supervisor is required to review promptly and approve in writing the handling of all customer complaints which are handled by or pertain to the associated persons subject to his supervision. As defined in Rule 15b10–1 (17 CFR 240.15b10–1), a complaint is any written statement by a customer, or a person acting on the customer's behalf, pertaining to the customer's grievance involving the securities activities of the broker-dealer or of any associated person.

The supervision rule contemplates that every customer account and all transactions, correspondence and complaints pertaining to that account shall be subject to the supervision of at least one such supervisor. In selecting the individuals to carry out the required supervisory procedures, the broker-dealer should take into consideration the need for qualified individuals in such positions.[3] Furthermore, the Commission has recognized the need for special qualifications for supervisors by imposing higher passing grade requirements for principals and supervisors who must take the Commission's examination. Full compliance with the rule, therefore, will involve careful selection of only the most qualified individuals to perform the required supervisory functions.

In addition to requiring the direct supervision over the securities activities of the broker-dealer's associated persons by a designated supervisor, the rule also requires that broker-dealers with more than one such supervisor maintain a secondary level of overall supervision in order to review and supplement the supervision effected by the supervisors. Part of the responsibilities of the overall supervisor or supervisors is to inspect each business office of the broker or dealer periodically. This office inspection should include but not be limited to the examination of the complaints of, or on behalf of, customers of such office.

Rule 15b10–5 (17 CFR 240.15b10–5). Discretionary authority. Rule 15b10–5 (17 CFR 240.15b10–5), which governs discretionary accounts, is intended to safeguard against malpractices and abuses that occur in the creation and handling of such accounts. The rule requires the person who is to exercise discretionary authority in any account to be specifically so authorized in writing by the customer. The rule also requires that the broker-dealer's records state the reasons given by the customer for granting discretionary authority in his account. Every transaction effected in a discretionary account must be promptly approved in writing by a person with supervisory responsibility.

Rule 15b10–6 (17 CFR 240.15b10–6). Record keeping. The rule as proposed has been modified to further distinguish between customer accounts opened prior and subsequent to the effective date of the rule and to enable nonmember brokers or dealers to keep the required records at any appropriate office of the broker or dealer, except that copies of complaints and records of what action, if any, has been taken by the broker or dealer with respect to such complaints, must be maintained in the local office through which the customer account is handled.

Rule 15b10–6 (17 CFR 240.15b10–6) requires nonmember brokers and dealers to make and keep current specified records designed to complement certain provisions of the rules on suitability (Rule 15b10–3) (17 CFR 240.15b10–3), personnel supervision (Rule 15b10–4) (17 CFR 240.15b10–4), and discretionary accounts (Rule 15b10–5) (17 CFR 240.15b10–5). It does not duplicate any of the record keeping requirements to which nonmember brokers and dealers are already subject under Rule 17a–3 (17 CFR 240.17a–3) of the Exchange Act.

The rule requires that a record be kept for each person who becomes a customer after the effective date of the rule, which record shall state the customer's name, date of birth, address, nationality or citizenship, tax identification or social security number and the signatures of the customer, the associated person regularly handling the account and a supervisor designated pursuant to subparagraph (b) of Rule 15b10–4 (17 CFR 240.15b10–4). Where the broker-dealer, or any associated person, has made any recommendation to the customer to purchase, sell or exchange any security, the record must also state the customer's occupation, marital status, investment objectives, information concerning the customer's financial situation and needs which the broker-dealer or associated person considered in making the recommendation, and the signature of the broker or dealer or associated person who made the recommendation. However, the requirement that the customer's record be kept current does not mean that information dealing with the customer's investment objectives, financial situation and needs must be up-dated when no further recommendations are made.

Further, the rule requires that if a recommendation is made to a person who was a customer prior to the effective date of the rule, a record shall be made and kept current for such customer. This record must state all of the information required with respect to customer accounts opened after the effective date of the rule.

The rule provides that the record need not contain any item of information which the broker or dealer does not have because, after reasonable inquiry, a customer declines to furnish it, if the record contains a statement to that effect; provided, however, that the customer's record must state the customer's name, address and social security or tax identification number.

Where any customer has delegated discretionary authority to the broker-dealer or any associated person, the rule also requires that in addition to the information mentioned above the broker-dealer records contain the customer's written delegation of discretionary authority, a statement of the reasons given by the customer for granting such authority, and the written approval of the persons with supervisory responsibility over that account.

The rule also requires a separate complaint file, to be kept alphabetically by customers' names, and to include copies of all material relating to complaints, and a record of what action, if any, has been taken by the broker or dealer. Copies of such material and record of action taken shall be kept in the local office through which the customer account is handled.

All of the records to be maintained under this rule are required to be preserved for a period of not less than 6 years, the first 2 years in an easily accessible place. After the first two years, a photograph on film may be substituted for the records for the balance of the required time.

Rule 15b10–7 (17 CFR 240.15b10–7). Exemption for certain exchange members. Among the broker-dealers that are not members of a registered national securities association are several specialists and other floor members of national securities exchanges, some of whom introduce accounts to other members. The over-the-counter business of these broker-dealers may be limited to receipt of a portion of the commission paid on occasional over-the-counter transactions in these introduced accounts, and to certain other transactions incidental to their activities as specialists. In most cases, the income derived from these activities is nominal.

Rule 15b10–7 (17 CFR 240.15b10–7) exempts from all of the above rules adopted under section 15(b)(10) of the Exchange Act, members of national securities exchanges who do not carry customers' accounts and whose annual gross income derived from their over-the-counter business does not exceed $1,000.

Commission action. The Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to the provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as amended, and particularly sections 15(b)(10), 17(a) and 23(a) thereof, deeming such action necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and designed to promote just and equitable principles of trade pursuant to section 15(b)(10) among registered brokers and dealers not members of a registered national securities association, and also deeming such action necessary for the execution of the functions vested in the Commission by the Act, hereby adopts Rules 15b10–1 through 15b10–7 (17 CFR 240.15b10–1 through –7) as stated below, effective October 2, 1967.

§ 240.15b10–1 Definitions.

(b) The term "associated person" shall mean any partner, officer, director, or branch manager of a nonmember broker or dealer (or any person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions), or any natural person directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by such nonmember broker or dealer, and shall include any employee of such nonmember broker or dealer (other than employees whose functions are only clerical or ministerial).

(c) The term "complaint" shall mean any written statement by a customer, or a person acting on the customer's behalf, pertaining to the customer's grievance involving the securities activities of the nonmember broker or dealer or any of his associated persons.

§ 240.15b10–2 General business conduct.

Every nonmember broker or dealer and associated person shall observe high standards of commercial honor and just and equitable principles of trade in the conduct of his business.

§ 240.15b10–3 Suitability of recommendations.

Every nonmember broker or dealer and every associated person who recommends to a customer the purchase, sale or exchange of any security shall have reasonable grounds to believe that the recommendation is not unsuitable for such customer on the basis of information furnished by such customer after reasonable inquiry concerning the customer's investment objectives, financial situation and needs, and any other information known by such broker or dealer or associated person.

§ 240.15b10–4 Supervision of associated persons.

(a) Every nonmember broker or dealer shall exercise diligent supervision over all the securities activities of all of his associated persons.

(b) Every associated person of the nonmember broker or dealer shall be subject to the supervision of a supervisor designated by such broker or dealer. The supervisor may be a partner, officer, office manager, or any other qualified associated person, or in the case of a sole proprietor the broker or dealer.

(c) As part of his responsibility under this section, every nonmember broker or dealer shall establish, maintain and enforce written procedures, a copy of which shall be kept in each business office, which shall set forth the procedures adopted by the broker or dealer to comply with the following duties imposed by this section, and shall state at which business office or offices the nonmember broker or dealer keeps and maintains the records required by § 240.15b10–6:

(1) The review and written approval by the designated supervisor of the opening of each new customer account;

(2) The frequent examination of all customer accounts to detect and prevent irregularities or abuses;

[1] Rules 10b–5 and 15c1–2 (17 CFR 240.10b–5 and 15c1–2).

[2] The Commission in its decisions has continually recognized the need for greater broker-dealer supervision and the Special Study of Securities Markets ("Special Study") emphasized the need for such supervision:

> The supervision by the broker-dealers of the selling activities of their personnel, particularly in branch offices, should be generally strengthened by the adoption of appropriate procedures. The Commission should adopt rules to facilitate and reinforce controls by firms, the self-regulatory bodies and the Commission over selling practices * * *. (Special Study, Part I, pp. 326, 329)

[3] The Special Study urged that those persons who are branch office managers should be relieved of ordinary selling responsibilities. See Special Study, pt. I, p. 328.

all securities transactions by associated persons;

(4) The review and written approval by the designated supervisor of the delegation by any customer of discretionary authority with respect to his account to a stated associated person or persons of the broker or dealer and the prompt written approval of each discretionary order entered on behalf of that account; and

(d) Every nonmember broker or dealer who has designated more than one supervisor pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section shall designate from among his partners, officers or other qualified associated persons, a person or group of persons who shall:

(1) Supervise and periodically review the activities of the supervisors designated pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section; and

(2) Periodically inspect each business office of the broker or dealer to insure that the written procedures are enforced.

§ 240.15b10–5 Discretionary authority.

(a) No nonmember broker or dealer, or any associated person, shall exercise any discretionary power or authority for any customer unless such customer has given prior written authorization to exercise such power or authority to a stated associated person or persons, and has indicated the reasons for such authorization.

(b) This section shall not apply to transactions in which the broker-dealer's discretion is limited to the price at which or the time when an order given by a customer for the purchase or sale of a definite amount of a specified security shall be executed.

§ 240.15b10–6 Record keeping.

(a) Every nonmember broker or dealer shall make and keep current a record for each person who becomes a customer after the effective date of this section, which record shall state:

(1) (i) The customer's name, date of birth, address, nationality or citizenship, tax identification or social security number, and the signatures of the customer, the associated person regularly handling the account and a supervisor designated pursuant to paragraph (b) of § 240.15b10–4.

(ii) If the broker or dealer, or any associated person, has made any recommendation to the customer to purchase, sell or exchange any security, the record for such customer shall also state the customer's occupation, marital status, investment objectives, other information concerning the customer's financial situation and needs which the broker or dealer or the associated person considered in making the recommendation, and the signature of the broker or dealer or associated person who made the recommendation to the customer.

(b) If, after the effective date of this section, a nonmember broker or dealer, or any associated person, has made any recommendation to a person who became a customer prior to the effective date of this section, the broker or dealer shall make and keep current a record for such customer which shall state the information required by paragraph (a) (1) (i) and (ii) of this section.

(c) Any item of information required by paragraph (a) (1) (i) or (ii) of this section need not be contained in the customer's record if, after reasonable inquiry, the customer declines to furnish such item of information and a statement to that effect is placed in such record: Provided, however, That the customer's record must state the customer's name, address and social security or tax identification number.

(d) Every nonmember broker or dealer shall make and keep current:

(1) A record or records with respect to each discretionary account which shall include:

(i) The customer's written authorization to exercise discretionary power or authority with respect to such account.

(ii) The reasons given by the customer for granting discretionary authority in his account.

(iii) The written approval of a supervisor designated pursuant to paragraph (b) of § 240.15b10–4 and, if appropriate, the written approval of the person or persons designated pursuant to paragraph (d) of § 240.15b10–4, of the delegation of discretionary authority.

(iv) The written approval of a supervisor designated pursuant to paragraph (b) of § 240.15b10–4 of each transaction in such account indicating the exact time and date of such approval.

(2) A separate file for all complaints by customers and persons acting on behalf of customers. Such complaints shall be filed alphabetically by customer's name and shall include copies of all material relating to the complaint, and a record of what action, if any, has been taken by the broker or dealer. Copies of such material and record of action taken shall be kept in the office through which the customer account is handled.

(e) Every nonmember broker or dealer shall preserve all records required by the section for a period of not less than 6 years, the first two years in an easily accessible place. After the first two years, a photograph on film may be substituted for the records for the balance of the required time.

§ 240.15b10–7 Exemption for certain exchange members.

Any nonmember broker or dealer who is a member of a national securities exchange shall be exempt from §§ 240.15b 10–1 through 240.15b10–6 if (a) he carries no accounts of customers, and (b) his annual gross income derived from purchases and sales of securities otherwise than on a national securities exchange is in an amount no greater than $1,000.

Title 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T.D. 67-185]

PART 10—ARTICLES CONDITIONALLY FREE, SUBJECT TO A REDUCED RATE, ETC.

Entry of Visual or Auditory Materials of Educational, Scientific, or Cultural Character

The purpose of the following regulations is to prescribe procedures in connection with the entry under item 870.30, and headnote 1, part 6, schedule 8, Tariff Schedules of the United States, of articles which have been determined by a Federal agency designated by the President to be visual or auditory materials of an educational, scientific, or cultural character within the meaning of the Agreement for Facilitating the International Circulation of Visual and Auditory Materials of an Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Character.

Part 10 is amended by adding a center heading and new section as follows:

VISUAL OR AUDITORY MATERIALS

§ 10.121 Visual or auditory materials of an educational, scientific, or cultural character.

(a) Where photographic film and other articles described in item 870.30, Tariff Schedules of the United States, are claimed to be free of duty under item 870.30, there shall be filed in connection with the entry covering such articles a document issued by the U.S. Information Agency certifying that it has determined that the articles are visual or auditory materials of an educational, scientific, or cultural character within the meaning of the Agreement for Facilitating the International Circulation of Visual and Auditory Materials of an Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Character as required by headnote 1, part 6, schedule 8, Tariff Schedules of the United States.

(b) Articles entered under item 870.30, Tariff Schedules of the United States, shall be released from customs custody prior to submission of the document required in paragraph (a) of this section only upon the deposit of estimated duties with the district director of customs. Liquidation of an entry covering merchandise which has been released under this procedure shall be suspended for a period of 90 days from the date of entry or until the required document is submitted, whichever occurs first. In the event that the district director of customs at the port of entry does not receive the required document within the 90-day period, the merchandise shall be immediately classified and liquidated in the ordinary course, without regard to item 870.30.

(77A Stat., as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1202 (Gen. Hdnte 11, sch. 8, pt. 6, hdnte 1))

Notice of the proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER for June 1, 1967 (32 F.R. 7917). One comment was received, suggesting that liquidation of entries not accompanied by proper documentation be suspended until such time as procedures for certifying visual and auditory materials under the Beirut Agreement are established in all of the signatory nations. In view of the extended period of time for which entries may be required to remain unliquidated under that suggestion, its adoption was not considered to be practicable.

Pursuant to Public Law 89-634 and Executive Order 11311 of October 14, 1966, the provisions of item 870.30, and headnote 1, part 6, schedule 8, Tariff Schedules of the United States, became effective with respect to articles entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption, on and after January 1, 1967. Good cause is, therefore, found under 5 U.S.C. 553(d) for making these regulations which govern the entry of articles under item 870.30 effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Commissioner of Customs.

PART 23—ENFORCEMENT OF CUSTOMS AND NAVIGATION LAWS

Registration of Narcotic Addicts and Violators

In order to give effect to a decision of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit in the case of Weissman v. United States, 373 F. 2d 799 (1967), which held that part of 18 U.S.C. 1407 relating to one who uses narcotic drugs unconstitutional for vagueness and to make it clear that customs officers are required to furnish, without request, a copy of customs Form 3231 only to such persons as they have reason to believe or suspect are narcotic drug addicts or narcotic or marihuana laws violators, § 23.9a of the Customs Regulations is amended to read as follows:

§ 23.9a Narcotic addicts and violators; border crossing.

Any U.S. citizen who is addicted to narcotic drugs as defined in section 4731 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended (except in those cases where the narcotic drug is lawfully prescribed by a duly licensed physician in attendance upon such person), or who has been convicted of a violation of any of the narcotic or marihuana laws of the United States or of any State thereof, the penalty for which is imprisonment for more than 1 year, shall register his departure from the United States with the district director of customs at the port of departure on customs Form 3231, Registration Certificate of Narcotic Addict or Violator.[1] The original shall be given to the registrant who, upon his return to the United States, shall immediately register with the district director of customs at the first port of arrival by signing before a customs officer in the space provided for this purpose on the original and by surrendering the completed form to the customs officer. If the person seeking to register did not obtain a registration certificate (customs Form 3231) on leaving the United States, or, having obtained a certificate, has lost it or for any reason he cannot present the certificate, he shall register on customs Form 3231 immediately at the first port of arrival in the United States, and surrender the completed form to the district director of customs. Customs officers who have reason to believe or suspect that a person returning to the United States is addicted to narcotic drugs or is a narcotic or marihuana laws violator, shall request such person to surrender a registration certificate. If such person for any reason cannot present the certificate the customs officer shall provide him with a copy of the registration certificate (customs Form 3231) and instruct him that he is obligated to complete the form and surrender it to the district director of customs or be in violation of law.

Notice of proposed rule making, setting forth the amendment in tentative form, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 6, 1967 (32 F.R. 8093). No written views or comments were received in response to that notice.

This amendment shall become effective 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Title 50—WILDLIFE AND FISHERIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

SUBCHAPTER B—HUNTING AND POSSESSION OF WILDLIFE

PART 10—MIGRATORY BIRDS

Open Seasons, Bag Limits, and Possession of Certain Migratory Game Birds

By notice of proposed rule making published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of April 6, 1967 (32 F.R. 5628), notification was given that the Secretary of the Interior proposed to amend Part 10, Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations. These amendments would specify open seasons, certain closed seasons, shooting hours, and bag and possession limits for migratory game birds for the 1967–68 hunting seasons.

In this connection all interested persons were invited to submit their views, data, or arguments regarding such matters in writing to the Director, Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, Washington, D.C. 20240, within thirty days following the date of publication of the notice.

Subsequently, after consultation with interested persons and after due consideration of migratory game bird survey data obtained through investigations conducted by the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, State game departments, and from other sources, the following regulations for the control of the hunting of Canada geese in the State of Wisconsin during the 1967–68 hunting season were developed.

Accordingly, interested persons having had an opportunity to participate in the rule making process, and consideration having been given to all other matters presented, it is determined that § 10.53 of Part 10 shall be amended as set forth below.

The taking of Canada geese is presently prohibited. Since this amendment will benefit the public by relieving existing restrictions, it shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Section 10.53 is amended by adding a new paragraph (c) to read as follows:

§ 10.53 Seasons and limits on waterfowl, coots, and Wilson's snipe.

(c) (1) In Wisconsin, during the 1967–68 waterfowl season, the kill of Canada geese will be limited to not more than 20,000 birds; 15,000 of which may be taken in the area designated as the Horicon Zone and 5,000 in the remainder of the State.

Horicon Zone. The Horicon Zone includes portions of Columbia, Dane, Dodge, Fond du Lac, Green Lake, Jefferson, Marquette, Waushara, Washington, Waukesha, and Winnebago Counties, bounded on the north by State Highway 21, on the east by U.S. Highway 45 and State Highways 175 and 83, on the south by U.S. Highway 18, and on the west by State Highway 73.

CANADA GEESE

	Horicon Zone	Remainder of State
Daily bag limit	1	1
Possession (season) limit	1	2
Shooting hours	½-hour before sunrise until sunset daily.
Seasons in:
Horicon Zone	Oct. 14–Nov. 19.
Remainder of State	Oct. 7–Dec. 15.

(2) Seasons and tag validity: In the Horicon Zone, the hunting periods and numbers of valid permits and tags issued in each period will be as follows:

Period No.	Valid dates (inclusive)	Number of permits and tags issued	Days valid
1	Oct. 14–15	1,650	2
2	Oct. 16–22	2,970	7
3	Oct. 23–29	2,970	7
4	Oct. 30–Nov. 5	2,970	7
5	Nov. 6–12	2,970	7
6	Nov. 13–19	2,970	7
			37

In the remainder of Wisconsin, excluding the Horicon Zone, tags and permits will be valid for the full length of the Canada goose season.

(i) Each person must have been issued and must carry on his person while hunting Canada geese a valid State hunting license, Migratory Bird Hunting Stamp, and valid Canada goose permit and tag to hunt and kill Canada geese in Wisconsin during the 1967 season. Licensed hunters less than 16 years of age are not required to have a Migratory Bird Hunting Stamp.

(ii) The required tags and permits will be issued in the names of individuals, and will be nontransferable. Applications must be signed by the person(s) requesting tags and permits. To provide for father and son or "buddy" hunting, not to exceed two persons may apply jointly as a party for tags and permits simultaneously valid in the Horicon Zone.

(iii) The self-locking (metal grommet snap type) tag must be securely locked about the leg of each Canada goose when it is reduced to possession. The goose cannot be carried or transported in any manner without the tag being attached. The tag must remain on the goose until it reaches the abode of the permit holder. The tag may not be reused.

(iv) In the Horicon Zone each successful applicant will receive one permit and tag. In the event that the number of applicants exceeds the number of permits and tags available, successful applicants will be randomly selected by electronic data processing (EDP) equipment. No individual will be accorded preferential treatment nor will nonresident applicants be discriminated against.

(v) In the remainder of Wisconsin, outside the Horicon Zone, a permit and two tags will be issued to each applicant. Applicants unsuccessful in receiving a permit and tag valid for the Horicon Zone may apply for and receive two tags valid in the remainder of the State providing he so requests in his application. Individual applicants may receive a permit and tag or tags valid in the Horicon Zone or in the remainder of the State, but may not receive permits and tags for both zones.

(vi) A mandatory report on tag use or nonuse, will be required to determine the overall harvest. A franked, self-addressed return envelope will be distributed as part of the tag and permit issuance procedure for the Horicon Zone. In the remainder of the State, two such reporting envelopes will be provided so that each tag may be reported upon. Tag reports must be placed in the mail within 12 hours following tag use, or, if the hunter is unsuccessful, within 12 hours following the close of the period for which the tag is valid. Unused tags must be returned.

(3) Applications will be made available to the public about the second week of August and must be mailed by August 30, 1967. All applications postmarked after August 30, 1967 will be disqualified. Applications will be disqualified because of incompleteness, illegibility, tardiness in receipt, or duplication. A duplicate application will disqualify all applications by an individual.

(4) Application forms will be available from county clerks, State hunting and fishing license depots and from Wisconsin Conservation Department offices in Spooner, Woodruff, Black River Falls, Oshkosh and Madison.

CONTROL ZONE AND TRANSITION AREA

Proposed Alteration

The Federal Aviation Administration is considering amending §§ 71.171 and 71.181 of Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations so as to alter the Baltimore, Md. Control Zone and 700-foot floor transition area.

A further review of the Baltimore, Md. control zone and transition area requirements has indicated a need to delete the northeast and northwest extensions and increase the western extension by 2 miles and numerous changes in the 700-foot floor transition area which overlies both Friendship International and Martin Airports.

Interested parties may submit such written data or views as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Director, Eastern Region, ATTN: Chief, Air Traffic Division, Department of Transportation, Federal Aviation Administration, Federal Building, John F. Kennedy International Airport, Jamaica, N.Y. 11430. All communications received within 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements may be made for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Administration officials by contacting the Chief, Airspace and Standards Branch, Eastern Region.

Any data or views presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Office of Regional Counsel, Federal Aviation Administration, Federal Building, John F. Kennedy International Airport, Jamaica, N.Y.

The Federal Aviation Administration, having completed a review of the airspace requirements for the terminal area of Baltimore, Md., proposes the airspace action hereinafter set forth:

1. Amend § 71.171 of Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations by deleting the description of the Baltimore, Md. control zone and insert in lieu thereof the following:

Within a 5-mile radius of the center, 39°10'26" N., 76°40'15" W., of Friendship International Airport, Baltimore, Md.; and within 2 miles each side of the Baltimore ILS west course extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 10 miles west of the OM.

2. Amend § 71.181 of Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations by deleting the description of the 700-foot floor Baltimore, Md. transition area and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

That airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface within a 9-mile radius of the center, 39°10'26" N., 76°40'15" W., of Friendship International Airport, Baltimore, Md.; within 2 miles each side of the runway 33 centerline extended from the 9-mile radius area to 9 miles northwest of the end of the runway; within 5 miles north and 8 miles south of the Baltimore ILS west course extending from the 9-mile radius area to 12 miles west of the OM; within a 6-mile radius of the center, 39°19'35" N., 76°25'00" W., of Martin Airport, Baltimore, Md.; within 2 miles each side of the runway 14 centerline extended from the 6-mile radius area to 7 miles southeast of the end of the runway; within 2 miles each side of the runway 36 centerline extended from the 6-mile radius area to 9 miles north of the end of the runway; within 2 miles each side of a 132° bearing from the Martin RBN (39°18'18" N., 76°22'45" W.) extending from the 6-mile radius area to 8 miles southeast of the RBN; within 2 miles each side of the Martin TACAN (39°19'18" N., 76°-24'42" W.) 317° radial extending from the 6-mile radius area to 15 miles northwest of the TACAN and within a 19-mile radius arc of the Baltimore VORTAC extending clockwise from the Baltimore VORTAC 004° radial to the 035° radial.

This amendment is proposed under section 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749; 49 U.S.C. 1348).

Issued in Jamaica, N.Y., on July 28, 1967.

[Airspace Docket No. 67-SO-74]

CONTROL ZONE AND TRANSITION AREA

Proposed Alteration

The Federal Aviation Administration is considering an amendment to Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations that would alter the Spartanburg, S.C., control zone and transition area.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Area Manager, Atlanta Area Office, Attn: Chief, Air Traffic Branch, Federal Aviation Administration, Post Office Box 20636, Atlanta, Ga. 30320. All communications received within 30 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Administration officials may be made by contacting the Chief, Air Traffic Branch. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The Spartanburg control zone described in § 71.171 (32 F.R. 2071) would be altered by deleting "Spartanburg Memorial Downtown Airport" and substituting "Spartanburg Downtown Memorial Airport" therefor.

The Spartanburg transition area described in § 71.181 (32 F.R. 2148) would be redesignated as:

That airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface within an 8-mile radius of the Spartanburg Downtown Memorial Airport (latitude 34°54'55" N., longitude 81°57'32" W.); within 2 miles each side of a 237° bearing from the Spartanburg RBN, extending from the 8-mile radius area to 8 miles southwest of the RBN; within 2 miles each side of the Spartanburg VORTAC 194° and 014° radials, extending from the 8-mile radius area to 8 miles north of the VORTAC, excluding that portion which coincides with the Greenville, S.C., transition area.

The proposed control zone alteration is required to correct an existing error in the airport name.

The existing 700-foot transition area was predicated on Criteria II operations. Current operations require a change in classification to Criteria III and necessitate an increase in dimension of the 700-foot transition area. The increase would provide controlled airspace protection for IFR aircraft during climb from 700 to 1,200 feet above the surface and during descent from 1,500 to 1,000 feet above the surface.

The official docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Southern Regional Office, Federal Aviation Administration, Room 724, 3400 Whipple Street, East Point, Ga.

This amendment is proposed under the authority of section 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1348(a)).

Issued in East Point, Ga., on August 1, 1967.

GORDON A. WILLIAMS, JR.,
Acting Director, Southern Region.

[No. 34850]

REFRIGERATOR CAR LINES

Uniform System of Accounts

JULY 28, 1967.

Notice is hereby given pursuant to the provisions of section 4(a) of the Administrative Procedure Act that the Commission has under consideration proposed amendments of the Uniform System of Accounts for Refrigerator Car Lines, to be effective as of January 1, 1967, with regard to the accounting treatment of extraordinary and prior period items in the determination of net income.

The proposed regulations would (a) generally require that items affecting net income be recorded in appropriate profit and loss accounts, rather than by direct entry to retained income account, and (b) explain, define and provide accounts and categories for ordinary income, extraordinary items, prior period items and applicable income taxes.

The revised rules herein proposed will have several notable advantages over current regulations which conditionally permit direct entry to retained income. Moreover, in asserting more objective criteria with respect to determination of materiality than presently exist, the proposed changes are intended to minimize the extensive need to interpret existing regulations.

The Detailed Statement of Proposed Rule contained in the appendix hereto completely states the proposed revisions to the applicable parts of the Uniform System of Accounts for Refrigerator Car Lines, considered necessary to accomplish the stated objectives.

All carriers affected by the proposed rules and other interested parties who desire to do so should submit written views and comments for consideration, as soon as possible, and not later than September 15, 1967. The Commission will consider all such responses and representations before deciding this matter, after which such order as may be found appropriate will be entered. An original and three copies of any such response should be submitted.

Notice shall be given refrigerator car lines hereby affected and to the general public by depositing this Notice in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D.C., and by filing this Notice with the Director, Office of the Federal Register.

Authority: Sec. 12, 24 Stat. 383, as amended, sec. 20(6), 54 Stat. 917; 49 U.S.C. 12, 20(6))

By the Commission, Division 2.

[SEAL] H. NEIL GARSON, Secretary.

DETAILED STATEMENT OF PROPOSED RULE

I. Instructions amended—Item No. 1. Instruction "3 Classification of accounts" is amended by revising the first and second paragraphs to read as follows:

Accounts are prescribed to cover cost of property used in furnishing cars or protective service and for revenues, expenses, taxes and income from such service. Separate accounts are prescribed for investment in property not used in such services and for other investments and income therefrom; for extraordinary and prior period items, including applicable income taxes; and for assets, liabilities and capital includible in the balance sheet statement. Retained income accounts form the connecting link between the income account and the equity section of the balance sheet. They are provided to record the transfer of net income or loss for the year; certain capital transactions; and, when authorized by the Commission, other items.

All items of profit and loss recognized during the year are includible in ordinary income except nonrecurring items which in the aggregate for the same class are both material in relation to operating revenues and ordinary income for the year and are clearly not identified with or do not result from usual business operations of the year. Important items of the kind which occur from time to time and which, when material in amount, are to be excluded from ordinary income are those resulting from unusual sales of property and investment securities other than temporary cash investments, from company bonds reacquired, from change in application of accounting principles, and from prior period items (other than ordinary adjustments of a recurring nature). Material items are those which, unless excluded from ordinary income, would distort the accounts and impair the significance of ordinary income for the year. Items so excludible from ordinary income are to be entered directly in the income accounts provided for extraordinary and prior period items upon approval of the Commission.

Adjustments constituting items of a character typical of customary business activities or representing corrections or refinements resulting from the natural use of estimates inherent in the accounting process, shall not be considered extraordinary or prior period items regardless of size.

In determining materiality, items of a similar nature should be considered in the aggregate; dissimilar items should be considered individually. As a general standard, an item to qualify for inclusion as an extraordinary or prior period item shall exceed 1 percent of total op-charges", or to account 570, "Extraordinary items", as appropriate.

* * * * *

Item No. 2. Instruction "8 Delayed items" is amended by revising the last sentence to read as follows:

* * * See instruction 3 for provisions covering delayed items of a nonrecurring nature.

Item No. 3. Instruction "37 Book value of securities owned" is amended by revising the second paragraph to read as follows:

* * * * *

The amount of the adjustment for the loss in value written off shall be charged to account 551, "Miscellaneous income charges", or to account 570, "Extraordinary items", as appropriate.

* * * * *

Item No. 4. Instruction "38 Discount, expense and premium on debt" is amended by revising the first sentence of the third paragraph to read as follows:

* * * * *

When any funded debt which has been actually issued to bona fide holders for value is reacquired by the accounting company, that proportion of the balance remaining in the accounts containing discount, expense and premium on funded debt for the subclass of the security reacquired applicable to the portion reacquired shall be credited or charged thereto, as may be appropriate, and concurrently charged or credited to account 519, "Miscellaneous income", account 551, "Miscellaneous income charges", or to account 570, "Extraordinary items", as may be appropriate, in accordance with the text of these accounts. * * *

II. Texts of property accounts amended—Item No. 1. Account 51 Land. The text of this account is amended by revising "Note C" to read as follows:

NOTE C: The net proceeds from the sale of minerals or timber, in excess of the amount contracted for in the purchase price shall be credited to account 519, "Miscellaneous income", or to account 570, "Extraordinary items", as appropriate.

III. Texts of income accounts amended—Item No. 1. Account 519 Miscellaneous income. The text of this account is amended by revising the "Note" to read as follows:

* * * * *

NOTE: When the profit from sale of investment securities (exclusive of temporary cash investments), from sale of land and other property, and from company bonds reacquired is of an amount sufficiently large to constitute an extraordinary item, such profit shall be credited to account 570, "Extraordinary items". (See instructions 3 and 18.)

Item No. 2. Account 532 Car line tax accruals. The text of this account is amended by revising the third paragraph to read as follows:

* * * * *

Accruals for Federal income taxes applicable to ordinary income shall be included in this account. See texts of account 590, "Federal income taxes on extraordinary and prior period items", account 606, "Other credits to retained income", and account 616, "Other debits to retained income", for recording other income tax consequences. Details pertaining to the tax consequences of other unusual and significant items, and also cases where tax consequences are disproportionate to related amounts included in income accounts, shall be submitted to the Commission for consideration and decision as to proper accounting. Federal incomes taxes which are refundable or reduced as the result of carry-back or carry-forward of operating loss shall be credited to this account, if a carry-back, in the year in which the loss occurs or, if a carry-forward, in the year in which such loss is applied to reduce taxes.

However, when the amount constitutes an extraordinary item pursuant to instruction 3, it shall be included in account 580, "Prior period items".

Item No. 3. Account 551 Miscellaneous income charges. The text of this account is amended by revising the "Note" to read as follows:

* * * * *

NOTE: When the loss on sale of investment securities (exclusive of temporary cash investments) from sale of land and other property, from write-down in ledger value of investment securities and from company bonds reacquired is of an amount sufficiently large to constitute an extraordinary item, such loss shall be included in account 570, "Extraordinary items". (See instructions 3 and 18.)

Item No. 4. The system of accounts, following the text of account 551, "Miscellaneous income charges", is amended by adding the following caption, account numbers, titles and texts:

EXTRAORDINARY AND PRIOR PERIOD ITEMS

[Docket No. 16222, etc.; Order E-25499]

SAN FRANCISCO & OAKLAND HELICOPTER AIRLINES, INC., ET AL.

Order To Show Cause Regarding Service Mail Rates

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 7th day of August 1967.

Petition of San Francisco & Oakland Helicopter Airlines, Inc., for a service mail rate; service mail rates for Chicago Helicopter Airways, Inc., Los Angeles Airways, Inc., New York Airways, Inc.; Docket 16222 et al.

By this order, the Board is proposing to establish a multielement service mail rate for the helicopter operations of San Francisco & Oakland Helicopter Airlines, Inc. (San Francisco), effective on and after February 4, 1964.

San Francisco has been on an open service mail rate since February 4, 1964, the date it petitioned that its service mail rate be revised from $2.58 per mail ton-mile[1] to the multielement rate than in effect for the domestic trunkline, local service, and all-cargo carriers.[2]

By Order E-22281, June 9, 1965, the Board, inter alia, consolidated San Francisco's petition into a newly instituted proceeding (Docket 16222 et al.) to fix final service mail rates for the four certificated helicopter carriers[3] and directed the parties to show cause why the Board should not (1) reestablish the rate of $2.58 per mail ton-mile as the final service rate for San Francisco for the period from February 4, 1964, to June 18, 1965, and (2) revise the service mail rates for all four helicopter carriers to the basis of the existing multielement rate for domestic carriers, effective June 19, 1965.

The Postmaster General filed an objection to the multielement rate proposed by the Board for the helicopter carriers. San Francisco also objected insofar as the order failed in its case to propose retroactive application of the multielement rate to February 4, 1964, the date of its petition reopening its rate. Subsequently, Chicago and Los Angeles filed motions seeking dismissal of the proceeding as to them and reestablishment of the old $2.58 per ton-mile rate. On December 10, 1965, the Board fixed a final rate of $2.58 per ton-mile to be paid Chicago Helicopter and Los Angeles Airways on and after June 19, 1965.[4]

In the interim period since the filing of San Francisco's petition reopening its service mail rate, the line-haul portion of the domestic multielement service mail rate was reduced to 27.15 cents per mail ton-mile, based on standard mileages, effective June 19, 1965, for the trunkline and all-cargo carriers, and effective August 14, 1965, for the local service carriers, with no change in the terminal rates.[5]

Subsequently, the line-haul element was adjusted upward to 27.33 cents per mail ton-mile in conjunction with a change in the basis for computing compensation from standard miles to nonstop great circle miles effective October 8, 1966.[6]

The multielement rate proposed herein for San Francisco is the rate established for the trunkline, local service, and all cargo carriers by Order E-22512, August 6, 1965, as amended by Order E-24247, September 30, 1966.

The volume of mail carried by San Francisco is very small. During 1966, for example, San Francisco carried a total of only 3,235 ton-miles of mail which represented less than 1 percent of San Francisco's total ton-mile traffic. With San Francisco's volume, both relative and absolute, being so small, it is indicated that a detailed costing of San Francisco's mail service would be extremely difficult, and this difficulty would be aggravated by the necessity of the costing being pursued within the context of formal hearing procedures. With these factors in mind, it appears that the likelihood of either the Government or the carrier receiving benefit commensurate with the expenditure of time and money on a hearing is remote at best. It therefore appears appropriate to the Board that every effort be made to obtain a fair disposition of this matter through informal means. The Board's staff met on a number of occasions with representatives of the Post Office Department and San Francisco, and both parties recently informally advised the Board's staff that the disposition proposed herein is acceptable to them.

[1] In effect for San Francisco since Oct. 13, 1962, per Order E-18956, 37 CAB 689 (1962). This rate had been established as the service mail rate for helicopter carriers on and after Oct. 1, 1958, pursuant to Reorganization Plan No. 10, Order E-7721, 17 CAB 898 (1953).

[2] Order E-9284, June 7, 1955, 21 CAB 8 (1955); and Order E-9680, Oct. 7, 1955, 21 CAB 894 (1955).

[3] Chicago Helicopter Airways, Inc. (Chicago), Los Angeles Airways, Inc. (Los Angeles), New York Airways, Inc. (New York), and San Francisco & Oakland Helicopter Airlines, Inc.

[4] Order E-22967, Dec. 10, 1965.

[5] Order E-22512, Aug. 6, 1965.

[6] Order E-24247, Sept. 30, 1966.

Notwithstanding their divergent interests, the fact that both the user of the service and the carrier providing the service are willing to accept the rate proposed constitutes substantial evidence of the reasonableness of that rate, and such a conclusion is reinforced by a consideration of other independent factors.

The multielement rate proposed herein has had application to an extremely broad spectrum of individual carriers having very diverse financial and operating characteristics. It has, nevertheless, been considered to produce a reasonable result both in the aggregate and individually, and there is no reason to believe that it will not produce a reasonable result for San Francisco.

For the open rate period, February 4, 1964, through the first quarter of 1967, the multielement rate proposed herein would have produced an average mail yield of about $5.10 per ton-mile for San Francisco. This is, of course, substantially higher than the rate of $2.58 per ton-mile formerly applying. The former rate was, however, initially established for the other three helicopter carriers in 1953, and was merely extended to apply to San Francisco in 1962[1] when it was first authorized to carry mail.

San Francisco's indicated multielement yield of $5.10 per ton-mile, while high in comparison to its former rate, appears to be reasonably within the range of the carrier's indicated costs. San Francisco's average operating cost per revenue ton-mile was $5.40 in calendar 1964, $6.74 in fiscal 1966, $6.05 in the first quarter of 1967.[2] Such costs include nonmail costs but do not include a return allowance. It is, therefore, indicated that the multielement rate would have produced an average yield for San Francisco moderately below its average cost per revenue ton-mile excluding nonmail costs but allowing a return. This is the same situation that obtained with respect to the trunkline carriers when the multielement rate proposed herein was first made effective in 1965.

Considering all relevant factors, the Board tentatively finds that the multielement rate proposed herein will produce a result for San Francisco that is within the zone of reasonableness as indicated by the best available data.

Upon consideration of the foregoing, the Board proposes to issue an order to include the following findings and conclusions:

1. The fair and reasonable final rate of compensation to be paid San Francisco & Oakland Helicopter Airlines, Inc., for the transportation of mail by aircraft, the facilities used and useful therefor, and the services connected therewith between the points which the carrier has been, is presently, or hereafter may be authorized to transport mail by its certificate of public convenience and necessity or Board exemption order on and after February 4, 1964, shall be the sum of (A) the line-haul charges, and (B) the terminal charges, computed as follows:

A. Line-haul charges. The line-haul charge shall be the product of the mail ton-miles times the line-haul rate of 27.33 cents per mail ton-mile. The mail ton-miles for each shipment shall be computed by using the nonstop great circle miles between the station of origin and station of destination as the standard miles between such points.

B. Terminal charges. (1) The terminal charge for each shipment of mail shall be the product of the pounds of mail in each shipment times the terminal rate per pound set forth below for the station of origin of the mail shipment:

Station of origin	Terminal rate per pound
Class A	3.32
Class B	6.64
Class C	9.96
Class D	33.21

(2) The stations included in each of the foregoing station classes shall be as specified in Appendix A set forth below, provided, however, that any station not listed in said appendix shall be classified as a Class "C" station.

(3) At any time, the Board upon its own initiative may institute a proceeding, and any party may make application to the Board for change in the classification of any station, without disturbing the overall rate and rate structure, on the ground that the total revenue tons enplaned at the station in question during the most recent 12-month period preceding the filing of such application bring the station within a different class based upon the classification set forth in the note below.[3] Such application will not be regarded as reopening the rate provided that it raises only the factual question as to the total tons enplaned at the particular station and does not challenge the limits of the station classifications provided for herein.

Applications provided for above shall be clearly entitled "Application for Change in Classification of Station," shall contain a clear and concise statement of the requested classification change and the facts upon which such request is based, and shall in all other respects conform to the applicable requirements of the rules of practice. Any order changing a station classification shall take effect as of the first day of the first postal accounting period following the filing of the application, unless the application is filed on the first day of a postal accounting period in which event the order shall be effective as of the application.

C. Definitions. As used herein "station (or point) of origin" means the station at which the carrier first enplanes the mail shipment after receipt thereof from the Post Office Department or its representatives, or from another carrier. "Station (or point) of destination" means the station at which the carrier deplanes the mail shipment for delivery to the Post Office Department or its representatives, or to another carrier. A point at which a mail shipment is transferred from one flight to another flight of the carrier shall not be considered as a point of origin or point of destination for such shipment.

2. Such service mail rate shall be paid in its entirety by the Postmaster General pursuant to section 406(c) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, and no part of such amount shall be paid by the Board.

3. Further proceedings in Docket 16222 et al., as they pertain to San Francisco & Oakland Helicopter Airlines, Inc., are dismissed.

4. The action proposed herein shall be without prejudice to the rights of any other party in Docket 16222 et al.

Accordingly, pursuant to the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, and particularly sections 204(a) and 406 thereof:

It is ordered, That:

1. All interested persons, and particularly San Francisco & Oakland Helicopter Airlines, Inc., and the Postmaster General, are directed to show cause why the Board should not adopt the foregoing proposed findings and conclusions, and (1) fix, determine, and publish the rates stated in numbered paragraph 1 of the foregoing proposed findings and conclusions as the fair and reasonable rates to be paid the aforementioned carrier for the transportation of mail by aircraft, the facilities used and useful therefor and the services connected therewith between the points which the carrier has been, is presently, or hereafter may be authorized to transport mail by its certificate of public convenience and necessity or Board exemption order on and after the date specified in the above numbered paragraph; and (2) dismiss the proceeding in Docket 16222, et al. insofar as it pertains to the rates applicable to San Francisco & Oakland Helicopter Airlines, Inc.,

2. All further procedures herein shall be in accordance with the rules of practice (14 CFR Part 302); and if there is any objection to the rate or to the other findings and conclusions proposed herein, notice thereof shall be filed within 10 days, and, if notice is filed, written answers and supporting documents shall be filed within 30 days, after the date of service of this order;

3. If notice of objection is not filed within 10 days, or if notice is filed and answer is not filed within 30 days after service of this order, all persons shall be deemed to have waived the right to a hearing and all other procedural steps short of a final decision by the Board, and the Board may enter an order incorporating the findings and conclusions proposed herein and fixing and determining the final rate specified herein;

[Docket No. 18123; Order E-25604]

WEST COAST AIRLINES, INC.

Order Granting Motion To Expedite

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 8th day of August 1967.

Application of West Coast Airlines, Inc., Docket 18123; for amendment of its certificate of public convenience and necessity.

On January 19, 1967, West Coast Airlines, Inc., filed an application, Docket 18123, requesting that its certificate for Route 77 be amended to extend segment 1 to the new terminal point Los Angeles and that San Francisco and Oakland be designated as intermediate points. West Coast requests authority to provide unrestricted nonstop service between Seattle and/or Portland on the one hand and San Francisco and/or Los Angeles on the other; and nonstop authority between San Francisco and Los Angeles subject to a restriction against turnaround service between such points. West Coast indicates that operations pursuant to this authority would be without subsidy eligibility. On February 10, 1967, West Coast filed a motion to expedite hearing of Docket 18123.

In support of its motion for an expedited hearing West Coast contends among other things that: Its proposal will reduce subsidy substantially and increase economy of operations; it will realize an operating profit of $3,460,000 in the first stabilized year of service; in addition to new competitive service from Seattle and Portland to San Francisco and Los Angeles, the proposal would offer first carrier through service to Los Angeles from many West Coast points; the proposal would benefit a substantial volume of traffic since approximately 275,000 annual passengers would use the proposed services; a substantial period of time has elapsed since the Board considered the service needs in the area because United's basic north-south authority on the Pacific coast was obtained in a "grandfather" certificate and Western was extended to the Pacific Northwest 20 years ago; and that West Coast is badly in need of route strengthening and no significant strengthening can take place without access to the traffic flow here involved.

Answers in support of West Coast's motion have been filed by the city and county of San Francisco; Seattle Traffic Association; the city of Medford, Oreg.; the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission; the Tri-Cities Nuclear Council, Inc.; Walla Walla Chamber of Commerce and Walla Walla City-County Airport Board; the city of Roseburg, Oreg.; and the city of Eugene, Oreg.

Answers opposing West Coast's motion have been filed by Pacific Air Lines, Inc., and Western Air Lines, Inc. In support of its answer Pacific alleges, inter alia, that: West Coast's proposal would have a significant and adverse economic impact upon Pacific; West Coast's subsidy reduction, if any, would not be as great as West Coast predicts; a large part of the 275,000 annual passengers which West Coast states would use its proposed services would be carried by West Coast in Pacific's present markets to Pacific's economic detriment; service to the areas involved has been under consideration by the Board recently in the "Service to Spokane Case" and the "West Coast 'Use it or Lose it' Case."

In support of its answer, Western alleges, inter alia, that: The Pacific coast markets have excellent competitive service by United and Western and there is no immediate or pressing need to consider additional service; there is little likelihood that West Coast could reduce its subsidy requirements by entering these highly competitive trunkline markets; West Coast's forecast of revenues and expenses is unrealistic and it is more likely that its proposed services would actually increase its subsidy need; grant of this motion would involve the Board in another major trunkline proceeding in which probably every trunkline carrier serving the Pacific coast would become an applicant; moreover, West Coast would divert substantial revenues from Western.

Upon consideration of the pleadings and all the relevant facts, we have decided to grant West Coast's motion. West Coast has supported its motion with economic data setting forth traffic forecasts and finafcial estimates. Even taking into consideration the adjustments made by Western to West Coast's revenue estimates, we think that West Coast has made a prima facie showing that its proposal would still produce a substantial operating profit. The Board's policy is to take actions which will strengthen the route systems of local service carriers. It is clear that West Coast is in need of such strengthening and this proceeding is a step in that direction. We note also that West Coast's proposal would offer first single-carrier service to Los Angeles from many of West Coast's certificated points, and Yakima and Pasco would receive first single-plane service to Los Angeles and more expeditious service to San Francisco. In addition, Eugene and Medford would obtain new service to Los Angeles via scheduled on-line connections. Finally, as West Coast states, a substantial period of time has elapsed since the Board reviewed in depth the service needs of the principal markets here involved.[1] We do not find the objections of Pacific and Western to setting this application for hearing to be persuasive. For the most part their objections are more properly directed to the merits of West Coast's application rather than to the question of whether West Coast should be accorded a priority hearing. In view of the foregoing, we conclude that West Coast has satisfied the criteria adopted by the Board for granting expeditious consideration (§ 399.59).

We shall favorably act upon duly filed motions of the carriers seeking consolidation of applications or parts thereof which are within the scope of the investigation. Other interested applicants, of course, may file amended or additional applications consistent with the scope of the investigation within the time for filing as hereinafter established. However, in the event new or amended applications for new or additional routes consistent with the scope of this case are filed, each applicant should file one new composite application covering clearly and specifically all of the authority sought in this proceeding. This procedure will obviate the confusion resulting from the consolidation of several separately filed applications or portions thereof and will assist the parties, the Examiner, and the Board in analyzing and considering the precise proposals of each applicant.

In addition to the issues raised in West Coast's application, we have decided to hear the question of whether or not nonstop service should be provided between Seattle and Portland, on the one hand, and airports near Los Angeles and San Francisco, on the other hand, other than San Francisco International Airport and Los Angeles International Airport. The airports we will consider for this purpose are: Orange County Airport (serving Santa Ana), Dougherty Field (serving Long Beach), Oakland International Airport, Ontario International Airport, San Jose Municipal Airport, and Hollywood-Burbank Airport. We believe that the institution of Seattle/Portland nonstop service at these airports could well provide improved service to the public and could ease congestion at the major airports.

Accordingly, it is ordered:

[2] Derived from the carriers' Form-41 reports.

[3]

Classes of stations	Revenue tons all traffic enplaned per year
A	7,000 and over.
B	750–6,999.
C	60–749.
D	59 or less.

[1] United's basic north-south authority was obtained in a "grandfather" certificate. 1 CAA 126 (1939). Western was extended to the Pacific Northwest in the "West Coast Case," 8 CAB 14 (1947). In the "Spokane" cases (Orders E-21168 & E-24618, Aug. 7, 1964 and Jan. 6, 1967) we considered improved authority between Spokane, Seattle, Portland, and California points. However, in those proceedings, we focused principally on improved Spokane-California service and not on the key markets here concerned.

1. That West Coast's motion for expedited hearing of its application in Docket 18123 be and it hereby is granted;

2. That an investigation be and it hereby is instituted in Docket 18884, to determine whether nonstop service between Seattle and Portland, on the one hand, and, Orange County Airport, Dougherty Field, Oakland International Airport, Ontario International Airport, San Jose Municipal Airport, and Hollywod-Burbank Airport, on the other hand, is required by the public convenience and necessity.

3. That Docket 18123 be and it hereby is consolidated with the above-instituted investigation.

4. That motions to consolidate, applications, and motions or petitions seeking modification or reconsideration of this order be filed no later than 20 days after the date of service of this order and that answers to such pleadings be filed no later than 10 days thereafter; and

5. That any authority awarded in this proceeding shall be ineligible for subsidy.

This order will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

LUMAR GAS CORP. AND HYDROCO GAS SUPPLY CORP.

Notice of Application

AUGUST 4, 1967.

Take notice that on August 1, 1967, Lumar Gas Corp. (Lumar), 1215 Chamber of Commerce Building, Houston, Tex. 77002, and Hydroco Gas Supply Corp. (Hydroco), 1520 Vaughn Plaza, Corpus Christi, Tex. 78401 (Applicants), filed in Docket Nos. CP68–34 and CP68–35, respectively, applications pursuant to subsections (b) and (c) of section 7 of the Natural Gas Act for permission and approval to abandon by sale certain natural gas facilities and service and for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the acquisition and operation of certain natural gas facilities and service, respectively, all as more fully set forth in the applications, which are on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Specifically, Lumar seeks permission and approval to abandon, by sale to Hydroco, its natural gas gathering facilities in the Gyp Hill, East Midway, Appling, South Lucky, and Nada Fields, all in the State of Texas, together with the sales to Texas Eastern Transmission Corp. (Texas) and all of Lumar's assets. Lumar states that due to depletion of the fields mentioned above, the total deliveries to Texas have declined and only the Appling and South Lucky Fields are still producing any deliverable natural gas, as a result of which it has gone out of business. Lumar further states that the abandonment proposed above contemplates that Hydroco will continue the sales to Texas until the remaining dedicated reserves are depleted.

Hydroco seeks authorization to acquire and operate the natural gas gathering facilities of Lumar together with the sale of natural gas to Texas, as set forth above, until such time as the dedicated reserves are depleted, as mentioned above.

Hydroco proposes to carry the facilities acquired from Lumar on its books for $55,600, said cost to be financed by a temporary bank loan, to be refinanced on a permanent basis by the issuance of equity and/or debt securities.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (§ 157.10) on or before September 1, 1967.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no protest or petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate and permission and approval for the proposed abandonment is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a protest or petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

COLUMBIA GAS SYSTEM, INC., ET AL.

Notice of Proposed Intrasystem Merger of Two Public-Utility Companies and Related Transactions

AUGUST 7, 1967.

Notice is hereby given that the Columbia Gas System, Inc. ("Columbia"), 120 East 41st Street, New York, N.Y. 10017, a registered holding company, and its gas utility subsidiary companies, Virginia Gas Distribution Corp. ("Virginia Gas") and Blue Ridge Gas Co. ("Blue Ridge"), have filed a joint application-declaration with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act"), designating sections 6(b), 9, 10, and 12(f) thereof and Rule 43 promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions. All interested persons are referred to the application-declaration, which is summarized below, for a complete statement of the proposed transactions.

Virginia Gas and Blue Ridge, both wholly owned gas-utility subsidiary companies of Columbia and incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, are engaged in the retail sale and distribution of natural gas within their respective service areas in Virginia. Virginia Gas has approximately 33,400 customers and Blue Ridge, approximately 1,100 customers. Each company purchases its total gas supply from Atlantic Seaboard Corp. ("Seaboard"), an associate company, at delivery points in Virginia.

Blue Ridge's service area is in Rockingham County and part of Augusta County. Virginia Gas' certificated area includes all or parts of the counties of Alleghany, Botetourt, Rockbridge, Nelson, Augusta, Albemarle, Greene, Page, Madison, Rappahannock, Culpeper, Fauquier, Prince William, Fairfax, and Loudoun.

Columbia proposes the merger of Blue Ridge into Virgina Gas. It is stated that consolidation of the operations of Blue Ridge and Virginia Gas will result in greater efficiency and economy by eliminating the necessity for maintaining separate books of accounts and records, preparing separate reports to regulatory commissions and others and that merger of the two companies will also result in a single, Virginia retail distribution subsidiary company, an objective sought in Columbia's long-range realinement program.

Blue Ridge has filed proposed rate schedules to reduce the rates presently charged its general service and summer air-conditioning customers to the level of rates presently charged such customers by Virginia Gas with the result that single Statewide rates will be in effect for such customers.

Virginia Gas, as the surviving corporation, will own all the utility property and assets of Blue Ridge and, upon the proposed merger becoming effective, Virginia Gas will become fully responsible for all the obligations of Blue Ridge existing at the date of the merger and will render service in the same service areas now served by it and Blue Ridge. Virgina Gas proposes to adopt the then effective retail rates and charges of Blue Ridge.

The merger will be consummated as follows: (1) Virginia Gas will issue to Columbia, as sole stockholder of Blue Ridge, upon the surrender for cancellation of the outstanding capital stock of Blue Ridge, such number of authorized but unissued shares of Virginia Gas' capital stock as shall equal, in par value, the par value of Blue Ridge's then outstanding capital stock; (2) the Installment Promissory Notes of Blue Ridge will become obligations of Virginia Gas; and (3) the capital and earned surplus of Blue Ridge will be carried forward as capital and earned surplus of Virginia Gas.

In recognition of the reservations contained in the Commission's Opinion and Order of November 30, 1944, issued in respect of Columbia Gas and Electric Corp. et al. (17 S.E.C. 494), as to the retainability of its interest in certain wholly owned subsidiary companies and in its Order of May 26, 1965 (Holding Company Act Release No. 15248), issued in respect of Columbia's acquisition and retainability of Blue Ridge, Columbia agrees and stipulates that (1) if the Commission authorizes the proposed merger of Blue Ridge into Virginia Gas, the Commission's reservation of jurisdiction with respect to Columbia's retainability of Blue Ridge (or its properties) and Virginia Gas (or its properties) will not (nor will Virginia Gas, as the surviving corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary company of Columbia), in any prior or subsequent section 11(b)(1) proceeding instituted by the Commission, take any position or make any argument to the effect that the Commission will have prejudiced its jurisdiction, power or authority to order the divestment of any interest in Virginia Gas (or its properties including those acquired from Blue Ridge as a result of the proposed merger) and (2) Columbia consents to the inclusion in the Commission's Order that may be entered herein of a reservation of full jurisdiction, power and authority under section 11(b)(1) of the Act.

It is stated that the Virginia State Corporation Commission has jurisdiction over the merger of Blue Ridge into Virginia Gas and the issuance of Virginia Gas of capital stock and assumption by Virginia Gas of Blue Ridge Installment Promissory Notes. It is represented that no other State commission and no Federal commission, other than this Commission, has such jurisdiction. A statement of the fees and expenses related to the proposed transactions is to be filed by amendment.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than August 29, 1967, request in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by the filing which he desires to controvert, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request should be served personally or by mail (airmail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon the applicants-declarants at the above-stated address, and proof of service (by affidavit or, in the case of an attorney at law, by certificate) should be filed with the request. At any time after said date, the application-declaration, as filed or as it may be amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule 23 of the general rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, or the Commission may grant exemption from such rules as provided in Rules 20(a) and 100 thereof or take such other action as it may deem appropriate. Persons who request a hearing or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered will receive notice of further developments in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

For the Commission (pursuant to delegated authority).

KENTUCKY POWER CO.

Notice of Proposed Issue and Sale of Notes to Banks

AUGUST 7, 1967.

Notice is hereby given that Kentucky Power Co. ("Kentucky"), 15th Street and Carter Avenue, Ashland, Ky. 41101, a Kentucky corporation and an electric utility subsidiary company of American Electric Power Co., Inc. ("AEP"), a registered holding company, has filed with this Commission an application pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act"), designating section 6(b) thereof and Rule 50(a)(2) promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions. All interested persons are referred to the application, which is summarized below, for a complete statement of the proposed transactions.

Pursuant to the terms of a Bank Loan Agreement, dated July 1, 1967, Kentucky proposes to issue and sell from time to time through December 31, 1969, up to $92 million of its unsecured promissory notes to banks in the respective amounts shown below. Kentucky will issue notes under such agreement only to the extent that the principal amount of all its indebtedness for borrowed money (other than debt having a maturity of 12 months or less from the date of issue or reissue thereof) does not exceed 65 percent of Kentucky's capitalization and surplus. The following banks have agreed to lend Kentucky the amounts shown:

Manufacturers Hanover Trust Co., New York, N.Y.	$46,500,000
Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Co., Chicago, Ill.	23,000,000
Irving Trust Co., New York, N.Y.	20,500,000
Total	92,000,000

Each note will be dated as of the date of issue, will mature on December 31, 1972, and will be prepayable, in whole or in part, at any time without premium unless such prepayment is made from the proceeds of, or in anticipation of, a borrowing by Kentucky from banking institutions at a rate of interest equal to or less than the then applicable interest rate on the proposed notes, in which event Kentucky will be obligated to pay a premium in an amount equivalent to interest at the rate of one-fourth of 1 percent per annum on the amount of such prepayment from the date of such prepayment to December 31, 1972. Each note will bear interest from its issue date to December 31, 1969, at the prime commercial loan rate in effect from time to time at the Manufacturers Hanover Trust Co. (currently 5½ percent per annum) plus a percentage equal to one-fourth of 1 percent per annum and, after December 31, 1969 (or such earlier date as Kentucky shall have borrowed an aggregate amount of $92 million) at such prime rate plus a percentage equal to one-half of 1 percent per annum. Kentucky will also be required to pay substitute interest computed at the rate of one-fourth percent per annum on the daily average unused amount of the commitment of each such bank from the effective date of the Bank Loan Agreement until December 31, 1969. The Bank Loan Agreement also limits short-term debt to 10 percent of Kentucky's capitalization and surplus.

It is stated that Kentucky will use the proceeds derived from the sale of the proposed notes, together with a $20 million capital contribution from AEP, made in April 1967, plus funds from internal sources, to provide the capital required to construct Unit No. 2 of its Big Sandy generating station and related transmission and substation facilities, estimated to cost $132 million. Of the $92 million scheduled to be borrowed, it is estimated that $25 million will be borrowed in 1967, $56 million in 1968 and $11 million in 1969.

An estimate of the fees and expenses to be incurred in connection with the proposed transactions will be supplied by amendment. The filing states that the proposed transactions are subject to the jurisdiction of the Public Service Commission of Kentucky and an order of that Commission expressly authorizing such transactions will be filed by amendment. It is further stated that no other State commission and no Federal commission, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than August 30, 1967, request in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by said application which he desires to controvert; or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request should be served personally or by mail (airmail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon the declarant at the above-stated address, and proof of service (by affidavit or, in case of an attorney at law, by certificate) should be filed with the request. At any time after said date, the application, as filed or as amended, may be granted as provided in Rule 23 of the general rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, or the Commission may grant exemption from such rules as provided in Rules 20(a) and 100 thereof or take such other action as it may deem appropriate. Persons who request a hearing or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered will receive notice of further developments in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

[Pear Reg. 6]

PART 927—BEURRE D'ANJOU, BEURRE BOSC, WINTER NELIS, DOYENNE DU COMICE, BEURRE EASTER, AND BEURRE CLAIRGEAU VARIETIES OF PEARS GROWN IN OREGON, WASHINGTON, AND CALIFORNIA

Regulation by Grades, Quality, and Sizes

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 927, as amended (7 CFR Part 927), regulating the handling of the Beurre D'Anjou, Beurre Bosc, Winter Nelis, Doyenne du Comice, Beurre Easter, and Beurre Clairgeau varieties of pears grown in Oregon, Washington, and California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Control Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of such pears, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this regulation until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 553) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this regulation is based became available and the time when this regulation must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than August 14, 1967. A reasonable determination as to the composition of the available supplies of such pears, and therefore the extent of grade and size regulation warranted, must await the development of the crop; recommendation as to the need for, and the extent of, regulation of shipments of such pears were made by said committee on July 19, 1967, after consideration of all information then available relative to the supply and demand conditions for such pears, at which time such recommendations and supporting information were submitted to the Department on July 24, 1967, and notice thereof given to handlers and growers; shipments of the current crop of such pears are expected to begin on or about the effective time hereof, and this regulation should be applicable to all shipments of such pears in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; and compliance with this regulation will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(a) Order. (1) During the period August 14, 1967, through June 30, 1968, no handler shall ship any pears which do not meet the following requirements for the variety specified:

(i) Beurre D'Anjou pears shall be of a size not smaller than the 195 size and shall grade at least U.S. No. 2, except that such pears may fail to meet such grade only because of serious damage but not very serious damage caused by frost injury, healed hail marks, russeting, or being seriously misshapen: Provided, That pears of such variety which bear unhealed broken skin punctures not exceeding three-sixteenth (3/16) of an inch in diameter or depth, as the case may be, may be shipped if such pears otherwise grade at least U.S. No. 1 and are not smaller than the 150 size;

(ii) Beurre D'Anjou pears shipped from the State of Oregon or the State of Washington prior to October 15, 1967, shall have an appropriate certification by the Federal-State Inspection Service, issued prior to shipment, showing that the core temperature of such pears has been lowered to at least 35° F.;

(iii) Beurre Bosc pears shall be of a size not smaller than the 195 size and shall grade at least U.S. No. 2, except that such pears may fail to meet such grade only because of serious damage but not very serious damage caused by frost injury, healed hail marks, russeting, or being seriously misshapen;

(iv) Doyenne du Comice pears shall be of a size not smaller than the 180 size and shall grade at least U.S. No. 2, except that such pears may fail to meet such grade only because of serious damage but not very serious damage caused by frost injury, healed hail marks, russeting, or being seriously misshapen; and

(v) Winter Nelis pears shall grade at least U.S. No. 2 and be of a size not smaller than the 225 size: Provided, That Winter Nelis pears which fail to meet the requirements specified in the U.S. No. 2 grade only because of serious damage but not very serious damage caused by frost injury, healed hail marks, russeting, or being seriously misshapen may be shipped if they are of a size not smaller than the 150 size.

(2) Each handler may ship on any one conveyance up to, but not to exceed, 200 standard western pear boxes of pears, or an equivalent quantity of pears in other containers computed by weight to the nearest 5 pounds, without regard to the inspection requirements of § 927.60(b), under the following conditions:

(i) Each handler desiring to make shipment of pears pursuant to this subparagraph shall first apply to the committee on forms furnished by the committee for permission to make such shipments. The application form shall provide a certification by the shipper that all shipments made thereunder during the marketing season shall meet the marketing order requirement, that he agrees such shipments shall be subject to spot check inspection, and that he agrees to report such shipments at time of shipment to the committee on forms furnished by the committee, showing the car or truck number and destination; and

(ii) On the basis of such individual reports, the committee shall request spot check inspection of such shipments.

(3) When used herein, "U.S. No. 1," "U.S. No. 2," "frost injury," "healed hail marks," "russeting," and "seriously misshapen" shall have the same meaning as when used in the U.S. Standards for Winter Pears such as Anjou, Bosc, Winter Nelis, Comice, and other Similar Varieties (§§ 51.1300—51.1323 of the title); "150 size," "180 size," "195 size," and "225 size" shall mean that the pears are of a size which, as indicated by the size number, will pack, in accordance with the sizing and packing specifications of a standard pack, as specified in said U.S. Standards, 150, 180, 195, or 225 pears, respectively, in a standard western pear box (inside dimensions 18 inches long by 11½ inches wide by 8½ inches deep); "very serious damage" shall mean any injury or defect which very seriously affects the appearance or the edible or shipping quality of the pear; and, except as otherwise specified, all other terms shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order.

PART 945—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN CERTAIN DESIGNATED COUNTIES IN IDAHO AND MALHEUR COUNTY, OREGON

Expenses and Rate of Assessment

Notice of rule making regarding proposed expenses and rate of assessment, to be effective under Marketing Agreement No. 98 and Order No. 945, both as amended (7 CFR Part 945), regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in designated counties in Idaho and Malheur County, Oreg., was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER July 18, 1967 (32 F.R. 10516). This regulatory program is effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.). The notice afforded interested persons an opportunity to submit written data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto not later than 15 days following publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. None was filed.

After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposals set forth in the aforesaid notice which were recommended by the Idaho-Eastern Oregon Potato Committee, established pursuant to said amended marketing agreement and order, it is hereby found and determined that:

§ 945.220 Expenses and rate of assessment.

(a) Expenses. The reasonable expenses that are likely to be incurred during the fiscal period beginning June 1, 1967, and ending May 31, 1968, by the Idaho-Eastern Oregon Potato Committee, for its maintenance and functioning, and for such other purposes as the Secretary determines to be appropriate, will amount to $32,000.

(b) Rate of assessment. The rate of assessment to be paid by each handler in accordance with the amended marketing agreement and this part, shall be two-tenths of 1 cent ($0.002) per hundredweight, or equivalent quantity, of potatoes handled by him as the first handler thereof during the fiscal period.

(c) Reserve. Unexpended income in excess of expenses for the fiscal period ending May 31, 1968, may be carried over as a reserve.

(d) Definition of terms. Terms used in this section have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and this part.

It is hereby found that good cause exists for not postponing the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 553) in that (1) the relevant provisions of this part require that the rate of assessment fixed for a particular fiscal period shall be applicable to all assessable potatoes from the beginning of such period, and (2) the current fiscal period began on June 1, 1967, and the rate of assessment herein fixed will automatically apply to all assessable potatoes beginning with such date.

The foregoing powers shall be subject, however, to the following restrictions and limitations:

(1) No financial assistance shall be extended pursuant to this subsection unless the financial assistance applied for is not otherwise available on reasonable terms.

(2) No immediate participation may be purchased unless it is shown that a deferred participation is not available; and no loan may be made unless it is shown that a participation is not available.

(3) In agreements to participate in loans on a deferred basis under this subsection, such participation by the Administration shall not be in excess of 90 per centum of the balance of the loan outstanding at the time of disbursement.

(4) Except as provided in paragraph (5) (A), no loan under this subsection shall be made if the total amount outstanding and committed (by participation or otherwise) to the borrower from the revolving fund established by this Act would exceed $350,000; (B) the rate of interest for the Administration's share of any such loan shall be no more than 5½ per centum per annum; and (C) no such loan, including renewals or extensions thereof, may be made for a period or periods exceeding 10 years except that a loan made for the purpose of constructing facilities may have a maturity of 10 years plus such additional period as is estimated may be required to complete such construction.

(b) In response to requests for financial assistance, consideration is given to (1) possible assistance available from local and State development corporations; (2) possible means of obtaining credit on reasonable terms from banks, other private financing sources, or from utilization of the personal credit or resources of the applicant's owners or management; (3) adequacy of accounting methods and other aspects of financial management; (4) means of increasing equity capital; (5) eligibility for V loan financing of defense contracts; (6) feasibility of obtaining advance or partial payments on contracts.

(c) All loans shall be of such sound value, or so secured as reasonably to assure repayment. Security may include, but shall not be limited to, mortgage on real or personal property, monies due on contracts, assignment of warehouse receipts, guarantees, and under certain circumstances assignment of receivables or pledge of inventories.

(d) It is the policy of the U.S. Government and of the Small Business Administration to encourage by affirmative action the elimination of discrimination because of race, creed, color, or national origin in employment opportunities created by construction contracts involving Federal financial assistance.

(1) "Construction contract" means any contract or subcontract for the alteration, rehabilitation, construction, conversion, extension, or repairing of buildings, highways, or other improvements to real property.

(2) Applicants for financial assistance are required to execute the Small Business Administration's "Applicant's Agreement of Compliance," SBA Form 601 and, as therein provided, shall cooperate with the Small Business Administration in fostering nondiscrimination in employment opportunities.

(3) All complaints alleging discrimination in construction contracts performed by or with financial assistance shall be investigated by the Small Business Administration. Complaints alleging discrimination must be filed with the Small Business Administration within 90 days of the alleged discrimination. The Small Business Administration may hold informal hearings and make findings regarding the allegation of discrimination in accord with the rules of the President's Committee on Equal Opportunity. In the event that the Small Business Administration finds discrimination to have occurred, it may cancel loans approved but not disbursed to an applicant, it may refuse to make further disbursements on account of the loan, it may accelerate the maturity of the Note between Borrower and SBA, or it may take any action of a lesser nature. Failure of the Small Business Administration to invoke or assert any of the aforesaid sanctions, or any other sanctions, shall not be construed to be a waiver of SBA's right to assert any of such sanctions.

(e) It is also the policy, as set forth in Parts 112 and 113 of this chapter, to require nondiscrimination in employment and services to the public by SBA borrowers.

(f) (1) Financial assistance as used in this part shall include direct loans made by SBA, immediate participation loans, and guaranteed loans.

(2) Financial institution as used in this part shall include, but not be limited to, banks and other concerns whose regular course of business entails the making of commercial and industrial loans.

§ 122.3 Eligibility.

In order to be eligible, a business must qualify under the Loan Policy Regulation, Part 120 of this chapter, and the small business size standards requirements, Part 121 of this chapter.

§ 122.4 Interest rates.

Interest rates are set forth in Part 120 of this chapter.

TYPES OF BUSINESS LOANS AND GUARANTEED LOANS

§ 122.5 Introduction.

SBA's exposure of financial assistance to a borrower, including all affiliates, may not exceed $350,000 outstanding at any one time. In assistance to Group Corporations, SBA's exposure may not exceed $250,000 for each small business concern which formed and capitalized the Group Corporation.

§ 122.6 Deferred participation loans.

(a) From and after July 1, 1963, no applications for a deferred participation loan will be accepted by this Administration. The existing provisions concerning deferred participation loans are retained in the regulations in this part so as to govern deferred participation loans made prior to July 1, 1963.

(b) Deferred participation loans are those in which a bank or other financial institution advances the capital needed, and SBA agrees to purchase, upon demand by the lending institution, an agreed portion of the unpaid balance then outstanding. SBA's participation in a deferred participation loan shall not exceed 90 percent of the principal balance of the loan outstanding at the time SBA disburses its funds.

(c) In deferred participation loans a participation charge shall be payable by the bank or other lending institution to SBA for such agreement. The participation charges shall be on a sliding scale, depending upon the percentage of the loan which SBA is obligated to purchase. Such participation charges, which shall not be charged to borrower by the participating institution, shall be as follows:

(1) For an amount not in excess of 50 percent of the loan, one-half of 1 percent per annum on the portion of the loan which SBA is obligated to purchase;

(2) For an amount in excess of 50 percent of the loan but not in excess of 75 percent of the loan, three-fourths of 1 percent per annum on the portion of the loan which SBA is obligated to purchase; and

(3) For an amount in excess of 75 percent of the loan but not in excess of 90 percent of the loan, 1 percent per annum on the portion of the loan which SBA is obligated to purchase.

(d) In deferred participation loans the interest rate on the bank's share applies to the entire loan until SBA purchases its share of such loan.

§ 122.7 Immediate participation loans.

Immediate participation loans are those where either SBA or a financial institution agrees to purchase from the other, immediately upon disbursement, an agreed percentage of each disbursement. SBA's participation shall not exceed 90 percent of the amount of the loan. An immediate participation loan may not be made if a guaranteed loan is available.

§ 122.8 Direct loans.

Direct loans are those made by SBA to a borrower when no participation or guaranteed loan is available.

§ 122.9 Group corporations.

(a) Limitation of financial assistance. In the case of a corporation formed and capitalized by a group of small-business concerns with resources provided by them to obtain for their own use raw materials, equipment, inventories, supplies or benefits of research and development or to establish facilities for such purposes, (1) the limitation on SBA's share of such assistance is $250,000 multiplied by the number of separate small businesses participating in the Group Corporation; and (2) such assistance, including renewals and extensions thereof, may not be made for a period or periods exceeding ten years except that, if the assistance is made for the purpose of constructing facilities, it may have a maturity of 20 years plus such additional time as is required to complete the construction.

(b) Use of proceeds. Under the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, the raw materials, equipment, inventories or supplies, or the benefits of research and development must be primarily for the use of the concerns organizing the Group Corporation.

(c) Eligibility. The applicant corporation shall be owned by a group of small business concerns, including corporations, partnerships, individuals or any combination of the foregoing, each of which shall itself qualify as a small business concern which would be eligible for a small business loan. Each such concern shall share a need in common with the other small business concerns forming said corporation, the satisfaction of which need is the purpose for which the Group Corporation is being organized. Such Group Corporation shall file its application in the same manner as other eligible business concerns.

(d) Antitrust exemption. In the event that such a corporation desires exemption from the prohibitions of the antitrust laws or the Federal Trade Commission laws, it may obtain such exemption by using the procedures prescribed in paragraph (e) of this section.

(e) Procedures for obtaining antitrust exemptions. (1) A Group Corporation desiring an antitrust exemption, pursuant to section 7(a)(6) of the Small Business Act, as amended, will include a specific request for such exemption in its application.

(2) On reviewing an application containing an antitrust exemption request, the Administrator of SBA will consult with the Attorney General and the Chairman of the Federal Trade Commission with respect to the exemption. Upon receipt of the written approval of the Attorney General, the Administrator may make a finding that the formation of the Group Corporation will contribute to the needs of small business, and may approve the exemption.

(3) Upon the making of any such finding and approval, a copy of the finding and approval by the Administrator shall be furnished to the Attorney General and Chairman of the Federal Trade Commission and shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. No action by such Group Corporation which has been approved by the Administrator, and which act is in furtherance of the purpose approved by the findings published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, shall be construed to be within the prohibitions of the antitrust laws or Federal Trade Commission Act of the United States.

(4) Even if not requested by the applicant, SBA may request antitrust clearance if it determines that such clearance is appropriate prior to approval of the loan to the Group Corporation.

(f) Withdrawal of exemption. In the event that the Group Corporation withdraws its request for the exemption, or the Administrator withdraws his finding that the Group Corporation contributes to the needs of small business or upon the withdrawal of the approval granted by the Attorney General, the antitrust exemption shall not apply to any subsequent act or omission to act by reason of such finding or request.

§ 122.10 Guaranteed loans.

(a) Individually guaranteed loans. (1) Individually guaranteed loans are loans made by financial institutions to small business concerns subject to a Guaranty Agreement between SBA and the lending institution which is applicable only to a specific loan to an identified small business concern. Under such a guaranty agreement SBA is obligated to purchase not more than 90 percent of the outstanding loan to the identifiable borrower, together with accrued interest, in the event the borrower has defaulted in payment for not less than 90 days after the due date.

(2) SBA shall automatically and simultaneously purchase its guaranteed share of the loan in the event of the commencement by or against borrower of any bankruptcy proceeding, receivership, dissolution or of a creditor's rights proceeding pursuant to the provisions of the Guaranty Agreement.

(3) SBA makes a charge to the financial institution as set forth in Part 120 of this chapter. Such guaranty charges shall not be charged by the financial institution to its borrower.

(4) During the time that SBA may be obligated to purchase pursuant to a Guaranty Agreement, the financial institution may exercise a liquidity privilege in the form of temporary advances from SBA not exceeding the guaranteed portion of the loan. No temporary advances may be made for less than 15 days. The total maturities of all such advances may not exceed 90 days during any 12-month period. The repayment date of any such advance may not extend beyond the maturity of the small business concern's obligation to the financial institution. Advances may be made by SBA to the financial institution only while the loan to the small business concern is not delinquent as to principal and interest.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provisions of the regulations in this part or any agreement entered into by SBA, SBA shall have the right to purchase its guaranteed percentage of the loan if SBA shall determine that such purchase is in the best interest of the Government. If SBA shall exercise such right, the financial institution shall immediately assign, transfer, and deliver to SBA the note and all instruments obtained by the financial institution in connection with its loan.

(6) SBA shall be released from obligation to purchase its share of the guaranteed loan, unless the financial institution has substantially complied with all of the provisions of these regulations and the Guaranty Agreement, or upon the happening of any one or more of the following events:

(i) Failure of the financial institution to close and disburse the loan substantially in accord with the terms and requirements of the authorization approving the loan or the servicing of the loan in a negligent manner, either of which may result in a substantial loss on the loan; or

(ii) Payment in full of the amount due on the note; or

(iii) Receipt by SBA of written notice from the financial institution of the termination of this Agreement.

(b) Simplified blanket guaranty loans. (1) Simplified blanket guaranteed loans are loans made by financial institutions under a Guaranty Agreement between SBA and the lending institution which is applicable to future loans to small business concerns as authorized by SBA. Under such a Guaranty Agreement, SBA is obligated to purchase not more than 90 percent of the outstanding balance of each loan thereunder together with accrued interest in the event the borrower has defaulted for not less than 60 days. Any eligible loan which the lending institution would make only with the guaranty of SBA may be authorized by SBA under said Guaranty Agreement. Notification to SBA within 30 days of any default is a condition precedent to the lending institution's demand for purchase by SBA. Default means nonpayment of principal or interest on the due date, or the breach by the borrower of any loan covenant which the lending institution determines to be an adverse change in the borrower's ability to repay the loan.

(2) SBA makes a charge to the financial institution as set forth in Part 120 of this chapter. Such guaranty charges shall not be charged by the financial institution to its borrower.

(3) There is no liquidity privilege hereunder which the financial institution may exercise in the form of temporary advances from SBA.

(4) Ordinarily SBA will not purchase its guaranteed percentage of any loan until after such purchase has been requested or demanded by the lending institution. However, when any loan guaranteed hereunder shall be in default in payment of principal or interest for more than 90 days after the due date, SBA has the option to purchase its guaranteed percentage, or the loan in its entirety, whenever SBA determines in its discretion that such purchase is in the best interest of the Government. The lending institution shall receive written notice of such election to purchase by SBA, and the effective date of such purchase shall be the 10th day after receipt of such notice; as of such date the note and all related loan instruments shall be assigned, transferred and delivered to SBA.

§ 122.11 Simplified bank loans.

This loan plan is designed to provide greater expediency in the processing of SBA immediate participation loan applications and applications for guaranteed loans. It is a procedure whereby SBA may make a speedy evaluation of a loan and purchase or guarantee its share of the loan as soon as the loan is ready for disbursement. It is especially designed to accommodate the stronger credit risks, not the weaker ones.

(a) The financial institution shall initially agree to disburse and service the loan.

(b) An immediate participation loan may be made only where a guaranteed loan is not available.

(c) The financial institution's minimum share of the immediate participation or guaranteed loan must be the greater of (1) 25 percent of the total amount of the loan, or (2) an amount equal to the financial institution's loan(s) to be refinanced.

(d) Where refinancing is proposed, SBA may require the financial institution's share of the loan to exceed the total amount of existing debts owed to such institution. The financial institution must certify, in writing, that such existing debt is in good standing (payments and other obligations handled substantially as agreed) and is satisfactory in all respects.

(e) Immediately after disbursement of an immediate participation loan the financial institution shall submit the closing documents and a memorandum of disbursement to SBA for review.

§ 122.12 Simplified early maturities participations.

This loan plan is designed primarily to encourage a larger percentage of participation by private financial institutions in immediate participation loans. It is designed for preferred credit risks.

(a) The participating institution must initially agree to service the loan.

(b) The participating institution minimum share must be not less than the greater of: (1) 50 percent of the total amount of the loan, or (2) an amount not less than the participating institution's loan(s) to be repaid with a part of the new loan. The participant must certify, in writing, that such refinanced debt is in good standing (payments and other obligations handled substantially as agreed) and is satisfactory in all respects.

(c) All such loans shall be amortized on a monthly level principal payment basis plus interest. Only level principal payments made on or within 90 days of due date shall be fully applied toward reduction of the participating institution's share of the total loan. Upon expiration of 90 days after default of any payment of principal or interest due on the loan, and until such default is fully cured by payments as hereinafter stated, the proportionate interests of SBA and the participating institution shall be frozen or fixed in amounts equal to their respective percentages of interest as of the date of the last principal payment received prior to the default. Whenever the proportionate interests of SBA and the participating institution are fixed or frozen, any payment of principal or any amount realized from the sale of collateral or from any other source whatsoever shall be applied on the loan and shall be shared ratably by the participating institution and SBA in proportion to their fixed or frozen interests in the unpaid principal balance of the loan outstanding. After the proportionate interests of the participating institution and SBA are frozen or fixed for the first time, the participating institution shall have a single opportunity to resume early maturities reduction of its participation interest when borrower (1) has cured in full all past delinquent principal and interest payments, and (2) has paid the next successive three monthly installments of principal and interest within 15 days of each respective due date. Thereafter, when any installment of principal or interest is not paid within 90 days of due date, the proportionate interests of SBA and the participating institution shall be frozen or fixed permanently.

(d) The period of time during what the participating institution's share will be repaid shall be based on the same proportion of loan maturity that the institution's participation bears to the total amount of the loan; e.g., a financial institution would be repaid over a period of 3 years if it participates 50 percent in a 6-year loan; or repaid in 6 years by participating 60 percent in a 10-year loan.

(e) No agreement under this loan plan shall establish any preference in favor of the participating institution in any collateral or security for the loan. At any time during the term of the loan while the participating institution continues to have an interest, regardless of whether the participation has been declared frozen or fixed, the proceeds from the liquidation or sale of any collateral or security supporting the loan, payments by guarantors, or any other principal payments due to be applied in inverse order of maturity, shall be paid over to, or credited to, the participating institution and SBA according to their respective percentages of interest or exposure in the loan based upon the outstanding balance of the loan as of the date such principal payment is received.

(f) Upon the repayment of the aggregate amount of amortized payments due the participating institution, it shall transfer to SBA, without any charge or expense therefor, the note and all collateral instruments, and SBA shall assume servicing of the loan and sole custody and control of all collateral, provided that at the option of the participating institution it may purchase or enter into a new participation in the loan in a percentage of participation not less than its original percentage of participation in the loan and it shall continue to service the loan. The new participation shall then be liquidated in the same manner as the original participation. The participating institution shall have additional options throughout the term of the loan periodically to enter into new participations in the loan at a percentage of participation not less than its original percentage of participation or may at any time purchase or acquire the full outstanding loan.

§ 122.13 Purposes of loans.

SBA extends financial assistance to small manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers, service establishments and other firms when financing is not otherwise available on reasonable terms. Financial assistance is extended by SBA to: (a) Finance construction, conversion, or expansion; (b) finance the purchase of equipment, facilities, machinery, supplies or materials; or (c) supply working capital.

§ 122.14 Extension of loans.

Actions taken by SBA pursuant to the authority of section 7(c) of the Small Business Act, as amended, are limited to such periods of time as appear necessary to avoid forced liquidation of loans. Extensions are granted under this section only when it appears that no other course of liquidation will result in a greater and earlier recovery of the indebtedness.

§ 122.15 Step-by-step application procedure for financial assistance.

(a) Before applying to SBA, an applicant should make every effort to obtain the financial assistance from private sources.

(b) If unable to obtain the entire loan from a bank or other source, the applicant should ascertain whether a financial institution will make the loan if SBA agrees to purchase an immediate participation or if SBA agrees to guarantee a portion of the bank loan in accord with the Guaranteed Loan Program as set forth in the SBA regulations.

(c) SBA will consider an application for a direct loan where an immediate participation loan or a guaranteed loan is not available, and will consider an immediate participation loan only where a guaranty loan is not available.

(d) An applicant desiring to obtain a loan from SBA should apply to SBA's office serving the territory in which the applicant's business is located. However, if he desired to obtain counseling or assistance in filing an application from a regional office which is geographically closer to his business, he may do so. Addresses of SBA offices are listed in Part 101 of this chapter.

(e) When an applicant first communicates with SBA's office it should be able to furnish a history of its business, the amount of the loan desired, how it will be secured, the purpose of the loan and the nature of its business. It should also be able to present current operating and financial statements and, if available, the statements for at least the previous three years.

(f) Applicant should furnish the names of financial institutions to which it has applied for financial assistance, the reason it was unable to obtain the financing applied for, and whether the financial institution, if unable to make the loan by itself, would make the loan in participation with SBA either under a guaranty or an immediate participation agreement; such information should have written confirmation from the lending institution and be submitted with the application.

(g) SBA's office will furnish appropriate application forms and any necessary preparation information.

(h) After filing application with either a financial institution or SBA, and subsequent to processing, the applicant will then be notified of the decision either to grant or deny the requested financial assistance.

§ 122.16 Credit requirements.

An applicant must meet certain practical credit requirements established by SBA. Principal requirements are as follows:

(a) An applicant must be of good character as determined by SBA.

(b) There must be evidence that he has ability to operate his business successfully.

(c) He must have enough capital in the business so that, with assistance through SBA, it will be possible for him to operate on a sound financial basis.

(d) As required by the Small Business Act, as amended, the proposed loan, whether direct, immediate participation, or guaranteed, must be "of such sound value or so secured as reasonably to assure repayment."

(1) Loan appraisals. Regional Directors are responsible for the proper evaluation of collateral offered to secure proposed financial assistance and of collateral pledged in connection with the administration and liquidation of financial assistance. Such evaluation will be based upon appraisals made by SBA staff appraisers/engineers, or other appraisal satisfactory to the Regional Director.

(e) The past earnings record and future prospects of the firm must indicate ability to repay the loan out of income from the business. In the event that an engineering survey or feasibility study of a company's operation, earnings, management, competitive position, and related factors is desired in connection with a loan application, the nature and extent of such a survey shall be determined by a review of the case. A technical evaluation by SBA appraisers/engineers will contain a report on the following kinds of subjects. The list is not all inclusive, merely indicative:

(1) Principal company products.
(2) Productive capacity.
(3) Break-even point.
(4) Sales.
(5) Competitive factors.
(6) Suitability of present plant and equipment.
(7) New machinery needed.

(f) Security may include: Mortgage on land, buildings and equipment; assignment of warehouse receipts for marketable merchandise stored in satisfactory warehouse; mortgage on chattels; or assignment of current receivables (accounts, notes or trade acceptances). The applicant may offer as additional collateral any other assets of sound value. A pledge of inventories generally will not be regarded as satisfactory collateral unless stored in a bonded or otherwise acceptable warehouse, when such inventories are the only or primary collateral for the loan.

(g) While the questions of security and collateral are important in determining whether financial assistance will be extended, they do not alone constitute the factors upon which the approval or rejection of an application is determined. SBA attaches great importance to management; the inherent soundness of the business enterprise; its earnings record and prospects; its long-range possibilities of successful operation; and whether the granting of financial assistance will increase employment or have other favorable effects upon the economic life of the community.

Terms and Conditions of Loans

§ 122.17 Maturities.

The maturity of each loan (except as specifically stated for special programs) is limited to 10 years but shall be restricted to the minimum consistent with sound business practice. Loans are generally repayable monthly with payments to include both principal and interest. Special repayment plans may be arranged to meet those situations where income is seasonal.

§ 122.18 Charges, commissions, and fees.

(a) Payment of bonus, or brokerage fees or commissions for the purpose of, or in connection with, obtaining financial assistance through SBA is prohibited. The applicant, subject to SBA approval, may pay actual reasonable costs incurred in connection with the application, including such items as compensation, for services rendered by attorneys, appraisers, and accountants, but in no event may an applicant make any payment in the nature of such a brokerage fee or commission.

(b) The applicant is required to certify the names of all attorneys, accountants and other representatives engaged by him in connection with the financial assistance. All compensation or other charges must be approved by SBA before payment is made, or if payment has been made, a refund of any excessive portion of the charge must be made to the applicant. See Parts 103 and 104 of this chapter for further regulations with respect to representatives and their compensation.

§ 122.19 Loan closing.

If SBA approves a loan application, a formal loan authorization is issued by SBA. This authorization is not a contract to lend or a loan agreement. Instead, it states the conditions which the borrower must meet before financial assistance will be extended. When the borrower is prepared to meet these conditions, SBA or the financial institution will arrange a date, time and place for closing the loan.

Loan Administration

§ 122.20 Loan administration.

(a) Immediate participation loans which are closed by the bank will be serviced by the bank, and immediate participation loans or direct loans closed by SBA will be administered by SBA. However, SBA reserves the right to transfer the servicing of an immediate participation loan from the financial institution to SBA.

(b) Guaranteed loans will be serviced by the financial institution which made the loan. The financial institution shall hold the note, instruments of hypothecation, and all other agreements, documents, and instruments obtained by it in connection with its loan to the small business concern. The financial institution shall receive all payments of principal and interest on the loan until such time as SBA may purchase its guaranteed share of the loan.

(c) The financial institution shall not, without the prior written consent of the SBA except to the extent permitted by a written authorization (1) make or consent to any alterations in the terms of the note or related loan instruments; (2) make or consent to any release, substitution, or exchange of collateral, except for simplified blanket guaranty loans, as stated on the SBA Form 750; (3) accelerate the maturity of the note; (4) sell, assign, or transfer the note or related loan instruments; (5) sue upon the note or related loan instruments; or (6) waive or agree to waive any claim against borrower or any guarantor, standby creditor, or other obligor in connection with the loan; (7) directly or indirectly charge or receive any bonus, fee, commission, or expense in any form in connection with the making of the loan, except charges or expenses incurred, or for actual services rendered; (8) in accordance with authority contained in any security instrument held by the financial institution evidencing a prior lien on property taken as security for the loan, increase the amount due on such lien.

(d) If SBA shall purchase its share of a guaranteed loan, the financial institution will immediately assign and deliver to SBA all loan instruments obtained by it pertaining to the loan. The loan shall then be serviced by SBA.

§ 122.21 Collection policy.

It is the policy of SBA to insist upon prompt payment of due installments and upon compliance with all terms and conditions of the note, mortgage and loan agreements. Any request for relief should be directed to the participating institution or SBA field office, whichever is servicing the loan. No deviation in the terms and conditions of the note or other instruments will be condoned without the written approval of the participating financial institution, if a financial institution has participated in the loan. However, in order to aid and assist borrowers in the discharge of their financial obligations, it is the policy of SBA to advise and counsel with borrowers in the management, production, and financial aspects of their business, with a view of encouraging the development of a healthy, growing concern.

§ 122.22 Sale and conversion of loans.

(a) Directors of the regional offices are authorized to effect the sale of any direct loan upon payment in the amount of the borrower's indebtedness. The consent of the borrower is not required. Loans made pursuant to the Small Business Act, as amended, and those loans which were transferred to SBA in accordance with Reorganization Plans No. 2 of 1954 and No. 1 of 1957 will not be sold for less than the amount of the borrower's obligation.

(b) Direct loans may be converted to guaranteed loans or to immediate participation loans.

(c) An immediate participation loan may be converted to a guaranteed loan or a loan wholly owned by the participating institution without the borrower's approval upon payment of the unpaid amount of SBA's participation in such loan, together with the accrued interest due thereon and any advances that may have been made by SBA.

(d) Any Guaranty Agreement may be terminated upon receipt of a written request from the financial institution, provided the guarantee charges have been paid to the date of termination.

LIQUIDATION OF LOANS AND SECURITY

§ 122.23 Liquidation policy.

(a) It is the policy of SBA to aid, counsel, assist and protect small business concerns to which loans have been made. Ordinarily, the liquidation of the property securing a loan will not be resorted to if there appears to be any reasonable probability that the loan may be repaid by the borrower or a guarantor other than SBA within a reasonable period.

(b) Liquidation of the security may be authorized or approved when any one of the following conditions exists:

(1) A borrower is in default in the payment of one or more installments due under a note or has defaulted in the performance of conditions contained in the note, loan agreement, other instrument, or a security instrument, and the failure to cure such default or defaults or to make acceptable arrangements to cure the same is due to (i) lack of diligence; (ii) lack of managerial ability which the borrower has failed or refused to correct; (iii) other circumstances within the borrower's control; or (iv) the inability of the borrower to remedy the default;

(2) Foreclosure or other proceedings have been instituted which may jeopardize the interests of the Government;

(3) A borrower has filed a voluntary petition or an involuntary petition has been filed against the borrower pursuant to any of the provisions of the Bankruptcy Act, as amended;

(4) A receiver has been appointed or other judicial action taken for the purpose of liquidating the borrower's assets;

(5) The borrower has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors which may result in the liquidation of his assets;

(6) The borrower is in default and has discontinued or abandoned the business and has not submitted an acceptable plan of payment;

(7) The failure of the borrower to disclose in his loan application any fact deemed by SBA to be material or the making of any false statement or material misrepresentation by, on behalf of, or for the benefit of, the borrower in the loan application, in any of the loan instruments or in any affidavit or other document submitted in connection with such application.

§ 122.24 Foreclosure of collateral.

(a) Real and personal property, including contracts and claims, hypothecated as security for the payment of a loan which is in default may be sold in accordance with the provisions of the note or the security instrument whereby such property was hypothecated.

(b) Payments or recoveries under or upon a loan from the borrower or from any other source as well as all reasonable expenses (including advances for the care, preservation, and maintenance of collateral securing the loan) incurred by SBA or the financial institution shall be shared ratably by SBA and the financial institution in accordance with their respective interests in the loan.

(c) Any and all security or guaranty of any nature (excluding SBA's guaranty), including but not limited to set-off and counterclaim, which the financial institution holds or may receive further to secure the financial institution with respect to a loan, or which SBA may require in connection with a loan, shall secure the interests of both the SBA and the financial institution.

(d) Guarantors of financial assistance, other than SBA, shall have no rights of contribution against SBA on a guaranteed loan. SBA shall not be deemed to be a coguarantor with any other guarantors.

§ 122.25 Sale of acquired collateral.

(a) Property acquired by SBA or the servicing financial institution in the liquidation of loans will be offered for sale by the SBA or by the financial institution which is servicing the loan. All sales, unless otherwise authorized, will be effected through competitive bids at either an auction sale or a sealed bid sale. In those instances where property which has been acquired cannot be sold advantageously at a sealed bid or auction sale, the SBA or the financial institution may negotiate with prospective purchasers for the sale of the property.

(b) The right, title and interest of SBA in property sold will, unless otherwise authorized, be conveyed by an appropriate bill of sale or deed, without representation or warranty.

(c) SBA does not look with favor upon renting or leasing acquired property nor the granting of options to purchase, inasmuch as it is desirous of selling such property and thereby liquidating its investment in same as soon after acquisition as possible. In those instances where the property cannot be sold advantageously as it appears to be in the interests of the Government to lease the property, proposals for a lease will be considered. Any such proposals must provide for termination by SBA upon the giving of reasonable notice so that the sale of the property may not be unduly delayed.

Effective date. This part shall be effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated: August 7, 1967.

Title 14—AERONAUTICS AND SPACE

Chapter I—Federal Aviation Administration, Department of Transportation

[Docket No. 8173; Amdt. 39-465]

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Graviner Automatic Fire Extinguishers

Amendment 39-454 (32 F.R. 11154), superseding Amendment 39-422 (AD 67-17-4), requires inspections of the Graviner automatic fire extinguisher containers and replacement of defective containers. One of the purposes of Amendment 39-454 was to require inspection of containers which were not included in Amendment 39-422. It was not intended that the initial inspection required by paragraph (a) be repeated if it had already been accomplished in compliance with Amendment 39-422 since it was determined that the initial inspection required by Amendment 39-422 was equivalent to the initial inspection required by Amendment 39-454. However, the airworthiness directive as published requires all Graviner fire extinguisher containers to be inspected within the next 25 hours' time in service, unless already accomplished within the last 100 hours' time in service, from the effective date of Amendment 39-454. Therefore, the airworthiness directive is being amended to require the initial inspection to be accomplished within the next 25 hours' time in service after the effective date of the AD, unless already accomplished within the last 500 hours' time in service for fire extinguisher containers with a stamp date October 1965 or before, or within the last 1,500 hours' time in service for fire extinguisher containers with a stamp date later than October 1965.

Since this amendment provides a correction, relieves a restriction, and imposes no additional burden on any person, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary and the amendment may be made effective in less than 30 days.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (14 CFR 11.89), § 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations, Amendment 39-454 (32 F.R. 11154), is amended by amending paragraph (a) to read:

(a) Within the next 25 hours' time in service after the effective date of this AD, unless already accomplished within the last 500 hours' time in service for fire extinguisher containers with a stamp date October 1965 or before, or unless already accomplished within the last 1,500 hours' time in service for fire extinguisher containers with a stamp date later than October 1965, visually inspect Graviner automatic fire extinguisher containers for cracks or leaks and weight in accordance with Graviner Alert Service Bulletin No. 26-A30, Issue No. 2, dated April 21, 1967, or later ARB-approved issue, or FAA-approved equivalent.

This amendment becomes effective August 12, 1967.

(Secs. 313(a), 601, 603, Federal Aviation Act of 1958; 49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, and 1423)

Issued in Washington, D.C., on August 10, 1967.

Title 17—COMMODITY AND SECURITIES EXCHANGES

Chapter II—Securities and Exchange Commission

[Release No. 33-4877] [1]

PART 231—INTERPRETATIVE RELEASES RELATING TO SECURITIES ACT OF 1933 AND GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS THEREUNDER

Real Estate Syndications

Recent newspaper advertisements by various persons, corporations, partnerships, trusts, and unincorporated organizations have offered for sale interests in real estate syndications, generally in the form of limited partnership interests or interests in joint or profit sharing ventures, which were not registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission or the appropriate State or other regulatory bodies. Such offers and subsequent sales have been especially prevalent in the District of Columbia, Maryland, and Virginia. These transactions have raised important questions under the registration requirements and antifraud provisions of the Federal Securities laws and the laws of these States and of the District of Columbia. Accordingly, this release, prepared by the Securities and Exchange Commission and the authorities in these jurisdictions, outlines the requirements of the relevant statutory requirements for the guidance of the industry and the bar. The information provided herein as to each jurisdiction has been supplied by authority of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the District of Columbia and the States of Maryland and Virginia, as the case may be.

Federal Securities Laws. Under the Federal Securities Laws, an offering of limited partnership interests and interests in joint or profit sharing real estate ventures generally constitutes an offering of a "profit sharing agreement" or an "investment contract" which is a "security" within the meaning of section 2(1) of the Securities Act of 1933. The Supreme Court has said that an "investment contract" is a contract, transaction or scheme whereby a person invests money in a common enterprise and is led to expect profits from the efforts of the promotor or a third party." [2] In other words, the investor provides the capital and shares in the risk and the profits; the promotor or third party manages, operates and controls the enterprise, usually without active participation on the part of the investor. Any such investment contract is also deemed to be a security under the laws of Maryland, Virginia, and the District of Columbia, as is explained hereafter.

The investor's interest in the enterprise may be evidenced by formal certificates or by part ownership of the assets used in the enterprise. In determining what is an investment contract, substance and economic reality prevail over the form of the transaction involved. Interests in novel and uncommon ventures fit the broad definition of an "investment contract." Therefore, if the promotors of a real estate syndication offer investors the opportunity to share in the profits of real estate syndications or similar ventures, particularly when there is no active participation in the management and operation of the scheme on the part of the investors, the promotors are, in effect, offering a "security." [3]

When these securities are offered publicly by the use of the mails or any means or instruments of transportation or communication in interstate commerce, they are required to be registered with the Commission under section 5 of the Securities Act of 1933, unless an exemption from the registration requirements is available. Generally, any offering of these securities through newspapers, magazines or other advertising media would be a public offering which is subject to registration.

One exemption from registration is provided by section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, which exempts "transactions by an issuer not involving any public offering" (commonly referred to as the "private offering exemption"). It should be emphasized that in any claim of exemption from registration under the section, the number of offerees is not the most relevant factor, but rather the persons to whom the securities are sold. The leading case in this area is S.E.C. v. Ralston Purina Co., 346 U.S. 119 (1953). The Court noted there that the exemption must be interpreted in the light of the statutory purpose to "protect investors by promoting full disclosure of information thought necessary to informed investment decisions" and held that "the applicability of section 4(1) should turn on whether the particular class of persons affected need the protection of the Act." [4] The Court stated that the number of offerees is not conclusive as to the availability of the exemption from registration since the statute could apply to an offering "whether to few or many." Therefore, the number of persons to whom the offering is extended is relevant only to the question whether their association with and knowledge of the issuer is such that they do not need the protection of the Act. Further, a determination whether an offering is public or private would also include a consideration of the question whether it is a part of a larger offering made or to be made. For additional information as to the "private offering exemption", see Commission Release No. 4552 (1962) under the Securities Act of 1933 (27 F.R. 11316).

Offerings are sometimes made without registration in reliance upon the exemption from registration contained in section 3(a)(11) of the Securities Act, commonly called the "intrastate exemption." This exemption is available only if all the securities are both offered and sold exclusively to residents of the state or territory in which the issuer is both incorporated and doing business. The exemption is lost if only one offeree or purchaser is a resident outside such state or territory. Section 2(7) of the Securities Act makes this exemption unavailable for an offering in the District of Columbia. For further information regarding the "intra-state exemption", see Commission Release No. 4434 (1961) under the Securities Act of 1933 (26 F.R. 11896).

Whether or not registration is required, the antifraud and civil liability provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 are applicable to the offer or sale of such securities (i.e., profit sharing agreements, investment contracts, and similar kinds of instruments evidencing such interests) when the mails or the means or instrumentalities of interstate commerce are used. Moreover, persons offering such securities for sale may also be "brokers" or "dealers" within the meaning of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and subject to registration and regulation under the pertinent provisions of that Act. Accordingly, any person proposing to issue, offer or sell such securities should carefully consider these provisions and take steps to conform to all applicable requirements. Anyone having questions with respect to these matters may consult with members of the Commission's staff at the Commission's offices at 500 North Capitol Street, Washington, D.C. 20549.

District of Columbia. In addition to the application of the Federal Securities Laws, an offer or sale in the District of Columbia of interests in real estate syndications (such as general or limited partnership interests, shares in a trust or corporation, participations in joint ventures and interests in tenancies in common) usually involves the offer and sale of "securities" in the form of investment contracts or profit sharing agreements within the meaning of section 2(1) of the District of Columbia Securities Act. [5]

While the marketing of such syndications usually involves the offer and sale of securities, the District of Columbia Securities Act, unlike the Maryland and [5] Title 2, D.C. Code (1961 Edition) secs. 2401, et seq.

Virginia Securities Act, and the Securities Act of 1933, does not require the registration of securities offerings. However, to engage in the business of buying and selling securities in the District of Columbia, a person must obtain a license to do business as a "broker-dealer." Generally speaking, a broker-dealer license must be obtained by any person who is engaged in the business of effecting transactions in securities in the District of Columbia for the account of others, or for his own account, whether he is located in the District or not. In general terms, a license as a broker need not be obtained unless a person is engaged, on some regular basis, in the business of effecting transactions in securities. The District of Columbia Act excludes from the definition of broker-dealer an "agent," "issuer," "bank," "savings institution," "trust company," and certain persons with no place of business in the District. An "agent" is defined as any person who represents a "broker-dealer" or "issuer" in effecting or attempting to effect purchases or sales of securities in or from the District of Columbia. Such an agent is required to be licensed in the District of Columbia. Partners, officers, directors, or employees of a business organization who engage in the offer and sale of the organization's securities are normally subject to licensing as "agents." Moreover, these same persons subsequently might be required to obtain licenses as broker-dealers in lieu of licenses as "agents" if they offer and sell interests in a number of syndications over a period of time.

All transactions in securities in the District must be effected in compliance with section 9 (the antifraud provisions) of the District of Columbia Act in addition to the antifraud provisions of the Federal securities laws, as discussed above.

For further information with respect to the applicability of the District of Columbia Securities Act to real estate syndications, write or call the Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia, Room 204, Cafritz Building, 1625 I Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20006, telephone 629-5626.

Maryland. The State of Maryland takes a position much the same as the Securities and Exchange Commission, the District of Columbia and the State of Virginia, that interests in real estate syndications are "investment contracts," and the offer and sale of such interests generally constitutes the offer and sale of "securities" within the meaning of section 25(f) of the Maryland Securities Act.

The Maryland Securities Act (sec. 19) provides that it is unlawful for any person to offer or sell any security in Maryland unless it is registered under the Maryland Act, or the security or transaction is exempt from registration under that Act. Furthermore, all transactions in securities in Maryland must be effected in compliance with section 18 (Fraudulent and Other Prohibited Practices) of the Maryland Act as well as the antifraud provisions of the Federal securities laws as discussed above, even though they are considered to be exempt transactions or transactions in exempt securities.

Section 15 of the Maryland Act makes it unlawful for any person to transact securities business in that State as a "broker-dealer" or "agent", unless he is registered as such under the Maryland Act. A person selling interests in real estate syndications may often be a "broker-dealer" or an "agent" within the meaning of section 25 of the Maryland Act. Criminal penalties and civil liabilities for violations of provisions of the Maryland Act are set forth in sections 26 and 24 respectively.

For further information with respect to these matters, write or call the Division of Securities, State of Maryland, 1 Charles Center, Baltimore, Md. 21201, telephone 301-837-3650, extension 3650.

Virginia. In Virginia, interests in real estate syndications are also considered to be "investment contracts," which are "securities" within the meaning of § 13.1-501(j) of the Virginia Securities Act. Section 13.1-507 of that Act provides that it is unlawful for any person to offer or sell any security in Virginia, unless the security or the transaction is exempt from registration under that Act, or unless the security has been registered.

Section 13.1-514(b) (8) of the Virginia Securities Act has been amended to clarify the exemption from registration for issuers having not more than 30 security holders. The reason for the exemption is to permit small groups of friends and acquaintances in Virginia to engage in business together without being burdened with the registration requirements of the Virginia Act. However, promoters have sometimes sought to take advantage of the exemption to solicit the general public. The section, as amended, allows an issuer to sell, without registration, to as many as 30 persons, but the exemption does not apply if sales were effected by general solicitation. It has been the practice of some promoters of real estate investment trusts to go to the public in offering their shares, with the idea that if they can raise their money without making more than 30 sales they will be within the exemption.

The 1964 amendment of the Virginia Securities Act makes it clear that this practice is not permissible and that whenever securities are offered to the general public by advertisement or solicitation, the securities must be registered under the Virginia Securities Act and offered only through licensed brokers or salesmen. Such an offering is a public offering regardless of the number of sales, and regardless of whether the issuer is a corporation, a trust, a partnership, or an individual.

Securities exempted from the securities registration and the broker-dealer registration requirements of the law are, of course, not exempt from the antifraud provisions of the Virginia Act or the Federal securities laws.

For further information with respect to the applicability of the Virginia Securities Act to real estate syndications, write or call the State Corporation Commission, Securities Division, Post Office Box 1197, Richmond, Va., telephone area code 703-644-8111, extension 2327.

Title 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter I—Office of the Secretary of Defense

SUBCHAPTER M—MISCELLANEOUS

PART 248—INTRODUCTION OF NEW CLOTHING AND TEXTILE ITEMS INTO DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE SUPPLY SYSTEM

The Assistant Secretary of Defense (Installations and Logistics) has approved the following:

Sec.
248.1 Purpose and applicability.
248.2 Problem areas.
248.3 Policy and coordinating procedures.

AUTHORITY: The provisions of this Part 248 issued under Title X, United States Code, sec. 2358; Title V, United States Code, sec. 486.

§ 248.1 Purpose and applicability.

This part establishes uniform procedures for coordinating proposals made by a military service to introduce new items of clothing and textiles, consistent with the provisions of DoD Instruction 4100.37, "Controlling the Entry of Items into the Military Supply Systems," January 17, 1961,[1] into the Defense Supply Agency supply system.

§ 248.2 Problem areas.

The areas shown below have been pinpointed as those which will require close coordination between the military services and the Defense Supply Agency:

(a) Estimating costs. The introduction of new clothing and textile items into the Defense Supply Agency supply system presents numerous problems in determining the relation of the necessity and urgency for a new item to the more tangible costs of introducing a new item into the supply system. In determining costs, major consideration should be given to the effect that the new item(s) will have on existing stocks of items being replaced.

(b) Stock excesses. Without appropriate coordination, unnecessary stock excesses can occur when new clothing and textile items are introduced into the supply systems in replacement of existing items, causing (1) stocked items to become unbalanced because of unexpected changes in requirements, and (2) programmed requirements for existing stocks to be reduced.

(c) Budgeting. Development of monetary requirements for new items, and justification for inclusion in the Defense Stock Fund Budget (DoD Directive 7420.1, "Regulations Governing Stock Funds," January 26, 1967[1]) of request for funds to finance procurement sufficiently in advance of the military service required date. Any proposed introduction of new or substitute items which may require a change from existing funding in the military service appropriation responsible for reimbursing the Defense Supply Agency upon issue should be coordinated through the normal budget channels of the military service and the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Comptroller).

§ 248.3 Policy and coordinating procedures.

The introduction of a new item into the Department of Defense supply systems as a result of a proposed military service action will be planned so as to insure optimum economic use of existing stocks of items affected by the introduction of the new item. Exceptions to this phasing of new items may be made only upon certification of each case by proper authority of the using military service to safeguard life, health, morale or military capability as prescribed in DoD Directive 4140.1, "Inventory Management Policies," October 12, 1956.[1] Such certification will be made in consideration of total costs to both the using service(s) and the Defense Supply Agency. However, actions essential to the safeguarding of life or health will not be determined on the basis of cost considerations. In carrying out this policy, the following coordinating steps will be followed:

(a) Military services. (1) When considering the introduction of a new clothing and textile item which replaces existing items, the using military service will obtain from DSA up-to-date information regarding stocks on hand and on order, anticipated issues, and other pertinent data as agreed between the military services and DSA.

(2) Proposals for introduction of new clothing and textile items will be coordinated with the Defense Supply Agency prior to final decision. Proposals will include, in addition to other pertinent data, plans for using existing DSA stocks on hand and on order (when appropriate). Where the schedule for introduction of a new item does not provide for optimum economic utilization of stocks of other affected items, the military service will furnish the DSA a copy of its certification, under the provisions of DoD Directive 7420.1, "Regulations Governing Stock Funds," January 26, 1967,[1] as to the necessity for introduction of the new item in such manner.

(b) Defense Supply Agency. In coordinating the introduction of new clothing and textile items with the military services and at the time current stock status information is furnished, DSA will (1) evaluate proposals to determine the effect that the scheduled introduction of the new item will have on existing DSA stocks, and (2) concur in the military service proposal, or recommend the use of existing stocks to minimize disposal action and furnish, as appropriate, alternative dates for introduction of new items, length of time required to obtain funds for procurement, and other pertinent information for each new item proposed.

(c) Assistant Secretary of Defense (Installations and Logistics). When necessary to resolve differences, the ASD (I&L) will review the item proposals of the military services and the recommendations of the DSA prior to final decision.

Proposed Rule Making

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Consumer and Marketing Service

[7 CFR Part 1099]

[Docket No. AO 183-A19]

MILK IN PADUCAH, KY., MARKETING AREA

Notice of Recommended Decision and Opportunity To File Written Exceptions on Proposed Amendments to Tentative Marketing Agreement and to Order

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of this recommended decision with respect to proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and order regulating the handling of milk in the Paducah, Ky., marketing area. Interested parties may file written exceptions to this decision with the Hearing Clerk, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250, by the seventh day after publication of this decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate. All written submissions made pursuant to this notice will be made available for public inspection at the office of the Hearing Clerk during regular business hours (7 CFR 1.27(b)).

Preliminary statement. The hearing on the record of which the proposed amendments, as hereinafter set forth, to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order as amended, were formulated, was conducted at Paducah, Ky., on February 17, 1967, pursuant to notice thereof which was issued February 1, 1967 (32 F.R. 2448), and February 8, 1967 (32 F.R. 2820).

The material issues on the record of the hearing relate to:

1. The price for Class I milk.
2. Seasonal production incentive plan.

This recommended decision deals with issue No. 1, Class I prices. The procedure on issue No. 2 has been completed.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions on the material issues are based on evidence presented at the hearing and the record thereof:

1. Class I price. The Class I price for the Paducah marketing area should be the St. Louis order Class I price plus 25 cents per hundredweight.

The amendment as formulated herein would result in a 10 cents per hundredweight increase in the Class I price only in the Kentucky portion of the marketing area. This differs from the proposal of the producers association which would maintain the existing difference between the Missouri and Kentucky areas (10 cents higher in Missouri) by increasing the price 10 cents in both parts of the marketing area.

The producers association supported its proposal on the basis that it has become difficult to maintain an adequate supply for the fluid market outlets it serves, because of the steady attrition to its membership. The problem is acute in the Paducah market, it was pointed out, because of the small percentage of reserve milk. The supply problem is also intensified by competition from other markets. The association stated that the higher prices paid by the Memphis market to dairy farmers within the Paducah procurement area has caused a severe problem in retaining producers regularly associated with the Paducah market.

Further, in support of its proposal, the association cited the recent 10-cent increase in the Southern Illinois order price (in areas nearest Paducah) effective January 1, 1967. This increase, the association stated, would permit a similar increase in Paducah and maintain the previous relationship between the markets.

Milk supply. The essential purpose in establishing a Class I price level under the order is to assure an adequate supply from sources upon which the market can rely. The milk supply for the Paducah marketing area is essentially local in that it is produced mostly within the marketing area. Virtually all of the producers are members of the Paducah Graded Milk Producers Association. The association has standing arrangements with all handlers in the market to provide full milk supply throughout the year.

The producer milk supply during the past three years has varied from about 8 to 10 million pounds monthly. Most of the variation has been due to seasonal changes in production and expansion of the marketing area. On an all-season basis, the supply of milk has been barely sufficient to meet requirements of fluid outlets. During the fall and winter months of recent years the proportion of reserve milk has narrowed to less than 10 percent in several months. This situation has presented a difficult problem to the cooperative association as the sole procurement agency for the market, particularly in managing milk supplies so as to adequately meet the needs of each of the regulated handlers. Occasionally there has been need to bring in other source milk. Class I utilization in recent years has continued relatively high on an annual basis, averaging 85.6 percent, 88.4 percent, and 85.6 percent, in 1964, 1965, and 1966, respectively.

The supply area for the Paducah market adjoins supply areas of the St. Louis, Louisville-Lexington-Evansville, Nashville, and Memphis markets. Thus the Paducah market must compete with larger markets for milk supplies. The most important competition for milk supply is from the Memphis market. The Memphis procurement area extends well into the Paducah marketing area, as far north as Ballard County, Ky. This situation has resulted in some loss of producers to the Memphis market during the 1965–1966 2-year period.

The milk supply relationship with the Southern Illinois market involves members of the Paducah Graded Milk Producers Association which supply one of the handlers under the Southern Illinois order. These dairy farmers are located within the Kentucky portion of the Paducah marketing area. They are members of the association which are shifted between the markets according to the needs of handlers for fluid milk supplies.

The membership of the association which provides virtually the entire milk supply of the market has declined approximately 15 percent in a period of 2 years. This has been due both to producers leaving the dairy business and leaving the market for other markets, principally Memphis. The total level of milk production on the market has so far been maintained only due to greater production by each producer, but in view of the slight reserve supply, further decline in dairy farmers would tend to endanger adequacy of supplies.

Price comparisons. Price relationships between the Paducah market and other markets were considered by producers to have an important bearing on the Paducah Class I price level. The price relationship to the St. Louis market has been fixed by virtue of the 15-cent differential over St. Louis used to establish the Class I price at Paducah. Similarly, the relationship to the Southern Illinois order prices has been fixed, since prices under that order have been based on the St. Louis price. The Class I price in the southern zone of the Southern Illinois order is equal to the St. Louis price.

Since the St. Louis and Southern Illinois prices are lower than the Paducah price, these other markets do not present a problem of competition for supplies. Instead there is the question of sales competition. Sales competition with the St. Louis market is confined to areas in Missouri, at locations approximately 140 to 150 miles south of St. Louis. Within this general area there is a St. Louis order plant at Cape Girardeau, where a Class I price 15 cents per hundredweight higher than at St. Louis applies. Slightly more than 30 miles south of Cape Girardeau there is a Paducah order plant at Sikeston, Mo., where the Paducah order price is 25 cents over the St. Louis city price. The entire pricing system under the two orders therefore represents scaling up of price level as the distance from St. Louis increases, paralleling the cost to St. Louis or Cape Girardeau handlers in moving milk southward. The present price at Sikeston, as related to St. Louis order prices, appears reasonable and not excessive with regard to the locations of the regulated plants.

While the Southern Illinois market is relatively close, geographically, this has not resulted in significant intermarket sales competition among handlers.

The price relationship between Paducah and Memphis is wider than the differences from other surrounding markets. At the nearest Memphis order plant, at Martin, Tenn., the 1966 Memphis Class I prices adjusted for location averaged 42 cents per hundredweight higher than the Paducah order prices at the Fulton, Ky., plant. The distance between the plants is approximately 13 miles. With this difference in prices, procurement activities of Memphis handlers or of a cooperative association have at times resulted in some loss of producers.

Part of this price difference compared to Memphis was due to the action of the Memphis supply-demand adjustor. Currently, the Class I price difference which would be produced by differentials over the basic formula price, excluding supply-demand adjustments, would be 23.5 cents higher at Martin than at Fulton.

The 10-cent price increase herein recommended for the Kentucky location would result in reasonable price relationships with surrounding markets, considering the aspects of inter-market competition already described. The price increase would continue the historical relation with the Southern Illinois market. The price, in relation to St. Louis, would be reasonable in view of the less ample supply in Paducah than in St. Louis and the 175 miles distance between these cities. The change in relationship to Memphis would reduce the amount of normal price difference at points where the two markets have common procurement areas.

It is concluded that for the purpose of maintaining an adequate supply, a price increase of 10 cents per hundredweight is justified for the Kentucky portion of the marketing area. It is in this area that the greatest problem exists in maintaining milk supply. Because of the relatively small percentage of reserve milk on the market, the supply should be maintained at the existing level.

No change should be made at this time, however, in the price level applicable in Missouri counties of the marketing area. The milk supply serving the only plant in this part of the market is primarily from producers located within this part of the marketing area. Competition for milk supply has not been severe, and the supply for the plant located there is not threatened by price relationships with other markets. In fact, the overall balancing of supplies within the entire marketing area results in regular movements of bulk loads of milk from the Missouri portion into Kentucky and no movements in the other direction. It is concluded therefor that the Class I price throughout the entire Paducah marketing area should be established at 25 cents over the St. Louis order price.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs and proposed findings and conclusions were filed on behalf of certain interested parties. These briefs, proposed findings and conclusions and the evidence in the record were considered in making the findings and conclusions set forth above. To the extent that the supported findings and conclusions filed by interested parties are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions set forth herein, the requests to make such findings or reach such conclusions are denied for the reasons previously stated in this decision.

General findings. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Recommended marketing agreement and order amending the order. The following order amending the order as amended regulating the handling of milk in the Paducah, Ky., marketing area is recommended as the detailed and appropriate means by which the foregoing conclusions may be carried out. The recommended marketing agreement is not included in this decision because the regulatory provisions thereof would be the same as those contained in the order, as hereby proposed to be amended:

1. In § 1099.51, paragraph (a) is revised to read as follows:

§ 1094.51 Class prices.

* * * * *

(a) Class I milk price. The price per hundredweight of Class I milk for the month shall be the Class I price pursuant to Part 1062 of this chapter (St. Louis, Mo.) plus 25 cents; and

* * * * *

§ 1099.86 [Amended]

2. In § 1099.86, paragraph (b) is deleted.

Signed at Washington, D.C., on August 8, 1967.

Deputy Administrator,

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[Docket Nos. 17617, 17618]

ATHENS BROADCASTING CO., INC., AND 3 J'S BROADCASTING CO.

Order Designating Applications for Consolidated Hearing on Stated Issues

In re applications of Athens Broadcasting Co., Inc., Athens, Tenn., Docket No. 17617, File No. BPH-5668; Requests: 98.3 mc, No. 252; 2.2 kw; 345 feet; John P. Frew and Julia N. Frew doing business as 3 J's Broadcasting Co., Athens, Tenn., Docket No. 17618, File No. BPH-5768; Requests: 98.3 mc, No. 252; 3 kw; 257 feet; for construction permits.

1. The Commission, by the Chief, Broadcast Bureau, under delegated authority considered the above captioned and described applications for construction permits.

2. These applications are mutually exclusive in that operation by the applicants as proposed would cause mutually destructive interference.

3. Since no determination has yet been reached on whether the antenna proposed by 3 J's Broadcasting Co. would constitute a menace to air navigation, an issue regarding this matter is required.

4. Except as indicated below the applicants are qualified to construct and operate as proposed. However, because of their mutual exclusivity the Commission is unable to make the statutory finding that a grant of the subject applications would serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity, and is of the opinion that they must be designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding on the issues set forth below.

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309(e) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine whether there is a reasonable possibility that the tower height and location proposed by 3 J's Broadcasting Co. would constitute a menace to air navigation.

2. To determine which of the proposals would better serve the public interest.

3. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, which of the applications for construction permit should be granted.

It is further ordered, That the Federal Aviation Administration is made a party to the proceeding.

It is further ordered, That, to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the applicants pursuant to § 1.221 (c) of the Commission's rules, in person or by attorney, shall, within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

It is further ordered, That the applicants herein shall, pursuant to section 311(a)(2) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and § 1.594 of the Commission's rules, give notice of the hearing, either individually or, if feasible and consistent with the rules, jointly, within the time and in the manner prescribed in such rule, and shall advise the Commission of the publication of such notice as required by § 1.594(g) of the rules.

1. The Commission, by Chief of the Broadcast Bureau under delegated authority, considered the above-captioned and described applications for construction permits.

2. Except as indicated by the issues specified below, the applicants are qualified to construct and operate as proposed. However, since simultaneous operation of the proposals would result in mutually destructive interference, the applications are mutually exclusive and must be designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding on the issues specified below:

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309(e) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from the proposal of Fred Kaysbier and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the proposed operation of Station KRRR and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

3. To determine, in the light of section 307(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, which of the proposals would better provide a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of radio service.

4. To determine, in the event it is concluded that a choice between the applications should not be based solely on considerations relating to section 307(b), which of the operations proposed in the above-captioned applications would better serve the public interest.

5. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues which, if either, of the applications should be granted.

It is further ordered, That in the event of a grant of either of the above applications, the construction permit shall contain the following condition:

Pending a final decision in Docket No. 14419 with respect to presunrise operation with daytime facilities, the present provisions of section 73.87 of the Commission's rules are not extended to this authorization, and such operation is precluded.

It is further ordered, That in the event of a grant of the application of Fred Kaysbier, the construction permit shall contain the following condition:

Before program tests are authorized, an approved type frequency monitor shall be installed.

It is further ordered, That, to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the applicants herein, pursuant to section 1.221(c) of the Commission's rules, in person or by attorney, shall within twenty (20) days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

It is further ordered, That the applicants herein shall, pursuant to section 311(a)(2) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and § 1.594 of the Commission's rules, give notice of the hearing, either individually or, if feasible and consistent with the rules, jointly, within the time and in the manner prescribed in such rule, and shall advise the Commission of the publication of such notice as required by § 1.594(g) of the rules.

[1] The stated effective date is the effective date proposed by Respondent.

[3] Includes 0.015 cent tax reimbursement for 0.02 cent increase in Oklahoma excise tax which became effective on July 1, 1967.

[5] Subject to downward B.t.u. adjustment.
[6] Settlement rate pursuant to Sun Oil Co.'s companywide settlement in Docket Nos. G-8298, et al. Filing moratorium imposed by settlement expires on Aug. 1, 1967. However, Sun reserved the right to file for any contractually authorized increase in tax reimbursement

All of these proposed rate increases reflect tax reimbursement for the recently enacted increase in the Oklahoma Excise tax from 0.02 cent to 0.04 cent per Mcf, effective on July 1, 1967. The proposed rate increases exceed the area increased rate ceiling of 11.0 cents for the area, announced in the Commission's Statement of General Policy No. 61-1, as amended (18 CFR, Chapter I, Part 2, Section 2.56). However, since the proposed rate filings relate only to tax reimbursement increases, we conclude that such increases should be suspended for one day from the proposed effective dates.

PLACID OIL CO. ET AL.

Order Providing for Hearings on and Suspension of Proposed Changes in Rates [1]

AUGUST 3, 1967.

The Respondents named herein have filed proposed increased rates and charges of currently effective rate schedules for sales of natural gas under Commission jurisdiction, as set forth in Appendix A below.

The proposed changed rates and charges may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is in the public interest and consistent with the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon hearings regarding the lawfulness of the proposed changes, and that the supplements herein be suspended and their use be deferred as ordered below.

The Commission orders: (A) Under the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15, the regulations pertaining thereto (18 CFR Ch. I), and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, public hearings shall be held concerning the lawfulness of the proposed changes.

(B) Pending hearings and decisions thereon, the rate supplements herein are suspended and their use deferred until date shown in the "Date Suspended Until" column, and thereafter until made effective as prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Until otherwise ordered by the Commission, neither the suspended supplements, nor the rate schedules sought to be altered, shall be changed until disposition of these proceedings or expiration of the suspension period.

(D) Notices of intervention or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37(f)) on or before September 11, 1967.

By the Commission.

[1] The pressure base is 15.025 p.s.i.a.
[2] The stated effective date is the first day after expiration of the statutory notice.
[3] Inclusive of 2.3 cents tax reimbursement.
[4] Rate subject to downward B.t.u. adjustment.
[5] Contractually provided for initial rate. Sales have been made at that rate initially pursuant to unconditioned temporary certificate and later in accordance with the stay provisions of Opinion No. 436-A.
[6] "Fractured" rate increase. Placid is contractually due 26.1 cents per Mcf (23.8 cents base rate plus 2.3 cents tax reimbursement).

In Opinion No. 436, the Commission granted a permanent certificate to Placid, in Docket Nos. G-18076, G-18502 and CI61-511, conditioned to a total initial price of 20.0 cents. The rate reduction requirement of Opinion No. 436 was stayed by Opinion No. 436-A, and Placid has continued to collect its initial contract rates of 23.6 cents, subject to the refund provisions of the stay. The 10th Circuit affirmed the Commission's in-line base price determination, but remanded the case for further consideration of the tax reimbursement allowance, among other things.

Placid requests waiver of the 30-day statutory notice to permit a retroactive effective date of July 1, 1967, for its proposed rate increases. In support Placid states that since the increases are being filed for the purpose of moving from section 7(c) to section 4(e) of the Natural Gas Act, and since the amounts are de minimis, there is no reason to require the 30-day notice or to suspend the proposed increased rates. Good cause has not been shown for waiving the 30-day notice requirement provided in section 4(d) of the Natural Gas Act to permit earlier effective dates for Placid's rate filings and such request is denied.

All of the proposed rates exceed the applicable area price level for increased rates as set forth in the Commission's Statement of General Policy No. 61-1 as amended (18 CFR, Chapter I, Part 2, § 2.56).

Notice of Applications for Certificates, Abandonment of Service and Petitions To Amend Certificates [1]

AUGUST 3, 1967.

Take notice that each of the Applicants listed herein has filed an application or petition pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act for authorization to sell natural gas in interstate commerce or to abandon service heretofore authorized as described herein, all as more fully described in the respective applications and amendments which are on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before August 25, 1967.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on all applications in which no protest or petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein if the Commission on its own review of the matter believes that a grant of the certificates or the authorization for the proposed abandonment is required by the public convenience and necessity. Where a protest or petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or where the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given: Provided, however, That pursuant to § 2.56, Part 2, Statement of General Policy and Interpretations, Chapter I of Title 18 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as amended, all permanent certificates of public convenience and necessity granting applications, filed after April 15, 1965, without further notice, will contain a condition precluding any filing of an increased rate at a price in excess of that designated for the particular area of production for the period prescribed therein unless at the time of filing such certificate application, or within the time fixed herein for the filing of protests or petitions to intervene the Applicant indicates in writing that it is unwilling to accept such a condition. In the event Applicant is unwilling to accept such condition the application will be set for formal hearing.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicants to appear or be represented at the hearing.

[19] Transferor has agreed to ceiling rate in 14.44 cents per Mcf as established in quality settlement accepted by letter dated Feb. 1, 1967.

Cabot Corp. (SW) (Operator) et al. (Cabot), J. Ray McDermott & Co., Inc. (McDermott), and C. J. Pinner (Operator) et al. (Pinner), request effective dates for which adequate notice has not been given. In addition, McDermott requests waiver of the 30-day notice requirement stating that a periodic rate increase was contractually due November 1, 1966. No other reasons were given in support of these requests. Good cause has not been shown for authorizing the requested effective dates, or for waiving the 30-day notice period, and such requests are therefore denied.

Concurrently with the filing of its rate increase under its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 41, Marathon Oil Co. (Marathon) submitted a contract amendment dated June 6, 1967, designated as Supplement No. 2 to Marathon's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 41, which provides for its proposed rate increase under the rate schedule involved. We believe that it would be in the public interest to accept for filing Marathon's proposed contract amendment to become effective on August 17, 1967, the date of expiration of the statutory notice, but not the proposed rate contained therein which is suspended as herein ordered.

Except for the stay of the moratorium in Opinion No. 468, Union Oil Co. of California's rate filing under its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 124 would be rejectable because the proposed rate is in excess of the applicable area ceiling determined in Opinion No. 468. If the moratorium is ultimately upheld upon judicial review, Union's rate increase will be rejected ab initio.

All of the proposed increased rates and charges exceed the applicable area price levels for increased rates as set forth in the Commission's Statement of General Policy No. 61-1, as amended (18 CFR, Chapter I, Part 2, § 2.56).

The proposed rates and charges may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds:

(1) Good cause has been shown for accepting for filing Marathon's proposed contract amendment dated June 6, 1967, designated as Supplement No. 2 to Marathon's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 41, and for permitting such supplement to become effective on August 17, 1967, the date of expiration of the statutory notice.

(2) It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon hearings concerning the lawfulness of the proposed changes, and that the above-designated supplements be suspended and the use thereof deferred, as hereinafter ordered (except for the supplement set forth in paragraph (1) above).

The Commission orders:

(A) Marathon's contract amendment dated June 6, 1967, designated as Supplement No. 2 to Marathon's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 41, is accepted for filing and permitted to become effective on August 17, 1967, the date of expiration of the statutory notice.

(B) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR, Chapter I), public hearings shall be held upon dates to be fixed by notices from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rates and charges contained in the above-designated supplements (except the supplement set forth in paragraph (A) above.

(C) Pending hearings and decisions thereon, the above-designated supplements are hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until the date indicated in the above "Date Suspended Until" column, and thereafter until such further time as they are made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(D) Neither the supplements hereby suspended, nor the rate schedules sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until these proceedings have been disposed of or until the periods of suspension have expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(E) Notices of intervention or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37(f)) on or before September 11, 1967.

By the Commission.

TARIFF COMMISSION

[APTA-W-17]

CERTAIN WORKERS OF BORG-WARNER CORP., DETROIT, MICH.

Workers' Petition for Determination of Eligibility To Apply for Adjustment Assistance; Notice of Investigation

Upon receipt on August 2, 1967, of a request therefor from the Automotive Agreement Adjustment Assistance Board, the Tariff Commission instituted an investigation pursuant to section 302(e), Automotive Products Trade Act of 1965, with respect to a petition filed with the Board by the International Union, United Automobile Workers, and its Local 314, on behalf of a group of workers at the Long Manufacturing Division, Borg-Warner Corp., Detroit, Mich., which manufactures among other products oil coolers used in automobile radiators, automotive radiators, and clutches. The petition alleges that dislocation of a group of workers has occurred, that dislocation of additional workers is threatened, and that the operation of the United States-Canadian Automotive Agreement has been the primary factor in causing such dislocation and the threat of further dislocations. The Commission is conducting the investigation to provide a factual record on the basis of which the Board may make the determinations required by section 302 of the Act.

No hearing has been scheduled. A hearing will be held on request of any party showing a proper interest in the subject matter of the investigation, provided the request is filed with the Secretary of the Tariff Commission within 10 days after this notice is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The petition filed in this case is available for inspection at the office of the Secretary, United States Tariff Commission, 8th and E Streets NW., Washington, D.C., and at the New York City office of the Tariff Commission located in Room 437 at the Customhouse.

Issued: August 9, 1967.

By order of the Commission.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[No. 34816]

POINTS IN CENTRAL STATES

Increased Minimum Charges

Present: Laurence K. Walrath, Commissioner, to whom the matter which is the subject of this order has been referred for action thereon.

It appearing, that by order dated February 13, 1967, the Commission, Division 2, acting as an appellate division, instituted an investigation into and concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, and regulations contained in the schedules described in said order;

It further appearing, that by order dated April 27, 1967, the Commission notified and directed the respondents to submit certain information and supporting data in the preparation of their case;

It further appearing, that upon further consideration of all the factors surrounding this type of proceeding, it has been determined that an amended order should be entered and become effective in lieu of our order herein dated April 27, 1967, and that the order dated July 25, 1967, extending the date for respondents to file their verified material and assigning a new hearing date should be vacated; and good cause therefor;

It is ordered, That the orders herein dated April 27, and July 25, 1967, be, and they are hereby, vacated and set aside, and in lieu thereof, the instant order shall become effective.

It further appearing, that the order of April 27, 1967, fixed the date of May 29, 1967, on or before which anyone desiring to become a party of record to receive copies of the respondents' verified material; that such date having expired and a service list having been served, there appears to be no reason for extending said date since any interested person desiring to participate in the proceeding may make his appearance at the hearing;

And it further appearing, that in order that consideration be given to all factors which may bear upon a proper determination of the issues, including the question whether the resulting rates would be just and reasonable, it is deemed appropriate in the public interest that the information specified below be included in the record to be developed in this proceeding:

It is further ordered, That respondents be, and they are hereby, notified and required to submit information and supporting data which shall include, among other things, actual expense and revenue data (including anticipated expense and revenue data to show the effect of the proposed increase or decrease) and operating ratios specifically related to the traffic and carriers involved, overall operating ratios, detailed data to establish the representative nature of the carriers used, and in addition, all pertinent evidence and supporting data for the individual representative carriers as they relate to their overall operations, and specifically to the traffic and territories involved.

It is further ordered, That the traffic studies to be submitted shall represent the most current annual reporting period possible, and that they shall be based upon actual operations conducted during identical periods of time for each carrier; that the traffic studies shall be shown to be representative of the traffic covered by the rate proposal; and that the traffic study be costed out and operating ratios determined by the individual weight brackets included within the rate proposal. If the two carrier groups described below under the development of costs are used the traffic study shall be similarly separated. The revenues and costs for both groups shall also be totaled and operating ratios developed.

It is further ordered, That respondents shall produce evidence showing the total revenue earned for the services performed under the bureau's tariffs here under investigation for the most recent annual reporting period.

It is further ordered, That the cost study shall be based upon the most current annual reporting period adjusted to date. The costs may be developed for those carriers subject to the requirements for allocation of expenses between line haul and pickup and delivery in 49 CFR Part 182, Instructions 27 and 9002, whose total amount of revenue derived under the bureau's tariffs collectively is 75 percent or more of the total revenue derived by all carriers participating in those tariffs. If those Instruction 27 carriers' revenue is less than 75 percent of the total, then all of the instruction 27 carriers should be used. These study carriers shall be selected from the participating carriers in descending order beginning with the carrier deriving the greatest dollar amount of revenue from those tariffs. Unit costs are to be developed separately for (1) those carriers who earn 50 percent or more of their revenues under the tariffs involved and (2) those carriers who earn less than 50 percent. If factors similar to those published in appendix A to Highway Form B for the above two groups of carriers are not available, the published factors for the applicable territory based on the latest study are acceptable in the development of the unit costs.

It is further ordered, That both the cost study and the traffic study be adequately supported by working papers to permit a complete check of the procedures followed and the results obtained.

It is further ordered, That respondents shall produce evidence of the sum of money, in addition to operating expenses, needed to attract debt and equity capital which they require to insure financial stability and the capacity to render service. This evidence should include, without limiting the evidence that may be presented, particularized reference to the respondents' reasonable interest, dividend, and surplus requirement; and experienced, projected, and needed rate of return on depreciated investment in transportation.

It is further ordered, That all Class I and II motor carrier respondents shall submit detailed data regarding carrier-affiliate financial and operating relationships and transactions including, with respect to any and all individuals, partnerships, and corporations affiliated with respondents, when such transactions individually or in the aggregate amount to $2,500 or more during the year 1966, the following information:

1. Name of each affiliate from which respondent, during the year 1966, acquired, leased or purchased lands, buildings, equipment, materials, supplies, parts, tires, tubes, gasoline, oil, or other property or services used by respondent in its operations as a motor common carrier.

2. Kinds of property or service which each affiliate supplies to respondent.

3. Basis of charges for property or services supplied by affiliate to respondent including the base and rate for rental charges.

4. Total charges by each affiliate to respondent during the year 1966 for:

a. Lease of vehicles.
b. Lease of terminals.
c. Lease of other property.
d. Pickup and delivery of shipments.
e. Repair and servicing of vehicles.
f. Management, accounting, financial, legal, purchasing, or traffic solicitation services.
g. Property sold by affiliate to respondent.

5. If the affiliate derives revenue from the sale or lease of property or from services through transactions with persons other than respondent, indicate the percentage of the revenue of such business to the total revenue of the affiliate in the year 1966.

6. A copy of the income statement for each affiliate for the year 1966 and the latest period of 1967 for which an income statement is available.

7. A statement listing the amount of wages, salaries, bonuses, and other compensation paid by the affiliate in 1966 to any individual who is also a respondent or an officer, director, or substantial stockholder of a respondent; or the wife or close relative of a respondent or officer, director, or substantial stockholder of a respondent.

8. The term "affiliate" as used in this order means:

a. Any individual who is also a respondent; an officer, director, or substantial stockholder of a respondent; or the wife or close relative either of a respondent, or of an officer, director, or substantial stockholder of a respondent.

b. Any partnership in which one of the partners is a respondent; an officer, director, or substantial stockholder of a respondent; or the wife or close relative either of a respondent; or of an officer, director, or substantial stockholder of a respondent.

c. Any corporation whose stock is wholly or partly owned by a respondent; by an officer, director, or substantial stockholder of a respondent; or by the wife or close relative either of a respondent or of an officer, director, or substantial stockholder of a respondent.

d. Any corporation which exercises control over the operations or finances of respondent.

It is further ordered, That the detailed information called for by this order shall be in writing and shall be verified by a person or persons having knowledge thereof; that such verified material shall be served on all parties of record on or before August 30, 1967, and at the same time, respondents shall file an executed original and two copies with this Commission, together with certificates of service in accordance with § 1.22(a) of the general rules of practice. The information with respect to carrier affiliates may be served on the parties in summary form, if so desired.

It is further ordered, That all underlying data used in preparation of respondents' detailed and verified material shall be made available in the office of the party serving such verified matter during usual office hours for inspection by any party of record desiring to do so; and that the underlying data shall be made available also at the hearing, but only if and to the extent specifically requested in writing and required by any party for the purpose of cross-examination.

It is further ordered, That this proceeding be, and it is hereby, referred to Hearing Examiner Earl S. Dowell for hearing commencing September 25, 1967, at 9:30 a.m., d.s.t. (or 9:30 a.m., U.S. standard time, if that time is observed), in Room 1614, U.S. Courthouse and Federal Office Building, 219 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Ill., and for recommendation of an appropriate order thereon, accompanied by the reasons therefor.

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order be delivered to the Director, Office of the Federal Register, for publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER as notice to all interested persons.

And it is further ordered, That, to avoid future unnecessary service upon those respondents who, although participating carriers in the tariff schedules which are the subject of investigation herein, are not actively interested in the outcome of such investigation, subsequent service on respondents herein of notices and orders of the Commission will be limited to those respondents who:

(1) Have been identified by name in the order or orders of investigation herein;

(2) Specifically make written request to the Secretary of the Commission to be included on the service list; or

(3) Have appeared at a hearing.

Dated at Washington, D.C., this 7th day of August 1967.

By the Commission, Commissioner Walrath.

[Investigation and Suspension Docket Nos. M-21099, M-21099 (Sub-No. 1)]

NEW ENGLAND TERRITORY

Increased Minimum Charges

Present: Laurence K. Walrath, Commissioner, to whom the matters which are the subject of this order have been referred for action thereon.

It appearing, that by orders dated December 16, 1966, the Commission, Division 2, acting as an appellate division, by I. & S. No. M-21099, and Board of Suspension by I. & S. No. M-21099 (Sub-No. 1), entered into investigations concerning the lawfulness of the charges and regulations stated in tariff schedules designated therein, and suspended the operation of said schedules;

It further appearing, that by order dated March 14, 1967, Division 2, acting as an appellate division, vacated and set aside the said orders of December 16, 1966, as of April 13, 1967, insofar as they suspended the operation of the schedules designated therein, but continued the investigation in I. & S. No. M-21099 and I. & S. No. M-21099 (Sub-No. 1);

It further appearing, that by order dated May 3, 1967, the Commission notified and directed the respondents to submit certain information and supporting data in the preparation of their case;

It further appearing, that upon further consideration of all the factors surrounding this type of proceeding, it has been determined that an amended order should be entered and become effective in lieu of our order herein dated May 3, 1967, and that the order dated July 19, 1967, extending the date for respondents to file their verified material and assigning a new hearing date should be vacated; and good cause therefor:

It is ordered, That the orders herein dated May 3, and July 19, 1967, be, and they are hereby, vacated and set aside, and in lieu thereof, the instant order shall become effective.

It further appearing, that the order of May 3, 1967, fixed the date of May 29, 1967, on or before which anyone desiring to become a party of record to receive copies of the respondents' verified material; that such date having expired and a service list having been served, there appears to be no reason for extending said date since any interested person desiring to participate in the proceedings may make his appearance at the hearing;

The revenues and costs for both groups shall also be totaled and operating ratios developed.

It is further ordered, That respondents shall produce evidence showing the total revenue earned for the services performed under the bureau's tariffs here under investigation for the most recent annual reporting period.

It is further ordered, That the cost study shall be based upon the most current annual reporting period adjusted to date. Title 3—THE PRESIDENT

Proclamation 3799

AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK, 1967

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

The future of America is written on school blackboards and in student notebooks. The quality of thought in our classrooms today will determine the quality of our lives a generation hence.

This year more Americans are in school than ever before in our history. Three out of every ten are occupied—as students or teachers—in the process of education.

Thirty-seven million children—1.4 percent more than last year—are enrolled in elementary schools. High school enrollments are up 3 percent more than last year—to 13.7 million. College and university enrollments have increased 8.3 percent from last year—up to 6.5 million.

Dropout rates are falling. About three out of four young people finish high school today. The 1968 high school graduating class will be the largest in history, and about 40 percent of these graduates will go on to college. Every sixth young American is earning a bachelor's degree.

Our people know that the education of our young people is our best investment. In just two years, Federal contributions to education at all levels have nearly tripled. And we have not rested, and will not rest until we —bring college within reach of every American,

—make vocational training available to all who need it,

—provide education and training for adults who missed it in their youth, —improve the quality of education for all.

To call attention to this challenge, to muster the support of all the media of communication, public officials, business leaders, parents, educators and students, I, LYNDON B. JOHNSON, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate the period of November 5 through November 11, 1967, as American Education Week, and I call upon the American people to celebrate the achievements of their educational system, and to dedicate themselves to making it still more responsive to our Nation's needs.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this twelfth day of August in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-seven, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and ninety-second.

[Lemon Reg. 279, Amdt. 1]

PART 910—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

Limitation of Handling

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 910, as amended (7 CFR Part 910), regulating the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such lemons, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 553) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and this amendment relieves restriction on the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona.

Order, as amended. The provisions in paragraph (b)(1)(ii) of § 910.579 (Lemon Reg. 279, 32 F.R. 11375) are hereby amended to read as follows:

[Avocado Reg. 9, Amdt. 4]

PART 915—AVOCADOS GROWN IN SOUTH FLORIDA

Limitation of Shipments

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 915, as amended (7 CFR Part 915), regulating the handling of avocados grown in south Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Avocado Administrative Committee, established under the aforesaid marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of avocados, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 553) in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than the date hereinafter set forth. A reasonable determination as to the quality and the time of maturity of avocados must await the development of the crop; a determination as to the maturity of the varieties of avocados covered by this amendment was made at the meeting of the Avocado Administrative Committee on August 9, 1967. After consideration of all available information relative to the growing conditions prevailing during the current season, recommendations and supporting information for such maturity regulations were submitted to the Department; such meeting was held to consider recommendation for such regulation after giving due notice thereof, and interested parties were afforded opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions hereof are identical with the aforesaid recommendations of the committee and information concerning such provisions has been disseminated among the handlers of avocados; and compliance with the provisions hereof will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

Order. The provisions of paragraph (a)(2) of § 915.309 (32 F.R. 7213, 8761, 10156, 10641) are hereby amended by revising in Table I certain dates and minimum weights of diameters applicable to the Trapp and Pinelli varieties of avocados, and setting forth certain dates and minimum weights and diameters applicable to the Ruehle variety of avocados, so that after such revision the portion of such Table I relating to such varieties reads as follows:

Variety (1)	Date (2)	Minimum weight or diameter (3)	Date (4)	Minimum weight or diameter (5)	Date (6)	Minimum weight or diameter (7)	Date (8)
Trapp	8-14-67	14 oz. 2 19/64 in.	8-28-67	12 oz. 3 7/16 in.	9-11-67

(Secs. 1–19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601–674)

Dated, August 11, 1967, to become effective August 14, 1967.

Deputy Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Consumer and Marketing Service.

The amendments to the standard instrument approach procedures contained herein are adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety. The amended procedures supersede the existing procedures of the same classification now in effect for the airports specified therein. For the convenience of the users, the complete procedure is republished in this amendment indicating the changes to the existing procedures.

As a situation exists which demands immediate action in the interests of safety in air commerce, I find that compliance with the notice and procedure provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act is impracticable and that good cause exists for making this amendment effective within less than 30 days from publication.

In view of the foregoing and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 5662), Part 97 (14 CFR Part 97) is amended as follows:

Title 13—BUSINESS CREDIT AND ASSISTANCE

Chapter I—Small Business Administration

[Rev. 7, Amdt. 6]

PART 121—SMALL BUSINESS SIZE STANDARDS

Definition of Small Business Retailer of Men's and Boy's Clothing and Furnishings for Purpose of Receiving Financial Assistance

On August 2, 1967, there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (32 F.R. 11208) an amendment to Part 121 of Chapter I of Title 13 of the Code of Federal Regulations, establishing new definitions of a small business concern in certain retail and wholesale industries and subindustries. The new definitions were the same as had been proposed in a notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (32 F.R. 9322 and 9323) on June 30, 1967, except for the size standard proposed for retailers of men's and boy's clothing and furnishings. (SIC Industry 5611, Men's and Boy's Clothing and Furnishings.) In the preamble to the amendment it was explained that further study was to be given to the proposal to increase the size standard for SIC Industry 5611.

Further study was to be given to the proposal to increase the standard for SIC Industry 5611 to $1.5 million annual receipts because in commenting on the proposal, a representative of the industry suggested that the standard should be higher than $1.5 million. It now has been determined to increase the standard to $1.5 million at this time with the understanding that if, in the future, evidence is furnished in support of an additional increase, the matter will be given further study at that time.

Accordingly, Part 121 of Chapter I of Title 13 of the Code of Federal Regulations is hereby amended by adding to Schedule D thereof the following industry size standard:

Industry or subindustry code	Industry, subindustry or class of products	Annual sales size standard (maximum in millions)
5611	Men's and Boy's Clothing and Furnishings	$1.5

Effective date. This amendment shall become effective on publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated: August 8, 1967.

ROBERT C. MOOT,
Administrator.

Accordingly, the amendments promulgated by that order will become effective on August 20, 1967.

(Secs. 401, 701, 52 Stat. 1046, 1055, as amended 70 Stat. 919, 72 Stat. 948; 21 U.S.C. 341, 371)

PART 17—BAKERY PRODUCTS

Bread, Identity Standard; Optional Use of α-Amylases

In the matter of amending the standard of identity for bread (21 CFR 17.1) to provide for the use of α-amylases derived from Bacillus subtilis as optional ingredients:

No comments were received in response to the notice of proposed rulemaking in the above-identified matter published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of March 3, 1967 (32 F.R. 3710). It is concluded that it will promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to adopt the amendment as proposed.

Therefore, pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 401, 701, 52 Stat. 1046, 1055, as amended 70 Stat. 919, 72 Stat. 948; 21 U.S.C. 341, 371) and delegated by him to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs (21 CFR 2.120): It is ordered, That § 17.1(a)(6) be amended by adding a new subdivision, as follows:

§ 17.1 Bread, white bread, and rolls, white rolls, or buns, white buns; identity; label statement of optional ingredients.

(a) * * *

(6) * * *

(iii) Harmless preparations of α-amylases, obtained from Bacillus subtilis, which may be added in a suitable, harmless carrier, but the quantity of any such carrier shall be no greater than reasonably necessary to effect a uniform mixture of the enzymes with the flour used.

* * * * * *

Due to cross-references, this amendment to the standard for bread (§ 17.1) upon becoming effective will have the effect of making α-amylases obtained from Bacillus subtilis permitted ingredients of enriched bread, milk bread, raisin bread, and whole wheat bread (§§ 17.2–17.5).

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may at any time within 30 days from the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington, D.C. 20201, written objections thereto. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by the order and specify with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and the grounds for the objections. If a hearing is requested, the objections must state the issues for the hearing, and such objections must be supported by grounds legally sufficient to justify the relief sought. Objections may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. All documents shall be filed in six copies.

Effective date. This order shall become effective 60 days from the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, except as to any provisions that may be stayed by the filing of proper objections. Notice of the filing of objections or lack thereof will be announced by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Secs. 401, 701, 52 Stat. 1046, 1055, as amended 70 Stat. 919, 72 Stat. 948; 21 U.S.C. 341, 371)

Dated: August 4, 1967.

Associate Commissioner for Compliance.

Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by the order and specify with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and the grounds for the objections. If a hearing is requested, the objections must state the issues for the hearing. A hearing will be granted if the objections are supported by grounds legally sufficient to justify the relief sought. Objections may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof.

Effective date. This order shall become effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[7 CFR Part 991]

HOPS OF DOMESTIC PRODUCTION

Administrative Rules and Regulations

Notice is hereby given of a proposal to provide for issuance of additional allotment bases where certain existing allotment bases reflect below normal sales as a result of heptachlor damage to hop plants; prescribe requirements whereby producers may exchange their salable hops, which are damaged or otherwise unsuitable for use, for pooled reserve hops prior to disposition of such reserve hops; prescribe minimum quality standards for hops in terms of leaf and stem content; and prescribe the factor for converting lupulin to the equivalent weight of dried hops. The proposal would implement §§ 991.31, 991.37, 991.38, and 991.40 of Marketing Order No. 991 (7 CFR Part 991), regulating the handling of hops of domestic production effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674) and is based on recommendations of the Hop Administrative Committee.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments in connection with this proposal should file the same, in quadruplicate, with the Hearing Clerk, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Room 112, Administration Building, Washington, D.C. 20250, not later than the 10th day after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. All written submissions made pursuant to this notice will be made available for public inspection at the office of the Hearing Clerk during regular business hours (7 CFR 1.27(b)).

The proposal is as follows:

§ 991.138b Additional allotment bases.

(a) Heptachlor damage to plants. (1) to qualify for an additional allotment base, pursuant to § 991.38(b), due to below normal sales resulting from heptachlor damage to plants in the period 1962 through 1965, each producer believing he has entitlement may file an application therefor with the Committee not later than 30 days after the effective date of this section. Each such application shall be in writing and shall contain evidence satisfactory to the Committee that heptachlor was applied to all or part of his hop acreage, that the heptachlor damaged the hop plants, and that this resulted in reducing the applicants average amount per acre sold from the harvested acreage during each year of the 4-year period, 1962–65, in which there were sales of hops. The evidence to be submitted for consideration by the Committee may include the following:

(i) The location and number of acres treated with heptachlor which were in production in the 1962–65 period;

(ii) The approximate number of times and the crop years when heptachlor was applied to such acres;

(iii) The method used to apply the heptachlor;

(iv) The rate of application;

(v) The extent of plant die-out and replacement each year following application of heptachlor;

(vi) The years, if any in which the heptachlor treated acreage was not harvested and the reasons why;

(vii) A statement describing the efforts made to rehabilitate the treated acreage;

(viii) A statement describing any other factors such as alkali content of soil, mildew, spider, wind, or frost, that may have affected the quantity harvested during one or more years of the 1962–65 period;

(ix) The total acreage and total quantity of hops harvested each year, including the heptachlor treated acreage, beginning 3 years preceding the year in which heptachlor was applied;

(x) Statements by disinterested parties (such as the supplier of the heptachlor or persons applying it to the treated acreage), verifying the information submitted by the applicant pursuant to this paragraph; and

(xi) Other information tending to substantiate the application.

(b) Granting of additional allotment bases. (1) Except as provided in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, the Committee shall assign an additional allotment base (i.e. an increased total allotment base) to the applicant filing pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section if it finds, from the information submitted by the applicant and other available information, that due to haptachlor damage on a specific portion or all of an applicant's acreage he had below normal sales in each year of the 1962–65 period in that such sales were below 95 percent of the applicable State's average yield per acre. The State average yield shall be that reported by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, Statistical Reporting Service, Crop Reporting Board.

(2) The additional allotment base assigned to an eligible applicant shall be that contained in a total allotment base determined by substituting for such applicant's average amount per acre sold from his harvested acreage for the year or years used to compute his original allotment base, 95 percent of the applicable State's average yield per acre for such year or years: Provided, That if the Committee determines, on the basis of information submitted by the applicant and other available information, that in the absence of heptachlor damage the applicant's average amount per acre sold from his harvested acreage during the year or years used to compute his allotment base would have been an amount less than 95 percent of the State average yield per acre for such year or years, 95 percent of such amount shall be used in lieu of the State average, in computing the new total allotment base.

(3) No additional allotment base shall be assigned to an eligible applicant, nor be permitted to be transferred to another producer, until the applicant establishes a need for such base to market his regained productive capacity as demonstrated by his average yield per acre during any 2 consecutive years of the 5-year period 1966–70 exceeding the 1962–65 yields per acre used in determining his allotment base and approximating 95 percent of the State average or the Committee determined yield, whichever is lower. In any such year of increased yield, beginning with 1967, the Committee shall adjust the producer's annual allotment by the amount referable to the withheld additional allotment base, but not so as to cause his total annual allotment to exceed his production. Upon the additional allotment base being assigned, the producer's annual allotments shall be computed from his new total allotment base.

§ 991.204 Exchange of 1966 pooled reserve hops.

Prior to disposing of any quantity of 1966 pooled reserve hops pursuant to § 991.40(b)(3), the Committee shall designate and announce a 20-day period during which any producer may exchange salable hops of his own production for pooled reserve hops. Exchanges during the first 5 days of such 20-day period shall be limited to those producers who desire to exchange their salable hops which are damaged or otherwise unsuitable, for their 1966 hops delivered to the reserve pool. Each such exchange shall be subject to payment to the Committee, by the producer exchanging hops, of 25 cents per pound for each pound of hops exchanged plus $1.10 per bale accrued storage and in and out charges.

§ 991.231 Minimum quality standards.

No handler shall acquire, use or sell, nor the Committee accept for reserve pooling, hops which have a leaf and stem content of more than 8 percent, as determined by the Federal-State Inspection Service: Provided, That lupulin, including lupulin sweepings, that have been packaged and so identified by Committee approved seals or stencils, shall be exempt from this leaf and stem requirement.

§ 991.601 Conversion factor for lupulin.

For the purpose of converting lupulin, including lupulin sweepings, to an equivalent weight of dried hops, 1 pound of lupulin or lupulin sweepings shall be considered as 6 pounds of dried hops.

Dated: August 10, 1967.

Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Consumer and Marketing Service.

§ 1033.53 Location differentials to handlers.

(b) For the purpose of calculating a credit adjustment at the applicable rate on bulk fluid milk products transferred from a pool plant located 50 miles or more from the city hall in Cincinnati, Ohio, to a distributing pool plant located within 30 miles of the city hall in Cincinnati, Ohio, shall be assigned to the Class I disposition at the transferee plant prorated with the sum of receipts at such plant of (1) producer milk, (2) and the pounds assigned as Class I to receipts from other handlers, other order plants and unregulated supply plants.

Proposal No. 17. Amend § 1033.70 as follows:

§ 1033.70 Payments to producers.

On or before the 27th day of the month each handler shall pay to each producer, or to each cooperative association authorized to receive payments due such producer(s) who market their milk through such cooperative association, an amount of money determined by multiplying the hundredweight of milk received from such producer or from a cooperative association of producers during the first 15 days of the month by the rate set forth in the following schedule:

$1.75 to $2.24	$1.00

Proposal No. 18. Amend § 1033.75 as follows:

§ 1033.75 Location differentials to producers.

For that skim milk and butterfat in producer milk received at a pool plant located 100 or more miles from the city hall in Cincinnati, Ohio, by the shortest highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, the uniform price shall be reduced pursuant to the schedule of rates set forth in the following schedule:

[Delegation of Authority No. 74]

MISSION DIRECTOR, USAID/LAOS

Delegation of Authority

By virtue of the authority delegated to me by the Delegation of Authority No. 104, dated November 3, 1961 (26 F.R. 10608), as amended, from the Secretary of State, I hereby delegate authority to the Mission Director, USAID/Laos, authority to waive the U.S. source/origin and barter requirement for procurement of rice and cement for approved project needs during fiscal year 1968 providing:

(a) That procurement is made in Thailand and paid for in baht generated through a Special Letter of Credit established in a U.S. bank;

(b) That procurement does not exceed $6.5 million for rice and $250,000 for cement, including costs of transportation.

Each waiver approval must be supported by the certification of the USAID Director that exclusion of procurement from the source designated in the waiver would seriously impede attainment of U.S. foreign policy objectives and the objectives of the foreign assistance program.

This authority may not be redelegated but may be exercised by persons who are performing the functions of the Mission Director in an "Acting" capacity.

This Delegation of Authority is effective immediately.

Chapter VII—Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (Agricultural Adjustment), Department of Agriculture

SUBCHAPTER B—FARM MARKETING QUOTAS AND ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS

[Amdt. 1]

PART 718—DETERMINATION OF ACREAGE AND COMPLIANCE

Disposition Dates

Basis and purpose. This amendment is issued pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended (7 U.S.C. 1281 et seq.), for the purpose of amending disposition dates for (1) cotton, corn, and grain sorghums in Alabama, (2) cotton in Tennessee, and (3) grain sorghums in Texas. These amended dates are as recommended by the State committees and approved by the Deputy Administrator.

In each case, the disposition date as amended is later than the superseded date, thus giving farmers additional time in which to accomplish any required crop disposition. Since farmers need to know the revised disposition dates as soon as possible, it is hereby found and determined that compliance with the notice, public procedure and 30-day effective date requirements of 5 U.S.C. 553 (80 Stat. 383) is unnecessary. Accordingly, this amendment shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Paragraph (b) of § 718.27 of the Regulations Governing Determination of Acreage and Compliance (32 F.R. 9069) is amended by adding or revising subparagraphs for the following States to read as follows:

§ 718.27 Crop disposition dates.

[Valencia Orange Reg. 214, Amdt. 1]

PART 908—VALENCIA ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

Limitation of Handling

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 908, as amended (7 CFR Part 908), regulating the handling of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Valencia Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such Valencia oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication thereof in the Federal Register (5 U.S.C. 553 (1966)), because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and this amendment relieves restriction on the handling of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California.

Order, as amended. The provisions in paragraph (b)(1) (i) and (ii) of § 908.514 (Valencia Orange Reg. 214, 32 F.R. 11375) are hereby amended to read as follows:

[Avocado Reg. 15, Amdt. 3]

PART 944—FRUIT; IMPORT REGULATIONS

Avocados

Pursuant to the provisions of section 8e of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), the provisions of paragraph (a) of § 944.7 (Avocado Regulation 15; 32 F.R. 7245, 10052, 10641) are hereby amended as follows:

§ 944.7 Avocado Regulation 15.

(a) On and after the effective time of this section, the importation into the United States of any avocados is prohibited unless such avocados are inspected and meet the following requirements:

(1) All avocados imported during the period May 20, 1967, through April 30, 1968, shall grade not less than U.S. No. 3.

* * * * *

(4) Avocados of the Trapp variety shall not be imported (i) prior to August 14, 1967; (ii) from August 14, 1967, through August 20, 1967, unless the individual fruit in each lot of such avocados weighs at least 12 ounces or measures at least 3⅞ inches in diameter; (iii) from August 21, 1967, through August 27, 1967, unless the individual fruit in each lot of such avocados weighs at least 14 ounces or measures at least 3¹⁵⁄₁₆ inches in diameter; and (iv) from August 28, 1967, through September 10, 1967, unless the individual fruit in each lot of such avocados weighs at least 12 ounces or measures at least 3⅞ inches in diameter.

* * * * *

It is hereby found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective time of this regulation beyond that hereinafter specified (5 U.S.C. 553) in that (a) the requirements of this amended import regulation are imposed pursuant to section 8e of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), which makes such regulation mandatory; (b) such regulation imposes the same grade and comparable maturity requirements on imports of avocados as are being made applicable to the shipment of avocados grown in Florida under Avocado Regulation 9, as amended, which becomes effective August 14, 1967; (c) compliance with this import regulation will not require any special preparation which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof; (d) notice hereof in excess of three days, the minimum prescribed by said section 8e, is given with respect to this import regulation, insofar as it imposes added restrictions; and (e) such notice is hereby determined, under the circumstances, to be reasonable.

Dated August 11, 1967, to become effective August 21, 1967.

Authority: The provisions of this Subpart D issued under sec. 510, 63 Stat. 437, 42 U.S.C. 1480; Orders of Secretary of Agriculture, 29 F.R. 16210, 32 F.R. 6650.

§ 1822.81 General.

This subpart sets forth the policies and procedures, and delegates authority for making direct and insured Rural Rental Housing loans under section 515 of the Housing Act of 1949. The basic objective of Rural Rental Housing loans is to provide for rural residents economically designed and constructed rental housing and related facilities suited to their living requirements.

§ 1822.82 Definitions.

(a) "Rural resident" means a person whose permanent residence is or was until recently in a rural area.

(b) "Senior citizen" means a rural resident who is 62 years of age or over. In case of a married couple, "senior citizen" includes the wife or husband.

(c) "Eligible occupant" means:

(1) For the purpose of a direct loan—

(i) A senior citizen with a low or moderate income; or

(ii) Any rural resident with a low income.

(2) For the purpose of an insured loan—

(i) A senior citizen; or

(ii) Any rural resident with a low or moderate income.

(3) For the purpose of a direct or insured loan—

(i) A person younger than 62 who resides with, and is considered a member of, the family of the senior citizen occupant.

(ii) A person younger than 62 if it can be shown that the younger person's occupancy is necessary for the well-being of the senior citizen occupant.

(d) "Housing" means structures in a rural area which are or will be suitable for and available to eligible occupants for dwelling use to provide independent living on a rental basis, and may include "related facilities" where appropriate.

(e) "Related facilities" means community rooms or buildings, cafeterias, dining halls, appropriate recreation facilities, small garden plots, infirmaries, assembly halls, and other essential service facilities such as central heating, sewerage, light systems, ranges and refrigerators, clothes washing machines and dryers for the common use of the tenants, and a safe domestic water supply.

(f) "Development cost" means the costs of constructing, purchasing, improving, altering, or repairing housing, and purchasing and improving the necessary land. It includes necessary architectural, engineering, legal, and official fees and charges and other appropriate technical and professional fees and charges. It does not include other fees, charges, or commissions such as payments to brokers, negotiators, or other persons for the referral of prospective applicants or solicitation of loans.

(g) "Rural areas" means open country or places of 5,500 persons or less which are not parts of or associated with urban areas and are further defined in § 1822.3 (c).

(h) "Individual" means a natural person.

(i) "Organization" means:

(1) For the purpose of a direct Rural Rental Housing loan, a private nonprofit corporation or consumer cooperative.

(2) For the purpose of an insured Rural Rental Housing loan, any profit or nonprofit corporation, association, trust, or partnership, including a municipal corporation or other corporate agency of a State or local government.

(j) "Private nonprofit corporation" means a corporation which is controlled by private persons or interests, is organized and operated for purposes other than making gains or profits for the corporation or its members, and is legally precluded from distributing to its members any gains or profits during its existence.

(k) "Consumer cooperative" means a corporation which is organized as a cooperative, will operate the housing on a nonprofit basis solely for the benefit of the occupants, and is legally precluded from distributing during the life of the loan any gains or profits from operation of the housing. For this purpose any patronage refunds to occupants of the housing would not be considered gains or profits. A consumer cooperative may accept nonmembers as well as members for occupancy of the housing.

(l) "Gains or profits" for the purpose of paragraphs (j) and (k) of this section do not include dividends payable on stock which is nonvoting, limited as to the amount of dividends that can be paid thereon, and limited as to liquidation value in the event of corporate dissolution.

(m) "Members" and "membership" includes stockholders and stock where appropriate.

(n) "Board" and "directors" include the governing body and members of the governing body of an organization.

(o) "Note" may include bond or other form of obligation.

(p) "Mortgage" may include any appropriate form of security instrument.

§ 1822.83 Eligibility requirements.

(a) Eligibility of applicant. To be eligible for a Rural Rental Housing loan the applicant must:

(1) For an insured loan, be either an individual who is a citizen of the United States, or an organization which will provide housing for eligible occupants.

(2) For a direct loan, be an organization which will provide housing for eligible occupants.

(3) Be unable to provide the housing from the applicant's own resources and unable to obtain the necessary credit from private or cooperative sources upon terms and conditions the applicant could reasonably be expected to fulfill.

(4) Have the ability and intention to maintain and operate the housing for the purpose for which the loan is made.

(5) Own or become the owner, when the loan is closed, of the housing and related land.

(6) Have initial operating capital and other assets needed for a sound loan, and have after the loan is made, income sufficient to meet the applicant's operating expenses, necessary capital replacements, payments on the loan and any other authorized debts, other reasonable and necessary expenses, and the accumulation of reasonable reserves as required.

(i) Initial operating capital should be sufficient to pay for such costs as property and liability insurance premiums, fidelity bond premiums if an organization, utility hook-up charges, maintenance equipment, movable furnishings and equipment, printing lease forms, and other initial expenses. Usually, the initial operating capital required should amount to at least 2 percent of the total cost of the project to cover these costs.

(ii) If, in addition, the applicant is to provide other movable equipment and furnishings, the initial capital will need to be increased sufficiently to cover the cost of these items.

(7) Possess the legal capacity to incur, and the legal capacity, character, ability, and experience to carry out, the undertakings and obligations required for the loan.

(8) Agree to comply with all requirements of the Farmers Home Administration (FHA) including those set forth in the FHA regulations, the loan resolution or loan agreement of the applicant, the forms of note and mortgage, and elsewhere.

(9) In case of an insured loan:

(i) Be an individual residing in, or an organization whose members owning a majority of the voting interests reside in the community where the housing will be located.

(ii) Be an individual who resides close enough to the project to provide general supervision or an organization which will provide a manager or caretaker. Such individual, manager, or caretaker must either reside on the housing project or be readily accessible to the tenants and near enough to reach the housing within a few minutes.

(iii) In case of an organization, or an individual who is required to execute a loan agreement, legally obligate itself not to divert income from the housing to any other business, enterprise, or purpose except as specifically permitted under the prescribed form of loan resolution or loan agreement.

(10) In case of a direct loan, be an organization—

(i) Each of whose members is limited to one vote in the affairs of the organization and a majority of whose members reside in the community where the housing will be located.

(ii) Which will provide a manager or caretaker who will reside on the housing projects or be readily accessible to the tenants and near enough to be able to reach the housing within a few minutes.

(iii) Whose board of directors numbers not less than five.

(iv) Whose directors must be members of the organization.

(v) Which requires that not less than five of its directors shall be among the leaders of the community where the housing will be located.

(vi) Which has and will maintain a broadly based membership representing or reflecting a variety of interests in the community. For a loan of less than $100,000, the organization should have at least 25 members. The minimum number of members should be increased for larger projects. The purpose of this requirement is to afford reasonable assurance of success of the housing project, assure community support, protect the Government's financial interest as mortgagee, and provide reasonable assurance that the purposes of the loan will be carried out. In direct Rural Rental Housing loans there is no profit incentive. The terms of the loan may extend for as long as 50 years and eligible transferees could be found only among qualified private nonprofit corporations and consumer cooperatives. Therefore, factors such as the prospect for competent management and supervision and adequate community support of the housing project over the expected life of the loan are vitally important. The "broadly based membership" requirement may vary depending upon whether the applicant is a well established or new corporation, the applicant's financial condition, the present and future effective demand for the housing by persons who will be eligible for occupancy, and the ratio of loan to the appraised value of the security.

(vii) Which legally obligates itself not to divert income from the housing to any other business, enterprise, or purpose.

(viii) Which has articles of incorporation and bylaws substantially conforming to the model articles and bylaws set forth in the State Instruction. The State Director will provide for use by applicants a model set of articles of incorporation and bylaws for his State which will be consistent with this instruction and the State law.

(b) Authorized representative of applicant. The FHA will deal only with the applicant or a bona fide representative of the applicant and his technical advisers. An authorized representative of the applicant must be a person who has no pecuniary interest in the award of the architectural or construction contracts, the purchase of equipment, or the purchase of the land for the housing site.

§ 1822.84 Loan purposes.

Rural Rental Housing loans may be made to qualified applicants for:

(a) Construction, purchase, improvement, alteration, or repair of housing which:

(1) Is economical in construction and not of elaborate or extravagant design or materials;

(2) Consists of apartments, duplex houses, or detached dwellings, and any appropriate related facilities;

(3) Is residential in character and designed to meet the needs of eligible occupants who are capable of caring for themselves;

(4) Has consideration given to safety, convenience, and comfort;

(5) If to be occupied by senior citizens, is readily accessible to stores, service facilities, and social activities;

(6) Based upon the demand shown by a market analysis, may include "efficiency" type units, or one-, two-, or three-bedroom units;

(7) Contains a bathroom and kitchen facilities in each unit; or

(8) In case of insured loans, may include the addition of rooms to a dwelling owned by the applicant, in order to provide rental housing suitable for and publicly available to eligible occupants on a continuing basis.

(b) Purchase or improvement of the necessary land on which the housing will be located.

(1) The cost of land purchased with loan funds may not exceed its present market value in its present condition. Present market value will be determined by a current appraisal. Loan funds will not be used to buy land from a member of an applicant-organization, or from another organization in which any member of the applicant-organization has an interest, without the prior consent of the National Office.

(2) Loan funds may be used to acquire land in excess of that needed for the housing, including related facilities, when:

(i) The cost of the excess land bears a reasonable portion of the loan; and

(ii) The applicant:

(a) Cannot acquire only the needed land at a fair price;

(b) Can justify the acquisition;

(c) Agrees to sell the land as soon as practicable and apply the proceeds on the loan; and

(d) Has legal authority to legally acquire and administer the land.

(c) Development and installation of water supply, sewage disposal, heat and light systems necessary in connection with the housing, and other related facilities such as:

(1) Maintenance workshop and equipment storage.

(2) Recreation center, including lounge.

(3) Central cooking and dining facilities when the project is large enough to justify such services to supplement the kitchen facilities in each unit.

(4) Small infirmary for emergency care only, when justified.

(5) Laundry room and storage.

(6) Office and living quarters for the resident manager and other operating personnel. Such facilities may be provided only where:

(i) There are enough rental units (usually not less than 10), to require the presence of such personnel so as to justify the additional investment; and

(ii) Their cost is proportionate to the need for and benefits to be derived from them.

(7) Appropriate recreational facilities, and other facilities to meet essential needs.

(d) Construction of fallout shelters or similar protective structures.

(e) Purchase and installation of ranges and refrigerators to be installed in the individual rental units or as a part of the central cooking facilities, and clothes washing machines and dryers to be installed in project utility rooms for the common use of the tenants.

(f) Purchase and installation of essential equipment, which upon installation becomes a part of the real estate.

(g) Provision of landscaping, foundation planting, seeding or sodding of lawns, or other necessary facilities related to buildings such as walks, yards, fences, parking areas, and driveways.

(h) Payment of related costs such as fees and charges for legal, architectural, engineering, and other appropriate technical and official services. Ordinarily, the FHA will furnish the needed guidance for the development of a Rural Rental Housing loan docket and project. However, the State Director may authorize the use of loan funds to enable a nonprofit corporation or consumer cooperative to pay a qualified consulting organization or foundation, operating on a nonprofit basis, charges for necessary services, provided the State Director determines that:

(1) Either the applicant, even with available FHA assistance, cannot meet all requirements for a sound loan without the services, or the services would permit significant financial savings to the Government, either directly or by lightening the workload involved in processing applications, and

(2) The charges are reasonable in amount, considering the amount and the purpose of the loan, the payment ability of the borrower, and the cost of similar services in the same or similar rural areas.

(i) In insured loan cases, payment of the interest portion of the first installment when the applicant's income and resources will be insufficient to pay such interest.

§ 1822.85 Limitations.

As used in this subpart, the value of the security means its present market value as determined by the loan approval official less the unpaid principal balance plus past-due interest of any other liens against it. Other liens will include any prior liens and any junior liens likely to be taken at or immediately after loan closing.

(a) Loan limits for direct loans. No direct loan or loans to any applicant will exceed $300,000 less any other liens against the security, including Senior Citizens Housing liens, and no such loan will exceed the development cost or the value of the security, whichever is less.

(b) Loan limits for insured loans. No insured loan or loans to any applicant will exceed $300,000 less any other liens against the security, including Senior Citizens Housing liens, and no such loan will exceed the development cost or the value of the security, whichever is less.

(c) Limits of controlling interests. The limitations in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section also apply to cases in which the same persons hold a majority of the membership interests, or constitute a majority of the directors, of two or more applicants.

(d) Prior consent. No loan docket which would result in the applicant's Rural Rental Housing indebtedness, plus any Senior Citizens Housing indebtedness, exceeding $100,000 will be developed without the prior consent of the National Office. Any request for such consent should include detailed justification for the loan including:

(1) Name and address of the applicant.

(2) A list and description of the applicant's assets, including market value estimates.

(3) A complete list of all debts owed.

(4) Status of each debt.

(5) Information as to the location and description of the proposed project site.

(6) A general description of the housing planned, including the number and kind of units.

(7) A realistic estimate of the need and demand for the size project proposed.

(8) Explanation of the applicant's financial contribution to the project.

(9) Any other factors having a bearing on the need and financial soundness of the proposed housing.

(e) Limitations on use of loan funds. Loans will not be made for:

(1) Housing or related facilities which are elaborate or extravagant in design or materials.

(2) Nursing or medical facilities, other than a small emergency-care infirmary when justified by the size of the project and the fact that facilities for the emergency care expected to be needed for the occupants, are not readily accessible elsewhere.

(3) Any commercial facilities except essential service-type facilities for use by the tenants when such facilities are not otherwise conveniently available in the area.

(4) Housing to be used for any transient or hotel purposes. No rental term will be for less than 30 days.

(5) Nursing, special care, or institutional-type homes.

(6) Any facility not essential to the needs of the tenants.

(7) Refinancing debts of the applicant.

(8) Housing which the applicant intends to sell or lease to another operator.

(9) Payment of any fee, charge, or commission to any broker, negotiator, or other person for the referral of a prospective applicant or solicitation of a loan.

(10) Payment of any fee, salary, commission, profit, or compensation to an applicant, or to any officer, director, trustee, stockholder, member, or agent of an applicant, except as provided in § 1822.84 (h). No contract or agreement for services to be paid for with loan funds should be executed by the applicant without prior approval by the State Director.

(f) Obligations incurred before loan closing. When an applicant files an application for a loan, the County Supervisor will advise the applicant that construction must not be started and obligations for work, materials, or land purchase must not be incurred before the loan is closed. If, nevertheless, the applicant incurs debts for work materials, or land purchase before the loan is closed, the State Director may authorize the use of loan funds to pay such debts only when he finds that all of the following conditions exist:

(1) The debts were incurred after the applicant filed a written application for a loan.

(2) The applicant is unable to pay such debts from his own resources or to obtain credit from other sources, and failure to authorize the use of loan funds to pay such debts would impair the applicant's financial position.

(3) The debts were incurred for authorized loan purposes.

(4) Contracts, materials, construction, and any land purchase must meet FHA standards and requirements.

(5) Payment of the debts will remove any liens which have attached and any basis for liens that may attach, to the property on account of such debts or such work, material, or land purchase.

§ 1822.86 Rates and terms.

(a) Interest. On direct loans the interest rate will be 3 percent per annum on the unpaid principal balance. On insured loans the interest rate will be determined in accordance with Part 1810 of this chapter. Interest will begin from the date of the note. When a direct loan is made in multiple advances, interest on the first advance will begin on the date of the note and interest on each subsequent advance will begin on the date of the check.

(b) Amortization period. Each loan will be scheduled for payment within such a period as may be necessary to assure that the loan will be adequately secured, taking into account the probable depreciation of the security; however;

(1) For a direct loan, the payment period will not exceed 50 years from the date of the note.

(2) For an insured loan, the payment period will not exceed 40 years from the date of the note.

§ 1822.87 Special conditions.

(a) Deferred payments on direct loans. In case of direct loans, when necessary because of deficiency in the applicant's income or resources, smaller than regular payments or no payments may be provided for the first and second January 1 dates after loan closing.

(b) Deferred principal payments on insured loans. In case of insured loans, when necessary because of deficiency in the applicant's income or resources, smaller than regular payments of principal or no payments of principal may be provided for the first and second installment dates after loan closing. However, the first installment may not be less than interest accruing to the first February 1 following the date of the first installment, and the second installment may not be less than interest accruing for one year.

(c) Refinancing Rural Rental Housing loans. Each borrower must agree to refinance the unpaid balance of his Rural Rental Housing loan at the request of the FHA whenever it appears to the FHA that the borrower is able to obtain a loan from responsible cooperative or private credit sources at reasonable rates and terms.

(d) Loan resolution or loan agreement. For an organization applicant, a loan resolution will be adopted by the applicant's board of directors. For an individual applicant, a loan agreement will be executed by the applicant when the loan exceeds $50,000 or when required by the State Director if the loan is for less. The FHA has copies of loan resolutions and loan agreements which shall be used as guides by applicants in drafting their required resolutions or agreements. The loan resolution or loan agreement provides for the maintenance of certain accounts and the pledge of housing income as security and contains regulatory provisions governing, and giving the FHA power to impose requirements regarding the housing and related operations of the applicant. The form of loan resolution or loan agreement contains provisions of policy and procedure which should be read and fully understood by the applicant. If any provisions in the sample guides provided by FHA are not appropriate to a particular case, proposed substitute language should be submitted to the National Office with the recommendations of the State Director.

(e) Multiple advances. A direct loan may be disbursed in not more than three advances over a period not to exceed two years from the date of the first advance. Insured loans may be disbursed in only one advance.

(f) Nondiscrimination in use and occupancy. When the loan is to finance housing of more than two rental units, the borrower will not discriminate, or permit discrimination by any agent, lessee, or other operator, in the use or occupancy of the housing or related facilities because of race, color, creed, or natural origin.

(g) Eligibility for occupancy. Loans will be made on the basis of the housing being occupied by eligible occupants; however, if in connection with future servicing of the loan it becomes necessary to permit ineligible persons to occupy the housing for temporary periods in order to protect the financial interest of the Government, this may be permitted with the written prior approval of the National Office.

(h) Supervisory assistance. Supervision will be provided borrowers to the extent necessary to achieve the objective of the loan and to protect the interests of the Government.

§ 1822.88 Security.

Each loan will be secured in a manner that adequately protects the financial interest of the Government. A first mortgage, if obtainable, will be taken on the property purchased or improved with the loan. If a first mortgage is not obtainable, a junior mortgage may be taken in compliance with the requirements of Subpart A of this part regarding junior mortgage loans. When the real property as improved will not provide adequate security for the loan, a mortgage may also be taken on other property of the applicant. Also, other additional security may be taken when necessary, such as a pledge or assignment of, or other security interest in, income from the housing, and (in case of an organization) assessment agreements, promissory notes, stock or membership subscription agreements, personal liability agreements, and mortgages or pledges of property of individual members or stockholders.

(a) As a general policy, personal liability will be required from the members or stockholders of a corporation whose members or stockholders are few in number, in order to provide adequate security and adequate assurance of carrying out the purpose of the loan.

(b) If it is impossible or inadvisable for an applicant which is a public or quasi-public organization to give a real estate mortgage, the security to be taken will be determined by the National Office upon the recommendation of the State Director.

§ 1822.89 Technical, legal, and other services.

(a) Appraisals. When real estate is taken as security, the property will be appraised by an FHA employee authorized to make real estate appraisals. The property will be appraised in accordance with the policies outlined in Part 1809 of this chapter. Form FHA 426–1, "Valuation of Buildings," will be completed to show the depreciated replacement value of all the buildings existing or to be constructed on the property to be taken as security.

(b) Title clearance and legal services. When the applicant is an organization, or an individual with special title on loan closing problems, title clearance and legal services will be obtained in accordance with instructions from the Office of General Counsel. In other cases, the provisions of Subpart A of this part regarding title clearance and legal services will apply.

(c) Architectural and engineering services. Housing and related facilities will be planned and performed and a written contract obtained in accordance with Part 1804, Subpart A of this chapter. The housing will be designed to meet the needs of the types of occupants who will likely occupy it.

(d) Construction and development policies. Construction and development will be performed in accordance with Part 1804, Subpart A of this chapter.

(e) Compliance with local codes and regulations. Planning, construction, zoning, and operation of housing financed with Rural Rental Housing loan will conform with any applicable laws, ordinances, codes, and regulations governing such matters as construction, heating, plumbing, electrical installation, fire prevention, health, and sanitation.

(f) Contracts for legal services. On projects requiring extensive legal services, the applicant will be required to have a written contract when loan funds will be used for these services. All such contracts will be subject to review and approval by the FHA and, therefore, should be submitted to the FHA before execution by the applicant. Contracts will provide for the types of service to be performed, the amount of the fees to be paid, either in lump sum on the completion of all services or in installments as services are performed.

(g) Optioning of land. If a loan includes funds to purchase real estate, the applicable provisions of § 1821.15 of this chapter regarding options will be followed. After the loan is approved, the County Supervisor will have Form FHA 443–9, "Acceptance of Option," or other appropriate form of acceptance, completed, signed, and mailed to the seller.

(h) Use of and accountability for loan funds. Loan funds and any funds furnished by the borrower will be deposited and handled in accordance with Part 1803 of this chapter. Collateral for deposit of funds will be pledged when the amount of funds in the supervised bank account exceeds $15,000. Funds furnished by the borrower for the purchase of special equipment and furnishings for which loan funds could not be used, should not be deposited in the supervised bank account with loan funds. Withdrawals of funds from the supervised bank account may be made only for legally eligible loan purposes.

(i) Insurance. The State Director will determine the minimum amounts and types of insurance the applicant will carry.

(1) Fire and extended coverage will be required on all buildings included in the security for the loan in accordance with Part 1806 of this chapter.

(2) Suitable Workman's Compensation Insurance will be carried by the applicant for all its employees.

(3) The applicant will be advised of the possibility of incurring liability and encouraged, or may be required when appropriate, to obtain liability insurance.

(j) Bonding. (1) The provisions of Subpart A, Part 1804, of this chapter pertaining to surety bonds are applicable to Rural Rental Housing loans, except that approved corporate surety bonds will be required in all cases involving a construction contract in excess of $20,000 unless an exception is made by the National Office.

(2) If the applicant is an organization, the applicant will provide fidelity bond coverage for the official entrusted with the receipt, custody, and disbursement of its funds and the custody of any other negotiable or readily salable personal property. The amount of the bond will be at least equal to the maximum amount of money that the applicant will have on hand at any one time exclusive of loan funds deposited in a supervised bank account. If permitted by State law, the United States will be named coobligee in the bond. Form FHA 440–24, "Position Fidelity Schedule Bond," may be used if permitted by State law.

§ 1822.90 Maximum income limit for eligible occupants.

(a) Rural Rental Housing. The maximum income level for eligible occupants will be established for each housing project as follows, and will not exceed the limits shown in subparagraphs (4) and (5) of this paragraph unless approved by the Administrator after proper justification:

(1) The County Supervisor, after making a preliminary determination that a loan might be made, will assemble appropriate information concerning income levels and living costs in the area, including the cost of renting suitable housing that permits independent living.

(2) The County Supervisor, with the advice of the County Committee, will recommend the income which, in their judgment, is needed by eligible occupants in the locality to meet reasonable living expenses, rent modest but satisfactory housing in the area, and otherwise live comfortably but not extravagantly. "Family income" means gross income received by the family, as defined by the Internal Revenue Service for income tax purposes, plus any retirement, Social Security, pension, or similar payments, and any interest received on State or municipal bonds.

(3) The County Supervisor will submit his recommendation and supporting information to the State Director with the preliminary loan docket. The State Director will review this information together with other information available on income for the area, such as census data, living standards, and other income studies, establish the maximum income level for occupancy of the housing, and notify the County Supervisor. The State Director's determination and the basis for establishing the maximum income level for occupancy will be documented as part of the completed loan docket.

(4) For direct loans, the maximum income level will not exceed $6,000 a year per family for senior citizens. The maximum income level will not exceed $4,500 per year for a nonsenior citizen family of two. Graduated maximum income levels for larger sized nonsenior citizen families (such as a family of three or four, five or six, or seven or more) should be recommended by the County Committee; however, the maximum income level for these families will not exceed $6,000 regardless of size.

(5) For insured loans, the maximum income level for nonsenior citizen families of two will not exceed $6,000. Graduated maximum income levels for larger sized nonsenior citizen families (such as families of three or four, five or six, or seven or more) should be recommended by the County Committee; however, the maximum income for these families will not exceed $8,000 per year regardless of size. There is no maximum income limit for occupancy by senior citizens.

(6) Maximum income levels for eligible occupants will not be adjusted from year to year. However, the maximum income level may be adjusted when justified by a substantial change in living costs in the area and other pertinent factors. To justify such an adjustment, the same procedure will be followed as when establishing the maximum income level initially.

§ 1822.91 Processing applications.

(a) Application and preliminary docket. The preliminary docket will consist of the application with the information required by §§ 1822.90 and 1822.92 to be included in or attached to the application. An application will be in the form of a letter to the local County Supervisor. The letter should include a statement about the purpose for which the loan is requested, an estimate of the amount of the loan needed, any previous experience in operating rental housing, and the proposed manner of securing and repaying the loan. Included in or attached to the letter should be:

(1) A currently dated financial statement showing assets and liabilities, together with information on the repayment schedule and status of each debt. If the applicant is a closely held corporation, a current financial statement will be required from each director and from each member who holds a substantial interest in the corporation.

(2) Evidence of inability to obtain credit from other sources.

(3) A preliminary market survey of the area showing the need and estimate of the demand for the planned rental housing. The preliminary market survey at this stage may vary, as determined by the State Director, from ascertainment of the number of eligible occupants living in the area who are willing and able to pay the required rental to a complete market analysis.

(4) Two proposed operating budgets showing anticipated income and expenses, one for a typical year of operation, and the other for the first year's operation.

(i) The budgets in estimating rental income will allow for vacancies, nonpayment of rent, and contingencies. A 10 percent allowance is recommended.

(ii) The budgets should provide for accumulating a reserve at the rate of one percent per annum of the cash cost of the project until a reserve equal to 10 percent of this cost is reached.

(iii) All applicable taxes, including Federal and any State income taxes, should be included in the budgets and separately identified. If the applicant considers itself exempt, evidence of exemption must be obtained before the loan is closed. Information as to Federal income tax exemption may be obtained from the district office of the Internal Revenue Service. A nonprofit organization qualifying for a direct Rural Rental Housing loan should ordinarily be able to qualify for Federal income tax exemption under section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(5) Plot plan with information about adjacent property and preliminary plans and specifications for the proposed housing, including the building layout, type of construction, number and type of living units, special design features for use of senior citizens, if needed, and the estimate of cost.

(6) Information on neighborhood and existing facilities, such as distance to shopping area, neighborhood churches, available transportation, drainage, sanitation facilities, water supply, and access to essential services such as doctors, dentists, and hospitals.

(7) For an organization applicant, a copy of, or an accurate citation to, the specific provisions of State law under which the applicant is organized; a copy of the applicant's charter, articles of incorporation, bylaws, and other basic authorizing documents; the names and addresses of the applicant's principal members and its directors and officers; and, if a principal member is another organization, its name, address, and principal business.

(b) County Supervisor's review. The preliminary docket will be reviewed by the County Supervisor. If it appears that the applicant is probably eligible and a sound loan likely can be made, the preliminary docket, including the comments and recommendations of the County Supervisor and any additional material, will be forwarded to the State Director. The comments of the County Supervisor will include his views on the financial position, income, occupation, and background of the members, directors, and officers together with verification of the accuracy of materials furnished by the applicant indicating the need for the housing. At any time the County Supervisor considers it necessary, the preliminary docket may be sent to the State Director for his evaluation and instructions.

(c) State Office action. The State Director will review the preliminary docket and, in case of an organization, submit the docket to the Office of General Counsel for a preliminary opinion as to whether the applicant and the proposed loan meet or can meet the requirements of State law and this subpart. He will determine whether the applicant is eligible and return the preliminary docket to the County Supervisor with further instructions.

§ 1822.92 Preparation of completed loan docket.

(a) Information needed. If the State Director authorizes further processing of the application, the County Supervisor will notify the applicant of the additional information the applicant must furnish for the complete docket. In addition to all the items required in § 1822.91, such information will include:

(1) Detailed plans, specifications, and cost estimates prepared in accordance with FHA construction guides. The complete docket will contain a detailed cost breakdown of the project for such items as land and rights-of-way, building construction, equipment, utility connections, on-site improvements, architectural and engineering services, and legal services. The cost breakdown also should show separately the items not included in the loan, such as furnishings and equipment.

(2) Satisfactory evidence of review and approval of the proposed housing by applicable State and local officials whose approval is required by State or local laws, ordinances, or regulations.

(3) A market survey report showing the need and effective demand for the housing and related facilities and the number of eligible occupants.

(b) County Supervisor's responsibility. As the information for the loan docket is being developed, the County Supervisor will work closely with the applicant. The County Supervisor will review and verify the information furnished for correctness, adequacy, and completeness. He will determine that the market survey is adequate and that the market survey report is accurate. The County Supervisor will inspect the proposed site and consider its desirability. He will evaluate the manner in which the applicant plans to conduct its business and financial affairs and comment on the adequacy of the management. The completed docket, including the County Supervisor's comments, will be submitted to the County Committee for its consideration.

(c) County Committee certification. Before a loan is approved, the County Committee will make the necessary certification on Form FHA 440–2, "County Committee Certification or Recommendation." Before executing Form FHA 440–2, the County Committee will consider all pertinent information concerning the applicant and the proposed project, and will be given an opportunity to talk with the applicant or its representative if the Committee desires to do so.

(d) Note forms. (1) Form FHA 440–23, "Promissory Note (Direct Loan to Association or Organization)," will be used for direct loans.

(2) Form FHA 440–22, "Promissory Note (Insured Loan to Non-Tax Exempt Association or Organization)," will be used for insured loans to associations or organizations whose obligations bear interest which is not exempt from Federal income taxation. Form FHA 440–33, "Promissory Note (Insured Loan to Tax Exempt Public Body)," will be used for insured loans to public bodies whose obligations bear interest exempt from Federal income taxation, except when legally inappropriate.

(3) Form FHA 440–16, "Promissory Note (Insured Loan)," will be used for insured loans to individuals.

(e) Loan docket items. The loan docket will consist of the following properly prepared and executed forms or documents as appropriate:

(f) Submission of docket to State Office. The complete loan docket together with any comments from the County Committee and the County Supervisor will be submitted to the State Office for review. The State Director will prepare a memorandum to the County Supervisor requesting additional information if the material submitted is inadequate, or setting forth the conditions of approval.

(g) Submission of docket to National Office. If the prior consent of the National Office is required for loan approval, and such consent has not previously been given, the State Director will submit to the National Office his recommendation, a copy of his proposed memorandum of approval, and the complete loan docket.

§ 1822.93 Loan approval.

(a) Authority. The State Director is authorized to approve or disapprove Rural Rental Housing loans in accordance with this subpart. The State Director may redelegate loan approval in writing to State Office employees other than the District Supervisor and the State Office employee making the appraisal.

(1) Without the prior consent of the National Office no Rural Rental Housing loan may be approved by the State Director if:

(i) The loan is to an organization; or

(ii) The amount of the loan plus unpaid principal and past-due interest of any other liens on real estate of the applicant would exceed $60,000; or

(iii) The proposed loan together with unpaid principal of any other FHA loans of the applicant would exceed $60,000.

(2) When prior consent of the National Office is required for loan approval, the complete loan docket, the State Director's proposed memorandum of approval, and the State Director's recommendation will be sent to the National Office.

(b) Loan approval or disapproval. The loan approval official is responsible for reviewing the docket to determine that the proposed loan complies with established policies and all pertinent regulations.

(1) Approval. When a loan is approved, the approval official will sign Form FHA 440–1 and insert his title in the space provided. He also will indicate any conditions that must be met at or before the time the loan is closed.

(2) Disapproval. If a loan is disapproved after the docket has been developed, the reason for such action will be shown on the original Form FHA 440–3. Form FHA 440–3 will be initialed and dated. The County Supervisor will notify the applicant of the disapproval of the loan and the reasons therefor.

§ 1822.94 Actions subsequent to loan approval.

(a) Requesting check. When loan approval conditions can be met, including any real estate title requirement, and a date for loan closing has been agreed upon, the County Supervisor will order the loan check so that it will be available on or immediately prior to the date set for loan closing.

(b) Increase or decrease in the amount of the loan. If it becomes necessary for the amount of the loan to be increased or decreased prior to loan closing, the County Supervisor will request that all distributed docket forms be returned to the County Office. The loan docket will be revised accordingly and reprocessed, except that if the amount of the loan has been decreased and there is no substantial change in the planned improvements, a new Form FHA 440–2 need not be obtained.

(c) Cancellation of loan. Loans may be canceled after approval and before loan closing as follows:

(1) The County Supervisor will prepare Form FHA 903 or FHA 440–10, "Request for Cancellation of Loan." The original and copies will be sent to the State Director with the reasons for requesting cancellation. If the State Director approves the request for cancellation, he will forward copies of Form FHA 903 or FHA 440–10 to the County Office.

(2) All interested parties will be notified of the cancellation as provided in Part 1807 of this chapter.

(d) Handling the loan check. The loan check will be handled in accordance with Part 1803 of this chapter.

(e) Property insurance. Buildings will be insured in accordance with Part 1806 of this chapter.

§ 1822.95 Loan closing.

(a) Instructions. Rural Rental Housing loans will be closed in accordance with applicable provisions of Part 1807 of this chapter and any supplemental instructions issued for the loan, or closing instructions of the Office of General Counsel, and with the assistance of the designated attorney, representative of the title insurance company, or local attorney, whichever is appropriate. Loans to organizations and loans to individuals in special cases will be sent to the Office of General Counsel for closing instructions.

(b) Mortgage. Unless the Office of General Counsel determines that the form is inappropriate in any case, real estate mortgage Form FHA 427–2 (State), "Real Estate Mortgage for ——," will be used for a direct loan to an organization, and Form FHA 427–1 (State), "Real Estate Mortgage ——," will be used for an insured loan to an individual or to an organization. For loans to organizations, Form FHA 427–2 and Form FHA 427–1 will be modified with respect to the name, address, and other identification of the borrower, the style of execution, and the acknowledgment.

(1) When the loan is to finance housing of more than two rental units, the mortgage or other security instrument will contain the following covenant:

Borrower covenants and agrees that it will not discriminate, or permit discrimination by any agent, lessee, or other operator, in the use or occupancy of the housing or related facilities financed in whole or in part with the loan in connection with which this instrument is given, because of race, color, creed, or national origin.

(2) When a loan resolution or loan agreement is used, an additional paragraph will be included in the mortgage to read as follows:

This instrument also secures the obligations and covenants of Borrower set forth in Borrower's Loan Resolution (Loan Agreement) of ——, which is hereby incorporated herein by reference.
(Date)

(3) In case of a loan to an individual where a loan agreement is not used, additional paragraphs will be included in the mortgage to read as follows:

Occupancy of the housing and related facilities on the property will be limited to eligible occupants as defined in the regulations of the Farmers Home Administration, unless the Government gives prior written approval to other occupancy.

As required by the Government: Borrower will permit the Government to inspect and examine the operation of the housing and the books, records, and operations of Borrower; submit regular and special reports pertinent to the purpose of the loan or the Government's financial interests; subject rents and charges and other terms of rental agreements with occupants of the housing, and compensation to employees connected with its operation, to prior approval by the Government, or to adjustment at the direction of the Government when necessary in its judgment to carry out the purpose of the loan or protect its financial interests; and comply with any other requirements which in the discretion of the Government are reasonably appropriate to the purpose of the loan or protection of the Government's interests.

(c) Promissory note. (1) The total amount to be shown in the note will be the amount of the loan as shown on Form FHA 440–3. The note or bond will be dated the date of loan closing.

(2) Payments on Rural Rental Housing loans will be scheduled with annual installments due January 1. Form FHA 440–9 will be used to schedule payments on a monthly basis. As provided in paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 1822.87, the first installment or the first and second installments may be less than regular annual installments. If the first installment or first two installments are less than regular annual installments, the regular annual installment will be computed by multiplying the amount of the loan by the factor for the number of years over which regular installments will be scheduled.

(3) The note will be signed in accordance with Part 1807 of this chapter.

(4) For an insured loan, the note will not be endorsed or the insurance agreement executed until the loan is assigned from the insurance fund to a lender in accordance with Part 1873 of this chapter.

(5) When a loan is closed during December and the first installment is due the next January 1, the first installment will be collected at the time of loan closing if it is a nominal amount or the borrower consents.

(6) When a loan is disbursed in more than one advance, Form FHA 440–1 will be prepared and executed as in the case of an association loan. The actual date of each advance will be entered on the reverse of the note. The date of the first advance will be the date of loan closing, and each subsequent advance the date of the loan check. When each subsequent advance is made, the County Supervisor will enter the amount and date on the copy of the note.

(d) Recorded mortgage. When the real estate mortgage is returned by the recording official, the County Supervisor will retain the original in the borrower's case folder. If the original is retained by the recording official for the county records, a conformed copy including the recording data showing the date and place of recordation and book and page number will be prepared and filed in the borrower's case folder. A copy of the mortgage will be delivered to the borrower but will be conformed only if required by State law or if it is the custom of other lenders in the area.

(e) Date of loan closing. A Rural Rental Housing loan is considered closed when the mortgage is filed of record or, if there is no mortgage filed of record, when the loan funds are deposited in the supervised bank account or otherwise made available to the borrower after he executes and delivers the note and any other required instruments.

§ 1822.96 Subsequent loans.

A subsequent Rural Rental Housing loan is a Rural Rental Housing loan to an applicant indebted for an initial Rural Rental Housing or Senior Citizens Housing loan of the same type (direct or insured) conditions as an initial loan. This subpart applies to subsequent Rural Rental Housing loans as well as initial Rural Rental Housing loans.

§ 1822.97 Complaints regarding discrimination in use and occupancy of housing in projects of more than two rental units.

Any occupant or applicant for occupancy or use of such Rural Rental Housing housing or related facilities who believes he has been discriminated against because of race, color, creed, or national origin may file a complaint with the County Supervisor or State Director. Any such complaint will be referred through the State Director to the National Office. The complaint must be in writing and signed by the complainant and contain the following information:

(a) The name and address (including telephone number) of the complainant.

(b) The name and address of the person committing the alleged discrimination.

(c) Date and place of the alleged discrimination.

Title 13—BUSINESS CREDIT AND ASSISTANCE

Chapter I—Small Business Administration

[Rev. 3]

PART 120—LOAN POLICY

The Loan Policy Regulation of the Small Business Administration, Part 120 (as published in 28 F.R. 6675, Rev. 2, and amended in 29 F.R. 2486, 18419; 30 F.R. 9813, 15466), is hereby revised and republished and as so revised reads as follows:

Sec.
120.1 Introduction.
120.2 Business loans and guarantees.
120.3 Terms and conditions of financial assistance.
120.4 Disaster loans and guarantees.

AUTHORITY: The provisions of this Part 120 issued under P.L. 85-536, sec. 5, 72 Stat. 386, 15 USC 634.

§ 120.1 Introduction.

(a) This part is established by the SBA to set forth principles and policies which will be followed in the granting and denial of financial assistance to small business concerns. It is not intended that this general statement of policy provide answers to all questions which may arise in connection with specific applications.

(b) "Financial assistance" as used in this part shall include direct loans made by SBA, immediate participation loans, and guaranteed loans.

(c) "Financial institution" as used in this part shall include, but not be limited to, banks and other concerns whose regular course of business entails the making of commercial and industrial loans to the general public.

§ 120.2 Business loans and guarantees.

Basic principles governing the granting and denial of applications for financial assistance:

(a) Applications for financial assistance may be considered only when there is evidence that the desired credit is not otherwise available on reasonable terms. The financial assistance applied for shall be deemed to be otherwise available on reasonable terms, unless it is satisfactorily demonstrated that:

(1) Proof of refusal of the required financial assistance has been obtained from—

(i) The applicant's bank of account;

(ii) If the amount of financial assistance applied for is in excess of the legal lending limit of the applicant's bank or in excess of the amount that the bank normally lends to any one borrower, then a refusal from a correspondent bank or from any other lending institution whose lending capacity is adequate to cover the financial assistance applied for; and

(iii) Not less than two banks in cities where the population exceeds 200,000.

Proof of refusal must contain the date, amount and terms requested, and the reasons for not granting the desired credit. Bank refusals to advance credit should not be considered the full test of unavailability of credit and, where there is knowledge or reasons to believe that credit is otherwise available on reasonable terms from sources other than such banks, the financial assistance applied for cannot be granted notwithstanding the receipt of written refusals from such banks.

(2) The financial assistance required does not appear to be obtainable:

(i) On reasonable terms through the public offering or private placing of securities of the applicant;

(ii) Through the disposal at a fair price of assets not required by the applicant in the conduct of its existing business or not reasonably necessary to its potential healthy growth; and

(iii) Without undue hardship through utilization of the personal credit or resources of the owner, partners, management or principal shareholders of the applicant.

(iv) Through V-loan, or other applicable Government financing.

(b) It is the policy to stimulate and encourage loans by banks and other lending institutions.

(1) An applicant for a direct SBA loan must show that an immediate participation or guaranteed loan is not available. An applicant for an immediate participation loan must show that a guaranteed loan is not available.

(2) SBA's share of immediate participation loans shall not exceed 90 percent of the loan. In guaranteed loans the exposure of SBA under the guaranty may not exceed 90 percent of the unpaid principal balance and accrued interest.

(3) No agreement to extend financial assistance under the Small Business Act shall establish any preferences in favor of a bank or other lending institution, except in accordance with the Simplified Early Maturities Participation Plan set forth in Part 122 of this chapter.

(c) No financial assistance shall be extended unless there exists reasonable assurance that the loan can and will be repaid pursuant to its terms. Reasonable assurance of repayment will exist only where the past earnings record and future prospects of the firm indicate ability to repay the loan out of income from the business. It will be deemed not to exist when the proposed loan is to accomplish an expansion which is unwarranted in the light of the applicant's past experience and management ability, or when the effect of making the loan is to subsidize inferior management.

(d) Financial assistance will not be granted by SBA:

(1) If the direct or indirect purpose or result of granting such assistance would be to—

(i) Pay off a creditor or creditors of the applicant who are inadequately secured and are in position to sustain a loss.

(ii) Provide funds, directly or indirectly, for payment, distribution, or as a loan to owners, partners or shareholders of the applicant which do not change ownership interests in applicant. This shall not apply to ordinary compensation for services rendered.

(iii) Refund a debt owed to a Small Business Investment Company.

(iv) Replenish funds theretofore used for such purposes.

(2) If the purpose of the applicant in applying for financial assistance is to effect a change in ownership of a business unless such change will promote the sound development or preserve the existence of a small business concern;

(3) If the financial assistance will provide or free funds for speculation in any kind of property, real or personal, tangible or intangible;

(4) If the applicant is an eleemosynary institution or other nonprofit enterprise: Provided, however, That this provision shall not be construed to bar financial assistance to a cooperative if it carries on a business activity and the purpose of such activity is to obtain pecuniary benefit for its members in the operation of their otherwise eligible small business concerns.

(5) If the purpose of the financial assistance is to finance the construction, acquisition, conversion, or operation of recreational or amusement facilities, unless such facilities contribute to the health or general well-being of the public;

(6) If the applicant is a newspaper, magazine, book publishing company, radio broadcasting company, television broadcasting company, or similar enterprise;

(7) If 50 percent or more of the net sales of the applicant is derived from the sale of alcoholic beverages;

(8) If any part of the gross income of the applicant (or of any of its principal owners) is derived from gambling activities;

(9) If the financial assistance is to provide funds to an enterprise primarily engaged in the business of lending or investments or to any otherwise eligible enterprise for the purpose of financing investments not related or essential to the enterprise;

(10) If the purpose of the financial assistance is to finance the acquisition, construction, improvement or operation of real property which is, or is to be, held primarily for sale or investment.

(11) If the effect of the granting of the financial assistance will be to encourage monopoly or will be inconsistent with the accepted standards of the American system of free competitive enterprise;

(12) If the financial assistance would be used primarily in a farming or other agricultural activity; or if the applicant is a processor of agricultural commodities and grows or produces more of the commodities processed than he purchases from others.

§ 120.3 Terms and conditions of financial assistance.

(a) Maturities. The maturity of business loans made under the Small Business Act shall be restricted to the minimum consistent with sound business practice, not to exceed 10 years.

(b) Charges on guaranteed loans—(1) Charges. In guaranteed loans (those made by a financial institution with which SBA has entered into an agreement to guarantee as set forth in Part 122 of this chapter), a guaranty charge shall be payable by the financial institution to SBA for such agreement. The guaranty charge shall be one-half of 1 percent per annum on the portion of the loan which SBA has guaranteed.

(2) Interest. (i) Except as provided in subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph, interest on SBA's share of immediate participation loans shall not exceed 5½ percent per annum and where the rate of interest on the share of the loan of the bank or other financial institution is less than 5½ percent per annum then the rate of SBA's share of the loan shall be at the same rate, but not less than 5 percent per annum. Subject to the approval of SBA, a participating financial institution may establish such rate of interest on its share of a loan as shall be legal and reasonable, but in no event to exceed 8 percent per annum.

(ii) Direct loans: Except as provided in subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph, interest on all direct loans which may be made by SBA shall be at the rate of 5½ percent per annum, except as may be otherwise required by reason of the provisions of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944, as amended.

(iii) Interest on SBA's share of financial assistance, which may be extended to Group Corporations shall be at the rate of 5 percent per annum. Subject to the approval of SBA, financial institutions may establish such rate of interest on their share of participation or guaranteed loans as shall be legal and reasonable, but in no event to exceed 8 percent.

(iv) In the event SBA purchases pursuant to a guaranty agreement, the interest rate on the part of the loan purchased by SBA shall be 5½ percent per annum: Provided, however, That where the rate of interest on the financial institution's loan is less than 5½ percent, then the rate of the SBA's part shall be at the same rate, but not less than 5 percent per annum.

(v) The interest rate on temporary advances to financial institutions under the liquidity privilege of the Loan Guaranty Plan shall be 4½ percent per annum computed on a per diem basis.

(3) Service fees. In immediate participation loans made and serviced by a financial institution, the financial institution may deduct a service fee only out of interest collected for the account of SBA so long as the bank is servicing the loan, and provided that such fee shall not be added to any amount which borrower is obligated to pay under the loan. Where SBA's share of the loan is 75 percent or less, the service fee shall be ½ of 1 percent per annum on the unpaid principal balance of SBA's share of the loan. Where SBA's share is in excess of 75 percent of the loan, the service fee shall be one-quarter of 1 percent per annum on the unpaid principal balance of SBA's portion of the loan.

(4) Closing fees. A closing fee equivalent to one-eighth of one percent of SBA's approved portion of the loan, or $10, whichever is the greater, shall be imposed upon all direct loans and immediate participation loans made and serviced by SBA which are authorized pursuant to section 7(a) of the Small Business Act, as amended. The fee shall be paid to SBA prior to disbursement of the loan and shall be exclusive of any other closing costs (such as recording fees and taxes, costs of title examination and title insurance, and other charges incident to the transaction) which are customarily paid by the borrower.

§ 120.4 Disaster loans and guarantees.

(a) Scope of disaster assistance. Financial assistance for disaster relief will be considered on an individual basis in the light of circumstances of the applicant and of the particular disaster or business displacement. Such financial assistance will be made as SBA determines to be necessary or appropriate to relieve the distress and hardships attendant upon the disasters or business displacement. Financial assistance may be extended:

(1) To rehabilitate or replace property damaged or lost as a result of disasters declared by SBA, declarations of which are published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, except that such financial assistance may not be used to rehabilitate or replace personal recreation or vacation homes, cabins, or similar facilities. However, if the property is primarily rental property which is an important source of income for the owner, a rehabilitation loan will be considered (Physical-Loss Disaster Assistance);

(2) To a small business concern located in an area declared to be a major disaster area by the President or declared to be a natural disaster area by the Secretary of Agriculture or his designee, if SBA determines that the concern has suffered substantial economic injury as a result of such disaster (Substantial Economic Injury Assistance);

(3) To assist in reestablishing the business of a small business concern which has been displaced by a federally aided urban renewal or highway construction program or by any other construction conducted by or with funds provided by the Federal Government, if SBA determines that the concern has suffered substantial economic injury as a result of such displacement, except that such financial assistance may not be made for replacement or rehabilitation of homes or apartment houses (Displaced Business Disaster Assistance); and

(4) To a small business concern to continue or reestablish its business if SBA determines that the concern has suffered substantial economic injury as a result of the inability of such concern to process or market a product for human consumption because of disease or toxicity occurring in such product through natural or undetermined causes (Product Disaster Assistance).

(b) Limitations on assistance. (1) Farmers, stockmen, and others engaged primarily in agricultural activities are not small-business concerns and, therefore, are ineligible for economic injury disaster assistance through SBA programs. Neither are they eligible for section 7(b)(1) physical disaster loan assistance, and no disaster loan funds will be provided which would be used primarily in a farming or other agricultural activity, except that, where the disaster area is located beyond the territorial jurisdiction of any other Federal agency otherwise authorized to provide such assistance, such parties shall be eligible for Physical-Loss Disaster Assistance.

(2) Religious, eleemosynary, and nonprofit organizations are not small business concerns and, therefore, ineligible for assistance except for Physical-Loss Disaster Assistance.

(3) Disaster assistance may be extended only to applicants determined by SBA to have suffered substantially the disaster loss; it will not be extended if SBA determines from the circumstances that the applicant assumed the loss or possibility of loss from the disaster. Therefore, applicants shall not be eligible where, for example, their concerns have been acquired or established, or where a substantial change of ownership therein occurred, during or following a period of disaster or after approval of a federally aided project, or where the property to be rehabilitated has been acquired after the disaster.

(4) If SBA determines that funds are otherwise available without undue hardship to a disaster victim, its principal owners, shareholders, or stockholders, SBA may require that such funds be expended prior to the expenditure of Federal funds. This subsection does not apply to privately owned colleges and universities to the extent the loss or damage is not compensated for by insurance or otherwise.

(c) Interest. (1) Interest on SBA's share of financial assistance, excluding loans under the Displaced Business Disaster Assistance program, shall be at the rate of 3 percent per annum. Where a disaster loan is made for the acquisition or construction (including acquisition of site therefor) of housing for the personal occupancy of the borrower, the interest rate shall be at the rate of 3 percent per annum. Where a participating institution's share of an immediate participation loan represents complete conversion of a predisaster loan made by such institution the interest rate on the participating institution's share may be at a rate accepted as reasonable by SBA.

(2) Interest on SBA's share of financial assistance made under the Displaced Business Disaster program shall be at a rate determined by SBA in conformity with the statutory formula set forth in the Small Business Act, as amended.

(d) Maturities. The maximum maturity, including renewals and extensions, for disaster loans shall not exceed 30 years.

(e) Participation limitations. SBA's share of immediate participation disaster loans shall not exceed 90 percent of the loan. In guaranteed disaster loans the exposure of SBA under the guaranty may not exceed 90 percent of the unpaid principal balance and accrued interest.

(f) Service fees. No service fees shall be charged on disaster loans.

Effective date. This part shall be effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated: August 10, 1967.

Administrator.

Chapter I—Federal Aviation Administration, Department of Transportation

[Airspace Docket No. 67-SO-36]

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, AND REPORTING POINTS

Alteration of Control Zones and Transition Areas

On July 13, 1967, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (32 F.R. 10309) stating that the Federal Aviation Administration was considering amendments to Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations that would alter the Albany, Ga., and Tallahassee, Fla., control zones and transition areas and the Valdosta, Ga., transition area.

Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to participate in the rule making through the submission of comments. All comments received were favorable.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended, effective 0001 e.d.s.t., October 12, 1967, as hereinafter set forth.

In § 71.171 (32 F.R. 2071) the Albany, Ga. (Municipal Airport), control zone (32 F.R. 8708) is amended to read:

ALBANY, GA. (MUNICIPAL AIRPORT)

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, AND REPORTING POINTS

Designation of VOR Federal Airway; Correction

On July 18, 1967, F.R. Doc. 67-8226 was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (32 F.R. 10507) which amended Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations by extending VOR Federal airway No. 465, effective September 14, 1967. This amendment which extended V-465 showed the airway floor as 12 AGL between Elko, Nev., and Malad City, Idaho, whereas it should have shown a segmented floor which presently exists for the segment of V-494 which was replaced by V-465. Accordingly, action is taken herein to correct this airway floor designation.

Since this amendment is editorial in nature and imposes no additional burden on any person, compliance with section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary and the effective date of the final rule as initially adopted is retained.

In consideration of the foregoing, effective immediately, F.R. Doc. 67-8226 (32 F.R. 10507) is amended as follows:

Item 1. is amended to read: In V-465 "From Malad City, Idaho," is deleted and "From Elko, Nev., 12 AGL Wells, Nev.; 12 miles, 12 AGL, 30 miles, 115 MSL, 20 miles, 90 MSL, 36 miles, 115 MSL, 24 miles, 95 MSL, 12 AGL Malad City, Idaho;" is substituted therefor.

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, AND REPORTING POINTS

Description of Transition Area; Correction

On July 25, 1967, F.R. Doc. 67-8585 was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (32 F.R. 10839 and 10840) amending Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations.

In the amendment, the Salisbury NDB latitudinal ordinate was incorrectly published as "35°40'30" N." The latitudinal ordinate should have been given as "35°40'40" N."

Since this amendment is editorial in nature and imposes no additional burden on any person, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary.

In consideration of the foregoing, effective immediately, F.R. Doc. 67-8585 is amended as follows: In the sixth line of the Salisbury, N.C., transition area description "* * * (latitude 35°40'30" N. * * " is deleted and " * * (latitude 35°40'40" N. * * *" is substituted therefor.

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, AND REPORTING POINTS

Designation of Control Zone and Transition Area

On July 1, 1967, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (32 F.R. 9571) stating that the Federal Aviation Administration was considering amendments to Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations that would designate controlled airspace in the vicinity of Amchitka, Alaska.

Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to participate in the proposed rule making through the submission of comments. No comments were received.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended effective 0001 e.s.t., October 12, 1967, as hereinafter set forth.

1. Section 71.171 (32 F.R. 2071) is amended by adding the following:

AMCHITKA, ALASKA

Within a 5-mile radius of the Amchitka, Alaska Airport (latitude 51°22'45" N., longitude 179°16'52" W.); within 2 miles each side of runway 7-25 centerlines extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 5.5 miles east and 5.5 miles west of the Amchitka Airport; within 2 miles each side of the 082° bearing from the Amchitka RBN extending from the RBN to 8 miles east; and within 2 miles each side of the 247° bearing from the Amchitka RBN, extending from the RBN to 8 miles southwest. This control zone is effective during the specific dates and times established in advance by a Notice to Airmen. The effective date and time will thereafter be continuously published in the Alaska Airman's Guide and Chart Supplement.

2. Section 71.181 (32 F.R. 2148) is amended by adding the following:

AMCHITKA, ALASKA

That airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface within 8 miles north and 5 miles south of the 082° bearing from the Amchitka RBN extending from the RBN to 11.5 miles east; within 8 miles southeast and 5 miles northwest of the 247° bearing from the Amchitka RBN, extending from the RBN to 11.5 miles southwest; and that airspace extending upward from 1,200 feet above the surface within a 20-mile radius of the Amchitka Airport (latitude 51°22'45" N., longitude 179°15'42" E.).

(Secs. 307(a), 1110, Federal Aviation Act of 1958, 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1510; Executive Order 10854, 24 F.R. 9565)

Issued in Washington, D.C., on August 11, 1967.

[Airspace Docket No. 65-WA-51]

PART 73—SPECIAL USE AIRSPACE

Alteration of Restricted Areas

On November 4, 1966, a notice of proposed rule making (NPRM) was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (31 F.R. 14270) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency was considering amendments to Part 73 of the Federal Aviation Regulations which would modify Restricted Areas R-2906 Rodman, Fla., R-2907 Lake George, Fla., and R-2910 Pinecastle, Fla.

Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to participate in the rule-making through submission of comments. There was a large response to this notice with a total of 44 comments being received. Of these comments 28 can be classified as objections, 12 as requests for a hearing in the local area and four as not objecting. Because of the interest shown in the proposals contained in this docket and Airspace Docket No. 65-WA-49, a special informal airspace meeting was held in Ocala, Fla., on February 2, 1967.

Most of the objections received in response to the NPRM and at the Ocala meeting expressed concern over possible detrimental effects on the economic growth of north-central Florida due to the limitations on air traffic between this area and the east coast of Florida and due to the possible annoyance to patrons of the numerous tourist attractions in the vicinity of Silver Springs, Fla., and those planned on the Cross Florida Barge Canal in the vicinity of Lake Kerr. There was also concern over the effect on the breeding of horses in this area. As a result of these objections we are reducing the length of the proposed R-2907B by 10 miles at the western extremity and eliminating the proposed R-2907C. This removes the restricted area further from the affected tourist attractions and horse farms and also provides east/west access between R-2906 and R-2907.

An objection was set forth stating that expansion of R-2906 would interfere with the traffic pattern for the MQ Ranch Airport. As a result of this objection, the airspace of R-2906 will be reduced by changing the boundary to the east bank of the St. John River. This will provide adequate space for traffic patterns at the MQ Ranch Airport.

Objections were received concerning the adverse effect this proposal would have on operations at Umatilla Airport. The only operational effect on Umatilla Airport is the extension of the air route to Jacksonville or Daytona Beach by 5 and 3 nautical miles, respectively. In view of the importance of this highly instrumented range, this short extension in flight paths is considered reasonable.

Highways, waterways and housing are within these restricted areas. Hence, this rule does not exempt the user from the requirements of § 91.79 of the Federal Aviation Regulations. The user, while operating in these restricted areas, is required to observe the minimum safe altitudes specified in § 91.79 over any congested area, person, vehicle, or structure on the surface not owned, operated or leased by the Navy, or for which a previous mutual agreement between the owner and the user has not been reached.

In general, the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) recognizes that these areas will cause some inconvenience to certain civil operators. However, the FAA must give full consideration to the airspace requirements involving national defense as well as civil users in exercising its authority and responsibility. In this case, the modifications made to the original proposal represent a compromise to lessen the adverse effect on civil activities and still allow the Navy to complete its mission.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 73, § 73.29 (32 F.R. 2303, 5769) is amended, effective September 14, 1967, as hereinafter set forth.

1. R-2906 Rodman, Fla., boundaries, and the text thereof is deleted and the following substituted therefor:

PART 75—ESTABLISHMENT OF JET ROUTES

Designation of Jet Route; Correction

On July 22, 1967, F.R. Doc. 67-8516 was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (32 F.R. 10785) which amended Part 75 of the Federal Aviation Regulations by altering and designating certain jet routes to become effective on September 14, 1967.

This amendment in part designated Jet Route No. 96 from Los Angeles Calif., to Joliet, Ill. The alignment of J-96 showed the route between Garden City, Kans., and Salina, Kans., as direct, whereas it should have shown via the intersection of the Garden City 066° and the Salina 257° radials so as to overlie Jet Route No. 18. Accordingly, action is taken herein to correct this jet route alignment.

Since this amendment is editorial in nature and imposes no additional burden on any person, compliance with section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary and the effective date of September 14, 1967, as initially adopted is retained.

In consideration of the foregoing, effective immediately, F.R. Doc. 67-8516 (32 F.R. 10785) is amended as follows:

Item id., is amended to read:

d. Jet Route No. 96 is added:

Jet Route No. 96 (Los Angeles, Calif., to Joliet, Ill.), from Los Angeles, Calif., via Ontario, Calif.; INT of Ontario 093° and Parker, Calif., 261° radials; Parker; Prescott, Ariz.; Winslow, Ariz.; Gallup, N. Mex.; Cimarron, N. Mex.; Garden City, Kans.; INT Garden City 066° and Salina, Kans., 257° radials; Salina; Kirksville, Mo.; Bradford, Ill.; to Joliet, Ill.

Title 22—FOREIGN RELATIONS

Chapter I—Department of State

[Dept. Reg. 108.564]

PART 92—NOTARIAL AND RELATED SERVICES

Depositions

Section 92.66(a) of Title 22 of the Code of Federal Regulations is revised to read as follows:

§ 92.66 Depositions taken before foreign officials or other persons in a foreign country.

(a) Customary practice. Under Federal law (Rule 28(b), Rules of Civil Procedure for the District Courts of the United States) and under the laws of some of the States, a commission to take depositions can be issued to a foreign official or to a private person in a foreign country. However, this method is rarely used; commissions are generally issued to U.S. consular officers. In those countries where American consular officers are not permitted to take testimony (see § 92.55(c)) and where depositions must be taken before a foreign authority, letters rogatory are usually issued to a foreign court. The Department of State has been authorized (62 Stat. 949; 28 U.S.C. 1781) directly or through suitable channels to receive a letter rogatory issued, or request made, by a tribunal in the United States, to transmit it to the foreign or international tribunal, officer, or agency to whom it is addressed, and to receive and return it after execution. In Federal practice letters rogatory to request the taking of evidence are issued only when necessary or convenient, on application and notice, and on such terms and with such directions as are just and appropriate (Rule 28(b), Rules of Civil Procedure for the District Courts of the United States). When the name of the foreign court is not known, letters rogatory are usually addressed "To the Appropriate Judicial Authority in (here name the country)."

* * * * *

Section 92.67 is revised to read as follows:

§ 92.67 Taking of depositions in United States pursuant to foreign letters rogatory.

(a) Authority and procedure. The taking of depositions by authority of State courts for use in the courts of foreign countries is governed by the laws of the individual States. As respects Federal practice, the district court of the district in which a person resides or is found may order him to give his testimony or statement or to produce a document or other thing for use in a proceeding in a foreign or international tribunal. The order may be made pursuant to a letter rogatory issued, or request made, by a foreign or international tribunal or upon the application of any interested person and may direct that the testimony or statement be given, or the document or other thing be produced, before a person appointed by the court. By virtue of his appointment, the person appointed has power to administer any necessary oath and take the testimony or statement. The order may prescribe the practice and procedure, which may be in whole or part the practice and procedure of the foreign country or the international tribunal, for taking the testimony or statement or producing the document or other thing. To the extent that the order does not prescribe otherwise, the testimony or statement shall be taken, and the document or other thing produced, in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. A person may not be compelled to give his testimony or statement or to produce a document or other thing in violation of any legally applicable privilege. This does not preclude a person within the United States from voluntarily giving his testimony or statement, or producing a document or other thing, for use in a proceeding in a foreign or international tribunal before any person or in any manner acceptable to him (28 U.S.C. 1782).

(b) Formulation of letters rogatory. A letter rogatory customarily states the nature of the judicial assistance sought by the originating court, prays that this assistance be extended, incorporates an undertaking of future reciprocity in like circumstances, and makes some provision for payment of fees and costs entailed in its execution. As respects Federal practice, it is not required that a letter rogatory emanating from a foreign court be authenticated by a diplomatic or consular officer of the United States or that it be submitted through the diplomatic channel; the seal of the originating court suffices. When testimony is desired, the letter rogatory should state whether it is intended to be taken upon oral or written interrogatories. If the party on whose behalf the testimony is intended to be taken will not be represented by counsel, written interrogatories should be attached. Except where manifestly unneeded (e.g. a Spanish-language letter rogatory intended for execution in Puerto Rico) or dispensed with by arrangement with the court, letters rogatory and interrogatories in a foreign language should be accompanied by English translations.

(c) Addressing letters rogatory. To avert uncertainties and minimize possibilities for refusal of courts to comply with requests contained in letters rogatory in the form in which they are presented, it is advisable that counsel for the parties in whose behalf testimony is sought ascertain in advance if possible, with the assistance of correspondent counsel in the United States or that of a consular representative or agent of his nation in the United States, the exact title of the court, Federal or State as the case may be, which will be prepared to entertain the letter rogatory. In Federal practice the following form of address is acceptable:

The U.S. District Court for the _____ (e.g. Northern, Southern) District of _____ (State)

_____ (City) _____ (State)

In instances where it is not feasible to ascertain the correct form of address at the time of preparation of the letter rogatory, and it will be left for counsel in the United States, or a consul or agent in the United States of the nation of origin of the letter rogatory to effect its transmission to an appropriate court, the following form may be used: "To the Appropriate Judicial Authority at (name of locality)."

(d) Submitting letters rogatory to courts in the United States. A letter rogatory may be submitted to the clerk of the court of which assistance is sought, either in person or by mail. This may be direct by international mail from the originating foreign court. Alternatively, submission to the clerk of court may be effected in person or by mail by any party to the action at law or his attorney or agent, or by a consular officer or agent in the United States of the foreign nation concerned. Finally, the Department of State has been authorized (62 Stat. 949; 28 U.S.C. 1781) to receive a letter rogatory issued, or request made, by a foreign or international tribunal, to transmit it to the tribunal, officer, or agency in the United States to whom it is addressed, and to receive and return it after execution. This authorization does not preclude—

(1) The transmittal of a letter rogatory or request directly from a foreign or international tribunal to the tribunal, officer, or agency in the United States to whom it is addressed and its return in the same manner; or

(2) The transmittal of a letter rogatory or request directly from a tribunal in the United States to the foreign or international tribunal, officer, or agency to whom it is addressed and its return in the same manner.

Section 92.85 is revised to read as follows:

§ 92.85 Service of legal process usually prohibited.

The service of process and legal papers is not normally a Foreign Service function. Except when directed by the Department of State, officers of the Foreign Service are prohibited from serving process or legal papers or appointing other persons to do so.

Section 92.86 is revised to read as follows:

§ 92.86 Consular responsibility for serving subpoenas.

When directed by the Department of State, officers of the Foreign Service will serve a subpoena issued by a court of the United States on a national or resident of the United States who is in a foreign country unless such action is prohibited by the law of the foreign country.

The regulations contained in this order shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedures Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U.S.C. 1003) relative to notice of proposed rule making and delayed effective date are inapplicable to this order because the provisions thereof involve foreign affairs functions of the United States.

For the Secretary of State.

BARBARA M. WATSON,
Acting Administrator, Bureau of Security and Consular Affairs.

Title 23—HIGHWAYS AND VEHICLES

Chapter II—Vehicle and Highway Safety

[Docket No. 19]

PART 255—INITIAL FEDERAL MOTOR VEHICLE SAFETY STANDARDS

Motor Vehicle Safety Standard No. 201; Occupant Protection in Interior Impact, Passenger Cars and Related Definitions

Motor Vehicle Safety Standard No. 201, issued January 31, 1967, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, February 3, 1967 (32 F.R. 2413), specifies requirements for instrument panels, seat backs, protrusions, sun visors, and armrests to afford impact protection for occupants of passenger cars manufactured after January 1, 1968.

Parties adversely affected by the Standard were permitted to petition for reconsideration on or before March 6, 1967, pursuant to 23 CFR 215.17. By order dated March 29, 1967, the Acting Under Secretary of Commerce for Transportation consolidated the 27 petitions related to Standard No. 201 and ordered that a hearing on reconsideration be held.

On April 21, 1967, the Federal Highway Administration issued an order directing that a rulemaking hearing be held pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553 (formerly sec. 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238, 5 U.S.C. 1003)). The hearing was held May 22 and 23, 1967, at Detroit, Mich., and May 24 and 25, 1967, at Washington, D.C. On June 22, 1967, the presiding officer submitted his Report of Recommended Findings to the Federal Highway Administration.

On June 8 and 9, 1967, and July 6 and 7, 1967, meetings were held by the National Highway Safety Bureau with domestic and foreign auto industry engineers in which detailed engineering discussions of all problems of compliance with the Standard were held.

After review of the evidence presented at the hearings ordered by the Federal Highway Administration, the report of the presiding officer, and the Bureau's analysis of the engineering meetings with the industry, I have determined that Standard 201 issued January 31, 1967, should be superseded by a new Standard that specifies initial requirements to afford impact protection for occupants, and that certain related definitions should be amended accordingly.

Good cause is shown that an effective date earlier than 180 days after issuance is in the public interest and notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary since these amendments relieve restrictions and impose no additional burden on any person.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 255, Initial Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standards, is amended by superseding § 255.21, Motor Vehicle Safety Standard No. 201 (32 F.R. 2413), with a new Motor Vehicle Safety Standard No. 201 to read as set forth below and by amending § 255.3(b) as set forth below.

These amendments are made under the authority of sections 103 and 119 of the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1966 (15 U.S.C. 1392, 1407) and the delegation of authority of March 31, 1967 (32 F.R. 5606), as amended April 6, 1967 (32 F.R. 6495), and becomes effective January 1, 1968.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on August 11, 1967.

LOWELL K. BRIDWELL,
Federal Highway Administrator.

In § 255.3(b):

1. Revoke the definition of "knee and leg impact area."

2. Revise the definition of "pelvic impact area" to read as follows:

"Pelvic impact area" means that area of the door or body side panel adjacent to any outboard designated seating position which is bounded by horizontal planes 7 inches above and 4 inches below the seating reference point and vertical transverse planes 8 inches forward and 2 inches rearward of the seating reference point.

3. Revise the definition of "head impact area" to read as follows:

"Head impact area" means all nonglassed surfaces of the interior of a vehicle that are statically contactable by a 6.5-inch diameter spherical head form or a measuring device having a pivot point to "top-of-head" dimension infinitely adjustable from 29 to 33 inches in accordance with the following procedure, or its graphic equivalent:

(a) At each designated seating position, place the pivot point of the measuring device—

(1) For seats that are adjustable fore and aft, at—

(i) The seating reference point; and

(ii) A point 5 inches horizontally forward of the seating reference point and vertically above the seating reference point an amount equal to the rise which results from a 5-inch forward adjustment of the seat or 0.75 inch; and

(2) For seats that are not adjustable fore and aft, at the seating reference point.

(b) With the pivot point to "top-of-head" dimension at each value allowed by the device and the interior dimensions of the vehicle, determine all contact points above the lower windshield glass line and forward of the seating reference point.

(c) With the head form at each contact point, and with the device in a vertical position if no contact point exists for a particular adjusted length, pivot the measuring device forward and downward through all arcs in vertical planes to 90° each side of the vertical longitudinal plane through the seating reference point, until the head form contacts an interior surface or until it is tangent to a horizontal plane 1 inch above the seating reference point, whichever occurs first.

4. Add the following definitions:

"Designated seating capacity" means the number of designated seating positions provided.

"Designated seating position" means any plan view lateral location intended by the manufacturer to provide seating accommodation for a person at least as large as a 5th percentile adult female, except auxiliary seating accommodations such as temporary or folding jump seats.

"Seating reference point" means the manufacturer's design reference point which—

(a) Establishes the rearmost normal design driving or riding position of each designated seating position in a vehicle;

(b) Has coordinates established relative to the designed vehicle structure;

(c) Simulates the position of the pivot center of the human torso and thigh; and

(d) Is the reference point employed to position the two dimensional templates described in SAE Recommended Practice J826, "Manikins for Use in Defining Vehicle Seating Accommodations," November 1962.

"5th percentile adult female" means a person possessing the dimensions and weight of the 5th percentile adult female specified for the total age group in Public Health Service Publication No. 1000, Series 11, No. 8, "Weight, Height, and Selected Body Dimensions of Adults.".

After consideration of all such relevant matter as was presented by integrated persons, the amendment as so proposed is hereby adopted, subject to the following changes:

1. In § 52.10a the words "registered mail" appearing in the first sentence are changed to "certified mail."

2. To § 52.10a there is added the sentence "Notice of the need to register shall be sent by regular mail to all eligible voters who reside on the reservation."

3. Section 52.10a has been expanded to provide that an initial list of registered voters shall be valid for a period of three years and for the registration of persons who become eligible to vote during this period.

4. In § 52.11 the words "the election" appearing in the opening sentence are changed to "an election."

5. There is inserted in § 52.13, as follows, the requirement that notices of elections point out also that voters who have not registered must do so in order to vote: "and the need for nonregistered voters to register."

6. There is inserted a revision of § 52.15.

Effective date. This amendment is effective on date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

STEWART L. UDALL,
Secretary of the Interior.

AUGUST 10, 1967.

1. Section 52.5 is amended to read as follows:

§ 52.5 Request to call election.

The Secretary will authorize the calling of an election on adoption of a constitution and bylaws upon request by the tribal governing body or an authorized representative committee or upon petition filed by at least one-third of the adult members of the group. An election on the adoption of amendments to the constitution and bylaws shall be authorized by the Secretary when requested as provided in the amendment article of the constitution and bylaws; however, the election shall be conducted in the manner prescribed in the rules and regulations in this part. The Secretary may propose amendments to the constitution for consideration at Secretarial elections, unless the constitution and bylaws for Secretarial elections provides otherwise. Any authorization not acted upon within ninety (90) days from the date of issuance will be considered void.

2. The heading and text of § 52.6 are amended to read as follows:

§ 52.6 Entitlement to vote.

(a) If the unorganized group is a tribe or tribes of a reservation:

(1) Any adult member regardless of residence shall be entitled to vote: Provided, He has duly registered.

(2) Duly registered adult nonresidents or ill or physically disabled registered members may vote by absentee ballot. See § 52.17.

(b) If the unorganized group is composed of the adult Indian residents of a reservation:

(1) Any adult Indian resident shall be entitled to vote: Provided, He has duly registered.

(2) Absentee voting shall be permitted for duly registered residents temporarily absent from the reservation, ill, or physically disabled.

(c) For organized tribes voting in elections for amendments of the constitution and bylaws, only voters who have duly registered are entitled to vote, i.e., if the group was organized as a tribe, absentee balloting is permitted, but if the group was organized as residents of a reservation, absentee balloting will not be permitted except as provided in paragraph (b) (2) of this section.

3. In § 52.8, that part of paragraph (b) which runs through (1) is amended to read as follows:

§ 52.8 Election Board.

* * * * *

(b) It shall be the duty of the board to conduct elections in compliance with the procedures described in this Part 52 and in particular, (1) to see that the name of each person offering to vote is on the official list of registered voters; * * *

4. A new section to be designated 52.10a Registration, is added to the Table of Contents and to the body of the regulations, to read as follows:

§ 52.10a Registration.

(a) The Election Board upon receipt of authorization to conduct an election shall notify by certified mail, return receipt requested, all adult Indians of the tribe, who to its knowledge are not living on the reservation, of the need to register if they intend to vote. Any Indian who will become twenty-one (21) years of age within ninety (90) days from the date of authorization shall also be notified and shall be eligible to register: Provided, He shall not be entitled to vote should election day fall before his 21st birthday. Such notice shall be sent to an individual's last known address as it may appear on the records of the local unit of the Bureau of Indian Affairs having jurisdiction. It shall be accompanied by an appropriate preaddressed registration form which shall provide space for at least the name and address of the person desiring to register and for attesting that he or she is a tribal member either twenty-one (21) years of age or over, or will be within ninety (90) days from the date of authorization. Such nonresident who wishes to participate in the election must complete and return the registration form before or in conjunction with requesting an absentee ballot. Indians living on the reservation who desire to vote must register with the Election Board as it shall determine in sufficient time to permit compliance with § 52.11. Notice of the need to register shall be sent by regular mail to all eligible voters who reside on the reservation.

(b) Registration in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section shall be valid for a period of three years from the date of the election for which it was initially required. Such initial registration shall suffice for any subsequent election called pursuant to this part within that period. Between occasions of official registration, it shall be the responsibility of each person who becomes eligible to vote to notify the officer in charge of his desire to register. Said officer shall provide him with the necessary registration form. Upon return of the properly completed form, the officer in charge shall insure that the name of said registrant is placed upon the list of registered voters. Registrants shall, likewise, be responsible for notifying the officer in charge of any change affecting their status.

5. Section 52.11 is amended to read as follows:

§ 52.11 Voting list.

The Election Board shall compile in alphabetical order an official list of registered voters, arranged by voting districts, if any, of the members of the tribe who are or will have attained the age of twenty-one (21) years within ninety (90) days from the date an election is authorized and who have duly registered to vote. A copy of this list shall be supplied to each District Election Board and also posted at the headquarters of the local administrative unit of the Bureau of Indian Affairs and at various public places designated by the Election Board throughout the reservation at least 20 days prior to the election.

6. In § 52.12, the first sentence is amended to read as follows:

§ 52.12 Eligibility disputes.

The Election Board shall determine any written claim to vote presented to it by one whose name does not appear on the official list of registered voters as well as any written challenge of the right to vote of anyone whose name is on the list, and its decision shall be final. * * *

7. In § 52.13, that part which runs through the first five sentences is amended to read as follows:

§ 52.13 Election notices.

Not less than twenty (20) nor more than sixty (60) days' notice shall be given of an election and the need for nonregistered voters to register unless otherwise authorized by the Secretary. If an election is called upon less than twenty (20) days' notice, registered absentee voters shall nevertheless be allowed twenty (20) days from the giving of such notice for the Election Board to receive their ballots. In such an election the posting of the official list of registered voters shall coincide with the giving of such notice. The Election Board shall determine whether the notice shall be given by television, radio, newspaper, poster, or mail, or by one or more of these methods, and whether in an Indian language in addition to English. A copy of any written election notice may be mailed to each registered voter and posted at the local administrative unit of the Bureau of Indian Affairs and elsewhere as directed by the Election Board. * * *

8. In § 52.15, the word "qualified" appearing in the first sentence is changed to "registered". As amended, § 52.15 reads as follows:

§ 52.15 Manner of voting.

Any registered voter may vote by presenting himself at the polls of his voting district within the prescribed voting period, announcing to the officials there his name and address and by marking and placing in the ballot box the ballot which shall be handed to him. Voting shall be by secret ballot. See § 52.17 covering absentee voting.

9. Section 52.17 is amended in its entirety to read as follows:

§ 52.17 Absentee voting.

Nonresident members who have registered may vote by absentee ballot except as prohibited by § 52.6(c). Also, whenever due to temporary absence from the reservation, illness, or physical disability a registered eligible voter is not able to vote at the polls and duly causes the Election Board to be notified thereof, he shall be entitled to vote by absentee ballot. The Election Board shall give or mail ballots for absentee voting to registered voters upon request in sufficient time to permit the voter to execute and return same on or before the date of the election or within the time allowed by the Election Board. Together with the ballot there shall be an inner envelope bearing on the outside the words "Absentee Ballot," a preaddressed outer envelope, and a certificate in form as follows:

I, ----------, hereby certify that I am a member of the ---------- Tribe of Indians; that I will be 21 years of age or over at the election date and am entitled to vote in the election to be held on ---------- (date of election); and that I cannot appear at the polling place on the reservation on the date of the election because (Indicate one of the following reasons) I expect to be absent from the reservation ☐ or because of illness ☐ or physical disability ☐. I further certify that I marked the enclosed ballot in secret.[1]

The voter shall in the presence of two witnesses of adult age, and of no other person, mark such ballot but in such manner that such witnesses cannot know how the ballot was marked, and the ballot shall then in the presence of such witnesses be folded so as to conceal the marking, and be, in the presence of such witnesses, placed in the envelope marked "Absentee Ballot" and the envelope sealed. The voter shall then execute and subscribe the certificate before such witnesses. He shall then place the sealed envelope marked "Absentee Ballot" together with the certificate in the outer envelope, and mail it or have it delivered. The preaddressed outer envelope shall be directed to the Election Board at the reservation. Absentee ballots must be received by the Election Board not later than the close of the polls on election day, except as covered by § 52.13. The Election Board shall make and keep a record of ballots mailed, to whom mailed, the date of mailing, the address on the envelope, the date of the return of such ballot, and from whom received, and shall count and register all such votes after all other ballots have been counted and include them in the results of the election.

4. In § 53.7 there is added as a concluding sentence: "In event an individual's name appears on a petition more than once, all but one of the names shall be stricken."

Effective date. Part 53, 25 CFR, is effective on date of this publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

STEWART L. UDALL,
Secretary of the Interior.

AUGUST 10, 1967.

Part 53, Chapter I, Title 25 of the Code of Federal Regulations reads as follows:

Sec.
53.1 Definitions.
53.2 Purpose and scope.
53.3 Applicability to tribal groups.
53.4 Petition format.
53.5 Notarization of petition signatures.
53.6 Filing of petitions.
53.7 Challenges.
53.8 Action on the petition.

AUTHORITY: The provisions of this Part 53 issued under 5 U.S.C. 22 and 25 U.S.C. 2 and 9; and 25 U.S.C. 476.

§ 53.1 Definitions.

As used in this Part 53:

(a) "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Interior or his authorized representative.

(b) "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Indian Affairs or his authorized representative.

(c) "Local Bureau Official" means the Superintendent, Field Representative or other line officer of the Bureau of Indian Affairs who has local administrative jurisdiction over the tribe concerned.

(d) "Bureau" means the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

(e) "Tribe" means any recognized Indian, Eskimo, or Aleut tribe, organized band, pueblo, or community which is subject to the jurisdiction of the Bureau of Indian Affairs and which has adopted a constitution approved by the Commissioner or the Secretary.

(f) "Spokesman for the petitioner" means the authorized voter of a tribe initiating a petition or designated by the initiators of a petition to speak in their behalf.

(g) "Constitution" means the organizational framework of any organized tribe for the exercise of governmental powers.

§ 53.2 Purpose and scope.

The purpose of this part is to provide uniformity and order in the formulation and submission of petitions requesting the Secretary or the Commissioner to call elections to amend tribal constitutions as such documents may provide.

§ 53.3 Applicability to tribal groups.

The regulations, policies, and procedures set forth in this part apply to any tribe which provides through its constitution for the Secretary or the Commissioner to call elections to amend tribal constitutions upon filing a petition signed by a stipulated percentage or number of tribal members who are eligible voters under the constitution of the tribe involved.

§ 53.4 Petition format.

Petitions may consist of as many pages as are necessary to accommodate the signatures of the petitioners. However, each sheet of a petition must set forth at least a summary of the objectives of the petitioners and must show the date upon which the petition was signed by each individual, as well as the current mailing address of each signer.

§ 53.5 Notarization of petition signatures.

Signatures to a petition must be authenticated in one of the following ways: (a) Through having each signer subscribe or acknowledge his signature before a notary public; (b) through having the collector of signatures appear before a notary and sign, in his presence on each sheet of the petition, a statement attesting that the signatures were affixed on the dates shown and by the individuals whose names appear thereon, and that to the best of his knowledge the signatories thereto are eligible voters. Only an eligible tribal voter shall be recognized as a valid collector of signatures to a petition.

§ 53.6 Filing of petitions.

All petitions submitted pursuant to this section must be filed with the local Bureau official responsible for administering the tribe's affairs. No petitions will be accepted until a spokesman for the petitioners declares that he wishes to make an official filing. Once a declaration of official filing is made and the petition is given to the local Bureau official, that official shall immediately designate thereon the date of receipt and shall inform the spokesman for the petitioners that no additional signatures may be added and that no withdrawal of signatures will be subsequently permitted. The local Bureau official shall also acknowledge in writing his receipt of the petition, indicating the exact number of signatures which are attached. Upon this written acknowledgment of the petition, the local Bureau official shall publicly post at the local Bureau unit serving the tribe the matter proposed in the petition, which shall remain posted for a period of thirty (30) days.

§ 53.7 Challenges.

Once an official filing has been made, the local Bureau official shall have copies made of the petition and its signatures, and shall keep these copies at the agency or field office for fifteen (15) days, during which time they shall be available for examination by authorized voters of the tribe upon request. During this 15-day period challenges of signatures may be filed with the local Bureau official. Challenges will be considered on the following grounds: (a) Forgery of signatures; (b) lack of proper qualifications of a signer. No challenge will be considered which is not accompanied by supporting evidence in writing. In event an individual's name appears on a petition more than once, all but one of the names shall be stricken.

§ 53.8 Action on the petition.

Within thirty (30) days after the official filing date, the local Bureau official shall forward to the Commissioner through the Area Director, or directly to the Commissioner in the case of a tribe not under the administrative jurisdiction of an Area Director, the original of the petition and its accompanying signatures, together with his recommendations concerning challenges, and his conclusions concerning (a) the validity of the signatures; (b) the adequacy of the number of signatures; (c) the propriety of the petitioning procedure. The Commissioner shall within forty-five (45) days after the official filing date, decide each challenge and the sufficiency of the petition and announce whether an election shall be called. In the event he decides that the petitioning action for any reason is insufficient for the calling of an election, he shall inform the spokesman for the petitioners and the governing body of the tribe of that fact and the basis of his decision; in the event he decides that the petitioning action does warrant the calling of an election, he shall so inform the spokesman for the petitioners and the governing body of the tribe concerned. His decision in such matters shall be final. The procedures for conducting the election, as well as the date for the election, will be determined in accordance with pertinent directives.

(1) Approve and pay in part or in full, or disapprove, claims presented for $2,500 or less, and

(2) Pay claims regardless of the amount claimed provided an award of $2,500 or less is accepted by claimant in full satisfaction and final settlement of the claim.

(i) Each of the numbered armies within the continental United States;

(ii) Military District of Washington, U.S. Army;

(iv) U.S. Army, Alaska;

(v) U.S. Army, Pacific;

(vi) U.S. Army, Europe.

(ii) Approving authority. (a) Each of the following is delegated authority to:

(2) Pay claims regardless of the amount claimed provided an award of $1,000, or less, is accepted by claimant in full satisfaction and final settlement of the claim.

(b) The commander, or the staff judge advocate, of any command authorized to exercise general courts-martial jurisdiction;

* * * * *

(v) Reconsideration. (a) While there is no appeal from the action of an approving or settlement authority under the Military Personnel and Civilian Employees' Claims Act of 1964 and this section, an approving or settlement authority may reconsider a claim upon request of the claimant or someone acting in his behalf. Even in the absence of such a request, an approving or settlement authority may on his own initiative reconsider a claim. He may reconsider a claim which he previously disapproved in whole or in part (even though a settlement agreement has been executed) when it appears that his original action was incorrect in law or fact based on the evidence of record at the time of the action or subsequently received. If he determines that his original action was incorrect, he will modify the action and, if appropriate, make a supplemental payment. The basis for a change in action will be stated in a memorandum included in the file.

(b) A successor or supervisory approving or settlement authority may also reconsider the original action on a claim but only on the basis of fraud or collusion, new and material evidence, or manifest error of fact such as errors in calculation or factual misinterpretation of applicable law.

(c) A request for reconsideration should fully indicate the legal or factual basis asserted as grounds for relief. Following completion of any investigation or other action deemed necessary for an informed disposition of the request, the approving or settlement authority will reconsider the claim and attempt to settle it by granting such relief as may appear warranted. When further settlement efforts appear unwarranted, the entire file with a memorandum of opinion will be forwarded through claims channels as outlined in § 536.10(d). If a claim supervisory authority (§ 536.4a) is unable to grant the relief requested, he will forward the claim with his recommendation to the Chief, U.S. Army Claims Service, Fort Holabird, Md. 21219, and inform the claimant of such reference.

(vi) Compromise or termination of recovery actions. Subject to the limitations contained in this section, each of the settlement and approving authorities designated in subdivisions (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph is delegated authority to compromise or terminate collection action on claims, within his monetary jurisdiction, against third parties under paragraph (c) of this section in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Claims Collection Act of 1966 (80 Stat. 309) as implemented by Joint Regulations promulgated by the General Accounting Office and the Department of Justice (4 CFR 101-105) and AR 27-41.

Chapter VII—Department of the Air Force

SUBCHAPTER A—ADMINISTRATION

PART 800—DEPARTMENT OF THE AIR FORCE SEAL

SUBCHAPTER B—SALES AND SERVICES

PART 819a—SELLING AVIATION FUEL AND OIL FOR CONTRACT, CHARTER, AND CIVIL AIRCRAFT

Miscellaneous Amendments

Chapter VII of Title 32 of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended as follows:

§ 800.4 [Amended]

In § 800.4, paragraph (c) is amended by deleting subparagraph (2).

(Sec. 8012, 70A Stat. 488; 10 U.S.C. 8012)

A new Part 819a is added as follows:

Sec.
819a.1 Purpose.
819a.2 Definitions.
819a.3 Air Force sales policy.
819a.4 Identification of contract and charter aircraft.
819a.5 Authority to sell aviation fuel and oil.
819a.6 Prices.

AUTHORITY: The provisions of this Part 819a issued under sec. 8012, 70A Stat. 488; 10 U.S.C. 8012, except as otherwise noted.

SOURCE: AFR 67-53, Mar. 27, 1963.

§ 819a.1 Purpose.

This part states Air Force policy on the sale of aviation fuel and oil to aircraft operating under contract or charter to any U.S. Government agency, and to operators of civil aircraft.

§ 819a.2 Definitions.

(a) Contract aircraft. Aircraft under contract with any department or agency of the U.S. Government at rates based, in part, on sale of fuel and oil to the contractor at the Air Force standard price. These rates are lower than published rates available to the general public on file with the Civil Aeronautics Board. The aircraft are under the operational control of the department or agency concerned.

(b) Charter aircraft. Aircraft under agreement with any department or agency of the U.S. Government at rates which are not based on sale of fuel and oil at the Air Force standard price and which are equal to published rates available to the general public on file with the Civil Aeronautics Board. Charter aircraft may or may not be under operational control of the department or agency executing the agreement.

(c) Civil aircraft. Domestic or foreign aircraft operated by private individuals or corporations of any national registry, and foreign government-owned aircraft operating for commercial purposes.

(d) Aviation fuels and oils. Aviation fuel and oil items under Air Force Aviation Fuel Stock Fund Operation. (See attachment D1, Part Three, Volume I, AFM 67-1 (USAF Supply Manual), for the itemized list.)

(e) Standard price. Worldwide average cost of aviation fuel and oil to the Stock Fund. Current Air Force standard prices are available from SAAMA, Kelly AFB TX 78241.

(f) Surcharge. A 3 percent and a 15 percent charge to cover administrative and handling costs not reflected in the published standard price.

(g) Local prevailing fair market price. Price per unit charged similar type of transient aircraft by the nearest commercial airport refueling dealer for an equivalent product serviced into the aircraft less all taxes, duties, and fees (such as airport landing fees). The base commander will determine and maintain current local prevailing fair market prices.

(h) Authorized supplier. A commercial petroleum company doing business in the United States or its Territories which has an agreement with the Air Force to guarantee payment for aviation fuel and oil furnished by the Air Force to civil, contract, and charter aircraft. If credit purchase of fuel and oil by this method is desired, the operator must obtain an authorized supplier letter and submit three copies signed by an executive of the company to each approving authority to whom an AF Form 181, Civil Aircraft Landing Permit, is submitted (see Part 855, Subchapter F of this chapter). When applicable the name of the authorized supplier will be inserted in item 20 on an approved AF Form 181 by the approving authority.

NOTE: Authorized supplier letters are not accepted with a time limit on the period of guarantee or a time limit for receipt of invoices covering fuel and oil sales made during the valid period of the guarantee.

(i) Commercial security bond. A guarantee obtained by an operator from a commercial bonding company for payment of Air Force aviation fuel purchases and posted with the Aviation Fuel Stock Fund Manager, SAAMA. (Notification of established credit is issued by the Directorate of Air Force Aerospace Fuels, SAAMA, to Air Force installations.)

(j) Federal excise taxes. 26 U.S.C. 4081 imposes an excise tax of four (4) cents per gallon on all grades of aviation gasoline. 26 U.S.C. 4041(b) imposes an excise tax of two (2) cents per gallon on special motor fuel (JP-4 jet fuel) which is sold for use otherwise than as a fuel for the propulsion of a highway vehicle. 26 U.S.C. 4091 imposes an excise tax of six (6) cents per gallon (or one and one-half (1½) cents per quart) on all grades of aviation lubricating oil. These taxes apply only on sales made in the continental United States, Alaska, and Hawaii except as exempted in the note in § 819a.6.

§ 819a.3 Air Force sales policy.

(a) Air Force aviation fuel and oil are not sold to civil and charter aircraft in competition with private enterprise. The Air Force does not furnish aviation fuel and oil to such aircraft if commercial refueling of commercial products is available. However, in some instances commercial refueling is available at the same airport as Air Force facilities, but airport safety regulations do not permit the commercial refueling operator to move his equipment to the Air Forces refueling ramp nor do they permit the aircraft to be taxied across the runways to the commercial refueling ramp. Under such circumstances, a charter or civil aircraft making an authorized stop at the Air Force installation is authorized to buy Air Force aviation fuel and oil.

(b) If commercial refueling is not available, the sale of Air Force aviation fuel and oil to aircraft under charter agreement with the U.S. Government is permitted at, and limited to, points where passengers or cargo are loaded into or discharged from the aircraft. Sales to civil aircraft are governed by the conditions outlined in § 819a.5(c).

(c) The sale of Air Force Aviation fuel and oil to aircraft under contract to any department of the U.S. Government is authorized without the restrictions in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

(d) The policies in this section pertain to aircraft operated under contract or charter to the Air Force and other departments of the U.S. Government when the operators of these aircraft present, for positive identification, the credentials established by this part or by the department or agency administering the contract or charter agreement. If identifying credentials are not presented, the aircraft are considered civil aircraft as far as the sale of aviation fuel and oil is concerned.

§ 819a.4 Identification of contract and charter aircraft.

Identification credentials of contract and charter aircraft of the U.S. Government are limited to:

(a) Department of Defense—contract aircraft. Contract aircraft operating under Department of Defense contracts for domestic operations are identified by a Certificate of Operations signed by the contracting officer. This certificate will indicate the type of service involved and the contract under which operations are being performed. Examples are: Certificates of Logair Operations and Certificates of Quicktrans Operations. Contract aircraft operating under Department of Defense contracts for international operations are identified by MATS Form 8, "Civil Aircraft Certificate," indicating contract aircraft.

(b) Department of Defense—charter aircraft. Charter aircraft operating under Department of Defense charters will be identified as follows:

(1) Flights limited to the continental United States for cargo service are identified by a CAFM (Civil Air Freight Movement) number on the SF 1103, "U.S. Government Bill of Lading."

(2) Flights limited to the continental United States for passenger service are identified by a CAM (Commercial Air Movement) number on the SF 1169, "Transportation Request."

(3) Charter aircraft used exclusively within an oversea area are provided identification by the appropriate oversea commander. The commander advises all activities concerned of such identification and enacts the necessary measures to preclude violations of sales policies established in this part.

(c) Other U.S. Government departments and agencies. When other departments or agencies of the U.S. Government desire that aircraft under contract or charter by them obtain fuel and oil from Air Force bases, the department or agency will advise the Director of Air Force Aerospace Fuels, SAAMA, and provide information as to the identification documents. The Director of Air Force Aerospace Fuels will then furnish the necessary information directly to the Air Force installations concerned.

(d) Private or commercial aircraft. All private or commercial aircraft not identified in accordance with this section will be considered to be civil aircraft.

§ 819a.5 Authority to sell aviation fuel and oil.

Commanders may authorize the sale of aviation fuels and oils for use in contract, charter, and civil aircraft only under the conditions stated in this section. Any sale not complying with these conditions subjects Air Force personnel involved to possible action in accordance with AFR 67-10 (Responsibility for Public Property in Possession of the Air Force).

(a) For contract aircraft, identified in accordance with § 819a.4 (a) and (c):

(1) Cash sales are authorized.

(2) Credit sales are authorized if the operator presents AF Form 181, indicating an authorized supplier; or if the Air Force installation has been notified that the operator has posted bond secured with a commercial bonding company.

(3) Credit sales are not made under circumstances other than stated in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(b) For charter aircraft, sales are not authorized at bases where commercial fueling is available. At bases where commercial fueling is not available and aircraft are identified as charter in accordance with § 819a.4 (b) (1), (2), (3), and (c), the following apply:

(1) Cash sales are authorized.

(2) Credit sales are authorized if the operator presents AF Form 181, indicating an authorized supplier; or if the Air Force installation has been notified that the operator has posted bond secured with a commercial bonding company.

(3) Credit sales, except under the conditions stated in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, are not authorized under any circumstance.

(c) For civil aircraft not under contract or charter:

(1) At Air Force installations, cash sales are authorized under the conditions stated in this subparagraph. Credit sales are also authorized under these conditions if the operator presents AF Form 181, indicating an authorized supplier; or if the Air Force installation has been notified that the operator has posted bond secured with a commercial bonding company.

(i) If civil operators have been granted permission to use the installation as a regular airport for scheduled flights and the agreement covering this use expressly authorizes the sale of aviation fuels and oil for such flights.

(ii) If civil operators have been granted permission to use an installation as a weather alternate airport in conjunction with scheduled flights and commercial aviation fuels and oils are not available. In such cases, based upon prevailing conditions, the installation commander determines whether fuel should be furnished in the quantity to reach the next destination or the nearest commercial airport where the grade required is available.

(iii) If private and company-operated aircraft carry private individuals and company executives to conduct official business related to Government activities.

(iv) If an emergency exists. The installation commander determines, based upon prevailing conditions, whether fuel should be furnished in the quantity to reach the next destination or the nearest commercial airport where the grade required is available.

(2) At an oversea installation not under Air Force jurisdiction, but where Air Force aviation fuel is available, credit sales may be made under circumstances stated in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, if the overseas major commander has received authorization from the Directorate of Air Force Aerospace Fuels, SAAMA. Should an operator desire credit sales, he forwards an authorized supplier guarantee or a commercial security bond to the Directorate of Air Force Aerospace Fuels, SAAMA, which in turn, notifies the major commander of the validity and duration of the guarantee.

(3) Credit sales except under conditions stated in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph are not made under any circumstances.

§ 819a.6 Prices.

(a) Contract aircraft (§ 819a.4 (a) and (c)) are charged the Air Force standard price. Federal excise taxes are added to the selling price on sales made in the continental United States, Alaska, and Hawaii, except as exempted in the note in this section.

(b) Charter aircraft (§ 819a.4 (b) and (c)) are charged the Air Force standard price plus surcharges. Federal excise taxes are added to the selling price on sales made in the continental United States, Alaska, and Hawaii, except as exempted in the note in this section.

(c) Civil aircraft (§ 819a.4(d)) are charged the local prevailing fair market price or the Air Force standard price plus surcharges, whichever is higher. Federal excise taxes are added to the selling price on sales made in the continental United States, Alaska, and Hawaii, except as exempted in the note in this section.

NOTE: Under 26 U.S.C. 4221, international flights and flights to U.S. possessions originating in the continental United States, Alaska, and Hawaii, are exempt from Federal excise at airport of departure from these States. This exemption does not apply to flights between Alaska, Hawaii, and the continental United States. Where Federal excise taxes are to be collected, it is important that local prevailing fair market prices be determined exclusive of these taxes in order to avoid double assessment.

By order of the Secretary of the Air Force.

LUCIAN M. FERGUSON,
Colonel, U.S. Air Force, Chief, Special Activities Group, Office of The Judge Advocate General.

SUBCHAPTER C—PUBLIC RELATIONS

PART 838—GRANTING TEMPORARY USE OF REAL PROPERTY

Subchapter C of Chapter VII of Title 32 of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended as follows:

A new Part 838 is added as follows:

Sec.
838.1 Purpose.
838.2 Definitions.
838.3 Policy on temporary use of real property.
838.4 Air Force authority.

AUTHORITY: The provisions of this Part 838 issued under sec. 8012, 70A Stat. 488; 10 U.S.C. 8012.

SOURCE: AFR 87-3, Sept. 28, 1960; Change 1, Mar. 27, 1967.

§ 838.1 Purpose.

This part fixes responsibility and establishes authority and policy, for granting temporary use of Air Force real property (hereinafter referred to as outgrant). It applies to all real property (except industrial property) and interests therein under the jurisdiction and control of the Department of the Air Force (hereafter referred to as Air Force real property).

§ 838.2 Definitions.

(a) Real property. Real property includes any right, title, or interest in land and buildings, fixed improvements, utilities, and other permanent type additions to land.

(b) Lease. A conveyance of an exclusive possessory interest in real property for a specified term, reserving to the owner rent or other consideration.

(c) Easement. A conveyance of an interest in real property for a specific purpose. It may be granted for a specified term or in perpetuity. The purposes for which the Air Force may grant easements affecting its property generally are limited by law. This limitation, plus the fact that the grantor is not excluded from such use of his real property as will not interfere with the grantee's use, distinguishes the easement from the lease.

(d) License or permit. A privilege, revocable at will, to use the property of the licensor for a specified purpose and period of time. Generally, a permit is the proper instrument when the use of real property by another Federal Government agency is involved; in other cases a license is used.

(e) Outgrants. Includes leases, licenses, permits, easements, and grants of a similar nature.

(f) Outlease. The instrument leasing Government-owned real property.

(g) Sublease. A grant by a lessee of all or a part of his leasehold to another by lease.

§ 838.3 Policy on temporary use of real property.

(a) Retention. Real property which the Air Force does not currently need but which is retained for future use (such use does not prevent its outleasing for certain purposes) will be made available for use either exclusively or concurrently with the Air Force by another military department, other Federal agencies, State or local governmental agencies, and private organizations or individuals. Law, security, public safety, and potential Air Force need will govern the extent of such use. This policy does not apply to Air Force-owned utility systems and facilities.

(b) Preference. Air Force real property made available for other than Air Force use will be outgranted (on a nonsegregated basis) in the following order:

(1) Other military departments.

(2) Other Federal agencies.

(3) State and local governmental agencies.

(4) Private organizations or individuals.

(c) Competition. The use of Air Force real property for private purposes will be granted only after reasonable efforts have been made to obtain competitive bidding through advertising for its use. Advertising may include circulating notices among former owners, owners of adjacent property, and others known to be interested, posting notices in public places, or publishing notices in newspapers and trade journals. Competitive bidding will give all qualified persons equal opportunity to bid for use of the property, obtain for the Government the benefits of such bidding, and prevent criticism that favoritism has been shown by officers or Government employees in making public property available for private use. Normally, the Corps of Engineers will handle this advertising. Waiver of competition is granted for the following actions:

(1) Leasing property to the former owners, or their lessees, at the discretion of the Secretary of the Air Force or a duly authorized representative. Former owners or their tenants will be given an opportunity to lease the land for grazing or agriculture only until a final land management plan for the Government's use of the land is established (see par. 13, AFR 90–1 (Pavements and Grounds)). Pending establishment of this plan, the outlease for grazing or agriculture may be granted by negotiation to each former owner or the tenants for a maximum of one 5-year term. After expiration of this original outlease, leases are granted by competitive bidding.

(2) Granting leases, easements, and licenses to State or local governments, and public utilities.

(3) Granting permits to other Federal agencies.

(4) Leasing cable pairs.

(5) Outleasing Air Force property to religious organizations.

(d) Commercial advertising. Posting notices or erecting billboards or signs for commercial purposes on Air Force property is prohibited.

(e) Grants which may embarrass the Air Force. Unless specifically authorized by law, the Air Force will not authorize occupancy of its property by license or lease where revocation of the license or lease might prove embarrassing to the Air Force.

(f) Public safety. Lands or buildings and improvements which are contaminated with explosives or toxic materials, or other innately or potentially harmful elements, will not be used for nonmilitary purposes when such action will endanger the lives of individuals or the public.

(g) Subleasing. Air Force outleased property will not be subleased without prior approval of the Air Force. This approval may be granted by the echelon of command approving the original lease. All outleases will contain a clause to provide for the enforcement of this policy.

(h) Outleasing land for agricultural use. Air Force real property will not be leased to grow price-supported crops in surplus supply unless:

(1) Leases were executed before July 21, 1956, and all renewal option periods have not yet expired.

(2) The acquisition of real property resulted in commitments which obligated the Air Force to make the property available for continued use by the former owners or tenants, and the preferential leasing arrangements have been continuous and are in effect. This exception will automatically cease when all renewal options expire. In those cases where leases expire before harvesting time for crops, the owner or tenant will be given a reasonable period of time for such harvesting.

(3) Requests for exceptions to the above will be submitted to Hq USAF (AFOCE–F) to obtain necessary approvals.

NOTE: Department of Agriculture designated price-supporting crops in surplus supply are corn, grain sorghums, rice, wheat, peanuts, dry edible beans, tobacco (kinds for which acreage allotments are in effect), and cotton (upland and extra long staple). Amendments to this list will be announced by the Department of Agriculture through the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Properties and Installations).

(i) Making Air Force real property available for exploration and mining of minerals. The Secretary of the Air Force may grant licenses to private interests permitting mineral exploration on Air Force land except public domain in accordance with his authority. Such exploration will be permitted when it is of direct benefit to the United States and does not interfere with the mission of the installation. Enabling legislation must be enacted to authorize the Secretary of the Air Force to permit the mining of minerals on Air Force land.

(j) Fair market value. It is Bureau of the Budget policy that fair market value should be realized from the sale or use of Federally owned real property. Therefore, in all outleasing actions, except where otherwise specifically authorized, the Air Force must receive adequate consideration, in either money or services, equal to the fair rental value of the real property outleased.

(k) Land management. After the agronomist or grounds maintenance supervisor has determined the land management program for an installation, maintenance may be accomplished through outleasing where value of use of the land exceeds value of services rendered. If value of services desired exceeds value of revenue to be derived from the land, then grounds maintenance should be accomplished under a competitive grounds maintenance contract (reference AFR 90–1). These values will be determined by the District Engineer, Corps of Engineers.

§ 838.4 Air Force authority.

The Secretary of Air Force has authority for granting temporary use of real property as follows:

(a) Lease authority. When it is considered advantageous to the United States to lease real or personal property which is not then required for public use and is not excess to the Air Force and on terms and conditions that will promote the national defense or will be in the public interest.

(1) Term. Each such lease shall be for not more than 5 years unless the Secretary of the Air Force determines that a longer period will promote the national defense or will be in the public interest.

(2) Revocation. Each such lease shall contain a provision permitting the Secretary of the Air Force to revoke the lease at any time, unless it is determined that the omission of such provision from the lease will promote the national defense or will be in the public interest. (3) Consideration. Any such lease may provide for the maintenance, protection, repair, or restoration by the lessee of the property leased, or of the entire unit or installation where a substantial part thereof is leased, as a part or all of the consideration for the lease of such property. Consideration for leases will provide for fair market rental value.

(4) Utilities and services. If the lease specifies that the Air Force will furnish utilities or services, payments for the utilities or services may be deposited into the Treasury to the credit of the appropriations from which the costs of furnishing such utilities or services to the lessee were paid. (5) Restriction against leasing for mineral purposes. The authority granted in this section does not extend to leasing lands for exploiting oil, minerals, or phosphates. It does not prohibit leasing lands that may contain oil, minerals, or phosphates, provided that such substances are not used or removed.

(6) Taxation. The lessee's interest, made or created pursuant to the authority granted, shall be subject to State or local taxation. Any such lease will provide that the lease will be renegotiated, if and to the extent that such property is made taxable by State and local governments by Act of Congress.

(7) Capehart housing leases. When the Secretary of the Air Force determines that it is necessary to lease any land held by the U.S. on or near a military installation to effectuate the purposes of this title, he may lease such land on such terms and conditions as will, in his opinion, best serve the national interest. This authority shall be in addition to and not in derogation of any other power or authority of the Secretary of the Air Force.

(b) Easement—(1) Authority for rights-of-way. (i) To grant easements for rights-of-way over, in, and on public lands permanently withdrawn or reserved for the use of that department, and other lands under his control, to a State, Territory, Commonwealth, possession, or political subdivision thereof, or to a citizen, association, partnership, or corporation of a State, Commonwealth, or possession, for:

(iii) To grant easements for rights-of-way, for a period of not more than 50 years from the date of the issuance of the grant, over, across, and on the public lands and reservations of the U.S. for electrical poles and lines for the transmission and distribution of electrical power, poles and lines for communication purposes, and for radio, television, and other forms of communication transmitting, relay, and receiving structures and facilities to the extent of 200 feet on each side of the center line of such lines and poles, and not more than 400 feet by 400 feet for radio, television, and other forms of communication transmitting, relay, and receiving structures and facilities to any citizen, association, or corporation of the United States.

(iv) To grant authority to allow the landing of ferries and erection of bridges on, and the driving of livestock across military reservations.

(c) License—(1) General authority for grants under administrative power. The Secretary of the Air Force, by revocable license, may permit the use of real estate, provided that the property is not then required by the Air Force, the license conveys no interest therein, and the proposed use will be of direct benefit to the United States. This authority is not to be invoked if an express statutory authority grants the permission desired.

(2) Express statutory authority—(i) American National Red Cross. The Secretary of the Air Force is authorized to grant revocable licenses to the American National Red Cross to erect and maintain on military reservation buildings which are suitable for storing supplies to aid the civilian population in serious national disaster, or to occupy for that purpose buildings erected by the United States.

(ii) Young Men's Christian Association. The Secretary of the Air Force is authorized under conditions prescribed to issue a revocable license to the International Committee of Young Men's Christian Association of North America to erect and maintain on military reservations within the United States, its Commonwealths and possessions buildings needed by that organization to promote social, physical, intellectual, and moral welfare of Air Force personnel on those reservations.

(iii) Post offices. The Secretary of the Air Force shall assign suitable space for postal purposes at each air base where there is a post office.

(iv) National Guard. The Secretary of the Air Force is authorized to permit the National Guard to participate in encampments, maneuvers, and outdoor target practice for field or coast defense instruction. This includes authority to grant revocable licenses to States for the temporary use and occupancy of military reservations or portions thereof by the Air National Guard. The States may not assign or sublet the property, or use the property for other than National Guard purposes. A license may not be granted to erect a permanent National Guard Armory on military reservations without specific Congressional authority.

(v) Civil Air Patrol. The Secretary of the Air Force may grant licenses to the Civil Air Patrol to use Air Force facilities.

(d) Permits to other Federal agencies—(1) Authority. The Secretary of the Air Force, under administrative powers, may authorize other Federal Government agencies to use Air Force property by permit.

(2) Consideration. Consideration will not be reserved in instruments authorizing other Federal Government agencies to use Government-owned property under the control of the Air Force. The permittee may be required to reimburse the Air Force for utilities and services furnished by the Air Force, and, if required, reimburse the Air Force for its proportionate share of the rental paid by the Air Force. (See AFRs 91–5 and 172–3 (Utility Services and Host-Tenant Relationships, respectively).)

(e) Grants requiring enabling legislation. Except as indicated in this part, enabling legislation must be enacted to authorize the Secretary of the Air Force to grant an interest in real estate for the purpose of:

(2) Drilling oil and gas wells, or selling oil or other minerals.

By order of the Secretary of the Air Force.

AUTHORITY: The provisions of this Part 742 issued under 5 U.S.C. 301, 39 U.S.C. 501, Executive Order 11222 of May 8, 1965 (30 F.R. 6469, 3 CFR, 1965 Supp.) 5 CFR 735.104.

Subpart A—Basic Philosophy

§ 742.735–11 General.

Postal employees have, over the years, established a fine tradition of faithful service to the Nation, unsurpassed by any other group. Each employee should take great pride in this tradition of dedicated service. Each of us must strive to make his contribution worthwhile in the continued movement of the Postal Service toward future progress in the public interest.

§ 742.735–12 Purpose.

This statement of ethical conduct is provided to instruct and to guide those employees entering the Service for the first time, and also as a reminder to all employees of the conduct required and expected of them in carrying out their official duties.

§ 742.735–13 Applicability.

All postal personnel must act with unwavering integrity and complete devotion to the public interest. Postal personnel are expected to maintain the highest moral principles, and to uphold the laws of the United States and the regulations and policies of the Post Office Department. Not only is ethical conduct required, but officials and employees must be alert to avoid actions which would appear to prevent fulfillment of postal obligations. Assigned duties must be discharged conscientiously and effectively. The Postal Service has the unique privilege of having daily contact with the majority of the citizens of the Nation, and is in many instances their most direct contact with the Federal Government. Thus, there is an especial opportunity and responsibility for each postal employee to act with honor and integrity worthy of the public trust, thereby reflecting credit and distinction on the Postal Service, and on the entire Federal Government.

Subpart B—Basic Standards of Ethical Conduct

§ 742.735–21 Introduction.

This part governs the ethical conduct of all postal employees.

§ 742.735–22 Code of ethics.

The Congress has expressed the standards of conduct expected of all Government employees in a Code of Ethics as follows: (H. Con. Res. 175, 85th Cong., 2d sess., 72 Stat. B12).

1. Put loyalty to the highest moral principles and to country above loyalty to persons, party, or Government department.
2. Uphold the Constitution, laws, and legal regulations of the United States and of all governments therein and never be a party to their evasion.
3. Give a full day's labor for a full day's pay; giving to the performance of his duties his earnest effort and best thought.
4. Seek to find and employ more efficient and economical ways of getting tasks accomplished.
5. Never discriminate unfairly by the dispensing of special favors or privileges to anyone, whether for remuneration or not; and never accept, for himself or his family, favors or benefits under circumstances which might be construed by reasonable persons as influencing the performance of his governmental duties.
6. Make no private promises of any kind binding upon the duties of office, since a Government employee has no private word which can be binding on public duty.
7. Engage in no business with the Government, either directly or indirectly, which is inconsistent with the conscientious performance of his governmental duties.
8. Never use any information coming to him confidentially in the performance of governmental duties as a means for making private profit.
9. Expose corruption wherever discovered.
10. Uphold these principles, ever conscious that public office is a public trust.

§ 742.735–23 Standards of conduct.

The President has also prescribed standards of conduct for all Government employees in Executive Order 11222 of May 8, 1965, 30 F.R. 6469. Pursuant to that Executive order and Civil Service Commission regulations thereunder, 32 F.R. 8281, June 9, 1967, the Postmaster General has issued the regulations in this part to govern the conduct of all employees of the Department, including special Government employees.

§ 742.735–24 Definitions, and applicability to members of the uniformed services and other Government employees on detail to the Department.

(a) Following are definitions as used in this part:

(1) Department. Headquarters and all postal installations and facilities (unless otherwise indicated).

(2) Employee. An officer or employee of the Department. This does not include a special Government employee (other than a substitute or temporary appointee in the Postal Field Service) or a member of the Uniformed Services.

(3) Executive order. Executive Order 11222 of May 8, 1965.

(4) Ethical Conduct Counselor. The person designated by the Postmaster General to carry out the responsibilities of Ethical Conduct Counselor as required by the Executive order, and implementing regulations thereto, issued by the Civil Service Commission.

(5) Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselor. Those persons designated by the Postmaster General to assist the Ethical Conduct Counselor.

(6) Person. An individual, a corporation, a company, an association, a firm, a partnership, a society, a joint stock company, or any other organization or institution.

(7) Special Government employee. An officer or employee or a member of any committee appointed by the Postmaster General who is retained, designated, appointed, or employed to perform temporary duties either on a full-time or intermittent basis, with or without compensation, for not to exceed 130 days during any period of 365 consecutive days.

(8) Official responsibility. Direct administrative or operating authority, whether intermediate or final and either exercisable alone or with others, and either personally or through subordinates, to approve, disapprove, or otherwise direct Government action.

(9) Substantial or substantially. Used in the regulations in this section in the same sense as in 18 U.S.C. 208(b). This interest is incapable of absolute definition; determination as to such interest will be made on an individual case basis in light of the facts and circumstances in each individual case.

(b) The regulations in this part are not applicable to Members of the Uniformed Services and other Government employees on detail to the Department even though they are assigned to the Department for duty. They are, however, required to furnish a statement of employment and financial interest if they are performing duties of a position specified in § 742.735–82. However, a member of the Uniformed Services or other Government employee on detail to the Department is not relieved of his responsibilities under regulations or code of ethics prescribed by his respective department.

§ 742.735–25 Gifts, entertainment, favors and proscribed actions.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, an employee shall not solicit or accept, directly or indirectly, any gift, gratuity, favor, entertainment, loan, or any other thing of monetary value, from a person who:

(1) Has or is seeking to obtain, contractual or other business or financial relations with the Department;

(2) Conducts operations or activities that are regulated by the Department; or

(3) Has interests that may be substantially affected by the performance or nonperformance of his official duty.

(b) Paragraph (a) of this section does not:

(1) Govern obvious family or personal relationships (such as those between the parents, children, or spouse of the employee, and the employee) when the circumstances make it clear that it is those relationships rather than the business of the persons concerned which are the motivating factors;

(2) Prohibit acceptance of food and refreshments of nominal value on infrequent occasions in the ordinary course of a luncheon or dinner meeting or other meeting or on an inspection tour when an employee may properly be in attendance;

(3) Prohibit acceptance of loans from banks or other financial institutions on customary terms to finance proper and usual activities of employees, such as home mortgage loans;

(4) Prohibit acceptance of unsolicited advertising or promotional material such as pens, pencils, note pads, calendars, and other items of nominal intrinsic value.

(5) Prohibit an employee from receipt of bona fide reimbursement, unless prohibited by law, for expenses for travel and such other necessary subsistence as is compatible with this part for which no Government payment or reimbursement is made. However, an employee may not be reimbursed, or payment may not be made on his behalf, for excessive personal living expenses, gifts, entertainment or other personal benefits, nor may an employee be reimbursed by a person for travel on official business under Department orders when reimbursement is proscribed. When an employee travels on official business he should use commercial transportation at Government expense and he should not accept free transportation from a private party. In the event there is no commercial transportation which will enable him to arrive at destination in time for the performance of his duties, he may accept private transportation provided the private party is reimbursed therefor at the standard commercial rate. This subparagraph also applies to § 742.735–27(b)(1).

(6) Prohibit acceptance of invitations for inaugural flights (air, surface, or water) providing the invitation is addressed to the Department and the employee first obtains authorization from the Ethical Conduct Counselor. The request for authorization shall describe the nature of the trip, the length and time duration. The employee should also advise whether the invitation includes parties, gifts or other considerations.

(7) Prohibit the acceptance and use of courtesy discount cards from department stores or other organizations if such discount cards are offered to all employees at the postal facility concerned.

(c) An employee shall avoid any action, whether or not specifically prohibited by this Part 742 which might result in, or create the appearance of:

(1) Using public office for private gain;

(2) Giving preferential treatment to any person;

(3) Impeding Government efficiency or economy;

(4) Losing complete independence or impartiality;

(5) Making a Government decision outside official channels; or

(6) Affecting adversely the confidence of the public in the integrity of the Government.

(d) An employee shall not solicit contributions from another employee for a gift to an employee in a superior official position, make a donation as a gift to an official superior, or accept a gift from an employee receiving less pay than himself (5 U.S.C. 7351). However, this section does not prohibit a voluntary gift of nominal value or donation in a nominal amount made on a special occasion such as marriage, illness, or retirement.

(e) An employee shall not accept a gift, present, decoration, or anything from a foreign government unless authorized in accordance with the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act of 1966 (P.L. 89–673, 80 Stat. 952). However, an employee may accept a nominal gift from a visiting foreign dignitary if the gift is from the visiting dignitary in his personal capacity as distinguished from a gift from and on behalf of the foreign country.

(f) Employees shall not issue addresses, complimentary tickets, prints, publications, or any substitute therefor intended or calculated to induce the public to make them gifts or presents.

§ 742.735–26 Conflicts of interest.

(a) Outside employment and other activities. (1) Subject to the regulations in this part, employees may engage in private outside employment with or without compensation. An employee shall not engage in outside employment or other outside activity not compatible with the full and proper discharge of the duties and responsibilities of his Government employment or otherwise prohibited by law. Incompatible activities include, but are not limited to:

(i) Acceptance of a fee, compensation, gift, payment of expense, or any other thing of monetary value in circumstances in which acceptance may result in, or create the appearance of, conflicts of interest; or

(ii) Outside employment which tends to impair his mental or physical capacity to perform his Government duties and responsibilities in an acceptable manner.

(2) An employee shall not receive any salary or anything of monetary value from a private source as compensation for his services to the Government (18 U.S.C. 209).

(3) Employees are prohibited from manufacturing or representing a manufacturer of any product, material or device manufactured or produced for exclusive use in the Department, or required by the Department for patrons of the Department. Employees shall not accept or continue in any outside business, vocation or activity, that will reflect discredit upon the Department, or in which their employent in the Department will give them an advantage over others not in the Department engaged in a similar business, vocation or activity. In determining whether such employment is inconsistent with a postal position, such factors as proper performance on the job, using information obtained in an official capacity for personal benefit or gain, opportunity for collusion between employees and contractors or postal patrons, shall be given due consideration. When a doubt exists as to whether a possible personal interest may be in conflict with postal activities, the situation should be discussed with the Ethical Conduct Counselor or Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselor, as appropriate by the bureau or installation head for determination as to whether or not the employee should function in a given situation.

(4) An employee shall not engage in outside employment under a State or local government, except in accordance with paragraph (c)(1)(vii) of this section, and section 744.34 of the Postal Manual.

(5) Employees are encouraged to engage in teaching, lecturing, and writing that is not prohibited by law, the Executive order, or this part. However, an employee shall not, either for or without compensation, engage in teaching, lecturing, or writing that is dependent on information obtained as a result of his Government employment, except when that information has been made available to the general public or will be made available on request, or when the Postmaster General gives written authorization for the use of nonpublic information on the basis that the use is in the public interest.

(6) If an employee takes sick leave and it is found that he did so to enable him to engage in outside work, such action is a violation of this Code of Ethics.

(7) Postal employees, including management officials, may not be employed as messengers, collectors, or agents for private business firms engaged in mail delivery service, if such employment requires them to conduct postal business with the unit or section of the post office where they work, such as delivery of bulk mail to the weighers unit if their post office assignment is to that unit; transact business involving advance deposits, postage due, setting of meters, etc., if post office assignment is to the Main Office Window Service; or in any way to conduct postal business with postal employees occupying duty assignments identical to their own post office assignment. This does not prevent such employment with this type of firm if the business is conducted with a post office or within the delivery area of a post office other than the one where the postal employee works: Provided: No employee will allow such outside work to interfere in any manner whatsoever with his assigned work schedule or his efficiency as a postal employee; employee does not represent himself in any way as a postal employee while transacting private business to gain an advantage; and employee does not perform such private business while attired in an official postal uniform.

(8) Employees may not work for any person or entity with whom he has official dealings on behalf of the Department. For instance, postmasters should not be employed by banks in which postal funds of his office are deposited.

(9) Employees may not engage in tax work involving Federal taxes if such work extends beyond the mere preparation of the tax return or furnishing information to Internal Revenue Service obtained solely from the records of the taxpayer. An employee may not become involved in advocating the taxpayer's position.

(10) Neither an employee, who has an outside law practice, nor his partner nor firm is permitted to represent any client in a matter in which the United States is a party or has a direct and substantial interest, except as may otherwise be authorized by law or regulation.

(11) Generally, vehicle maintenance contracts will not be had with postal employees or members of their immediate household, which would service the office where they are employed. However, if there are no other commercial facilities available within a reasonable proximity to the postal facility, the contracting officer may solicit bids or quotations for such service from those employees or members of their immediate household with the prior approval of the Ethical Conduct Counselor.

(12) Employees may not enter into lease agreements or contracts giving the Department an option to purchase real property except as provided in this subparagraph:

(i) Site options: Regional contracting officers will not accept assignable options from postal employees for the control or purchase of land to be used for construction of a postal facility when the net interior square footage of the building will exceed 3,000 square feet. If, however, it is the opinion of the Regional contracting officer that acceptance would be in the best interest of the Government the agreement together with recommendation, should be submitted to Headquarters for consideration. The recommendation must contain information regarding the length of time the postal employee controlled the site, the type of interest and the cost of the site to the employee and any reason why the particular site should be used.

(ii) New construction agreements: Regional contracting officers will not enter into a new lease or rental contract with any postal employee to provide for a building and related facilities to be occupied as a first or second-class office, including any sub-location thereof, except for improvements and/or modifications directed by the Department to buildings under lease or rent from postal employees at the time the improvements and/or modifications are directed. Regional contracting officers will not enter into a new lease or rental contract with any postal employee to provide for a building and related facilities to be occupied as a third-class office where the net interior square footage of the building exceeds 3,000 square feet.

(iii) Any proposed renewal or extension of an expiring occupancy contract, regardless of class of office, where the lessor is a postal employee and the net interior square footage of the building exceeds 3,000 square feet must be forwarded to the Director, Realty Division, Bureau of Facilities, for prior approval. The Chief, Real Estate Branch, shall forward the project file, properly documented to show that continued occupancy of the existing facility is in the best interest of the Government with his comments as to any known possible conflicts of interest that may exist and his recommendation with regard to continued occupancy. The file shall be forwarded a minimum of thirty (30) calendar days prior to the date the renewal option must be exercised or the date the lease extension agreement would be effective providing acceptance is in order.

(13) Postal employees and members of their immediate household, as defined in § 742.735–28(a), are prohibited from engaging in any business enterprise which involves the sale of U.S. postage stamps in vending machines or otherwise, when the cost of such stamps to the purchaser exceeds the face value of the stamps for any reason whatsoever. See section 1721 of Title 18, United States Code. However, postal employees are not barred from bona fide philatelic transactions provided that they have not obtained any advantage by virtue of their postal employment over others not so employed.

(14) Employees may not act as consultant to any contractor who presently has or intends to obtain a contract with this Department.

(15) Postmasters may not serve in any capacity whatsoever with a bank in which postal funds of his office are deposited. A postmaster may hold stock in such a bank if his holdings are de minimus, that is to say, that the amount of his stock holdings in such bank would not create a conflict or appearance of conflict with his official position.

(b) Employment after separation. (1) A former employee is permanently prohibited from acting as agent or attorney for anyone other than the United States in any particular matter, involving a specific party or parties, in which the United States is a party or has a direct and substantial interest, if he participated personally and substantially in the handling of such matter during his postal employment.

(2) A former employee is barred for 1 year after his employment has ceased from appearing personally as agent or attorney for anyone other than the United States in connection with any particular matter involving a specific party or parties, in which the United States is a party or has a direct and substantial interest if such matter was within his official responsibility within a period of 1 year prior to the termination of such responsibility.

(3) Subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph do not preclude a former employee from pursuing a private, personal claim against the Government for damages to his private property resulting from Government action or failure to act; moneys owned as a result of his employment or service performed, or other matters of a similar nature.

(4) Unless otherwise prohibited by subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, a former employee may act as counsel or as a representative of an employee member in grievance or adverse action cases before the Department or the Civil Service Commission.

(5) Notwithstanding subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, when a particular matter involved is in a scientific or technical field and if the Postmaster General certifies in writing that it is in the national interest and the certification is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, a former officer or employee, including a former special Government employee, with outstanding scientific or technical qualifications may act as attorney or agent or appear personally.

(c) Political activity. Postal employees are governed by the proscriptions against political activity in Subchapter III of Chapter 73 of Title 5, United States Code, as amended; by the Federal Corrupt Practices Act of February 28, 1925, as amended; and by U.S. Civil Service Commission rules.

(1) Permitted political activities—(i) Voting. All officials and employees are encouraged to register and to vote as they may choose in all local, State and national elections. (See 721 of the Postal Manual on leave for voting.)

(ii) Expression of opinions. The right to express political opinions is reserved to all postal officials and employees except as stated in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(iii) Political contributions. It is lawful for officials and employees to make voluntary contributions not in excess of $5,000 in the aggregate during any calendar year, to regularly constituted political organizations, provided such contributions are not made in a Federal building. However, officials and employees of the United States shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit, receive, or in any manner be concerned in soliciting or receiving, any assessment, subscription or contribution for any political purpose whatever, from any other such officer, employee or person; nor shall any officer or employee discharge, promote, or degrade, or in any manner change the official rank or compensation of any other officer or employee, or promise or threaten to do so, for giving or withholding or neglecting to make any contribution of money or other valuable thing for any political purpose.

(iv) Attendance at public and political meetings. Employees may join a political club or party. (See 837.1 of the Postal Manual for list of organizations in which membership is not considered consistent with the interest of the national security.) They may attend political and public gatherings and listen to political speeches. However, they may not serve as officers of, or organizers of, or preside over such gatherings.

(v) Political pictures. Any employee may display a political picture in his home, if he so desires. He may also display personally autographed pictures in his office providing it bears no language in the nature of campaigning.

(vi) Badges, buttons, and stickers. Employees may wear a political badge or button when not in uniform, not on duty, and during the time his duties do not require him to deal with the public or be in public view. Except when an employee's private vehicle is being used for official postal purposes (including lunch time) and it is not forbidden by local ordinance, he may display political stickers thereon.

(vii) Holding of state or local office. Employees are generally prohibited from accepting or holding any office, whether appointive or elective, under any State or local government or under the charter or ordinance of any municipal corporation. However, Part 734 of the Civil Service Regulations (5 CFR Part 734) allows employees to hold such offices under certain conditions if the prior approval of the Department is obtained. Use Form 1701, "Request to Hold State or Local Office" and Form 1702 "Reply to Request to Hold State or Local Office." See § 742.735–26(a)(4) and section 744.34 of the Postal Manual.

(2) Campaigning forbidden. Employees may not take any active part in political management or in political campaigns. Expression of opinion on political subjects is permitted so long as it does not take the form of active participation in a campaign or party management. Employees may participate in nonpartisan local campaigns in which party designation, nomination and sponsorship are completely absent. Certain presidential appointees, including heads and assistant heads of departments and those appointed with Senate confirmation who determine national policy, are exempt from the political activity restrictions prohibiting active participation in political management or in political campaigns (see 5 U.S.C. 7324(d)).

(3) Political interference. Officials and employees serving in administrative positions in the Federal service are prohibited by law from use of official authority for the purpose of interfering with, or affecting the nomination or election of any candidate for the Office of President, Vice President, Presidential elector, Member of the Senate or House of Representatives, or Delegate or Resident Commissioner from any Territory or Possession (18 U.S.C. 595).

§ 742.735–27 Dealings with public.

(a) Giving endorsements. (1) An employee shall not, for or without compensation, give an endorsement to any business, enterprise, or product which may give rise to any inference or indication that such business, enterprise, or product is officially endorsed by this Department or the United States, without special permission from the Postmaster General.

(2) An employee shall not permit his postal title to be used on any letterhead, advertisement, etc. by any entity unless specifically authorized by the Ethical Conduct Counselor.

(b) Permitted activities. Employees are not precluded from:

(1) Receipt of bona fide reimbursement, unless prohibited by law, for expenses for travel and such other necessary subsistence as is compatible with this part for which no Government payment or reimbursement is made. However, an employee may not be reimbursed, or payment may not be made on his behalf, for excessive personal living expenses, gifts, entertainment or other personal benefits, nor may an employee be reimbursed by a person for travel on official business under Department orders when reimbursement is proscribed. When an employee travels on official business he should use commercial transportation at Government expense and he should not accept free transportation from a private party. In the event there is no commercial transportation which will enable him to arrive at destination in time for the performance of his duties, he may accept private transportation provided the private party is reimbursed therefor at the standard commercial rate.

(2) Participation in the activities of national or State political parties not proscribed by law. See § 742.735–26(c).

(3) Obtaining a patent for an invention providing he complies with Part 779, Postal Manual.

(4) Participation in the affairs of or acceptance of an award for a meritorious public contribution or achievement given by a charitable, religious, professional, social, fraternal, non-profit educational and recreational, public service, or civil organization, excluding participation in lotteries.

(5) Soliciting for fund raising drives for civic, religious, fraternal auxiliaries, clubs and kindred organizations so long as they do not solicit while on duty, or solicit while wearing their uniform or any insignia or badge or in any way identify themselves as postal employees, or solicit from patrons with whom they have recurring official contact, or use their postal position to influence collections. See section 741.73 of the Postal Manual and § 742.735–29(e) and (f).

§ 742.735–28 Employee organizations—convention budgets.

(a) An employee organization whose funds for a meeting or convention are raised within the organization, plus voluntary unsolicited contributions, need not report their convention budget.

(b) Where national, State, or large sectional conventions or meetings are held, the organization may raise funds outside the organization under the following procedures:

(1) Preparing budget. A representative or representatives of the employee organization involved shall prepare a proposed budget and shall:

(i) List proposed expenditures;

(ii) Show estimated revenue and the manner in which estimated revenue is to be raised;

(iii) If solicitation is to be made by a contract solicitor (see subparagraph (4)(iii) of this paragraph), the proposed budget shall have attached a copy of the contract between the employee organization involved and the solicitor.

(2) Submitting budget—(i) National level. The organization holding a national convention shall present a copy of the proposed budget for raising funds to the Assistant Postmaster General, Bureau of Personnel, who may discuss the proposed budget with a representative of the employee organization involved.

(ii) State or sectional level—(a) Postmaster organizations. The organization holding the State or sectional convention shall present a copy of the proposed budget for raising funds to the Regional Director, who may discuss the proposed budget with a representative of the organization involved.

(b) Other organizations. An employee organization holding a State or sectional convention or meeting shall submit the budget to a committee composed of the postmaster at the city where the meeting or convention will be held, a representative of the local civic group, if any, interested in securing the meeting or convention and a member selected by the employee organization sponsoring the meeting.

(3) Duties of committee members. This Committee shall:

(i) Examine the proposed budget and the manner in which the contemplated revenue is to be raised;

(ii) In the event the employee organization employs a contract solicitor (see subparagraph (4)(iii) of this paragraph), to raise funds, review the contract between the employee organization involved and the contract solicitor to insure compliance with subparagraph (4)(iii) of this paragraph.

(iii) If all terms of subparagraph (4)(iii) of this paragraph have been complied with, each member shall sign the proposed budget.

(iv) If a contract solicitor is used, the postmaster shall send a copy of the approved budget to the Regional Director who may discuss with the regional representative of the particular organization the terms of the budget or contract.

(4) Duties of sponsoring employee organization—(i) National level. Within sixty (60) days after the close of the national convention, the national organization shall submit to the Assistant Postmaster General, Bureau of Personnel, a report of funds raised by the contract solicitation and how it was expended, including commissions paid to the solicitor.

(ii) State or sectional level—(a) Postmaster organizations. Within sixty (60) days after the close of the State or sectional convention, the organization shall submit to the Regional Director a report of the funds raised by the contract solicitation and how it was expended, including commissions paid to the solicitor.

(b) Other organization. Within sixty (60) days after the close of the convention or meeting a sponsoring employee organization at a State or sectional level shall prepare a statement in quadruplicate showing the amount of money raised by the contract solicitor, how the money was expended and the amount of commission paid such solicitor. The original of this statement shall be made a part of the records of the post office in the city where the convention or meeting was held; a copy shall be sent to the civic organization, if any, a copy shall be sent to the Regional Director, and a copy shall be retained by the employee organization involved.

(c) Contract solicitors. (1) If contract solicitors are used, they must be employed by or represent a reputable firm.

(2) Before any solicitations may be made, a contract with the appropriate national, State, sectional, or local organization shall be signed specifying the amount of the commission, the maximum amount to be solicited, the number and names of the solicitors, the geographical area in which the solicitations will be made, a starting date and a termination date of the solicitation. The contract signed with and by a company employing, or represented by a solicitor must contain a provision that the files, records, and accounts relating to the solicitations and expenditures be made available for examination by an authorized post office official and/or the employee organization representative involved on demand. Either the postal officials or the employee organization representative shall notify the other of a proposed examination.

(3) A copy of the contract shall be filed with the postmaster in the city in which the convention or meeting is to be held.

(4) Contract solicitors shall be required to carry identification and shall show such identification when soliciting to indicate that they are duly authorized to solicit funds for the specific organization and to accept such funds. The authorization shall also include a definite statement that the contract solicitor is not acting as a postal employee, or a member of the specific employee organization, but is employed by the firm holding a contract with the specific employee organization.

§ 742.735–29 Other conduct by employee.

(a) Financial interests. (1) An employee shall not: (i) Have a direct or indirect financial interest that conflicts substantially with his Government duties and responsibilities; or appears to conflict substantially with his Government duties and responsibilities.

(ii) Engage, directly or indirectly, in a financial transaction as a result of, or primarily relying on, information obtained through his Government employment.

(2) This paragraph does not preclude an employee from having a financial interest or engaging in financial transactions to the same extent as a private citizen not employed by the Government so long as it is not prohibited by law, the Executive order or this part.

(3) An employee may not participate personally and substantially in his official capacity in any particular matter in which his immediate family, partner, or organization with which he is connected by a present or prospective employment service has a financial interest unless he advises his installation head of all its aspects, makes full disclosure, and receives, in advance, a written determination of the installation head concurred in by the Ethical Conduct Counselor or Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselor, as appropriate, or unless there is specific exemption established by general rule or regulation published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, and in either case the financial interest is remote or inconsequential. The advance written determination when granted and the exception by general rule or regulation constitute exceptions to 18 U.S.C. 208(a). However, with the approval of the installation head, he may act as agent or attorney for his immediate family, or organization he is serving as personal fiduciary provided he has not participated personally and substantially in the matters involved and such matters are not subject to his official responsibility.

(4) The Postmaster General; the Deputy Postmaster General; the General Counsel; the Deputy General Counsel; the Assistant Postmaster General, Deputy Assistant Postmaster General, Division Directors, Deputy Division Directors and Assistant Directors of the Bureau of Transportation and International Services; Regional Directors; Deputy Regional Directors; employees in the Office of the Director of Transportation (Regional) who have authority to recommend or determine routing of mail, service changes, mode of transportation to be utilized, or contracting authority in the transportation of mail; and Postal Service Officers are prohibited from having any financial interest or being employed by any entity which carries or may carry mail (i.e., airline, railroad, bus and surface transportation). Divestment of financial interest must be accomplished within 90 days. Resignation or termination of employment with such entities must be accomplished within 30 days. The time to accomplish such divestment or resignation begins to run upon the effective date of this regulation or from the date of the notification letter directing divestment or resignation.

(5) The Postmaster General; the Deputy Postmaster General; the General Counsel; the Deputy General Counsel; the Assistant Postmaster General and Deputy Assistant Postmaster General, Bureau of Facilities; and employees in the Realty Division of the Bureau of Facilities, Regional Directors and Deputy Regional Directors and employees in the Real Estate Branches in Regional Offices, and engineers in the Engineering and Facilities Division of Regional Offices are prohibited from:

(i) Having any financial interest in any business entity which deals primarily in real estate of a nature in which the Department may have a known present or future interest.

(ii) Holding any position or office in a business as described in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph.

(iii) Self-employment in a business as described in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph.

(iv) Being a broker or acting as an agent for a business as described in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph. No postal employee shall participate on behalf of the Department in any real estate transaction in which this Department has an interest, in any manner whatsoever, unless such matter is within his official responsibility and specifically assigned to him by competent authority.

Notwithstanding this subparagraph, postal employees may own or participate in a real estate business which involves farmland, timberland, mineral rights, residential (including individual or multiple dwelling units), and vacation sites. However, if in the future, for whatever reason whatsoever, the Department expresses an interest in such property, the employee must disqualify himself from participating therein and so advise his Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselor.

(6) For purposes of this section, immediate family means spouse, minor child and other persons related to the employee by blood who are regular members of the employee's household.

(b) Use of Government property. An employee shall not directly or indirectly use, or allow the use of Government property of any kind, including property leased to the Government, for other than officially approved activities. An employee has a positive duty to protect and conserve Government property, including equipment, supplies, and other property entrusted or issued to him.

(c) Misuse of information. For the purpose of furthering a private interest, an employee shall not, except as provided in § 742.735–26(a)(5), directly or indirectly use, or allow the use of, official information obtained through or in connection with his Government employment which has not been made available to the general public.

(d) Indebtedness. (1) An employee shall pay each just financial obligation in a proper and timely manner, especially one imposed by law such as Federal, State, or local taxes. For the purpose of this section, a "just financial obligation" means one acknowledged by the employee or reduced to final judgment by a court, and "in a proper and timely manner" means in a manner which the Department determines does not, under the circumstances, reflect adversely on the Government as his employer. In the event of dispute between an employee and an alleged creditor, this section does not require the Department to determine the validity or amount of the disputed debt or to institute disciplinary proceedings.

(2) Employees shall not borrow money or contract debts which they have no reasonable prospect of being able to pay. They are expected to conduct themselves honorably, deal honestly with others, and meet their obligations promptly so that there will be no cause for embarrassment or criticism. The fact that the wages or salary of Government employees cannot be trusteed or garnisheed by legal process shall not be used by employees to avoid the payment of their just debts.

(3) The Internal Revenue Code of 1954 permits collection of delinquent income taxes from Federal employees by taking the amount owed from pay checks and by seizure of personal property. All employees are expected to cooperate fully with the representatives of the Internal Revenue Service seeking to effect collection of adjudicated or acknowledged income taxes from postal personnel.

(4) Payments made by the Post Office Department that are either erroneous at the time made or develop into overpayments (overdrawn leave) may be setoff from current salary of employees whether or not a charge has been raised against the accountable officer involved.

(5) Requests from other Federal agencies to which employees are indebted shall be forwarded to the regional controller. He, in consultation with the employee's installation head, shall attempt to work out an arrangement with the employee to make voluntary payment to the creditor-agency. When the employee does not agree that the alleged debt is just, the employee shall make his protest in writing over his signature. The written protest shall be sent to the Regional Director through the head of the employee's installation who will review the employee's letter of protest with the special assistant for employee relations, or other official designated by the Regional Director. After his review, the protest shall be sent to the creditor-agency for review and certification as to the validity of the debt before further action is taken. If confirmed and the employee fails to make satisfactory arrangements for restitution, the following procedure is required:

(i) If the debt is one for which a charge has been raised by the General Accounting Office against the Officer who certified the payment, a setoff shall be made against the employee's current salary.

(ii) If the debt is a claim by the Veterans Administration for payment of a loan, the placing of any stoppage on the retirement pay or the offsetting from any payments due a veteran or widow of a veteran is prohibited (Public Law 89–358, sec. 1826(b)), unless:

(a) Consent from the veteran or the widow of a veteran is received in writing; or

(b) Such liability and the amount thereof was determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a proceeding to which such a veteran or widow was a party.

(iii) If a request for assistance is received from the General Accounting Office or the Veterans Administration to collect an amount of this kind, do not attempt to secure payment direct from the employee. Forward the request to the appropriate regional controller who will take the necessary action.

(iv) In all other cases of employee's indebted to the United States, setoff cannot be made against the employee's current salary. Pay records shall be "flagged" for future consideration; i.e., setoff against the employee's final salary, his Civil Service retirement acount or, other amount due from the United States at the time of his separation from the Department.

(6) This Department is not expected to act as a collection agent, except as indicated in subparagraphs (3) and (5) (i) and (ii) of this paragraph. If an employee is being harassed by a creditor whose claim he believes to be unjust, he may notify his superior, in writing, so that the case may be made a matter of record in the installation.

(7) Failure to pay just financial obligations will be regarded as cause for disciplinary action. See Part 745 of the Postal Manual, Disciplinary Actions.

(e) Gambling, betting, and lotteries. (1) An employee shall not participate while on Government-owned or leased property or while on duty, in any gambling activity including, but not limited to, the operation of a gambling device, in conducting a lottery or pool, in a game for money or property, or in selling or purchasing a numbers slip or ticket. In addition, employees are prohibited from participation in the sale, directly or indirectly, of lottery tickets or tickets for other games of chance, whether on or off duty and whether on or off Government-owned or leased property. However, employees may purchase such tickets when off duty and off Government owned or leased property if the purchase is a bona fide purchase for the employee's personal use and there is no intention of resale or transfer, and is not in violation of State or local law. See section 1303 of Title 18, U.S. Code.

(2) This section, however, shall not preclude the activities names in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph if it is necessitated by an employee's law enforcement duties.

(f) Soliciting or canvassing. (1) Rural Carriers whether on or off duty shall not engage in any business that interferes with their official duties or that involves soliciting or canvassing. Neither shall they engage in businesses that, by reason of their official employment, will give them advantage over others not in the Postal Service who are engaged in a similar business (39 U.S. Code 3114).

(2) An employee may not engage in any sales activity, not related to his postal duties, while on duty, or while in uniform, or in the office where employed.

(g) Prohibition against instructing candidates for civil service examination. No employee of the Department shall, with or without compensation, directly or indirectly, instruct or be involved in any manner in the instruction of any person or class of persons in special preparation for examinations of the Civil Service Commission, and examinations for the Foreign Service of the Department of State, except as authorized by the Department. Such an act will be considered sufficient cause for removal from the service. See section 713.5 of the Postal Manual.

(h) Personal relations. (1) Employees having authority to appoint or designate the appointment of persons to positions within the Department, or to cause directly or indirectly a personnel action change, shall disqualify themselves in cases affecting members of their immediate families, person living in the same household on a regular basis, or any blood relative or relatives by marriage. These restrictions shall apply to all categories of employment whether career or noncareer, permanent or temporary.

(2) In such instances where the persons affected might otherwise be considered for the personnel action involved, a recommendation shall be forwarded to the next higher appointing or approving authority for decision, with a full disclosure of the relationship.

(i) Personal—(1) Use of intoxicating liquor. Employees shall not drink beer, wine, or other intoxicating liquor while on duty and shall at no time use intoxicants to excess. Employees must not drink intoxicating liquor in public places while in uniform. Any employee who becomes intoxicated while on duty or who is addicted to intemperance may be removed from the service.

(2) Use of narcotics. Addiction to narcotics is grounds for removal from the service.

(e) All employees and special Government employees performing the duties of any of the positions listed in this section for more than 90 days.

(f) Additions to, deletions from, and other amendments of the list of positions in this section may be authorized by the Ethical Conduct Counselor. When an additional position is so included, the incumbent thereof must be given actual written notice by the Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselor. When a position is deleted therefrom, the Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselor should advise the incumbent that he is no longer required to file a Confidential Statement of Employment and Financial Interests (Form 2417 or 2418). Statements previously filed by these employees will be treated in accordance with § 742.735–72(c). Amendments to this section shall be periodically published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(g) Employees occupying positions classified below GS–13 or below PFS–15 may not be required to file a Confidential Statement of Employment and Financial Interests without the specific prior approval of the Civil Service Commission and the Ethical Conduct Counselor. Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselors who believe that employees occupying positions below GS–13 or PFS–15 should be required to file a Confidential Statement of Employment and Financial Interests to protect the integrity of the Government and to avoid employee involvement in a possible conflict of interest situation shall initiate such request to the Ethical Conduct Counselor, including therein a full justification to support the recommendation to include such employee.

(h) An employee who believes his position has been improperly included under this Subpart E as one requiring the submission of a Confidential Statement of Employment and Financial Interests may seek review thereof under the Grievance Procedures in Part 746 of the Postal Manual.

§ 742.735–53 Required forms for confidential statement of employment and financial interests.

(a) For Government employees, Form 2417.

(b) For special Government employees, Form 2418.

§ 742.735–54 Exclusions.

(a) Employees in positions listed in § 742.735–52 (c) and (d) may be excluded from the reporting requirement when the Postmaster General determines that:

(1) The duties of a position are such that the likelihood of the incumbent's involvement in a conflict of interest situation is remote;

(2) The duties of a position are at such a level of responsibility that the submission of a statement of employment and financial interests is not necessary because of the degree of supervision and review over the incumbent or the inconsequential effect on the integrity of the Government.

(b) A statement of employment and financial interests is not required by this subpart from the Postmaster General. He is subject to separate reporting requirements under section 401 of Executive Order 11222.

Subpart F—Specific Provisions for Special Government Employees

§ 742.735–61 Special Government employees required to submit statements.

Except as provided in § 742.735–62, each special Government employee shall submit a statement of employment and financial interest which reports:

(a) All other employment; and

(b) The financial interests of the special Government employee which the Postmaster General determines are relevant in the light of the duties he is to perform.

§ 742.735–62 Exceptions.

The Postmaster General may waive the requirement in § 742.735–61 for the submission of a statement of employment and financial interests in the case of a special Government employee who is not a consultant or an expert when he finds that the duties of the position held by that special Government employee are of a nature and at such a level of responsibility that the submission of the statement by the incumbent is not necessary to protect the integrity of the Government. For the purpose of this section consultant and expert have the meanings given those terms by Chapter 304 of the Federal Personnel Manual, but do not include a physician, dentist, or allied medical specialist whose services are procured to provide care and service to patients.

§ 742.735–63 Time for submission of statements.

A statement of employment and financial interest required to be submitted under this section shall be submitted not later than the time of employment of the special Government employee. Each special Government employee shall keep his statement current throughout his employment with the Department by the submission of supplementary statements at such intervals as the Postmaster General may direct, but not less frequent intervals than those prescribed for employees.

Subpart G—Ethical Conduct Counseling and Reporting of Employment and Financial Interests Systems

§ 742.735–71 Ethical Conduct Counselor and Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselors.

(a) The Ethical Conduct Counselor is responsible for the administration of the Department's counseling and advisory services, and for assuring that counseling and interpretations of questions on conflicts of interest and other matters covered by this part are available to Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselors. The Ethical Conduct Counselor may require any Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselor to assist him in the administration of this program. The Ethical Conduct Counselor, or his designee has exclusive jurisdiction to counsel and advise (1) all employees paid at a level of the Executive Schedule in subchapter II of chapter 53 of Title 5 U.S. Code; (2) Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselors at Headquarters, except the Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselor for Office of the Postmaster General and Office of the Deputy Postmaster General; and (3) employees within his own organization.

(b) The Deputy Postmaster General is the Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselor for all employees under the direct supervision of or within, the Office of the Postmaster General and the Office of the Deputy Postmaster General.

(c) At Headquarters, Bureau and Office heads are Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselors for all employees within their respective Bureaus and Offices. The Chief Postal Inspector is also the Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselor for all inspectors-in-charge, deputy inspectors-in-charge and assistant inspectors-in-charge, audit area managers and deputy audit area managers. The inspectors-in-charge are Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselors for all other Inspection Service employees within their respective geographical jurisdiction. The audit area managers are the Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselors for all other area employees within their respective geographical jurisdiction. The Director, Procurement Division, Bureau of Facilities, is the Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselor for all field organizations under the jurisdiction of the Bureau of Facilities. The Director of Regional Administration is the Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselor for Regional Directors, Deputy Regional Directors, and Directors, Postal Data Centers.

(d) The Director, Postal Data Center, is the Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselor for employees of his data center, the Regional Director is the Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselor for his region, for all employees whose headquarters are within the geographical boundaries of his region, except for those employees who are under the jurisdiction of other Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselors. Postmasters of Part I WMS offices and installation heads of the North and South Suburban Facilities, Chicago, Ill., are Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselors for all employees under their respective jurisdiction.

(e) The Ethical Conduct Counselor may designate other suitable employees to assist him. A Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselor may, with the prior approval of the Ethical Conduct Counselor, designate other suitable employees to assist or act for him. The designees should have appropriate experience, preferably legal, personnel or employee relations, and be persons in whom the Ethical Conduct Counselor or Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselor has complete personal confidence.

§ 742.735–72 Reporting of employment and financial interests.

(a) The Ethical Conduct Counselor and the Deputy Postmaster General will file their statements of employment and financial interests with the Postmaster General.

(b) Each statement of employment and financial interests and each supplementary statement shall be held in confidence and may not be disclosed without prior written approval of the Civil Service Commission or the Ethical Conduct Counselor. Such disclosure may only be approved for good cause. The Ethical Conduct Counselor and Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselors are responsible for the security and maintenance of the statements filed with each of them. Only the Postmaster General, Deputy Postmaster General, Ethical Conduct Counselor, Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselors or their respective designees are authorized to review and retain the statements. The Ethical Conduct Counselor may allow access to, or allow information to be disclosed from a statement of employment and financial interests only to carry out the purpose of this Part 742. Reports of any statements of employment and financial interests which may have to be transmitted from the person who is responsible for safeguarding this material to another who is authorized to receive it shall be enclosed in an opaque inner and outer envelope. The inner envelope shall be sealed and plainly marked "Confidential Statement of Employment and Financial Interests" and shall be addressed to the addressee. The outer envelope shall also be sealed and addressed but with no indication on the envelope of what the contents may be. Employees, when transmitting their statements, are authorized to utilize this double envelope procedure.

(c) (1) The statements of employment and financial interests and any supplements thereto shall be destroyed 2 years after an employee or special Government employee is separated from the position which requires submission of the statement, or 2 years after the employee or special Government employee leaves the Department, whichever is earlier.

(2) Also, the statement of an employee whose position is removed from the list of positions, the incumbents of which are required to file statements, shall be returned to the employee 2 years after such position is removed from the list.

(d) An employee required to submit a statement of employment and financial interests under Subpart E of this Part 742 shall submit the statement to his Ethical Conduct Counselor or Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselor, not later than 90 days after the effective date of this Part 742, if employed on or before that effective date. A new employee and a new special Government employee who is required to file a statement shall file it at the time of appointment. He should retain a copy for his own file. Changes in, or additions to, the information contained in an employee's Confidential Statement of Employment and Financial Interests shall be reported in a supplementary statement as of June 30 each year. Such statements shall be submitted by not later than July 15 following the preceding June 30 except that the time may be extended by the Ethical Conduct Counselor or Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselor, as appropriate, for good cause, such as annual or sick leave or because the employee or special Government employee is awaiting information from other sources. Although no changes or additions occur, a negative report is required. Notwithstanding the filing of the annual report required by this section, each employee shall at all times avoid acquiring a financial interest that could result, or taking an action that would result, in a violation of the conflicts of interest provisions of section 208 of Title 18, U.S. Code or this Part 742.

(e) The interest of a spouse, minor child (including a stepchild), or other member of an employee's immediate household is considered to be an interest of the employee. For the purpose of this section, member of an employee's immediate household means those blood relations who are regular residents of the employee's household. See also § 742.735–28(a)(7). However, no member of an employee's immediate household is required to file a Confidential Statement of Employment and Financial Interests.

(f) If any information required to be included on a statement of employment and financial interests or supplementary statement, including holdings placed in trust, is not known to the employee but is known to another person, the employee shall request that other person to submit information in his behalf. This section does not require an employee to submit on a statement of employment and financial interests or supplementary statement any information relating to the employee's connection with, or interest in, a professional society, or a charitable, religious, social, fraternal, recreational, public service, civic, or political organization or a similar organization not conducted as a business enterprise. For the purpose of this section, educational and other institutions doing research and development or related work involving grants of money from or contracts with the Government are deemed business enterprises and are required to be included in an employee's statement of employment and financial interests. Saving accounts in credit unions or loan associations are not deemed interests in business enterprises.

(g) The statements of employment and financial interests and supplementary statements required of employees are in addition to, and not in substitution for, or in derogation of, any similar requirements imposed by other law or other order. The submission of a statement or supplementary statement does not permit an employee, or any other person, to participate in a matter in which his or the other person's participation is prohibited by law or other order.

(h) The statements of employment and financial interests will not be placed in personnel files and will not be transferred to any other agency in the event an employee transfers, or be disclosed to any person other than those specified in paragraph (b) of this section.

§ 742.735–73 Availability of counseling services.

(a) All employees and special Government employees shall be notified of the availability of counseling services; how, where, when, and with whom they may consult and receive guidance.

(b) All personal information revealed in the course of guidance and counseling, including statements of employment and financial interests, and any supplements thereto, shall be given the maximum protection against disclosure to any person other than a person who is required or authorized by law, Executive order, or regulation to have access thereto.

§ 742.735–74 Advice concerning possible conflict of interest.

(a) Whenever a possible conflict of interest of an employee or special Government employee comes to the attention of the Ethical Conduct Counselor or the cognizant Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselor, he shall make inquiries sufficient to ascertain whether such conflict exists. He shall advise the person of his conclusion and his proposal for elimination of any conflict and offer him an opportunity to explain the conflict or appearance of conflict. The proposal may consist of divestment of the conflicting interest or with the consent of the Bureau, Office or installation head either a change in assigned duties or a disqualification for a particular assignment. In appropriate cases he may recommend disciplinary action. If the Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselor cannot resolve the conflict or is in doubt as to the proper resolution thereof, he shall refer the matter to the Ethical Conduct Counselor.

(b) If the matter cannot be resolved by the Ethical Conduct Counselor then he shall report the matter to the Postmaster General.

(c) If the initial decision is made by the Ethical Conduct Counselor in cases involving employees listed in § 742.735–71(a) and the matter cannot be satisfactorily resolved by him after discussion with the employee concerned, he will submit the matter to the Postmaster General.

(d) In the event the initial decision is made by the Ethical Conduct Counselor's designee or the Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselor's designee, it shall not be deemed conclusive until such determination is affirmed, reversed or modified by the Ethical Conduct Counselor or the Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselor.

§ 742.735–75 Disciplinary and other remedial action.

(a) When after consideration of the explanation of the employee or special Government employee, it is decided that remedial action is required, immediate action shall be taken to end the conflicts or appearance of conflict of interest. Remedial action may include, but is not limited to:

(1) Changes in assigned duties;
(2) Divestment by the employee or special Government employee of his conflicting interests;
(3) Disciplinary action; or
(4) Disqualification for a particular assignment.

(b) Remedial action, whether disciplinary or otherwise, shall be effected in accordance with any applicable laws, Executive orders, and regulations. However, neither the remedial action, nor disciplinary action nor other action taken under paragraph (a) of this section is subject to the grievance procedures under section 746.1 and 746.2 of the Postal Manual since the employee or special Government employee is afforded the opportunity to present his case as provided in § 742.735–72 (a) through (d).

(c) The Ethical Conduct Counselor shall issue appropriate instructions from time to time to the Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselors to assure that the regulations, counseling and interpretations of matters covered by this part are consistent with laws, regulations and pertinent Executive orders and to insure uniformity of application throughout the Department.

§ 742.735–76 Establishment of review system.

There is hereby established a system of review which is designed to disclose conflicts of interest or apparent conflicts of interest on the part of employees and special Government employees. The Ethical Conduct Counselor, Deputy Ethical Conduct Counselors or their designees, immediately upon receipt of the statements of employment and financial interests from employees and special Government employees, shall examine such statements to assure that all information and disclosures required by the respective Confidential Statement of Employment and Financial Interests have been made and to determine whether potential conflicts of interest exist. The Confidential Statement of Employment and Financial Interests forms shall be furnished by the appropriate Personnel Office.

Subpart H—Informing Employees and Special Government Employees of Code of Ethical Conduct

§ 742.735–81 All employees and special Government employees.

(a) The Code of Ethical Conduct contained in this part and related parts of the Postal Manual containing instructions and guidance on the conduct of employees and special Government employees, shall be brought to their attention not less frequently than twice a year.

(b) New employees and new special Government employees: All employees and special Government employees new to the Department must be informed of this Part 742, Code of Ethical Conduct, at the time of their employment.

This Part 742 was approved by the Civil Service Commission on August 8, 1967.

PART 73—RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

Use of Auxiliary Transmitters for Transmission of Regular Programs Under Presunrise Service Authority

Order. 1. On June 28, 1967, the Commission adopted a report and order in docket No. 14419 (FCC 67-767) the "presunrise" proceeding, which amended its rules to provide for the issuance of "Presunrise Service Authority" (PSA) to certain standard broadcast permittees and licensees. The holder of such authority is permitted to operate his station with daytime antenna facilities prior to local sunrise during periods specified therein. However, such operation is restricted to a power of 500 watts or less.

2. Many stations eligible for PSA's have authorized powers much greater than the operating power permitted under a PSA. The main transmitters of such stations have not, in most cases, been type accepted for operation at output power levels approaching those specified in PSA's, and, in such cases, it will usually be found either necessary or desirable to operate pursuant to the PSA with a separate transmitter of lower power.

3. Section 73.63 of the rules permits the transmission of regular programs with an auxiliary transmitter only upon the failure of the main transmitter, or during periods of maintenance or modification work on the main transmitter. However, paragraph (g) presently allows the operating power of the auxiliary transmitter to be lower than the authorized power of a station.

4. It is the purpose of this order to amend § 73.63 by the addition of a new paragraph (c)(5), which permits the use of an auxiliary transmitter during periods of operation pursuant to a PSA.

5. Section 73.13 defines an auxiliary transmitter in terms which are inconsistent with both the present and the proposed provisions of § 73.63. Since, in any case, the definition appears redundant, it is being deleted.

6. Since these amendments are for the purpose of implementing decisions already reached in Docket No. 14419, would relax the restrictions in § 73.63 and would not adversely affect any party, the prior notice provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act do not apply.

7. Accordingly, pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4(i) and 303(e) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended: It is ordered, That effective August 18, 1967, § 73.13 is deleted and § 73.63 is amended as indicated below.

(Secs. 4, 303, 48 Stat., as amended 1066, 1082; 47 U.S.C. 154, 303)

Adopted: August 9, 1967.

PART 73—RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

Remote Control Authorizations for Standard and FM Broadcast Stations

Order. 1. This order amends the rules and regulations pertaining to Standard and FM broadcast stations to clarify, modify, and conform the procedures required to effect a change in the location of a remote control point.

2. Section 73.66 of the Standard Broadcast Rules concerning authorizations for remote control, does not now specifically provide for changes in remote control points. Section 73.257(b)(8) of the FM rules requires that all changes in remote control points be made pursuant to formal authorizations, as does § 73.557(b)(8) of the educational FM rules.

3. Section 73.66, and §§ 73.274 and 73.572 of the commercial and educational FM rules, are amended so as to prescribe uniform procedures to be followed in any of the various situations in which a change in a remote control point for a standard broadcast or FM station may be effected. Sections 73.257(b)(8) and 73.557(b)(8) are deleted, as inconsistent with new §§ 73.274 and 73.572 and as dealing with a matter more appropriately covered in the latter sections.

4. A licensee is required, of course, to exercise full control over all aspects of his station's operation, and the Commission is concerned with the establishment of remote control points at locations where the licensee's ability to discharge this obligation is adversely affected. Consequently, under the amended rules, specific Commission authority must be sought for a change in a remote control point to a location not patently under the licensee's control. This question does not arise when a remote control point is moved to the main studio, and it is unnecessary, and burdensome to both the licensee and the Commission to require that a formal application be filed for a change of this nature. The amended rules would not require it.

5. For the same reason, under the amended rules no authority is required to move a remote control point to a new main studio location within the community to which the station is assigned (the rules do not require that authority be obtained to move the main studio itself under such circumstances). If a licensee proposes to move its main studio outside its assigned community, formal authority must be requested, and, if a remote control point is concurrently to be moved to such a studio location, the amended rules provide that the request to move the remote control point may be incorporated in the application for authority to move the main studio.

6. When a change is made in a remote control point for which authority is not required, the licensee is required to notify the change promptly to the Commission and the engineer in charge of the radio district in which the station is located.

7. We believe that the amended rules will eliminate much of the confusion and many of the misunderstandings which have arisen in the past concerning changes in the remote control points, and measurably lessen the workload of the Commission, and of applicants desiring to effect such changes.

8. Since the amended rules are procedural, the prior notice provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act do not apply. Authority for the promulgation of these amendments is contained in sections 4(i) and 303(r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

9. Accordingly, it is ordered, Effective August 18, 1967, that Part 73 of the rules and regulations is amended as set forth below.

(Secs. 4, 303, 48 Stat., as amended 1066, 1082; 47 U.S.C. 154, 303)

Adopted: August 9, 1967.

Released: August 11, 1967.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,[1]

[SEAL] BEN F. WAPLE,
Secretary.

1. Section 73.66 of the rules is amended to read as follows:

§ 73.66 Remote control authorization.

(a) An application to operate a station by remote control, to add a remote control point, or to change the location of a remote control point shall be made on FCC Form 301–A, except that:

(1) A request to operate a new station with nondirectional antenna by remote control may be included in the application (FCC Form 301) for construction permit or modification of construction permit.

(2) A request to change a remote control point to a new main studio location beyond the corporate limits of the community to which the station is assigned and at a point other than the authorized transmitter site may be included in the application (FCC Form 301) for authority to change the main studio location.

(3) No application need be filed to change a remote control point to an authorized main studio location within the corporate limits of the community to which the station is assigned or to its authorized transmitter site, or to delete a remote control point. However, any such change shall be reported promptly to the Commission, and to the engineer in charge of the radio district in which the station is located.

(b) An authorization for remote control will be issued only after a satisfactory showing has been made which includes the following:

(1) The location of remote control point(s).

(2) That the directional antenna system, if such is authorized, is in proper adjustment and is stable.

§ 73.257 [Amended]

2. Section 73.257(b) of the rules is amended by deleting subparagraph (8) thereof.

3. Section 73.274 of the rules is amended to read as follows:

§ 73.274 Remote control authorization.

(a) An application to operate a station by remote control, to add a remote control point, or to change the location of a remote control point shall be made on FCC Form 301–A, except that:

(1) A request to operate a new station by remote control may be included in the application (FCC Form 301) for construction permit or modification of construction permit.

(2) A request to change a remote control point to a new studio location beyond the corporate limits of the community to which the station is assigned and at a point other than the authorized transmitter site may be included in the application (FCC Form 301) for authority to change the main studio location.

(3) No application need be filed to change a remote control point to an authorized main studio location within the corporate limits of the community to which the station is assigned or to its authorized transmitter site, or to delete a remote control point. However, any such change shall be reported to the Commission and to the engineer in charge of the radio district in which the station is located.

(b) An authorization for remote control will be issued only after a satisfactory showing has been made, including, among other things, the location of the remote control point(s).

§ 73.557 [Amended]

4. Section 73.557(b) of the rules is amended by the deletion of subparagraph (8) thereof.

5. Section 73.572 of the rules is amended to read as follows:

§ 73.572 Remote control authorization.

(a) An application to operate a station by remote control, to add a remote control point, or to change the location of a remote control point shall be made on FCC Form 301–A, except that:

(1) A request to operate a new station by remote control may be included in the application (FCC Form 301) for construction permit or modification of construction permit.

(2) A request to change a remote control point to a new studio location beyond the corporate limits of the community to which the station is assigned and at a point other than the authorized transmitter site may be included in the application (FCC Form 301) for authority to change the main studio location.

(3) No application need be filed to change a remote control point to an authorized main studio location within the corporate limits of the community to which the station is assigned or to its authorized transmitter site, or to delete a remote control point. However, any such change shall be reported to the Commission and to the Engineer in Charge of the radio district in which the station is located.

(b) An authorization for remote control will be issued only after a satisfactory showing has been made, including, among other things, the location of the remote control point(s).

In F.R. Doc. 67-5328, appearing in the issue for Friday, May 12, 1967, at page 7177, make the following change: In § 102.3(a)(5), the reference to "subparagraph (2) of this paragraph" should read "paragraph (b)(2) of this section".

Consumer and Marketing Service

[7 CFR Part 926]

[Docket No. AO-135-A6]

TOKAY GRAPES GROWN IN SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY, CALIF.

Decision and Referendum Order With Respect to Proposed Amendment of Amended Marketing Agreement and Order

Pursuant to the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held in Lodi, Calif., on June 1, 1967, after notice thereof published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (32 F.R. 7089), on proposed amendment of the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 926, as amended (7 CFR Part 926), regulating the handling of Tokay grapes grown in San Joaquin County, Calif., to be made effective pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674).

On the basis of the evidence adduced at the hearing and the record thereof, the Deputy Administrator, Consumer and Marketing Service, on July 19, 1967, filed with the Hearing Clerk, U.S. Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision in this proceeding. The notice of the filing of such recommended decision affording opportunity to file written exceptions thereto, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (F.R. Doc. 67-8512; 32 F.R. 10804).

Ruling on exception. An exception to the recommended decision was filed by the Mendelson-Zeller Co., Inc., San Francisco, Calif., a handler of Tokay grapes. The exception states that a limit should be placed on the assessment that can be fixed under the order. However, no maximum assessment rate was given and there is no evidence in the record on which to base such rate. Therefore, after careful and full consideration of record evidence and the recommended decision pertaining thereto, this exception is denied.

The material issues, findings and conclusions, and the general findings, of the recommended decision set forth in the FEDERAL REGISTER (F.R. Doc. 67-8512; 32 F.R. 10804) are hereby approved and adopted as the material issues, findings and conclusions, and the general findings of this decision as if set forth in full herein.

Amendment of the amended marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled, respectively, "Marketing Agreement, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Tokay Grapes Grown in San Joaquin County, California" and "Order Amending the Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Tokay Grapes Grown in San Joaquin County, California," which have been decided upon as the appropriate and detailed means of effecting the foregoing conclusions. These documents shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the aforesaid rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

Referendum order. Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674), it is hereby directed that a referendum be conducted among the producers who, during the period April 1, 1966, through March 31, 1967 (which period is hereby determined to be a representative period for the purpose of such referendum), were engaged, in San Joaquin County, Calif., in the production of Tokay grapes for market to ascertain whether such producers favor the issuance of the said annexed order amending Order No. 926, as amended (7 CFR Part 926), regulating the handling of Tokay grapes grown in San Joaquin County, Calif.

W. B. Blackburn and G. P. Muck, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Consumer and Marketing Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, are hereby designated agents of the Secretary of Agriculture to conduct said referendum severally or jointly.

The procedure applicable to the referendum shall be the "Procedure for the Conduct of Referenda in Connection With Marketing Orders for Fruits, Vegetables, and Nuts Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as Amended" (30 F.R. 15414).

The ballots used in such referendum shall contain a summary describing the terms and conditions of the proposed amendment of the order.

Copies of the aforesaid annexed order and of the aforesaid referendum procedure may be examined in the Fruit and Vegetable Division, Consumer and Marketing Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250.

Ballots to be cast in the referendum, and other necessary forms and instructions, may be obtained from any referendum agent or any appointee.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision and referendum order, except the annexed amended marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of the said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the annexed order which will be published with this decision.

Dated: August 11, 1967.

GEORGE L. MEHREN,
Assistant Secretary.

Order[1] Amended Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Tokay Grapes Grown in San Joaquin County, Calif.

§ 926.0 Findings and determinations.

The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations made in connection with the issuance of the order and each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure effective thereunder (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held in Lodi, Calif., June 1, 1967, upon proposed amendment of the marketing agreement, as amended, and to Order No. 926, as amended (7 CFR Part 926), regulating the handling of Tokay grapes grown in San Joaquin County, Calif. Upon the basis of the evidence adduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of Tokay grapes grown in the designated production area in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of commercial or industrial activity specified in, the marketing agreement and order upon which hearings have been held;

(3) There are no differences in the production and marketing of Tokay grapes grown in the production area which make necessary different terms and provisions applicable to different parts of such area;

(4) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, is limited in its application to the smallest regional production area that is practicable consistently with carrying out the declared policy of the act; and the issuance of several orders applicable to subdivisions of the production areas would not effectively carry out the declared policy of the act; and

(5) All handling of Tokay grapes grown in the designated production area is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce.

It is, therefore, ordered, That, on and after the effective date hereof, all handling of Tokay grapes grown in the production area shall be in conformity to, and in compliance with, the terms and conditions of the said order as hereby amended as follows:

1. Add to § 926.17 a final sentence to read as follows:

§ 926.17 Premium quality grapes.

* * * The committee, with the approval of the Secretary, shall prescribe rules, regulations, and safeguards as it may deem necessary to assure that grapes marketed as Premium Quality grapes meet the prescribed requirements for such grapes.

2. Add to § 926.46 Assessments a final sentence to read as follows:

§ 926.46 Assessments.

* * * In order to provide funds for the administration of the provisions of this part during the first part of a fiscal period before sufficient operating income is available from assessments on the current season's shipments, the Industry Committee may borrow money for such purposes.

3. Amend § 926.47 Handler accounts to read as follows:

§ 926.47 Handler accounts.

(a) If at the end of a season, the assessments collected are in excess of expenses incurred, the Industry Committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may carry over such excess into subsequent fiscal periods as a reserve: Provided, That funds already in the reserve do not exceed approximately one season's expenses. Such reserve funds may be used (1) to cover any expenses authorized by this part, and (2) to cover necessary expenses of liquidation in the event of termination of this part. If any such excess is not retained in a reserve, each handler entitled to a proportionate refund shall be credited with such refund against the operations of the following season or be paid such refund. Upon such termination, any funds not required to defray the necessary expenses of liquidation shall be disposed of in such manner as the Secretary may determine to be appropriate: Provided, That to the extent practical, such funds shall be returned pro rata to the persons from whom such funds were collected.

(b) The Industry Committee may, subject to the approval of the Secretary, maintain a suit in its own name or in the names of its members for the collection of any handler's pro rata share of expenses.

4. Amend § 926.49 Research to read as follows:

§ 926.49 Research.

(a) The committee may, with the approval of the Secretary, establish or provide for the establishment of marketing research and development projects designed to assist, improve, or promote the marketing, distribution, and consumption of Tokay grapes. Such projects may provide for any form of marketing promotion, including paid advertising. The expenses of such projects shall be paid from funds collected pursuant to § 926.46.

(b) In recommending projects pursuant to this section, the committee shall give consideration to the following factors:

(1) The expected supply of grapes in relation to market requirements;

(2) The supply situation among competing areas and commodities; and

(3) The need for marketing research with respect to any marketing development activity and the need for a coordinated effort with USDA's Plentiful Foods Program.

(c) If the committee should conclude that a program of marketing research or development should be undertaken or continued pursuant to this section in any crop year, it shall submit the following for the approval of the Secretary:

(1) Its recommendations as to funds to be obtained pursuant to § 926.46;

(2) Its recommendations as to any marketing research projects; and

(3) Its recommendations as to promotion activity and paid advertising.

5. The provisions of § 926.50 are amended to read as follows:

§ 926.50 Recommendation of Industry Committee.

Whenever the Industry Committee deems it advisable (a) to limit the shipment of grapes to particular grades, sizes, packs, or containers, or any combination thereof, or (b) to prescribe the requirements in terms of grade, size, pack, or container, or any combination thereof, for premium quality grapes, and to require that grapes that are handled and designated as conforming to the requirements prescribed for premium quality grapes shall meet or exceed such requirements, it shall so recommend to the Secretary. At the time of submitting any such recommendation, the said committee shall submit to the Secretary the data and information upon which it acted in making such recommendation, including factors affecting the supply of, and the demand for, grapes by grades and sizes thereof, and such other information as the Secretary may request. The said committee shall promptly give adequate notice to the handlers and growers of any such recommendation submitted to the Secretary.

FEDERAL AIRWAYS

Proposed Alteration

The Federal Aviation Administration is considering amendments to Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations that would alter the segments of V–4, V–8 south alternate, V–148 and V–220 that form a complex associated with the Thurman, Colo., VOR. This navigational facility will be relocated to a site at approximately latitude 39°41'54" N., longitude 103°12'52" W., on November 9, 1967. It would not be necessary to alter V–169 as it is designated direct from Hugo, Colo., via Thurman to Akron, Colo., and would move automatically with the relocated VOR.

Concurrently with these actions it is proposed to realign V–19 from Kiowa, Colo., direct to Denver, Colo., and to revoke the Thurman transition area.

Alteration of the airway complex associated with the Thurman VOR and considered herein is necessary due to the proposal to relocate the VOR. The realignment of V–19 considered herein would enhance the movement of air traffic in the Denver area. The Thurman transition area is no longer necessary for air traffic control purposes.

If these actions are taken, the airways described below would be altered as follows:

1. V–4 from Denver, Colo., 1,200 feet AGL INT Denver 103° T (090° M) and Thurman, Colo., 275° T (263° M) radials; 1,200 feet AGL Thurman; 50 miles 6,500 feet MSL, 1,200 feet AGL Goodland, Kans.

2. V–8 from Denver, Colo., 1,200 feet AGL Akron, Colo., including a 1,200 feet AGL south alternate via INT Denver 103° T (090° M) and Akron 242° T (229° M) radials; 1,200 feet AGL Hayes Center, Nebr., including a 1,200 feet AGL south alternate via INT Akron 094° T (081° M) and Hayes Center 246° T (235° M) radials.

3. V–19 from Kiowa, Colo., 1,200 feet AGL Denver, Colo.

4. V–148 from Kiowa, Colo., 1,200 feet AGL Thurman, Colo.; 6,500 feet MSL INT Thurman 067° T (055° M) and Hayes Center, Nebr., 246° T (235° M) radials; 1,200 feet AGL Hayes Center.

5. V–220 from Akron, Colo., 1,200 feet AGL INT Akron 094° T (081° M) and McCook, Nebr., 264° T (253° M) radials; 1,200 feet AGL McCook.

Interested persons may participate in the proposed rule making by submitting such written data, views, or arguments as they may desire. Communications should identify the airspace docket number and be submitted in triplicate to the Director, Western Region, Attention: Chief, Air Traffic Division, Federal Aviation Administration, 5651 West Manchester Avenue, Post Office Box 90007, Los Angeles, Calif. 90009. All communications received within 45 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendments. The proposals contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

An official docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Federal Aviation Administration, Office of the General Counsel, Attention: Rules Docket, 800 Independence Avenue SW., Washington, D.C. 20590. An informal docket also will be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Division Chief.

These amendments are proposed under the authority of section 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1348).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on August 4, 1967.

TRANSITION AREA

Proposed Designation

The Federal Aviation Administration is considering amending Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations to designate a transition area at Paragould, Ark. The proposed transition area will provide airspace protection for aircraft executing approach/departure procedures proposed at Paragould Municipal Airport, Paragould, Ark.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Division, Southwest Region, Federal Aviation Administration, Post Office Box 1689, Fort Worth, Tex. 76101. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Administration officials may be made by contacting the Chief, Air Traffic Division. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Office of the Regional Counsel, Southwest Region, Federal Aviation Administration, Fort Worth, Tex. An informal docket will also be available for examination at the Office of the Chief, Air Traffic Division.

It is proposed to amend Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations as hereinafter set forth.

In § 71.181 (32 F.R. 2148), the following transition area is designated:

PARAGOULD, ARK.

That airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface within a 7-mile radius of Paragould Municipal Airport (latitude 36°03'52" N., longitude 90°30'45" W.), and within 3 miles each side of the 235° bearing (230° magnetic) from the Paragould RBN (latitude 36°03'52" N., longitude 90°30'45" W.), extending from the 7-mile radius area to 8 miles southwest of the RBN.

This amendment is proposed under the authority of section 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1348).

Issued in Fort Worth, Tex., on August 3, 1967.

CONTROL AREA

Proposed Designation

The Federal Aviation Administration is considering amendments to Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations that would designate offshore control areas in the vicinity of the west coast of Alaska; the Alaskan Peninsula and the Aleutian Islands, Alaska, as follows:

1. Control 1234.

That airspace extending upward from 2,000 feet above the surface within an area bounded by a line beginning at: Latitude 58°19'00" N., longitude 160°00'00" W.; to latitude 53°-30'00" N., longitude 160°00'00" W.; to latitude 51°24'00" N., longitude 167°49'00" W.; to latitude 50°08'00" N., longitude 176°-34'00" W.; to latitude 51°05'00" N., longitude 173°44'00" E.; to latitude 51°30'00" N., longitude 170°00'00" E.; to latitude 54°40'40" N., longitude 170°00'00" E.; to latitude 54°-49'00" N., longitude 170°12'30" E.; to latitude 54°23'00" N., longitude 174°30'00" E.; to latitude 53°36'00" N., longitude 176°47'-00" W.; to latitude 54°33'00" N., longitude 169°56'00" W.; to latitude 56°39'00" N., longitude 164°25'00" W.; thence to point of beginning, excluding the portion that lies within Control 1401, and Control 1484.

2. Control 1235.

That airspace extending upward from 14,-500 feet MSL to FL 450 within the area bounded by a line beginning at latitude 53°-30'00" N., longitude 160°00'00" W.; to latitude 56°00'00" N., longitude 153°00'00" W.; to latitude 59°09'00" N., longitude 147°18'-00" W.; thence clockwise via the arc of a 172-mile radius centered on the Anchorage, Alaska, VORTAC to latitude 58°50'00" N., longitude 151°58'00" W.; thence clockwise via the arc of a 172-mile radius centered on the King Salmon, Alaska, VORTAC to longitude 160°00'00" W.; thence to the point of beginning, excluding the portion that lies within the Continental Control Area, Control 1217, Control 1218, Control 1484, Federal airways and the Kodiak, Alaska, transition area.

3. Control 1236.

That airspace extending upward from 14,500 feet MSL to FL 450 within the area bounded by a line beginning at: Latitude 60°00'00" N., longitude 170°00'00" W.; to latitude 61°00'00" N., longitude 165°00'00" W.; to latitude 60°00'00" N., longitude 164°00'00" W.; to latitude 60°00'00" N., longitude 160°00'00" W.; to latitude 57°-00'00" N., longitude 160°00'00" W.; to latitude 56°00'00" N., longitude 168°00'00" W.; thence to the point of beginning, excluding the portion that lies within the Continental Control Area, Control 1234, Control 1483, Control 1400, Control 1401, and Control 1484.

The designation of these control areas would provide the necessary controlled airspace to provide air traffic control service to civil and military aircraft desiring to operate within that airspace. Additionally, these control areas would permit a more efficient air traffic control handling of the increased amount of aircraft operating in these areas.

As parts of these proposals relate to the navigable airspace outside the United States, this notice is submitted in consonance with the ICAO International Standards and Recommended Practices.

Applicability of International Standards and Recommended Practices, by the Air Traffic Service, FAA, in areas outside domestic airspace of the United States is governed by Article 12 and Annex 11 to the Convention of International Civil Aviation (ICAO), which pertains to the establishment of air navigation facilities and services necessary to promoting the safe, orderly and expeditious flow of civil air traffic. Its purpose is to insure that civil flying on international air routes is carried out under uniform conditions designed to improve the safety and efficiency of air operations.

The International Standards and Recommended Practices in Annex 11 apply in those parts of the airspace under the jurisdiction of a contracting state, derived from ICAO, wherein air traffic services are provided and also whenever a contracting state accepts the responsibility of providing air traffic services over high seas or in airspace of undetermined sovereignty. A contracting state accepting such responsibility may apply the International Standards and Recommended Practices to civil aircraft in a manner consistent with that adopted for airspace under its domestic jurisdiction.

In accordance with Article 3 of the Convention on International Civil Aviation, Chicago, 1944, state aircraft are exempt from the provisions of Annex 11 and its Standards and Recommended Practices. As a contracting state, the United States agreed by Article 3(d) that its state aircraft will be operated in international airspace with due regard for the safety of civil aircraft.

Since this action involves, in part, the designation of navigable airspace outside the United States, the Administrator has consulted with the Secretary of State and Secretary of Defense in accordance with the provisions of Executive Order 10854.

Air traffic operating within the proposed control areas has increased to great proportions. Application of domestic separation standards instead of the ICAO standards will be implemented for reasons of more efficient air traffic service. Accordingly, and because of the impelling practicable need for expeditious action, the comment period is being limited to 15 days.

Interested persons may participate in the proposed rule making by submitting such written data, views, or arguments as they may desire. Communications should identify the airspace docket number and be submitted in triplicate to the Director, Alaskan Region, Attention: Chief, Air Traffic Division, Federal Aviation Administration, 632 Sixth Avenue, Anchorage, Alaska 99501. All communications received within 15 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendments. The proposals contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

An official docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Federal Aviation Administration, Office of the General Counsel, Attention: Rules Docket, 800 Independence Avenue SW., Washington, D.C. 20590. An informal docket also will be available for examination at the Office of the Regional Air Traffic Division Chief.

These amendments are proposed under the authority of sections 307(a) and 1110 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1348, 1510) and Executive Order 10854 (24 F.R. 9565).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on August 11, 1967.

CONTROL ZONE AND TRANSITION AREA

Proposed Designation

The Federal Aviation Administration is considering amendments to Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations that would designate a control zone and transition area at Ponce, P.R.

As parts of these proposals relate to the navigable airspace outside the United States, this notice is submitted in consonance with the ICAO International Standards and Recommended Practices.

Applicability of International Standards and Recommended Practices, by the Air Traffic Service, FAA, in areas outside domestic airspace of the United States is governed by Article 12 and Annex 11 to the Convention on International Civil Aviation (ICAO), which pertains to the establishment of air navigation facilities and services necessary to promoting the safe, orderly and expeditious flow of civil air traffic. Its purpose is to insure that civil flying on international air routes is carried out under uniform conditions designed to improve the safety and efficiency of air operations.

The International Standards and Recommended Practices in Annex 11 apply in those parts of the airspace under the jurisdiction of a contracting state, derived from ICAO, wherein air traffic services are provided and also whenever a contracting state accepts the responsibility of providing air traffic services over high seas or in airspace of undetermined sovereignty. A contracting state accepting such responsibility may apply the International Standards and Recommended Practices to civil aircraft in a manner consistent with that adopted for airspace under its domestic jurisdiction.

In accordance with Article 3 of the Convention on International Civil Aviation, Chicago, 1944, state aircraft are exempt from the provisions of Annex 11 and its Standards and Recommended Practices. As a contracting state, the United States agreed by Article 3(d) that its state aircraft will be operated in international airspace with due regard for the safety of civil aircraft.

Since this action involves, in part, the designation of navigable airspace outside the United States, the Administrator has consulted with the Secretary of State and the Secretary of Defense in accordance with the provisions of Executive Order 10854.

Interested persons may participate in the proposed rule making by submitting such written data, views, or arguments as they may desire. Communications should identify the airspace docket number and be submitted in triplicate to the Director, Southern Region, Attention: Chief, Air Traffic Division, Federal Aviation Administration, Post Office Box 20636, Atlanta, Ga. 30320. All communications received within 30 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendments. The proposals contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

An official docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Federal Aviation Administration, Office of the General Counsel, Attention: Rules Docket, 800 Independence Avenue SW., Washington, D.C. 20590. An informal docket also will be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Division Chief.

The FAA has completed a comprehensive review of the terminal airspace structure segments in the Ponce terminal area, including studies attendant to the implementation of the provisions of CAR Amendments 60-21/60-29, and proposes the following airspace actions:

1. The proposed control zone would be designated as that airspace within a 5-mile radius of the Mercedita Airport, Ponce, P.R. (latitude 18°00'40" N., longitude 66°33'50" W.); within 2 miles each side of the Ponce VOR 111° True (118° M) radial, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 8 miles southeast of the VOR. This control zone is effective during specific dates and times established in advance by a Notice to Airmen. The effective date and time will thereafter be continuously published in the FAA publication "International Notams."

2. The proposed transition area would be designated as that airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface within a 15-mile radius of Mercedita Airport (latitude 18°00'40" N., longitude 66°33'50" W.) north of latitude 18°00'-00" N., and within an 8-mile radius of the airport south of latitude 18°00'00" N.

The proposed control zone and transition area are required to protect prescribed instrument approach and departure procedures for the Mercedita Airport.

While, initially, the proposed control zone would be effective from 0700 to 2100 hours, local time, daily, there will be a need to vary the effective hours of the control zone to provide proper air traffic service for scheduled air carriers, and adjust to periods of peak air traffic activity which varies seasonally. The commissioning of a part-time control tower at the Mercedita Airport is planned during fiscal year 1968.

The proposed control zone and transition area would be contained within the San Juan, P.R., control area extension. Revocation of the San Juan control area extension will be accomplished at a later date as a part of the CAR Amendments 60-21/60-29 implementation program.

These amendments are proposed under the authority of sections 307(a) and 1110 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1348 and 1510) and Executive Order 10854 (24 F.R. 9565).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on August 11, 1967.

T. MCCORMACK,
Acting Chief, Airspace and Air Traffic Rules Division.

He will also undertake negotiations with the applicant agency with the view of adjusting the application to reduce the area to the minimum essential to meet the applicant's needs, to provide for the maximum concurrent utilization of the lands for purposes other than the applicant's, to eliminate lands needed for purposes more essential than the applicant's, and to reach agreement on the concurrent management of the lands and their resources.

He will also prepare a report for consideration by the Secretary of the Interior who will determine whether or not the lands will be withdrawn as requested by the applicant agency.

The determination of the Secretary on the application will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. A separate notice will be sent to each interested party of record.

R. HAEUSLER & CO. ET AL.

Order Terminating Probation

In the matter of R. Haeusler & Co., K.G., Richard Haeusler, Samprod G.m.b.H., Graz, Austria, Case No. 295, Respondents.

By order dated July 14, 1961 (26 F.R. 7227), the above named respondents, who had been temporarily denied export privileges since November 25, 1960 (25 F.R. 12368 and 26 F.R. 239), were denied all U.S. export privileges for the duration of export controls with conditional restoration of export privileges after four months while they remained on probation.

The respondents have petitioned to have the probation terminated. The matter was referred to the Compliance Commissioner for his consideration. He has found that effective enforcement of the Export Control Act and Regulations does not require that these parties continue to be on probation, and he has recommended that an order be entered terminating the probation. I concur in the Compliance Commissioner's finding and adopt his recommendation.

Accordingly, it is ordered that the respondents' probation be and is hereby terminated and U.S. export privileges are unconditionally restored to them.

Dated: August 4, 1967.

Acting Director,

ATCROFT ENGINEERING CO., LTD., AND S. H. FARR

Order Denying Export Privileges for Indefinite Period

In the matter of Atcroft Engineering Co., Ltd., and S. H. Farr, 1a Burntwood Lane, Caterham, Surrey, England; and 2 Arundel Street, London, England; File No. 22(67)-2; Respondents.

The Director, Investigations Division, Office of Export Control, Bureau of International Commerce, U.S. Department of Commerce, has applied for an order denying to the above-named respondents all export privileges for an indefinite period because the said respondents failed to furnish answers to interrogatories and failed to furnish certain records and other writings specifically requested, without good cause being shown. This application was made pursuant to § 382.15 of the Export Regulations (Title 15, Chapter III, Subchapter B, Code of Federal Regulations).

In accordance with the usual practice, the application was reviewed by the Compliance Commissioner, Bureau of International Commerce, who after consideration of the evidence has recommended that the application be granted. The report of the Compliance Commissioner and the evidence in support of the application have been considered.

The evidence presented shows that the respondent Atcroft Engineering Co., Ltd., is a United Kingdom firm located at 1a Burntwood Lane, Caterham, Surrey, England, with a Registered Office address at 2 Arundel Street, London, England; the respondent S. H. Farr is a director of said firm and an official responsible for conducting the affairs of the firm; the respondent firm deals in industrial instruments and also acts as consultants and agents with respect to such instruments. The said Investigations Division is conducting an investigation: Relating to the ordering and receiving by said respondent firm of U.S.-origin equipment; into the disposition of said equipment by said respondent; into the business relationship of said respondents with Denis H. Shepherd and Shepherd Export & Trading Co., Ltd., Croydon, Surrey, England, who are subject to an order of the Bureau of International Commerce denying U.S. export privileges; and into the dealings of said respondents with the said denied parties in U.S.-origin commodities.

It is impracticable to subpoena the respondents, and relevant and material written interrogatories and requests to furnish certain specific documents relating to the matters under investigation were served on them pursuant to § 382.15 of the Export Regulations. The respondents have failed to furnish responsive answers to the interrogatories and have failed to furnish the documents requested, all as required by said section. They have not shown good cause for such failure. I find that an order denying export privileges to said respondents for an indefinite period is reasonably necessary to protect the public interest and to achieve effective enforcement of the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended.

Accordingly, it is hereby ordered:

I. All outstanding validated export licenses in which respondents appear or participate in any manner or capacity are hereby revoked and shall be returned forthwith to the Bureau of International Commerce for cancellation.

II. The respondents, their representatives, agents, and employees hereby are denied all privileges of participating, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, in any transaction involving commodities or technical data exported from the United States in whole or in part, or to be exported, or which are otherwise subject to the Export Regulations. Without limitation of the generality of the foregoing, participation prohibited in any such transaction, either in the United States or abroad, shall include participation, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity: (a) As a party or as a representative of a party to any validated export license application; (b) in the preparation or filing of any export license application or reexportation authorization, or any document to be submitted therewith; (c) in the obtaining or using of any validated or general export license or other export control document; (d) in the carrying on of negotiations with respect to, or in the receiving, ordering, buying, selling, delivering, storing, using, or disposing of any commodities or technical data in whole or in part exported or to be exported from the United States; and (e) in the financing, forwarding, transporting, or other servicing of such commodities or technical data.

III. Such denial of export privileges shall extend not only to the respondents, but also to their agents and employees and to any person, firm, corporation, or business organization with which they now or hereafter may be related by affiliation, ownership, control, position of responsibility, or other connection in the conduct of trade or services connected therewith.

IV. This order shall remain in effect until the respondents provide responsive answers, written information, and documents in response to the interrogatories heretofore served upon them or give adequate reasons for failure to do so, except insofar as this order may be amended or modified hereafter in accordance with with the Export Regulations.

V. No person, firm, corporation, partnership or other business organization, whether in the United States or elsewhere, without prior disclosure to and specific authorization from the Bureau of International Commerce, shall do any of the following acts, directly or indirectly, or carry on negotiations with respect thereto, in any manner or capacity, on behalf of or in any association with the respondents or any related party, or whereby the respondents or any related party may obtain any benefit therefrom or have any interest or participation therein, directly or indirectly: (a) Apply for, obtain, transfer or use any license, Shipper's Export Declaration, bill of lading, or other export control document relating to any exportation, reexportation, transshipment or diversion of any commodity or technical data exported or to be exported from the United States, by, to, or for any such respondent or related party denied export privileges; or (b) order, buy, receive, use, sell, deliver, store, dispose of, forward, transport, finance, or otherwise service or participate in any exportation, reexportation, transshipment, or diversion of any commodity or technical data exported or to be exported from the United States.

VI. A copy of this order shall be served on respondents.

VII. In accordance with the provisions of § 382.15 of the Export Regulations, the respondents may move at any time to vacate or modify this Indefinite Denial Order by filing with the Compliance Commissioner, Bureau of International Commerce, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230, an appropriate motion for relief, supported by substantial evidence, and may also request an oral hearing thereon, which, if requested shall be held before the Compliance Commissioner at Washington, D.C., at the earliest convenient date.

This order shall become effective on August 18, 1967.

Dated: August 4, 1967.

Acting Director,
Office of Export Control.

[Case No. 370]

DENIS H. SHEPHERD AND SHEPHERD EXPORT & TRADING CO., LTD.

Order Denying Export Privileges

In the matter of Denis H. Shepherd, Shepherd Export & Trading Co., Ltd., 6 Chichester Road, Croydon, Surrey, England; Case No. 370; Respondents.

By charging letter dated March 21, 1967, the above respondents were charged by the Director, Investigations Division, Office of Export Control, with violations of the Export Regulations and with violations of the terms of an indefinite denial order that had been entered against them. The charging letter was duly served on respondents and they replied by letter dated April 6, 1967.

The charging letter alleges in substance that on December 15, 1964, an indefinite denial order was entered against respondents for failure to furnish responsive answers to interrogatories; that the order was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on December 30, 1964, 29 F.R. 18396; that the denial order prohibited respondents from participating in any manner or capacity in any transaction involving commodities exported or to be exported from the United States, including carrying on negotiations with respect to receiving, ordering, or buying such commodities, and in financing transactions involving such commodities; that during 1965–1966 the respondents without authorization from the Office of Export Control ordered and attempted to obtain U.S.-origin accessories for anesthesia equipment valued at $2,380, initially through a company in Madrid, Spain, and subsequently through a firm in New Orleans, La.; that to finance this transaction respondents opened a letter of credit drawn on a London bank in favor of the New Orleans firm. It is also alleged that the respondent Shepherd during 1965–1966, using the names of two firms in the United Kingdom attempted to obtain U.S.-origin merchandise from the New Orleans firm. It is charged that the respondent's conduct violated §§ 381.2, 381.3(a), 381.4 of the Export Regulations and also the denial order of December 15, 1964.

The respondent's reply does not deny the allegations of the charging letter. They allege that Shepherd Export & Trading Co., Ltd., is a company formed and operating under British law and not that of a foreign country; that any party approached with the object of obtaining supplies from whatever source is not made aware of the position between the United States of America and the company; that the final destination of goods received is not divulged except if demanded by British law; and that the goods mentioned in the charging letter do not require an export permit and they were destined for humanitarian purposes which the U.S. Government has publicly maintained is allowed.

The respondents did not request an oral hearing. In accordance with the usual practice where there is no request for an oral hearing, an informal hearing was held before the Compliance Commissioner at which evidence in support of the charges was presented on behalf of the Investigations Division and a record was made.

The Compliance Commissioner has considered the record in the case and he has recommended that remedial action as hereinafter set forth be taken against the respondents. On consideration of the record and of the Compliance Commissioner's report I hereby make the following findings of fact:

1. The respondent Shepherd Export & Trading Co., Ltd., is a British corporation with a place of business in Croydon, Surrey, England, and is engaged in the import-export business. The respondent Denis H. Shepherd, also known as D. H. Shepherd, is a director of said company and is the individual primarily responsible for the conduct and operations of the company. The transactions hereinafter set forth were conducted by said Shepherd for and on behalf of the said company.

2. On October 28, 1964, an order temporarily denying export privileges, effective for 60 days, was entered against the above respondents (29 F.R. 14897). This order was entered because there was substantial basis to believe that respondents had been exporting U.S.-origin commodities to Cuba in contravention of the U.S. Export Control Act and regulations. The temporary denial order was superseded by an order against the respondents, issued pursuant to § 382.15 of the Export Regulations, denying export privileges for an indefinite period because of their failure to furnish responsive answers to interrogatories without showing good cause for such failure. This order, dated December 15, 1964, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on December 24, 1964 (29 F.R. 18396), was duly served on respondents, and has been in effect to the present time.

3. The denial order of December 15, 1964, among other restrictions, prohibited respondents from participating, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity in any transaction involving commodities or technical data exported or to be exported from the United States. The activities prohibited by the denial order included participation in any such transaction, in the United States or abroad, either directly or indirectly, including the carrying on of negotiations with respect to, or in ordering, buying, selling, delivering, using, or disposing of any such commodities or technical data, and financing, forwarding, transporting or other servicing of such commodities or technical data.

4. During 1964, 1965, and 1966, the respondents were negotiating with representatives of Medicuba, Havana, Cuba, a Cuban purchasing organization, to supply it with parts and accessories for certain surgical equipment of U.S.-origin. Respondents continued in these negotiations after the denial order was entered against them. They were fully aware of the restrictions on reexporting U.S.-origin commodities to Cuba and were also fully aware of the restrictions imposed on them by the denial order.

5. The respondents negotiated with a firm in Madrid, Spain, to procure the commodities in question for delivery to Cuba. On July 29, 1965, the U.S. supplier of the equipment in question furnished the firm in Madrid, Spain, with a pro forma invoice for the equipment in the total amount of $2,499.80, which included packing and c.i.f. charges. The respondents did not obtain the goods through the firm in Madrid.

6. In the early part of 1966 respondents entered into negotiations with a firm in New Orleans, La., to have it procure the equipment in question to fill the order for Cuba.

7. Pursuant to instructions from respondents the New Orleans firm on April 15, 1966, placed an order with the U.S. supplier for the equipment in question in the amount of $2,389.80. To finance this transaction the respondent firm opened an irrevocable letter of credit dated April 4, 1966, drawn on a bank in London, England, in favor of the New Orleans firm. The New Orleans firm in turn opened a letter of credit in favor of the supplier. Pursuant to instructions from respondents the New Orleans firm consigned the goods to a named firm (not the respondent firm) in London, England.

8. The goods were exported from the United States by a United States Lines ocean vessel on July 15, 1966, consigned to the named London firm. The participation of the respondents in the transaction having been discovered the General License under which the goods were exported was revoked and the ocean carrier, pursuant to § 381.5 of the Export Regulations was ordered to return the goods to the United States, which was done.

9. In transactions other than that above referred to Shepherd, in order to evade the denial order against him, arranged with two firms in the United Kingdom to use their names in attempting to procure goods from the United States. These firms were Atcroft Engineering Co., Ltd., Caterham, Surrey, England, and Sinclair Industrial Agencies, Ltd., Croydon, Surrey, England.

10. In the transactions referred to in these findings the respondents did not obtain specific authorization from the Office of Export Control to participate in said transactions.

Based on the foregoing, I have concluded that the respondents violated § 381.4 of the Export Regulations in that they ordered, bought, and financed commodities exported and to be exported from the United States with knowledge that such conduct was in violation of the Export Regulations and of the denial order dated December 15, 1964, issued by the Bureau of International Commerce.

With regard to the respondents' contention that the commodities in question did not require an export permit and that they were destined for humanitarian purposes which this Government has maintained may be allowed the Compliance Commissioner stated:

> The respondents are in error in stating that these commodities did not require a license for exportation to Cuba. This Government does in some circumstances permit the exportation to Cuba of certain medical and surgical supplies and equipment. However, a validated license is required for the exportation of such goods from this country to Cuba, and where such goods are reexported from a third country to Cuba reexport authorization must be obtained. The respondents did not seek or obtain such authorization. By a carefully designed scheme, using other firms as fronts, they furtively sought to circumvent the requirements of the Export Regulations in this regard.

With regard to the sanction that should be imposed the Compliance Commissioner stated:

> The respondents not only violated the particular provisions of the Export Regulations which prohibit ordering, buying, and financing commodities for exportation to an unauthorized destination (in this instance Cuba), but their conduct was in flagrant disregard of the terms of the denial order outstanding against them. Under the terms of that order they were prohibited from participating in any transactions involving commodities exported or to be exported from the United States. They were fully aware of the restrictions of the order and deliberately sought to evade them.
> These respondents have amply demonstrated that they cannot be trusted to deal in U.S.-origin commodities or technical data, and I recommend that they be denied export privileges for the duration of export controls.

After considering the record in the case and the report and recommendation of the Compliance Commissioner, and being of the opinion that his recommendation as to the sanction that should be imposed is calculated to achieve effective enforcement of the law: It is hereby ordered:

I. This order supersedes the order denying export privileges for an indefinite period which was entered against the above respondents on December 15, 1964 (29 F.R. 18396).

II. So long as export controls are in effect the respondents are hereby denied all privileges of participating, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, in any transaction involving commodities or technical data exported from the United States in whole or in part, or to be exported, or which are otherwise subject to the Export Regulations. Without limitation of the generality of the foregoing, participation prohibited in any such transaction either in the United States or abroad shall include participation: (a) As a party or as a representative of a party to any validated export license application; (b) in the preparation or filing of any export license application or reexportation authorization, or document to be submitted therewith; (c) in the obtaining or using of any validated or general export license or other export control documents; (d) in the carrying on of negotiations with respect to, or in the receiving, ordering, buying, selling, delivering, storing, using, or disposing of any commodities or technical data; (e) in the financing, forwarding, transporting, or other servicing of such commodities or technical data.

III. Such denial of export privilege shall extend not only to the respondents but also to their agents, employees, representatives, and partners, and to any other person, firm, corporation or business or other organization with which they now or hereafter may be related by affiliation, ownership, control, position of responsibility, or other connection in the conduct of trade or services connected therewith.

IV. No person, firm, corporation, partnership, or other business organization, whether in the United States or elsewhere, without prior disclosure to and specific authorization from the Bureau of International Commerce, shall do any of the following acts, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, on behalf of or in any association with said respondents or other person denied export privileges within the scope of this order, or whereby such respondent or such other person may obtain any benefit therefrom or have any interest or participation therein, directly or indirectly: (a) Apply for, obtain, transfer, or use any license, Shipper's Export Declaration, bill of lading, or other export control document relating to any exportation, reexportation, transshipment, or diversion of any commodity or technical data exported or to be exported from the United States, by, to, or for any such respondents or other person denied export privileges within the scope of this order; or (b) order, buy, receive, use, sell, deliver, store, dispose of, forward, transport, finance, or otherwise service or participate in any exportation, reexportation, transshipment, or diversion of any commodity or technical data exported or to be exported from the United States.

BUREAU OF THE CENSUS

Appendix A—Public Information

JULY 25, 1967.

This material further amends the material appearing at 31 F.R. 2631 of February 10, 1966; 31 F.R. 7300 of May 19, 1966; and 31 F.R. 16731 of December 30, 1966.

A. Purpose. The purpose of this Appendix is to describe, in general, the public information services of the Bureau of the Census, to describe the places at which, and the methods whereby, the public may obtain information, to inform the public as to the availability of its statistical reports, data files, unpublished materials, special tabulations, rules, regulations, procedures, instructions, forms, or other requirements established by the Bureau of the Census which affect the public, and otherwise to comply with the requirements of 5 U.S.C. 552 (Public Law 90-23, 81 Stat. 54).

B. Public information services—1. Description of services. The Bureau of the Census provides the following informational services to members of the public:

a. Statistical reports and related information. The Bureau publishes statistical reports on a variety of subjects, including population, housing, agriculture, industry, business, foreign trade, transportation, governments, and construction. In addition to the published statistical reports containing only the most essential and most widely used data, the Bureau makes available unpublished tabulations with more detail, as well as data files in the form of punch cards and computer tape, which can be processed to provide almost unlimited subject cross-classifications and area tabulations. Some of these tape and punch card files, which do not contain confidential individual records, may be used for making tabulations. Some unpublished nonstatistical information is also available, including maps, computer programs, and address directories of public officials.

b. Age search and citizenship information. Upon receipt of a properly executed request, the Bureau will provide a certified copy of an individual's personal census record. In many instances these certificates are acceptable as proof of age or citizenship in lieu of a birth certificate. The certificates have been used in establishing eligibility for social security benefits, for obtaining passports, and in proving relationships.

c. Special services and studies. The Bureau is authorized to perform special services and studies, provided there is no undue interruption of the Bureau's regular work. These services include conducting special population censuses, furnishing unpublished information from the decennial population and housing censuses and from foreign trade and shipping statistics, providing seasonal adjustments of time series, furnishing enumeration district maps, and other similar services that are in the public interest.

2. Availability of services. a. The Bureau of the Census catalog. The Bureau of the Census Catalog is the principal means the Bureau employs to make known the availability of statistical reports it publishes and the availability of data files, unpublished materials and special tabulations. The Catalog is designed to give users of Census Bureau statistics a means of locating needed data. Each issue includes descriptions of the reports issued and other materials that become available during the period covered. The Catalog gives details as to what is available, the price, where the material may be obtained and how to order it. The Catalog is issued on a current basis each quarter, and cumulated to the annual volume. A monthly supplement to the Catalog, which lists new publications other than regular monthly and quarterly reports, enables users to be informed more currently on publications as they appear. The subscription price of the Catalog is $2.25 (75 cents addition for foreign mailing) which includes a combination of four quarterly issues of the Catalog and 12 issues of the monthly supplement. The Catalog may be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

b. Fee structures. Special services for which fees have been established are published in Title 15 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Part 50. Information is provided therein, as to what is included for each item, and how and where to request each service. In addition, the Bureau publishes a widely distributed pamphlet entitled, "Your Name Is Somewhere in the Census Records," which gives more detail than is published in the Code of Federal Regulations as to its age and citizenship searches. This pamphlet is provided free of charge to those who request information on the subject.

Special services for which fees have not been established are performed on a full cost recovery basis. Those interested in seeking such services should write a letter to the Director, Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233, describing in detail the nature of services requested with indications, when possible, of workload involved. The Director will reply giving an estimate of the cost and other pertinent information.

3. Requests for services. a. Requests for Census informational services should be directed as stated below:

(1) Statistical Reports and Related information. Census publications should be ordered from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402, or directly from the Bureau, as indicated in the Bureau of the Census Catalog. Inquiries regarding unpublished information should be addressed to the Director, Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233.

(2) Age Search and Citizenship Information. Requests for age search and citizenship information should be directed to: Bureau of the Census, Walnut and Pine Streets, Pittsburg, Kans. 66762. Upon receipt of a request, an application form and an information pamphlet will be sent to the requestor. The fee, and the conditions and requirement under which personal census records may be furnished, are printed on the application form.

(3) Data Collection. Public inquiries regarding the collection of data should be directed to the appropriate regional office or to Bureau headquarters in Washington, D.C.

C. Guide to published rules and regulations—1. Foreign trade. Rules and regulations governing the reporting of statistical information on U.S. trade with foreign countries, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. possessions, are published in Part 30, Title 15, Code of Federal Regulations. The regulations are binding upon carriers, as well as upon individuals and organizations making shipments from and/or into the United States. The regulations have been reproduced in booklet form and may be obtained from the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233. The subscription price includes supplemental changes for an indefinite period. The Bureau also issues a series of Foreign Trade Statistics Regulations Letters to Collectors of Customs, Department of Commerce Office of Field Services field offices, exporters, importers, and others concerned. Copies of FSTR Letters are furnished free of charge upon request to Bureau headquarters.

2. New surveys—a. Notice of intent. Before conducting any new survey with mandatory reporting requirements, the Bureau publishes in the FEDERAL REGISTER a notice to inform the public in general as to its intent to conduct the survey. The notice of intent provides information as to the legal authority for conducting the survey, description, scope, and need for the survey, and a statement that copies of the proposed forms and a description of the collection methods are available on request to the Director, Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233. In addition, a statement is included that any suggestions or recommendations received in writing by the Director within 30 days after the date of the FEDERAL REGISTER publication will receive consideration.

b. Notice of determination. After the 30-day period as stated above, a notice of determination to conduct the survey is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER containing similar information to that in the notice of intent. In addition, there are contained any significant changes in the description or scope of the survey from that published in the notice of intent, and a statement that report forms will be furnished to those included in the survey and that additional forms are available on request to the Director, Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233.

Regardless of whether the information sought is required by law to be furnished or is requested on a voluntary basis, the respondent is informed in detail, by mail or personally by an interviewer, as to the information to be furnished and how to furnish it. The actual notice contains the rules for furnishing the requested information for all mandatory and nonmandatory censuses and surveys regardless of whether a notice is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

b. Confidentiality of data collected. Each report form to be completed under Bureau of the Census legislation (Title 13, U.S.C.) contains statements assuring the respondent that his report is confidential, that it may be seen only by sworn Census employees and may be used only for statistical purposes. Where appropriate, the forms state that copies of such reports retained by the respondent are immune from legal process.

c. Reminders to respondents. In case of inadvertence, undue delay, or failure to comply, a written notice is sent to the respondent. Sanctions are provided by sections 221-225 of Title 13, U.S.C., in the event of continued refusal or neglect to respond to mandatory surveys, or the willful submission of false or misleading information to the Bureau.

D. Submission of requests and applications. 1. The places to which submittals of mandatory or voluntary Census reports are to be made are specified in the forms, schedules, or instructions provided to respondents.

2. Any submittals or requests concerning matters under the jurisdiction of the Bureau which are not specified for handling elsewhere should be directed to the Director, Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233.

E. Final delegation of authority. The Director, Bureau of the Census, has made no delegation or redelegation of authority to officers or employees of the bureau to take final actions, or make final decisions, with respect to requirements, submissions, or other matters arising under its published rules and regulations.

F. Inspection and copying of opinions and orders. All final opinions made in the adjudication of cases, statements of policy and interpretations not published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, administrative staff manuals and instructions to staff that affect a member of the public, and any other materials required to be made available for public inspection and copying by 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(2) are made available for such purposes at the public reference facility of the Library of the Bureau of the Census, Room 2455, Federal Office Building Number 3, Suitland, Md. Rules concerning the use of this facility are contained in Part 60, Title 15, Code of Federal Regulations and may also be obtained from the public reference facility.

G. Inspection of Bureau records. Rules for persons desiring, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(3), to inspect records of the Bureau of the Census, which are not available to the public as part of the regular public information services of the Bureau, are contained in Part 60, Title 15, Code of Federal Regulations. Application forms and instructions are available from the public reference facility of the Bureau of the Census.

A. Pursuant to Section 104c of the Act and Title 10, Chapter I, CFR, Part 50, "Licensing of Production and Utilization Facilities", to partially dismantle and possess in accordance with the procedures set forth in the application for amendment, but not operate, the reactor as a utilization facility, at the designated location in Alameda County, Calif.;

B. Pursuant to the Act and Title 10, Chapter I, CFR, Part 70, "Special Nuclear Material", to possess for storage only up to 1,200 kilograms of contained U-235; 100 grams of U-233, and 40 grams of plutonium;

C. The effective multiplication of individual accumulations and of all the fuel in the vault shall be determined analytically to be less than 0.85 in the flooded condition. In addition, to allow for the larger analytic uncertainty when the fuel enrichment exceeds 7 percent U-235, effective multiplication of individual accumulations or of all such fuel as stored shall be determined analytically to be less than 0.75 in a flooded condition. Special nuclear material not contained within fuel rods shall be stored in accumulations of not more than 150 grams of U-235 and separated by not less than 12 inches from center to center of closest neighbors.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[Docket No. 17633; FCC 67-913]

CAPE FEAR BROADCASTING CO. (WFNC)

Memorandum Opinion and Order Designating Application for Hearing on Stated Issues

In re application of Cape Fear Broadcasting Co. (WFNC), Fayetteville, N.C., Docket No. 17633, File No. BP-17017; Has: 940 kc, 1 kw, 10 kw-LS, DA-N, U, Class II; Requests: 940 kc, 1 kw, 50 kw-LS, DA-2, U, Class II; for construction permit.

1. The Commission has under consideration the above-captioned and described application.

2. Examination of the application of Cape Fear Broadcasting Co., indicates that the proposed 1 v/m contour would encompass a population of 2,720 persons a number greater than 300 and also greater than 1 percent of the total population included within the 25 mv/m contour (116,430 persons). Accordingly, the application is not in compliance with § 73.24(g) of the Commission's rules. The applicant has requested a waiver of the rule but the Commission is unable, at this time, on the basis of the data submitted, to conclude that a waiver would serve the public interest. Rather, it is of the opinion that the matter should be explored in an evidentiary hearing. In this regard, we would note that the present daytime power utilized by WFNC provides a signal substantially greater than 25 mv/m to the entire city of Fayetteville, N.C.

3. Except as indicated by the issues specified below, the applicant is qualified to construct and operate as proposed. However, for the reasons set out in the preceding paragraph, the Commission is unable to make the statutory finding that a grant of the subject application would serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity, and is of the opinion that the application must be designated for hearing on the issues set forth below.

Accordingly, it is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309(e) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the application is designated for hearing, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the proposed operation of Station WFNC and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine whether the proposal of Cape Fear Broadcasting Co., is in compliance with § 73.24(g) of the Commission's rules concerning population within the 1,000 mv/m contour, and, if not, whether circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of said section.

3. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the following issues, whether a grant of the application would serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity.

It is further ordered, That, in the event of a grant of the application of Cape Fear Broadcasting Co., the construction permit shall contain the following conditions:

Permittee shall submit new common point impedance measurements and sufficient field intensity measurement data to clearly show that adjustment of the daytime array has not adversely affected operation of the nighttime directional antenna array.

Any presunrise operation must conform with §§ 73.87 and 73.99 of the rules, as amended June 28, 1967 (32 F.R. 10437) supplementary proceedings (if any) involving Docket No. 14419, and/or the final resolution of matters at issue in Docket No. 17562.

It is further ordered, That, to avail itself of the opportunity to be heard, the applicant herein, pursuant to § 1.221 (c) of the Commission's rules, in person or by attorney, shall, within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

It is further ordered, That, the applicant herein shall, pursuant to section 311(a)(2) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and § 1.594 of the Commission's rules, give notice of the hearing, within the time and in the manner prescribed in such rule, and shall advise the Commission of the publication of such notice as required by § 1.594(g) of the rules.

Adopted: August 2, 1967.

Released: August 10, 1967.

MIAMI BROADCASTING CORP. ET AL.

Memorandum Opinion and Order Enlarging Issues

In re applications of Miami Broadcasting Corp., Miami, Fla., Docket No. 17401, File No. BPH-4910; Mission East Co., Miami, Fla., Docket No. 17403, File No. BPH-5481; Edward Winton, Silva M. Feldman, David Ginsburg, Norma Fine, and Al Lapin, Jr., doing business as WSKP Broadcasters, Miami, Fla., Docket No. 17404, File No. BPH-5661; for construction permits.

1. This proceeding, in which each of the above-captioned applicants is seeking an authorization for a new FM broadcast station at Miami, Fla., was designated for hearing by order (Mimeo No. 99985), released May 5, 1967. Presently before the Review Board is a motion to enlarge issues, filed by Mission East Co. (Mission) on May 25, 1967, seeking the addition of real party in interest, financial, and adequacy of staff issues against Miami Broadcasting Corp. (Miami); and the addition of financial issues against WSKP Broadcasters (WSKP).[2] The requests will be treated seriatim.

Real party in interest. 2. Mission's request for a real party in interest issue is based upon an affidavit from one of Mission East's counsel, who states that he attended a meeting on May 19, 1967, in which the dismissal of Miami's application was discussed; and that Mr. James J. James represented at that meeting that James has complete control and is the actual owner of Miami. Since Miami's application makes no mention of James, except as a former partner of one Miami's principals in another business, Mission contends that the requested issue is warranted.

3. Responding, Miami relies on affidavits from Mr. James and its four listed owners to refute the allegation of concealed ownership. Mr. James denies that he said he had any interest in Miami, declares that he has not and does not own stock in that company, and that he has not been promised such ownership. Each of the four stockholders of Miami avers that he has "not made any arrangement with any person to hold this stock for his or her benefit or transfer or sell any of this stock at any future date or under any circumstances", and that he does not "now contemplate any such arrangement in the future". Each also states that he acquired his stock with his own funds. There is also included an affidavit from the Chairman of the Board, in which it is declared that James had no authority to attend any meetings or negotiate on behalf of the corporation. The Broadcast Bureau, in its response, asserts that the real party in interest issue should be denied if Miami denies, under oath, that James had any interest in or connection with its proposal.

4. In reply, petitioner relies on additional affidavits from those who were present at the meeting with Mr. James when he allegedly made the statements which were the basis of the affidavit supporting the requested enlargement. One of the affidavits states that, at earlier meetings, Mr. James made similar assertions of an ownership interest in Miami. The affiant also insists that the statements made in the original affidavit were "true and accurate in every respect" and that Mr. James' denials are not true. The affidavits of two others who were present at the meeting are to the same effect, in words that are in major respects identical.

5. Each of the four persons who are the stockholders, officers, and directors of Miami have submitted sworn statements to the effect that there are no other owners of the corporation. The affidavit from the Chairman of the Board indicates that no other person has been authorized to represent the corporation in the manner Mr. James is alleged to have done. The reply affidavits submitted by petitioner in no way contradict these declarations; they merely differ with James' interpretation of what he said. The Board agrees with the Broadcast Bureau, therefore, that an essential element to the charge of undisclosed principal is missing, i.e., a connecting link between James and the corporation.[3] Petitioner has attempted to supply this by referring to the fact that James and Mr. McCoach, a stockholder in Miami, are business associates. We find this insufficient in view of Mr. McCoach's affidavit and the affidavits of the other stockholders, particularly since there is nothing to indicate that petitioner made any effort to ascertain whether James' alleged declarations of interest were accurate. Since it is charged that the discussions with James dealt with possible terms for the dismissal of Miami's application, this omission is all the more inexcusable. This aspect of the motion to enlarge will therefore be denied.

Miami's financial qualifications. 6. Mission contends that there are at least three infirmities in Miami's financial proposal, as follows: (a) The applicant is relying on a proposed $45,000 loan from Lovell, Inc., and the balance sheet for that corporation does not show the ability to meet this commitment; (b) Miami's estimate of $20,000 for first year's operating costs is unreasonably low; and (c) although Miami must rely on anticipated operating revenues to establish its financial qualifications, no showing has been made to support its estimate. Miami, in opposition, points out that on June 9, 1967, it filed an amendment to its application,[4] and contends that the information contained in the amendment remedies the alleged deficiencies.

7. The Board agrees with Mission that Miami's amendment does not resolve all of the questions concerning its financial proposal. Miami's amended application reflects that it will require $107,500 in order to construct the station and an additional $32,000 in order to operate for 1 year. However, the estimated operating costs have not been itemized, and, as pointed out by Mission, interest payments to an equipment supplier and Lovell, Inc., would exceed $7,000, leaving only $25,000 to pay seven prospective employees and meet all other expenses. Moreover, even assuming the accuracy of Miami's estimated costs of operation, we could not find Miami financially qualified. To meet estimated expenditures of $139,500, Miami appears to rely on a $90,000 loan commitment from Lovell, Inc., an equipment credit of $32,625,[5] and $500 paid in for stock. No credit can be given for anticipated revenues since the basis of Miami's $25,000 estimate has not been shown. Thus, Miami's own figures reveal a deficit of $16,375. Moreover, Lovell, Inc.'s, balance sheet shows $6,218.37 in liquid assets,[6] approximately $2,447,310 in total assets, and $1,415,305 in total liabilities. Although the Board has permitted reliance on a large net worth when only a small amount was needed, we are not willing to find that Lovell, Inc., is able to meet a $90,000 commitment without some showing of the liquidity of its listed assets. In view of the foregoing, issues inquiring into Miami's financial qualifications will be added.

Adequacy of staff. 8. Mission's request for this issue is based on the allegations that Miami proposes to devote 10.7 percent or 13 hours per week to local live programing, and that there is no information in its application regarding the number of employees Miami proposes to utilize to effectuate its programing. However, in its June 9, 1967 amendment, Miami lists a proposed staff of seven employees, including a general manager-program director, two announcer-salesmen, two general and administrative employees, and two employees for the technical operation of the station. While Mission reiterates in its reply pleading that a staffing issue is warranted, no specific allegations are made indicating that Miami would be unable to effectuate its programing with the staff it proposes, and the requested issue will therefore be denied.

WSKP's financial qualifications. 9. In support of its request for issues inquiring into WSKP's financial qualifications, Mission notes that WSKP's application does not include an estimate of first year's operating costs, but does indicate that WSKP will require $45,557 for construction, and approximately $25,000 for the down payment and first year's installments on equipment. To meet these costs, Mission states, WSKP is relying on the financial showing made in its application for consent to purchase Station WOCN, filed on March 28, 1966; and to meet operating costs, WSKP is relying on the operating profits from Station WOCN. However, Mission contends, WOCN's renewal application shows that as of September 30, 1966, most of the funds relied upon in the transfer application have been used to purchase the station; and that during the months of May to September, 1966, Station WOCN suffered an operating deficit of $41,961. In response to these allegations, WSKP states that on June 5, 1967, it filed an application to assign Station WOCN, and that, when this application is granted, it will file an amendment to cure the alleged deficiencies. The Board does not deem it appropriate to defer action on the requested financial issue until such time as WSKP's transfer application is granted, and an amendment is prepared, filed, and accepted. In light of the substantial unanswered questions raised by Mission, financial issues will be added.

[1] Commissioners Bartley, Loevinger, and Wadsworth absent.

[2] The following related pleadings are also before the Board: (a) Opposition, filed on May 25, 1967, by WSKP; (b) reply to (a), filed on June 14, 1967, by Mission; (c) opposition, filed on June 15, 1967, by Miami; (d) Broadcast Bureau's response, filed on June 15, 1967; (e) Broadcast Bureau's response, filed on June 15, 1967; and (f) reply to (e), filed on June 27, 1967, by Mission.

[3] For example, there is no allegation or showing that the initial arrangements for the meeting at which James was present were made with principals of Miami or that they were even aware of this meeting.

[4] The amendment was accepted by Order, FCC 67M-1093, released June 29, 1967.

[5] In its June 9, 1967 amendment, Miami shows a deferred credit of $62,625. However, no explanation of this figure is set forth, and a letter from the equipment supplier states that the cost of equipment will be $43,500 with a 25 percent down payment.

[6] Although Lovell, Inc.'s, balance sheet shows current assets of $2,186,088.85, none of the listed assets (second mortgages, notes, and accounts receivable, etc.), other than cash, appear to be liquid assets. (See Item 4(d), sec. III, FCC Form 301.)

Accordingly, it is ordered, That the motion to enlarge issues, filed on May 25, 1967, by Mission East Co., is granted to the extent indicated below, and denied in all other respects; and

It is further ordered, That the issues in this proceeding are enlarged by the addition of the following issues:

(a) To determine with respect to the application of Miami Broadcasting Corp.:

(1) The basis of its estimated costs of first year's operation, and whether such estimate is reasonable.

(2) Whether it has sufficient funds available to meet the cost of construction and first year's operation

(3) In the event that it will depend upon operating revenues to meet costs and first year's operating expenses, the basis of its estimated revenues for the first year of operation, whether such estimate is reasonable, and the extent to which net operating revenues may be relied upon to yield necessary funds for construction and 1 year's operating costs.

(b) To determine with respect to the application of WSKP Broadcasters:

(1) Its estimated costs of first year's operation, the basis for its estimate, and whether such estimate is reasonable.

(2) Whether it has sufficient funds available to meet the cost of construction and first year's operation.

(3) In the event that it will depend upon operating revenues to meet costs and first year's operating expenses, the basis of its estimated revenues for the first year of operation, whether such estimate is reasonable, and the extent to which net operating revenues may be relied upon to yield necessary funds for construction and 1 year's operating costs.

It is further ordered, That the burden of proceeding with the introduction of evidence and the burden of proof shall be on the applicants to establish their respective financial qualifications.

[Docket No. 17635; FCC 67-915]

T. J. SHRINER

Order Designating Application for Hearing on Stated Issues

In re application of T. J. Shriner, Bellaire, Tex., Docket No. 17635, File No. BP-12137; Requests: 1170 kc, 250 w, Day; for construction permit.

1. The Commission has before it the above-captioned and described application which, for the reasons hereinafter indicated, must be designated for hearing.

2. According to the applicant, interference received from Station XERT, Reynosa, Tamaulipas, Mexico (1170 kc, 5 kw, Day) would affect 7.1 percent of the area and 4.2 percent of the population within the normally protected 0.5 mv/m contour of the proposed station. This conclusion appears to have been reached without taking into account the salt water areas over the paths from XERT toward the proposed 0.5 mv/m contour. The Commission's study of the proposal indicates that the area under interference is substantially greater than indicated by the applicant. As a result, the population affected may exceed 10 percent of the population within the predicted 0.5 mv/m contour. Thus, the proposed operation will not comply with § 73.28(d)(3) of the Commission's rules.[1]

3. The applicant contends that his proposed antenna system will meet the minimum efficiency requirements of § 73.189 of the rules. However, his estimate appears to have been made without regard to the reduction in efficiency caused by the inadequate length of the proposed ground radials.

4. Bellaire, Tex., appears to be a community lying within the corporate limits of Houston in the southwest portion of the city. Examination of the application indicates that the proposed 5 mv/m contour will not only penetrate the geographic boundaries of Houston but will also cover approximately 80 percent of the city. The population of Houston, 938,219 (1960 Census), is over twice that of Bellaire, 19,872. Houston's population being in excess of 50,000 and more than twice the population of Bellaire raises the presumption that the applicant realistically proposes to serve Houston. Policy statement on section 307(b) Consideration for Standard Broadcast Facilities Involving Suburban Communities, 2 FCC 2d 190, 6 R.R. 2d 1901 (1965). By letter of September 12, 1966, the applicant was advised of the policy and furnished a copy of the statement.

5. In response, the applicant filed a general statement with little factual support which the Commission finds inadequate to rebut the presumption. One of the applicant's contentions appears to be in error. The applicant claims that, even if required to specify Houston as the station location, the proposed 5 mv/m signal would cover the entire city. As indicated above, it appears that the proposed 5 mv/m signal would cover approximately 80 percent of Houston. Moreover, the main business district of Houston appears to be some distance beyond the proposed 25 mv/m contour. Thus, the proposed station would not meet the coverage requirements of § 73.188(b) (1) and (2) for a Houston station. Accordingly, in the event the applicant fails to establish that the proposed station will realistically provide a local transmission service for Bellaire, it must be determined whether the proposed operation would meet all technical provisions of the rules, including § 73.188(b) (1) and (2), for a station assigned to Houston. See Issue No. 5, below.

6. The Commission's letter of September 12, 1966, advised the applicant that it would be necessary to bring the application up to date in all respects. Regarding his financial plans, the applicant stated "No change since date of filing." The financial material on file was submitted in 1958. The applicant's bare, unsupported statement is not sufficient to overcome the reasonable assumption that construction costs may be greater than estimated in 1958 in view of the rise in equipment prices. While it may be that the applicant's current financial position may be similar to that of 1958, the Commission is unable to determine the applicant's 1967 financial position on the basis of a balance sheet prepared in 1958. It will be necessary therefore to specify issues to determine the applicant's current financial position, his estimates of current construction costs and operating expenses and the bases thereof, and to determine, in the event the applicant must rely on revenues from station operation, the basis for the estimate of revenues.[2]

7. Except as indicated by the issues specified below, the applicant is qualified to construct and operate the station as proposed, but for the reasons indicated, the application must be designated for hearing on the issues set forth below.

Accordingly, it is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309(e) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the application is designated for hearing, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from the proposed operation and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine whether interference received by the proposed operation would affect more than 10 percent of the population within the normally protected primary service area of the proposed station in contravention of § 73.28(d)(3) of the Commission's rules, and, if so, whether circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of said section.

3. To determine whether the proposed antenna system can be expected to achieve minimum radiation efficiency for this class of station as required by § 73.189.

4. To determine whether the proposal will realistically provide a local transmission facility for its specified station location or for another larger community, in light of all the relevant evidence, including, but not necessarily limited to, the showing with respect to:

(a) The extent to which the specified station has been ascertained by the applicant to have separate and distinct programming needs;

(b) The extent to which the needs of the specified station location are being met by existing standard broadcast stations;

(c) The extent to which the applicant's program proposal will meet the specific unsatisfied needs of its specified station location; and

(d) The extent to which the projected sources of the applicant's advertising revenues within its specified station location are adequate to support its proposal, as compared with its projected sources from all other areas.

5. To determine, in the event that it is concluded pursuant to the foregoing issue (4) that the proposal will not realistically provide a local transmission service for its specified station location, whether such proposal meets all of the technical provisions of the rules for standard broadcast stations assigned to the most populous community for which it is determined that the proposal will realistically provide a local transmission service, namely, Houston, Tex.

6. To determine:

(a) The applicant's estimated construction costs and operating expenses for the first year and the bases thereof;

(b) The current financial position of the applicant and whether sufficient funds are available to meet the costs and construction and 1 year's operation of the proposed station;

(c) In the event the applicant will depend upon operating revenues during the first year of operation to meet fixed costs and operating expenses, the basis for the applicant's estimated revenues for the first year of operation; and

(d) Whether, in light of the evidence adduced with respect to Items 6-a, 6-b, and 6-c, above, the applicant is financially qualified.

7. To determine, in light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, whether a grant of the application would serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity.

It is further ordered, That, in the event of a grant of the application, the construction permit shall contain the following condition: Any presunrise operation must conform with §§ 73.87 and 73.99 of the rules, as amended June 28, 1967 (32 F.R. 10437), supplementary proceedings (if any) involving Docket No. 14419, and/or the final resolution of matters at issue in Docket No. 17562.

It is further ordered, That, to avail himself of the opportunity to be heard, the applicant herein, pursuant to § 1.221 (c) of the Commission's rules, in person or by attorney, shall, within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

It is further ordered, That the applicant herein shall, pursuant to section 311 (a) (2) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and § 1.594 of the Commission's rules, give notice of the hearing, within the time and in the manner prescribed in such rule, and shall advise the Commission of the publication of such notice as required by § 1.594 (g) of the rules.

Adopted: August 2, 1967.

[Docket Nos. 17174, 17636; FCC 67-916]

SIOUX EMPIRE BROADCASTING CO. AND JOHN L. BREECE

Memorandum Opinion and Order Designating Applications for Consolidated Hearing on Stated Issues

In re applications of Eider C. Stangland and Wallace L. Stangland, doing business as Sioux Empire Broadcasting Co., Sioux Falls, S. Dak., Docket No. 17174, File No. BP-15191, requests: 1520 kc, 500 w, day; John L. Breece, Sioux Falls, S. Dak., Docket No. 17636, File No. BP-17517, requests: 1000 kc, 10 kw, DA, day; for construction permits.

1. The Commission has before it the above-captioned and described applications; a petition to deny the application of John L. Breece filed by KISD, Inc., licensee of standard broadcast Station KISD, Sioux Falls, S. Dak.; oppositions to the petition filed by each of the applicants; and KISD's reply to the oppositions.

2. On February 8, 1967, the Commission ordered a hearing on the application of the Sioux Empire Broadcasting Co. (Sioux Empire) at the instance of KISD to determine, inter alia, whether the establishment of an additional standard broadcast station in Sioux Falls would result in the degradation of service to the injury of the public. Sioux Empire Broadcasting Co., 6 FCC 2d 707, 9 RR 2d 396 (1967). KISD now requests consolidation of the Breece application in the proceeding with the Sioux Empire proposal. KISD refers to the Commission's finding in connection with Sioux Empire that KISD has raised a substantial question concerning the ability of Sioux Falls to support a fourth commercial standard broadcast station and states that it has also raised substantial questions of fact concerning the ability of the area to support a fourth and fifth station.

3. Sioux Empire takes no position on whether the Breece application should be designated for hearing, but opposes consolidation in the Sioux Empire proceeding on the ground that the Breece application was not filed in time for comparative consideration with Sioux Empire in accordance with the provisions of § 1.227 (b) (1) of the Commission's rules.[3]

4. In his opposition, Breece does not object to the consolidation of his application in the proceeding on the Sioux Empire proposal, but urges that, in the face of the suggestion that his application is in "conflict" with the Sioux Empire application, the failure to grant the requested consolidation would deny his right to a hearing required by the holding of the Supreme Court in Ashbacker Radio Corp. v. Federal Communications Commission, 326 U.S. 327 (1945). In commenting on the contention of Sioux Empire that consolidation with its application is not permitted under the provisions of § 1.227 of the Commission's rules, Breece claims that the Commission's cutoff procedures pursuant to § 1.227 of the rules did not give him adequate notice that his application might be considered mutually exclusive with the Sioux Empire application and that the first inkling he had of a possible conflict was the Commission's action in designating the Sioux Empire application for hearing.

5. Breece further contends that, under the circumstances the public interest would best by served by requiring KISD to file its renewal application before the due date (January 2, 1968) and consolidating the KISD renewal with the Sioux Empire and Breece applications to permit a determination as to which applicant or applicants could serve the needs of Sioux Falls. KISD, in replying to Breece's contention that the KISD renewal should be required in advance of the due date, states its opposition to such a procedure and cites various Commission actions in which the Commission has declined to consolidate renewal applications with applications for construction permits when the renewal application was not pending at the time. John Self, 24 RR 1177 (1963); Bigbee Broadcasting Co., 25 RR 88 (1963); William L. Ross, 25 RR 360 (1963).

6. The Commission must first conclude that the present circumstances do not require that KISD file an early renewal applicaton for consolidation with the Sioux Empire and Breece proposals. The Commission will therefore adhere to its practice of not requiring the filing of early renewal applications absent some compelling reason. In any case, the Sioux Empire and Breece applications would not be mutually exclusive with the KISD renewal application on their face and are not mutually exclusive with each other. The Commission will, however, consolidate the Sioux Empire and Breece applications for hearing to afford Breece an opportunity to contest KISD's allegation that his proposal will be a

[1] Sec. 73.28(d)(3) is applicable because the application was filed prior to the adoption of new technical standards which became effective on Aug. 13, 1964. Amendment of Part 73 of the Commission's rules regarding AM station assignment standards, etc., 2 R.R. 2d 1658.

[2] The Commission does not intend to imply that the information on file, if current, is sufficient to establish the applicant's financial qualifications. The applicant did not indicate what portion of his liabilities were current, but assuming a current liability of approximately $1,200, the applicant showed the availability of only approximately $4,700 in current assets to meet construction costs and initial operating expenses of between $24,000 and $26,000. The applicant expressed some expectation of securing credit on the purchase of equipment but submitted no evidence that such credit was available.

* Review Board Members Berkemeyer and Kessler absent; Board Member Slone concurring and stating that he would add the real party in interest issue.

* Commissioners Bartley, Loevinger, and Wadsworth absent.

[3] On Nov. 15, 1962, the Commission gave notice that any application, in order to be considered with the Sioux Empire application, must be on file by Dec. 26, 1962 (FCC 62-1180). The Breece application was tendered for filing on Nov. 7, 1966.

detriment to the public.[1] Breece will also be afforded an opportunity to resolve certain financial questions, hereinafter described, indicated by the examination of his application.

7. The Commission is not ordering, at this time, a comparative evaluation of applicants and their proposals, since such a determination may not become necessary. In the event KISD meets the burden of proving under issue 3 specified herein, that new services in the area will result in public detriment, the Commission will, at the appropriate future time, give further consideration to this matter if necessary. Under the unusual circumstances of this proceeding, the Commission finds that it will be appropriate to limit the participation of each of the applicants to the issues specifically applicable to the respective applicants.

8. It appears that John L. Breece will require approximately $61,068[2] to construct and operate his proposed station for a period of one year without revenues. To meet these costs the applicant indicates that funds will be available from several sources. Breece states that he can realize $7,000 from the sale of a business but does not substantiate this estimated value nor does he indicate that there is a prospective buyer. Breece states that he derives income in excess of $10,000 as holder of a note from the sale of KIMM, Rapid City, S. Dak., but does not clearly indicate whether this amount is reflected in the applicant's annual income. The applicant expresses a willingness to borrow on the note if necessary, but does not indicate the availability of a loan with the note as security. There is some indication that Breece may rely on revenues from station operation to meet construction costs and operating expenses but offers little more than the expression of his personal opinion to substantiate his estimate that the operation of the station will produce income of $50,000. The material submitted indicates the availability of approximately $13,038 in cash and liquid assets. Accordingly, issues will be specified to permit Breece to clarify his financial plans, to show the source of additional funds required, and, if reliance is to be placed on revenues, to demonstrate whether his estimate of expected revenues is reasonable.

9. Except as indicated by the issues specified below, John L. Breece is qualified to construct, own and operate the proposed station. However, for the reasons indicated above, the Commission is unable to make the statutory finding that a grant of the application would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity, and is of the opinion that the application must be designated for hearing on the issues set forth below.

Accordingly, it is ordered, That pursuant to section 309(e) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the application is designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding with the application of Elder C. Stangland and Wallace L. Stangland, doing business as Sioux Empire Broadcasting Co., at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent Order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine, with respect to the application of John L. Breece:

(a) The source of additional funds required to meet the costs of construction and first-year operation.

(b) In the event the applicant intends to rely on revenues during the first year of operation, the basis for the applicant's estimate, whether such estimate is reasonable and, if not, the amount of revenues which may be reasonably expected in the first year.

(c) Whether, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing, the applicant is financially qualified.

2. To determine the efforts made by the Sioux Empire Broadcasting Co. to ascertain the programming needs and interests of the area to be served and the manner in which the Sioux Empire Broadcasting Co. proposes to meet such needs and interests.

3. To determine whether there are adequate revenues to support more than three commercial standard broadcast stations in the area to be served and, if so, how many additional stations can be supported without a net loss or degradation of standard broadcast service to the area.

4. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, whether a grant of the applications would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity.

It is further ordered, That the requests contained in the petition to deny the application of John L. Breece and Breece's opposition thereto are granted to the extent indicated above and are denied in all other respects.

It is further ordered, That the burden of proceeding with the introduction of the evidence and the burden of proof with respect to issue No. 1 shall be upon John L. Breece, with respect to issue No. 2 upon Sioux Empire Broadcasting Co., and with respect to issue No. 3 upon KISD, Inc.

It is further ordered, That the participation of the Sioux Empire Broadcasting Co. shall be restricted to issues 2, 3, and 4, and that the participation of John L. Breece shall be restricted to issues 1, 3, and 4.

It is further ordered, That the specification of issues herein shall supersede the specification of issues in the Commission's order of February 8, 1967, in this proceeding.

It is further ordered, That, in the event of a grant of the applications, each construction permit shall contain the following condition: Any presunrise operation must conform with §§ 73.87 and 73.99 of the rules, as amended June 28, 1967 (32 F.R. 10437), supplementary proceedings (if any) involving Docket No. 14419, and/or the final resolution of matters at issue in Docket No. 17562.

It is further ordered, That to avail himself of the opportunity to be heard, John L. Breece, pursuant to § 1.221(c) of the Commission's rules, in person or by attorney, shall, within twenty (20) days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission, in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date set for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

It is further ordered, That John L. Breece shall, pursuant to section 311(a)(2) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and § 1.594 of the Commission's rules, give notice of the hearing within the time and in the manner prescribed in such rule, and shall advise the Commission of the publication of such notice as required by § 1.594(g) of the rules.

TOWN OF BROOKLYN, IOWA, AND NORTHERN NATURAL GAS CO.

Order Consolidating Proceedings, Granting Intervention, Fixing Date for Hearing, and Prescribing Procedure

AUGUST 8, 1967.

In Docket No. CP67-192, the town of Brooklyn, Iowa (Brooklyn), pursuant to section 7(a) of the Natural Gas Act (Act), seeks an allocation of natural gas from Northern Natural Gas Co. (Northern) and in Docket No. CP67-260, Northern seeks authorization to construct and operate the necessary facilities to initiate natural gas service to nine communities, including Brooklyn, in the State of Iowa, all as more fully set forth in the respective applications which are on file with the Commission and open to public inspection. Notice of the filing of each application has been issued[2] and the proposals are described in more detail therein.

On April 18, and April 19, 1967, respectively, the towns of Rolfe and Gilmore City, Iowa, filed petitions to intervene in Docket No. CP67-260; they seek an allocation of natural gas from Northern pursuant to section 7(a) of the Act and request that Northern's proposed facilities to serve the other communities be extended to serve them. The filing deadline was April 17, 1967. Rolfe estimates its third year peak day and annual requirements to be 550 Mcf and 92,000 Mcf, respectively; Gilmore City's estimates are 475 Mcf and 53,660 Mcf, respectively, all as more fully set forth in their petitions.

Docket No.	Notice issued	FEDERAL REGISTER citation	Publication date

Northern filed answers opposing the requests of Rolfe and Gilmore City for service alleging that the two towns have not complied with Northern's tariff and that the extension to serve them may not be economically feasible and may impair the economic feasibility of Northern's proposed service to the other towns.

On February 13, 1967, Lake Superior District Power Co., which purchases some of its natural gas requirements from Northern, filed a petition to intervene in Docket No. CP67-192 opposing Brooklyn's application for failure to comply with Northern's tariff. The filing deadline was February 6, 1967.

These dockets are clearly related and should be heard on a consolidated record. We are also of the view that the petitioners in each case have alleged sufficient interest in the applications to warrant intervention, even though the filings were late.

Based on our experience in other similar proceedings, it is our belief that the procedure sould be set forth to insure an expeditious and orderly hearing.

The Commission finds:

(1) It is necessary and appropriate in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the matters in Docket Nos. CP67-192 and CP67-260 be consolidated for hearing and decision.

(2) It is desirable and in the public interest to allow the above-named petitioners to intervene in these proceedings in order that the petitioners may establish the facts and the law from which the nature and validity of their alleged rights and interests may be determined and show what further action may be appropriate under the circumstanees in the administration of the Natural Gas Act.

(3) The expeditious disposition of these proceedings will be effectuated by providing for service of testimony by the applicants and interveners prior to the holding of the hearing.

The Commission orders:

(A) The above-captioned proceedings are hereby consolidated for the purpose of hearing and decision.

(B) The above-named petitioners are hereby permitted to intervene in these consolidated proceedings subject to the rules and regulations of the Commission: Provided, however, That the participation of such interveners shall be limited to mattters affecting asserted rights and interests as specifically set forth in said petitions for leave to intervene: And provided, further, That the admisdon of such interveners shall not be construed as recognition by the Commission that they or any of them might be aggrieved because of any order or orders of the Commission entered in this proceeding.

(C) Applicants and the interveners shall file with the Commission and serve on all parties and the Examiner their direct presentations on or before August 16, 1967.

(D) Take notice that a hearing will be held in these consolidated proceedings in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D.C., commencing at 10 a.m., e.d.s.t., on September 19, 1967.

By the Commission.

[Docket No. CP68-36]

MICHIGAN WISCONSIN PIPE LINE CO.

Notice of Application

AUGUST 7, 1967.

Take notice that on August 2, 1967, Michigan Wisconsin Pipe Line Co. (Applicant), 1 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Mich. 48226, filed in Docket No. CP68-36 an application pursuant to subsection (c) of section 7 of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and operation of certain natural gas facilities, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Specifically, Applicant seeks authorization to construct and operate approximately 60.9 miles of natural gas supply pipelines ranging in size from 8 inches to 20 inches, together with related facilities. Applicant proposes to use these lines to connect its Placid Line to natural gas supplies in the Eugene Island and South Marsh Island Areas, Offshore Louisiana. Applicant states that it has contracted for supplies of natural gas to be purchased from Sinclair Oil & Gas Co. and Shell Oil Co. in the offshore areas mentioned above and that it proposes to connect such volumes of natural gas to its system with the facilities proposed above. Applicant further states that the volumes of natural gas to be purchased will not increase its system capacity and are not intended for any new sale or service but are to be used to meet its customers' increasing requirements as a part of its continuing program to augment its system gas supply by connecting new reserves, as available.

Applicant estimates the total cost of the proposed facilities at approximately $8,653,000, said cost to be financed as a part of Applicant's overall financing program which will initially use bank loans after utilization of available treasury funds.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (§ 157.10) on or before September 5, 1967.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no protest or petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a protest or petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

[Docket No. CP68-37]

MICHIGAN WISCONSIN PIPE LINE CO. AND MICHIGAN CONSOLIDATED GAS CO.

Notice of Application

AUGUST 7, 1967.

Take notice that on August 2, 1967, Michigan Wisconsin Pipe Line Co. (Michigan), 1 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Mich. 48226, and Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. (Consolidated), 1 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Mich. 48226 (Applicants), filed in Docket No. CP68-37 an application pursuant to subsection (c) of section 7 of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the exchange of volumes of natural gas between Applicants and the establishment of a new delivery point for an existing customer for a temporary period of 90 days, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Specifically, Michigan seeks authorization, limited to ninety days duration, to establish a new delivery point for the delivery of natural gas to Great Lakes Gas Transmission Co. (Lakes) at the interconnection of Lakes' 36-inch pipeline with the facilities of Consolidated at the Belle River Mills field in St. Clair County, Mich. Applicants also seek authorization to exchange up to 5,000 MMcf of natural gas to enable Michigan to make the deliveries proposed above.

Applicants state that Lakes will not complete its first-phase facilities from central Michigan to the St. Clair River until about November 1, 1967, and that it is urgent that Lakes deliver said volumes of natural gas to Trans-Canada Pipe Lines, Ltd. (Canada) as soon as possible to provide storage gas for Canada's customers this fall. Lakes and Canada are expediting construction of the segments of pipeline between Belle River Mills and Dawn Storage Area, Ontario, Canada, including the St. Clair River crossing, and expect to complete such facilities by September 15, 1967. Applicants further state that the above-proposed service is to enable Michigan to deliver overrun gas to Lakes at Belle River Mills for the account of Canada prior to the completion of Lakes' first-phase facilities.

Applicants state that Michigan will deliver overrun gas to Consolidated at the present Willow Run delivery point and will receive equivalent volumes from Consolidated, less compressor fuel consumed by Consolidated, at Belle River Mills. At that point, Michigan will coincidently deliver the natural gas to Lakes for the account of Canada pursuant to the existing Gas Purchase Contract between Michigan and Canada, and Lakes will transport the natural gas to Canada's facilities pursuant to the existing Gas Transportation Contract between the two parties. No new facilities are required and no charges will be made under the Temporary Exchange Agreement.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (§ 157.10) on or before September 5, 1967.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no protest or petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a protest or petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

NORTHERN NATURAL GAS CO.

Notice of Application

AUGUST 10, 1967.

Take notice that on August 4, 1967, Northern Natural Gas Co. (Applicant), 2223 Dodge Street, Omaha, Nebr. 68102, filed in Docket No. CP68-39 an application pursuant to subsection (c) of section 7 of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and operation of certain natural gas facilities and the sale and delivery of volumes of natural gas to a resale customer, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Specifically, Applicant seeks authorization to construct and operate a side tap and measuring station to be located on its 16-inch line at the outlet of its Kermit, Tex. Dehydration Plant, Winkler County, Tex. Applicant also seeks authorization to sell and deliver to Community Public Service Co. (Community) volumes of natural gas for resale and distribution in the community of Kermit, Tex. Applicant further states that Community requires the volumes of natural gas to supplement its current supply received from five wells in the Kermit area which have experienced serious depletion in recent years and Applicant proposes to sell and deliver to Community up to 1,000 Mcf per day of natural gas.

Applicant estimates the total cost of the proposed facilities at approximately $5,500, said cost to be reimbursed in full to Applicant by Community.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (§ 157.10) on or before September 7, 1967.

[Docket No. E-7364]

NORTHERN STATES POWER CO.

Notice of Application

AUGUST 9, 1967.

Take notice that on July 28, 1967, Northern States Power Co. (Applicant) of Minneapolis, Minn., filed an application seeking an order pursuant to section 204 of the Federal Power Act authorizing the issuance of $60 million in unsecured promissory notes to commercial banks and to commercial paper dealers. Applicant requests that such order be in place of and supersede the Commission's order of March 10, 1967, in Docket No. E-7335, which authorized the Applicant to issue up to $50 million in promissory notes to commercial banks.

The promissory notes to be issued by the Applicant to commercial banks will be issued on various days in 1967 and 1968, but no note will mature more than 12 months after date of issue or renewal. The interest rate of such notes will be at the prime loan interest rate at the time and place of making.

The promissory notes issued to commercial paper dealers will be issued on various days in 1967 and 1968, but no note will mature more than 9 months prior to date of issue nor will any note be extended or renewed. The interest rate on such notes will be dependent upon the term of the notes and the money market conditions at the time of issuance. Applicant represents that currently the interest rate on commercial paper is less than the prime loan interest rate of commercial banks. According to the application, the aggregate amount of commercial paper to be outstanding at any one time will not exceed the sum of (1) the dollar amount of Applicant's receivables arising out of the sale of electric, gas, heating, and telephone service and merchandise and (2) the dollar amount of Applicant's fuel inventory exclusive of nuclear fuels.

The proceeds from the issuance of the notes will be used, among other things, to finance in part the Applicant's 1967 and 1968 construction program. Principal items in this program include $43.3 million for completion of a 590 mw unit at the Allen S. King Plant and $36.9 million for construction work on the Monticello nuclear plant.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should, on or before August 31, 1967, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, petitions or protests in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). The application is on file and available for public inspection.

[Docket No. CP68-38]

OHIO FUEL GAS CO.

Notice of Application

AUGUST 10, 1967.

Take notice that on August 4, 1967, The Ohio Fuel Gas Co. (Applicant), 99 North Front Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215, filed in Docket No. CP68-38 an application pursuant to subsections (b) and (c) of section 7 of the Natural Gas Act for permission and approval to abandon certain natural gas facilities and for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and operation of certain other natural gas facilities, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Specifically, Applicant seeks permission and approval to abandon, in part by sale to The Dayton Power and Light Co. (Dayton), the following natural gas facilities:

(1) Three measuring stations and associated regulating facilities located in Montgomery and Greene Counties, Ohio;

(2) Three measuring stations and associated regulating facilities located in Montgomery and Greene Counties, Ohio, by sale to Dayton; and

(3) Approximately 5.3 miles of 4-inch O.D. to 18-inch O.D. pipelines, together with all land, right of way properties, and easements appurtenant thereto, by sale to Dayton.

Applicant states that the facilities to be abandoned by sale to Dayton will be integrated by Dayton into its distribution system for use in rendering natural gas service to its rapidly expanding retail market area. Applicant also states that no existing customer will experience change in either rates or service as a result of the proposed abandonments.

Applicant also seeks authorization to construct and operate the following natural gas measuring facilities:

(1) A measuring station and appurtenant facilities to be constructed at the junction of Applicant's Line Z-50 and Line Z-56, in Bath Township, Greene County, Ohio; and

(2) A measuring station and appurtenant facilities to be constructed at the junction of Applicant's Line Z-50 and Line Z-260, also in Bath Township, Greene County, Ohio.

Applicant states that the facilities proposed above will be used to measure the volumes of natural gas delivered into the facilities to be acquired by Dayton. Applicant further states that the facilities proposed above will eliminate the cost of operating and maintaining the facilities which are proposed to be abandoned and the necessity of constructing or relocating transmission facilities in a congested urban and military reservation area.

Applicant estimates the total cost of the proposed facilities at approximately $66,800, said cost to be financed from cash on hand. Applicant further states that it has agreed to sell and Dayton has agreed to purchase the facilities proposed to be abandoned for the sum of $163,834.17.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (§ 157.10) on or before September 7, 1967.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no protest or petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate and permission and approval for the proposed abandonment is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a protest or petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

PACIFIC NORTHWEST POWER CO. AND WASHINGTON PUBLIC POWER SUPPLY SYSTEM

Notice of Public Hearing on Applications for License for Unconstructed Project

AUGUST 9, 1967.

Public notice is hereby given that a further public hearing has been ordered by the Federal Power Commission on applications for license filed under the Federal Power Act (16 U.S.C. 791a-825r) by Pacific Northwest Power Co. and Washington Public Power Supply System for unconstructed Project Nos. 2243 and 2273 to be located on the Snake River, Idaho.

The public hearing was ordered by Federal Power Commission order issued July 31, 1967, respecting the matters involved and the issues presented in the proceeding on the applications for license. The order provided that notices of intervention or petitions to intervene in the further proceedings may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with

[Docket No. CI68-132]

TEXACO, INC.

Notice of Application

AUGUST 9, 1967.

Take notice that on August 11, 1967, Texaco, Inc. (Applicant), Post Office Box 52332, Houston, Tex. 77052, filed in Docket No. CI68-132 an application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the sale and delivery of natural gas in interstate commerce for resale on a short term basis, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Specifically, Applicant requests authorization to sell natural gas on a short term basis to the United Gas Pipe Line Co. (United Gas), which gas will be sold at the Paradis Plant, St. Charles Parish, La. The period of sale will be from the date of authorization to January 1, 1968.

The application states:

> The gas which is the subject matter of this sale is surplus residue gas processed by [Applicant's] Paradis Plant. The increased Louisiana oil allowables, necessitated by the oil crisis in the Middle East, has resulted in an increase in casinghead gas production from wells supplying the Paradis Plant of approximately 125,000 Mcf per day over the casinghead gas production available in May of 1967. While such increase has been partially offset by a cutback in production of gas-well gas supplying the plant, it has not been possible for existing markets to fully absorb a substantial portion of this increase. Accordingly, in excess of 55,000 Mcf per day is currently being flared.
> In an effort to minimize the flaring of this valuable natural resource, [Applicant] contracted with United Gas for the sale of certain volumes of surplus gas from the Paradis Plant. The parties anticipate that initial deliveries will approximate 50,000 Mcf per day. The price for said gas is a spot sale distress price of 18 cents per Mcf.[1]

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before August 30, 1967.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on the application if no protest or petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein and if the Commission on its own review of the matter believes that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a protest or petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

[Docket No. RI68-58]

YUCCA PETROLEUM CO.

Order Providing for Hearing on and Suspension of Proposed Change in Rate

AUGUST 9, 1967.

On July 13, 1967, Yucca Petroleum Co. (Yucca) [2] tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule for sales of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate and charge, is contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notice of change, dated July 12, 1967.
Purchaser and producing area: Transwestern Pipeline Co. (Follett-Morrow Field, Lipscomb County, Tex.) (Railroad District No. 10).
Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 5 to Yucca's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 6.
Effective date: August 13, 1967.[3]
Amount of annual increase: $36,000.
Effective rate: 17 cents per Mcf.[4]
Proposed rate: 23 cents per Mcf.[4]
Pressure base: 14.65 p.s.i.a.

Yucca requests that its proposed rate increase be permitted to become effective "immediately," or in the alternative, upon expiration of the statutory notice. Good cause has not been shown for waiving the 30-day notice requirement provided in section 4(d) of the Natural Gas Act to permit an earlier effective date for Yucca's rate filing and such request is denied.

Yucca proposes a rate increase from 17 cents per Mcf to 23 cents per Mcf for a wellhead sale of gas from the Follett-Morrow Field, Lipscomb County, Tex. (Railroad District No. 10) to Transwestern Pipeline Co. The increase amounts to $36,000 annually. Since Yucca's proposed 23 cent rate exceeds the area increased rate ceiling of 11 cents per Mcf for Texas Railroad District No. 10 as announced in the Commission's statement of general policy No. 61-1, as amended, we conclude that it should be suspended for 5 months from August 13, 1967, the date of expiration of the statutory notice, as hereinafter ordered.

The proposed changed rate and charge may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds:

It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the proposed change, and that Supplement No. 5 to Yucca's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 6 be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing shall be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge contained in Supplement No. 5 to Yucca's FPC Gas Rate Supplement No. 6.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, Supplement No. 5 to Yucca's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 6 is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until January 13, 1968, and thereafter until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplement hereby suspended nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Notices of intervention or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37(f)) on or before September 27, 1967.

By the Commission.

LINCOLN NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE CO. AND LINCOLN NATIONAL VARIABLE ANNUITY FUND B

Notice of Application for Exemptions

AUGUST 10, 1967.

Notice is hereby given that The Lincoln National Life Insurance Co. ("The Lincoln") and Lincoln National Variable Annuity Fund B ("Fund"), 1301 South Harrison Street, Fort Wayne, Ind. 46802 (herein collectively called "Applicants"), have filed an application pursuant to section 6(c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, 15 U.S.C. section 80a-1, et seq. ("Act"), for an order exempting Applicants from the provisions of sections 15(a), 16(a), 17(f), 22(e), 27(a)(4), 27(c)(1), 27(c)(2), and 32(a)(2) of the Act, and Rule 17f-2 thereunder. The Lincoln established the Fund pursuant to Indiana law on December 1, 1966, as a segregated investment account to offer group or individual variable annuity contracts not qualifying for federal tax benefits under sections 401 or 403 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended. Fund is an open-end diversified management company registered under the Act. All interested persons are referred to the application on file with the Commission for a statement of the representations which are summarized below.

Sections 15(a), 16(a), and 32(a), in substance, require shareholder approval of the investment advisory agreement, the election of directors by shareholders, and shareholder ratification of the selection of an independent public accountant, respectively. Applicants state that since there will be no contract owners, hence no holders of voting securities, until after the registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933 becomes effective, the requirements of these sections cannot be complied with. Applicants represent, however, that as soon as is practicable after contributions have been received a special meeting of the contract owners will take place at which time they may vote on these matters.

Section 17(f) provides, in pertinent part, that a registered investment company may maintain its securities and other investments in its own custody in accordance with such rules, regulations, and orders as may be adopted by the Commission in the interest of investors. Rule 17f-2 requires, in pertinent part, that such assets be placed in a bank subject to the other requirements of the rule, one of which limits the persons who shall have access to only certain specified individuals. Applicants request an exemption to permit access to the securities of the Fund which will be held pursuant to a safekeeping agreement with Bankers Trust Co. by duly authorized representatives of the Department of Insurance of the State of Indiana ("Department"). Applicants represent that under Indiana law, securities in amounts determined with regard to reserve liabilities should be deposited with the Department and that this security depository requirement will be satisfied by depositing such securities pursuant to a written agreement between The Lincoln and Bankers Trust Co. The agreement has been approved by the Insurance Commissioner of Indiana and limits withdrawals to those sanctioned and approved by the Department.

Sections 22(e) and 27(c)(1) provide in pertinent part that (1) a registered investment company may not suspend the right of redemption or postpone the date of payment upon redemption of any redeemable security in accordance with its terms for more than seven days after the tender of such security for redemption, and (2) a registered investment company issuing periodic payment plan certificates may not sell such certificates unless such certificates are redeemable securities.

Applicants represent that prior to their maturity dates the contracts are redeemable and satisfy the redemption provisions of the Act. However, on their respective maturity dates, the then value of the contracts is determined and applied to provide for lifetime annuity payments of either fixed or variable amounts. Applicants state that because the amount of annuity payments under the variable option are calculated actuarially, based upon the life expectancies of the purchasers of the contracts, if a purchaser were permitted to redeem his contract after maturity date, it would upset the actuarial computations made with respect to the remaining purchasers. Applicants request exemption from sections 22(e) and 27(c)(1) to the extent that once a purchaser begins to receive annuity payments he cannot redeem the value credited to his contract. Such prohibition shall apply only after annuity payments to the purchaser commence.

Section 27(a)(4) as here pertinent prohibits the sale of any periodic payment plan certificate issued by a registered investment company if the first payment on such certificate is less than $20, or any subsequent payment is less than $10. Applicants represent that the individual contracts provide for the deduction of a fixed percentage of each payment as a sales charge with no "front-end load," that the amount of any stipulated payment computed on an annualized basis is limited to 200 percent of the initial payment and that should the contract owner increase monthly payments in excess of the 200 percent maximum, and the annuity rates or expense guarantees then in effect were different from those in effect when the first contract was issued, a new contract would be issued with respect to the excess. Although this excess may be less than the $20 required by the section for an initial payment, the total contribution would exceed the required minimum. Therefore, Applicants request an exemption from the initial minimum payment provision of section 27(a)(4) with the representation that Applicants will not accept payments of less than $10 with respect to any individual contracts.

Section 27(c)(2) prohibits a registered investment company or a depositor or underwriter for such company from selling periodic payment plan certificates unless the proceeds of all payments, other than the sales load, are deposited with a bank as trustee or custodian and held under an indenture or agreement containing, in substance, the provisions required by sections 26(a)(2) and (3) for a uit investment trust. Section 26(a)(2) requires that the trustee or custodian segregate and hold in trust all securities and cash of the trust and places certain restrictions on charges which may be mad. against the trust income and corpus, and excludes from expenses which the trustee or custodian may charge against the trust any payments to the depositor or principal underwriter, other than a fee not exceeding such reasonable amount as the Commission may prescribe, for performing bookkeeping and other administrative services delegated to them by the trustee or custodian. Section 26(a)(3) governs the circumstances under which the trustee or custodian may resign.

Applicants state that The Lincoln functions as a regulated insurance company and is subject to extensive and detailed supervision and inspection by the Insurance Commissioner of Indiana in all of its dealings with the contract purchasers. The Lincoln states that such control provides ample assurance against misfeasance and adequately protects the interest of the contract purchasers. Accordingly, Applicants state that such authority and jurisdiction affords the essential protection which the trusteeship or custodianship under section 26(a)(2) is designed to provide. Moreover, Indiana law provides that the Fund shall not be liable for charges arising out of any other business of The Lincoln which has no specific relation to or dependence upon the Fund; and that the contractual obligations of The Lincoln to the contract holders or to participants under group contracts cannot be abandoned until such obligations have been discharged. Applicants affirmed this obligation in connection with the registration statement. Since such supervision, inspection, and undertakings will effectively prevent orphanage of the Fund by The Lincoln which the trusteeship under section 27(c)(2) is designed to protect, Applicants request an exemption from the requirement of section 27(c)(2) for literal compliance with sections 26(a)(2) and (3). Applicants have consented to the requested exemption being subject to the condition that the charges under the contracts for administrative services shall not exceed such reasonable amounts as the Commission shall prescribe, and that the Commission shall reserve jurisdiction for such purpose.

Section 6(c) authorizes the Commission to exempt any person, security or transaction, or any class or classes of persons, securities, or transactions, from the provisions of the Act and rules promulgated thereunder if and to the extent that such exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act.

Notice is hereby given that any interested person may, not later than August 28, 1967, at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request and the issues of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission shall order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request shall be served personally or by mail (airmail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon Applicant at the address stated above. Proof of such service (by affidavit or in case of an attorney at law by certificate) shall be filed contemporaneously with the request. At any time after said date, as provided by Rule 0-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application herein may be issued by the Commission upon the basis of the information stated in said application, unless an order for hearing upon said application shall be issued upon request or upon the Commission's own motion. Persons who request a hearing or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered, will receive notice of further developments in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

For the Commission (pursuant to delegated authority).

LINCOLN NATIONAL VARIABLE ANNUITY FUND A AND LINCOLN NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.

Notice of Application for Exemption

AUGUST 10, 1967.

Notice is hereby given that the Lincoln National Life Insurance Co. ("The Lincoln"), 1301 South Harrison Street, Fort Wayne, Ind. 46802, and Lincoln National Variable Annuity Fund A ("Fund") (herein collectively called "Applicants") have filed an application pursuant to section 6(c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, 15 U.S.C. section 80a-1, et seq. ("Act") for an exemption from the provisions of sections 27(a)(4) and 27(c)(2) of the Act. Fund was established on September 16, 1966, as a segregated investment account by The Lincoln, pursuant to Indiana law, to hold assets set aside by The Lincoln in relation to contributions received by The Lincoln in respect to its proposed variable annuity contracts. On February 21, 1967, the Commission issued an order (Investment Company Act Release No. 4848), pursuant to section 6(c) of the Act, exempting in certain respects both The Lincoln and Fund from the provisions of sections 14(a), 15(a), 16(a), 17(f), 22(d), 22(e), 27(a)(4), 27(c)(1), and 27(c)(2), and 32(a)(2) of the Act and Rule 17f-2 thereunder. The Applicants request further exemptions in order to sell group and individual variable annuity contracts which are issued with respect to plans initially qualifying under section 401 or section 403(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Section 27(a)(4) as here pertinent prohibits the sale of any periodic payment plan certificate issued by a registered investment company if the first payment on such certificate is less than $20, or any subsequent payment is less than $10. Exemption is requested to permit a payment to be in an amount of not less than $10 with respect to any qualified contracts. Applicants represent that the individual contracts provide for the deduction of a fixed percentage of each payment as a sales charge with no "front-end load," that the amount of any stipulated payment computed on an annualized basis is limited to 200 percent of the initial payment, and that should the contract owner increase monthly payments in excess of the 200 percent maximum, and the annuity rates or expense guarantees then in effect were different from those in effect when the first contract was issued, a new contract would be issued with respect to the excess. Although this excess may be less than the $20 required by the section for an initial payment, the total contribution would exceed the required minimum. Therefore, Applicants request an exemption from the initial minimum payment provision of section 27(a)(4) with the representation that Applicants will not accept payments of less than $10.

Section 27(c)(2) prohibits a registered investment company or a depositor or underwriter for such company from selling periodic payment plan certificates unless the proceeds of all payments, other than the sales load, are deposited with a bank as trustee or custodian and held under an indenture or agreement containing, in substance, the provisions required by sections 26(a)(2) and (3) for a unit investment trust. Section 26(a)(2) requires that the trustee or custodian segregate and hold in trust all securities and cash of the trust and places certain restrictions on charges which may be made against the trust income and corpus, and excludes from expenses which the trustee or custodian may charge against the trust any payments to the depositor or principal underwriter, other than a fee not exceeding such reasonable amount as the Commission may prescribe, for performing bookkeeping and other administrative services delegated to them by the trustee or custodian. Section 26(a)(3) governs the circumstances under which the trustee or custodian may resign.

Applicants state that The Lincoln functions as a regulated insurance company and is subject to extensive and detailed supervision and inspection by the Insurance Commissioner of Indiana in all of its dealings with the contract purchasers. The Lincoln states that such control provides ample assurance against misfeasance and adequately protects the interest of the contract purchasers. Accordingly, Applicants state that such authority and jurisdiction affords the essential protection which the trusteeship or custodianship under section 26(a)(2) is designed to provide. Moreover, Indiana law provides that the Fund shall not be liable for charges arising out of any other business of The Lincoln which has no specific relation to or dependence upon the Fund; and that the contractual obligations of The Lincoln to the contract holders or to participants under group contracts cannot be abandoned until such obligations have been discharged. Applicants affirmed this obligation in connection with the registration statement. Since such supervision, inspection, and undertakings will effectively prevent orphanage of the Fund by The Lincoln which the trusteeship under section 27(c)(2) is designed to protect, Applicants request an exemption from the requirement of section 27(c)(2) for literal compliance with sections 26(a)(2) and (3). Applicants have consented to the requested exemption being subject to the condition that the charges under the contracts for administrative services shall not exceed such reasonable amounts as the Commission shall prescribe, and that the Commission shall reserve jurisdiction for such purpose.

Section 6(c) authorizes the Commission to exempt any person, security, or transaction, or any class or classes of persons, securities, or transactions, from the provisions of the Act and Rules promulgated thereunder if and to the extent that such exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than August 24, 1967, at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request and the issues of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission shall order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request shall be served personally or by mail (airmail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon Applicant at the address stated above. Proof of such service (by affidavit or in case of an attorney at law by certificate) shall be filed contemporaneously with the request. At any time after said date, as provided by Rule 0-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application herein may be issued by the Commission upon the basis of the information stated in said application, unless an order for hearing upon said application shall be issued upon request or upon the Commission's own motion. Persons who request a hearing or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered, will receive notice of further developments in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

MINUTEMAN MOTELS, INC.

Order Temporarily Suspending Exemption, Statement of Reasons Therefor, and Notice of Opportunity for Hearing

AUGUST 10, 1967.

I. Minuteman Motels, Inc. (issuer), 2520 South State Street, Salt Lake City, Utah, a Utah corporation, with offices stated to be at 2520 South State Street, Salt Lake City, Utah, filed with the Commission on July 29, 1966, a notification and an offering circular relating to a public offering of 300,000 shares of its $1 par value common stock at $1 per share for an aggregate offering price of $300,000 for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the provisions of section 3(b) thereof, and Regulation A promulgated thereunder. The filing was cleared on October 12, 1966 and the offering commenced on October 13, 1966. The issuer filed an amendment on January 6, 1967, and the offering was recommenced on February 21, 1967. Initially, officers and directors were to sell the entire offering for a 15 percent commission; however, the amendment provided that Western Brokerage, Inc. would sell 250,000 shares and would receive a 15 percent commission, and officers and directors would sell the remaining 50,000 shares for a 15 percent commission. On July 13, 1967, the issuer filed a Form 2-A stating that 45,506 shares had been sold for $11,585 and that the offering was being reduced to the number of shares actually sold.

II. The Commission has reason to believe from information reported to it by its staff that:

A. The terms and conditions of Regulation A have not been complied with in that:

1. The issuer filed a materially false and misleading Form 2-A report.

2. The issuer offered and sold certain of its securities to the public without delivering a copy of an offering circular containing the information required by Schedule 1 of Form 1-A in violation of Rule 256(a)(1).

3. The issuer offered and sold certain of its securities to the public in violation of the 10-day waiting period imposed by Rules 255(a) and 256(f).

4. The issuer offered and sold certain of its securities through an individual who was not named as an underwriter in the notification and offering circular.

5. The method of distribution to be used in the sale of its stock is not accurately or adequately disclosed.

6. Disclosure was not made in the offering circular that certain of the shares would be issued as a bonus without cash payment.

B. The notification, offering circular, and amendments thereto used in connection with the sale of certain of the issuer's securities contain untrue statements of material facts and omit to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, particularly with respect to the following:

1. The issuer used an offering circular dated October 13, 1966, in offering and selling some of its securities which failed to disclose that issuer's president, vice-president and principal promoters had resigned their positions and the reasons therefor;

2. The failure to disclose that the issuer abandoned its business offices and the reasons therefor;

3. The failure to disclose that the issuer offered and sold certain of its securities at a discount from the public offering price and/or for consideration other than cash and the effects thereof;

4. The issuer used an offering circular dated October 13, 1966, in offering and selling some of its securities which failed to disclose that the issuer and two of its officers had been named as defendants in a civil action filed November 8, 1966.

C. The offering was made in violation of section 17 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

III. It appearing to the Commission that it is in the public interest and for the protection of investors that the exemption of the issuer under Regulation A be temporarily suspended:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 261(a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption of the issuer under Regulation A be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

It is further ordered, Pursuant to Rule 7 of the Commission's rules of practice, that the issuer file an answer to the allegations contained in this order within thirty days of the entry thereof.

Notice is hereby given that any person having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for a hearing within 30 days after the entry of this order; that within twenty days after receipt of such request the Commission will, or at any time upon its own motion may, set the matter down for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension should be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; and that notice of the time and place for said hearing will be promptly given by the Commission. If no hearing is requested and none is ordered by the Commission, the order shall become permanent on the thirtieth day after its entry and shall remain in effect unless it is modified or vacated by the Commission.

By the Commission.

SOUTHWESTERN ELECTRIC POWER CO. AND CENTRAL & SOUTH WEST CORP.

Notice of Proposed Amendment of Certificate of Incorporation

AUGUST 10, 1967.

Notice is hereby given that Southwestern Electric Power Company ("Southwestern"), 428 Travis Street, Shreveport, La. 71102, a registered holding company and an electric utility subsidiary company of Central & South West Corp. ("Central"), 902 Market Street, Wilmington, Del. 19899, also a registered holding company, have filed a joint application-declaration with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act"), designating sections 6(a), 7, 9, 10, and 12(f) of the Act and Rules 20 and 50 of the general rules as applicable to the proposed transactions. All interested persons are referred to the application-declaration, which is summarized below, for a complete statement of the proposed transactions.

Southwestern proposes to change, by amendment to its Certificate of Incorporation, the 5,500,000 authorized shares of its common stock of the par value of $10 each, both issued and unissued, into 5,500,000 shares of common stock of the par value of $12 each and to transfer from earned surplus to the common stock capital account the sum of $10,533,600—the equivalent of $2 for each of the 5,266,800 shares of common stock ($10 par value) now outstanding.

At June 30, 1967, the common stock capital and the earned surplus of Southwestern amounted to 52,668,000 and $22,528,409, respectively. Giving effect to the proposed transfer, common stock capital would be increased to $63,201,600 and earned surplus would be reduced to $11,994,809. The transactions are proposed for the principal purpose of effectuating a permanent capitalization of a portion of the company's earned surplus. Each of the outstanding common shares having a par value of $10 will, after the proposed transactions, constitute a common share having a par value of $12.

The affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock is required to adopt the proposed amendments. Central, owner of all of the common stock of Southwestern, proposes to give and execute its consent in writing to the adoption of the proposed amendments to the certificate of incorporation.

Fees and expenses in connection with the proposed transactions to be paid by Southwestern are estimated not to exceed $1,500, including legal fees of $1,000. It is stated that no State commission or Federal commission, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than August 31, 1967, request in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by said application-declaration which he desires to controvert; or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request should be served personally or by mail (airmail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon the applicants-declarants at the above-stated addresses, and proof of service (by affidavit or, in case of an attorney at law, by certificate) should be filed with the request. At any time after said date, the application-declaration, as filed or as amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule 23 of the general rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, or the Commission may grant exemption from such rules as provided in Rules 20(a) and 100 thereof or take such other action as it may deem appropriate. Persons who request a hearing or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered, will receive notice of further developments in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

Because it is possible that other parties, who have relied upon the notice of the application as published, may have an interest in and would be prejudiced by the lack of proper notice of the authority described in the findings in this order, a notice of the authority actually granted will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, and issuance of a certificate in this proceeding will be withheld for a period of 30 days from the date of such publication, during which period any proper party in interest may file a petition to reopen or for other appropriate relief setting forth in detail the precise manner in which it has been so prejudiced.

No. MC 107110 (Sub-No. 5) (Republication), filed February 1, 1967, published

FEDERAL REGISTER issue of February 24, 1967, and republished this issue. Applicant: GERALD L. DINNISON, LAWRENCE E. BLACK, F. A. BRION (ANNE E. BRION, EXECUTRIX), AND R. H. An order of the Commission, Operating Rights Board, dated July 24, 1967, and served August 3, 1967, finds that the present and future public convenience and necessity require operation by applicants, in interstate or foreign commerce, as a common carrier by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, of general commodities (except classes A and B explosives, household goods as defined by the Commission, commodities in bulk, and those which because of size or weight require the use of special equipment) between points in that part of Pennsylvania bounded by a line beginning at Coudersport, Pa., and extending north along Pennsylvania Highway 44 to junction Pennsylvania Highway 49, thence along Pennsylvania Highway 49 to Westfield, Pa., thence along Pennsylvania Highway 349 to Sabinsville, thence along unnumbered highway to junction U.S. Highway 6 northeast of Ansonia, Pa., thence along U.S. Highway 6 to junction unnumbered highway southwest of Ansonia, thence southward along unnumbered highway via Leetonia to junction Pennsylvania Highway 414 to Slate Run, Pa., thence northwest along unnumbered highway to junction Pennsylvania Highway 44, thence along Pennsylvania Highway 44 to junction U.S. Highway 6, thence along U.S. Highway 6 to Coudersport, the place of beginning, including points of said highways, on the one hand, and, on the other, Cleveland, Ohio, and Baltimore, Md., subject to the restriction that this authority shall not be tacked or combined with any other authority now held by applicant for the purpose of performing a through service from or to points other than those named herein; that applicants are fit, willing, and able properly to perform such service and to conform to the requirements of the Interstate Commerce Act and the Commission's rules and regulations thereunder. Because it is possible that other parties, who have relied upon the notice of the application as published, may have an interest in and would be prejudiced by the lack of proper notice of the authority described in the findings in this order, a notice of the authority actually granted will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and issuance of a certificate in this proceeding will be withheld for a period of 30 days from the date of such publication, during which period any proper party in interest may file a petition to intervene in this proceeding setting forth in detail the precise manner in which it has been so prejudiced.

Because it is possible that other parties, who have relied upon the notice of the application as published, may have an interest in and would be prejudiced by the lack of proper notice of the authority described in the findings in this order, a notice of the authority actually granted will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and issuance of a certificate in this proceeding will be withheld for a period of 30 days from the date of such publication, during which period any proper party in interest may file a petition to reopen or for other appropriate relief setting forth in detail the precise manner in which it has been so prejudiced.

Because it is possible that other parties, who have relied upon the notice of the application as published, may have an interest in and would be prejudiced by the lack of proper notice of the authority described in the findings in this order, a notice of the authority actually granted will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and issuance of a certificate in this proceeding will be withheld for a period of 30 days from the date of such publication, during which period any proper party in interest may file a petition to reopen or for other appropriate relief setting forth in detail the precise manner in which it has been so prejudiced.

PART 713—EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

Investigation and Agency Systems

Section 713.214 is amended to recognize the validity of official inquiries to solicit voluntary information relative to race, creed, color, or national origin to resolve discrimination complaints. Section 713.302 is amended to cancel the authority for employee self-identification in connection with the minority group statistics system and in lieu thereof provide for the collection of gross statistics by visual survey and to strengthen the controls pertaining to the system. Effective on publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER § 713.214 and § 713.302 are amended as set out below.

§ 713.214 Investigation.

The Equal Employment Opportunity Officer or his designated representative shall promptly investigate the complaint. The investigation shall include a thorough review of the circumstances under which the alleged discrimination occurred, the treatment of members of the complainant's group identified by his complaint as compared with the treatment of other employees in the organizational segment in which the alleged discrimination occurred, and any policies and practices related to the work situation which may constitute, or appear to constitute, discrimination even though they have not been expressly cited by the complainant. When gross data collected under Subpart C of this part will not provide the specific information needed to resolve a complaint of discrimination on the basis of race, creed, color, or national origin, the Equal Employment Opportunity Officer or his representative may collect the required data by asking each employee concerned to provide the information voluntarily; he shall not require or coerce an employee to provide this information. The agency shall furnish the complainant and his representative opportunity to review the investigative file or shall furnish the complainant and his representative a written summary which contains all the information in the investigation material to the resolution of the complaint.

§ 713.302 Agency systems.

(a) Each agency shall establish a system which provides statistical employment information by race or national origin.

(b) Data shall be collected only by visual survey and only in the form of gross statistics. An agency shall not collect or maintain any record of the race or national origin of individual employees.

(c) Each system is subject to the following controls:

(1) Only those categories of race and national origin prescribed by the Commission may be used;

(2) Only the specific procedures for the collection and maintenance of data that are prescribed or approved by the Commission may be used;

(3) The Commission shall review the operation of the agency system to insure adherence to Commission procedures and requirements. An agency may make an exception to the prescribed procedures and requirements only with the advance written approval of the Commission.

(d) The agency may use the data only in studies and analyses which contribute affirmatively to achieving the objectives of the equal employment opportunity program. An agency shall not establish a quota for the employment of persons on the basis of race or national origin.

(e) An agency shall report to the Commission on employment by race and national origin in the form and at such times as the Commission may require.

Title 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—Consumer and Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders; Fruits, Vegetables, Nuts), Department of Agriculture

PART 987—DOMESTIC DATES PRODUCED OR PACKED IN A DESIGNATED AREA OF CALIFORNIA

Free and Restricted Percentages and Withholding Factors for 1967–68 Crop Year

Notice was published in the July 28, 1967, issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER (32 F.R. 11038) regarding a proposal to establish free and restricted percentages and withholding factors applicable to particular varieties of domestic dates for the 1967–68 crop year beginning August 1, 1967. The establishment of such percentages and withholding factors is pursuant to the applicable provisions of the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 987, as amended (7 CFR Part 987), regulating the handling of domestic dates produced or packed in a designated area of California. The amended marketing agreement and order are effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674). The proposal was recommended by the Date Administrative Committee.

The notice afforded interested persons opportunity to submit written data, views, or arguments with respect to the proposal. None were submitted within the prescribed time.

After consideration of all relevant matter presented, including that in the notice, the information and recommendations submitted by the Committee, and other available information, it is found that to establish free percentages, restricted percentages, and withholding factors as hereinafter set forth will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Therefore, the free percentages, restricted percentages, and withholding factors for the 1967–68 crop year for marketable dates are, pursuant to §§ 987.44 and 987.45, established as follows:

§ 987.215 Free and restricted percentages, and withholding factors.[1]

The various free percentages, restricted percentages, and withholding factors applicable to marketable dates of each variety shall be, for the crop year beginning August 1, 1967, and ending July 31, 1968, as follows: (a) Deglet Noor variety dates: Free percentage, 65 percent; restricted percentage, 35 percent; and withholding factor, 53.8 percent; (b) Zahidi variety dates: Free percentage, 72 percent; restricted percentage, 28 percent; and withholding factor, 38.9 percent; (c) Halawy variety dates: Free percentage, 100.0 percent; restricted percentage, 0.0 percent; and withholding factor, 0.0 percent; and (d) Khadrawy variety dates: Free percentage, 100.0 percent; restricted percentage, 0.0 percent; and withholding factor, 0.0 percent.

[1] The Date Administrative Committee included no countries other than the United States and Canada in its determination of trade demand.

It is further found that good cause exists for not postponing the effective time of this action until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 553) in that: (1) The relevant provisions of said marketing agreement and this part require that (a) free and restricted percentages and withholding factors established for a particular crop year shall be applicable during the entire crop year to all marketable dates, and (b) the withholding obligations based on the continued regulation from the preceding crop year shall be adjusted to the newly established percentages upon their establishment; and (2) the percentages and withholding factors established herein for the crop year beginning August 1, 1967, will apply, and adjustment thereto of handlers' withholding obligations are required, automatically, with respect to all such dates.

Dated: August 14, 1967.

PAUL A. NICHOLSON,
Deputy Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Consumer and Marketing Service.

PART 987—DOMESTIC DATES PRODUCED OR PACKED IN A DESIGNATED AREA OF CALIFORNIA

Expenses of Date Administrative Committee and Rate of Assessment for 1967–68 Crop Year

Notice was published in the July 28, 1967, issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER (32 F.R. 11038) regarding proposed expenses of the Date Administrative Committee for the 1967–68 crop year and rate of assessment for that crop year, pursuant to §§ 987.71 and 987.72 of the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 987, as amended (7 CFR Part 987), regulating the handling of domestic dates produced or packed in a designated area of California. The marketing agreement and order are effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674).

The notice afforded interested persons an opportunity to submit written data, views, or arguments with respect to the proposal. None were submitted within the prescribed time.

After consideration of all relevant matter presented, including that in the notice, the information and recommendations submitted by the Date Administrative Committee, and other available information, it is found that the expenses of the Date Administrative Committee and the rate of assessment for the crop year beginning August 1, 1967, shall be as follows:

§ 987.312 Expenses of the Date Administrative Committee and rate of assessment for the 1967–68 crop year.

(a) Expenses. Expenses in the amount of $26,970 are reasonable and likely to be incurred by the Date Administrative Committee during the crop year beginning August 1, 1967, for its maintenance and functioning and for such other purposes as the Secretary may, pursuant to the applicable provisions of this part, determine to be appropriate.

(b) Rate of assessment. The rate of assessment for that crop year which each handler is required, pursuant to § 987.72, to pay to the Date Administrative Committee as his pro rata share of the expenses is fixed at 8 cents per hundredweight on all dates he has certified during the crop year as meeting the requirements for marketable dates, including the eligible portion of any field-run dates certified and set aside or disposed of pursuant to § 987.45(f).

It is found that good cause exists for not postponing the effective time of this action until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 553) in that: (1) The relevant provisions of said marketing agreement and this part require that the rate of assessment fixed for a particular crop year shall be applicable to all dates certified during that crop year as meeting the requirements for marketable dates, including the eligible portion of certain field-run dates; and (2) the current crop year began on August 1, 1967, and the rate of assessment herein fixed will automatically apply to all such dates beginning with that date.

(Secs. 1–19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601–674)

Dated: August 14, 1967.

Title 14—AERONAUTICS AND SPACE

Chapter I—Federal Aviation Administration, Department of Transportation

[Docket No. 67-EA-61; Amdt. No. 463]

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Fairchild Hiller Type 27 Aircraft

Airworthiness Directive 61-15-2 was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER July 13, 1961, requiring certain inspections of wing flap actuating screwjacks and gimbal nuts. This A.D. was subsequently revised on August 19, 1961, September 6, 1961, and October 20, 1966. Fairchild Hiller Corp. has satisfactorily tested a flap gimbal nut and actuating shaft combination which improves the service life of the gimbal nuts. By incorporation of these improved gimbal nuts, the repetitive inspection times required by A.D. 61-15-2 may be extended.

This amendment thus providing an alternative method of compliance imposes no additional burden on any person. Notice and public procedure herein are unnecessary and the amendment may be made effective in less than 30 days.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator 14 CFR 11.85 (31 F.R. 13697) § 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended by amending A.D. 61-15-2 as follows:

(1) Delete the applicability statement and insert in lieu thereof, "Fairchild Hiller: Applies to Type F-27 aircraft, all serial numbers" (including FH-227 serial numbers).

(2) Reletter the present paragraph (e) to read (f) and insert the following new paragraph:

(e) On all F-27 type (including FH-227 models) aircraft, the repetitive inspection and lubrication intervals required by (c) may be increased as specified in Fairchild Hiller Service Bulletin 27-46 (F-27), dated April 4, 1967, and 27-3 (FH-227), dated April 4, 1967, or later revisions approved by the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, FAA Eastern Region, when the improved flap gimbal nut and actuating shaft are incorporated in accordance with these service bulletins, or equivalent modification approved by the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, FAA Eastern Region. If wear is found exceeding the limits specified in these Service Bulletins, or if thread extrusion or roll is found, the gimbal nut must be replaced before further flight with an unused part of the same part number, or an equivalent part approved by the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, FAA Eastern Region, except that the airplane may be flown in accordance with FAR 21.197 to a base where the replacement can be made.

(3) In the parenthetical note at the end of the A.D. delete all after "paragraph (a)".

This amendment is effective August 17, 1967.

(Secs. 313(a), 601, 603, Federal Aviation Act of 1958; 49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, 1423)

Issued in Jamaica, N.Y., on August 9, 1967.

WAYNE HENDERSHOT,
Acting Director, Eastern Region.

[F.R. Doc. 67-9703; Filed, Aug. 16, 1967; 8:51 a.m.]

[Docket No. 67-EA-75; Amdt. No. 464]

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Piper Type PA22 Aircraft

There have been reports of engine failures in PA22 type aircraft in which fuel starvation has been a contributing factor. These failures have been coincident with takeoff and less than six (6) gallons of fuel in the right tank, when the right tank is being utilized. To safeguard against this condition an airworthiness directive is being issued to require placarding of the fuel gauge for the right tank. This prohibits takeoff with less than one-third fuel indication in the right tank.

Since a situation exists that requires immediate adoption of this regulation, it is found that notice and procedure are impracticable and good cause exists for making this amendment effective in less than 30 days.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator, 14 CFR 11.85 (31 F.R. 13697), § 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended by adding the following airworthiness directive:

PIPER: Applies to Type PA-22 aircraft Serial Nos. 22-1 to 22-7642 inclusive.

Compliance required within the next 50 hours' time in service after the effective date of this AD.

Title 16—COMMERCIAL PRACTICES

Chapter I—Federal Trade Commission

[File No. 205-3-1]

PART 302—RULES AND REGULATIONS UNDER FLAMMABLE FABRICS ACT

Ornamental Millinery Veils or Veilings; Interpretation

On June 3, 1954 the Federal Trade Commission issued "An Interpretation of section 2(d) of the Flammable Fabrics Act with respect to Ornamental Millinery Veils or Veilings". Such interpretation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 9, 1954 at 19 F.R. 3373. The interpretation read:

Ornamental millinery veils or veilings when used as a part of, in conjunction with, or as a hat, are not to be considered such a "covering for the neck, face, or shoulders" as would, under the first proviso of section 2(d) of the Flammable Fabrics Act, cause the hat to be included within the definition of the term "article of wearing apparel".

By notice issued January 13, 1967, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on January 18, 1967, the Commission rescinded the above interpretation on the basis that after reconsideration of the matter, the Commission was of the opinion that determination of whether ornamental millinery veils or veilings which are used as a part of, in conjunction with or as a hat are to be considered a "covering for the neck, face, or shoulders", under the first proviso of section 2(d) of the Flammable Fabrics Act should be made on the basis of the facts in each specific situation and that ornamental millinery veils or veilings should not be excluded from the operation of the Flammable Fabrics Act as a class.

On the application of certain interested parties for a reconsideration of its action the Commission directed its staff to consult with representatives of the ornamental veils and veiling industry in an effort to bring about an interpretation of section 2(d) of the Flammable Fabrics Act with respect to ornamental millinery veils or veilings which would be acceptable to the Commission and which would fully protect the public interest.

After fully considering all information available to it and consulting with interested members of the affected industries, the Commission hereby issues the following interpretation:

Ornamental millinery veils or veilings when used as a part of, in conjunction with, or as a hat, are not to be considered such a "covering for the neck, face, or shoulders" as would, under the first proviso of section 2(d) of the Flammable Fabrics Act, cause the hat to be included within the definition of the term "article of wearing apparel" where such ornamental millinery veils or veilings do not extend more than nine (9) inches from the tip of the crown of the hat to which they are attached and do not extend more than two (2) inches beyond the edge of the brim of the hat.

Where hats are composed entirely of ornamental millinery veils or veilings such hats will not be considered as subject to the Flammable Fabrics Act if the veils or veilings from which they are manufactured were not more than nine (9) inches in width and do not extend more than nine (9) inches from the tip of the crown of the completed hat.

This interpretation shall apply to all hats manufactured after the date of publication of this interpretation in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Hats manufactured prior to the date of the publication of this interpretation in the FEDERAL REGISTER may be marketed and handled for nine (9) months after such publication date where such hats comply with the June 3, 1954 interpretation of section 2(d) of the Flammable Fabrics Act with respect to ornamental millinery veils or veilings and the person marketing or handling such hats is able to establish that they were manufactured prior to the date of publication of the present interpretation.

Interested persons may submit written comments to the Federal Trade Commission, Washington, D.C. 20580 within thirty (30) days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER but this shall not affect the interpretation unless the Commission shall so order.

Issued: August 14, 1967.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] JOSEPH W. SHEA,
Secretary.

Title 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter VI—Department of the Navy

SUBCHAPTER C—PERSONNEL

PART 732—MEDICAL AND DENTAL CARE AT NAVY EXPENSE AT NON-NAVY FACILITIES

Miscellaneous Amendments

Scope and purpose. Part 732, Subpart E—Payments, Reports, Collections for Subsistence, and Records, is amended to conform with recent amendments to the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery Instruction 6320.23 distributed to naval commands by Change 2 to the Instruction.

1. Section 732.41 is revised to read as follows:

§ 732.41 General.

Bills for care from non-Federal sources should be processed for payment as soon as possible. When settlement cannot be accomplished without unusual delay the claimant should be advised of the status of the claim. Advice on unusual or questionable cases may be requested of the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery (Code 314).

2. Section 732.43 is revised to read as follows:

§ 732.43 Payment for care at other than Federal facilities.

(a) Approving and paying officers. Except for NATO personnel, approval of claims for care furnished within naval districts shall be accomplished by the appropriate authorizing officer set forth in § 732.23. Payment of the approved claim shall be made by the disbursing officer serving the approving command. For care furnished elsewhere the claim shall be approved by the authorizing officer (§ 732.33) or if such officer has left the area by another naval command in the area. Bills for NATO personnel should be sent to the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery (Code 46F).

(b) Preparation of claims. Unpaid bills should be prepared in quadruplicate, itemized to show the dates on or between which services were rendered or supplies furnished, and the nature of and the charge for each item. Receipt of the services or supplies should be acknowledged on the face of the bill, or by separate certificate, by the person receiving treatment, or by an officer having cognizance of the case. Separate bills should be submitted for services of special nurses, anesthetists, or other persons on a fee basis, unless the bill including such services is accompanied by receipts to show that the expenses have been defrayed by the physician, dentist or hospital submitting the bill, or by a statement to the effect that the individual is a full-time employee of the payee. In cases where the expenses have already been paid by an individual including a service member, a claim for reimbursement may be made by the person defraying the expenses by submitting the bills which were paid, either receipted or with other equal evidence of their payment, proof that the claimant paid the bills, and a request for reimbursement. The complete address to which the check is to be mailed should be indicated. The material required above should be forwarded with the form NAVMED-U to the appropriate approving officer.

(c) Approval/disapproval of claims. When the required documents have been received by the approving officer, he shall determine whether the bills are payable in whole or in part or whether the claims should be disallowed. Where payment is to be disallowed the claimant should receive a prompt and courteous letter stating the reason for the disallowance. If approvable, the approving authority will prepare a Public Voucher for Medical Services, NAVCOMPT 2160, and forward the voucher supported by itemized invoices to the appropriate disbursing office for payment in accordance with the Navy Comptroller Manual, paragraph 046393. The bureau control copy of the voucher will be supported by a copy of the invoice as required by the Navy Comptroller Manual, paragraphs 046023 and 046393. Approving authorities shall take precautions against duplicate payments in accordance with the Navy Comptroller Manual, paragraphs 046073 and 046331. The Public Voucher for Medical Services shall include the following information in addition to that which is self-explanatory in columnar headings:

(1) Number of days or treatment. For inpatient hospitalization, enter number of days for which room and board charges are incurred. For outpatient treatments enter number; count one visit as one treatment for the purposes of this form. When ambulance service is listed as an item, enter number of trips in this column.

(2) Accounting classification code. This code shall include accounting date in the sequence required by Chapter 4, Financial Management of Resources, NAVSO–P–3006, which for the purposes of this Instruction is as follows:

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
17	1804	1860	–	24001	–	18	2D	– Cost Code

Enter the fiscal year current at the time the services were received as the third digit in coding element 1. When 2 fiscal years are involved and claims are clearly divisible between the two, the accounting classification code for each year should be cited respective to the amounts billed for each year. In coding element 9, the cost code, enter the following:

Digits	Description	Code
1, 2, 3, 4	BUMED Cost Center	COSO (Use 4 in 3d digit if case is dental).
5, 6	Naval District	01 to 18.
	Inpatient Charge	1.
	Outpatient Charge	2.
	Other—To include	3.
7	Canal Zone payments, Dependents care overseas, TAD travel, and T/R's and meal tickets.
8, 9, 10	Number of days or treatments.	Actual number.
11, 12	Month in which services commenced.	01–12.

Ambulance trips shall be coded as 1 or 2 in digit 7 of the cost code according to which type of treatment followed, (1) inpatient or (2) outpatient. In digits 8, 9, 10, enter zeros for invoices involving services related to, but billed separately from hospitalization charges.

(d) Amount payable. The amounts payable in any case shall be those considered reasonable by the approving officer after taking into consideration all of the facts in the case. Normally payment should be approved at rates generally prevailing within the geographical area where the services or supplies were furnished. Rates specially established by the Veterans Administration or those used in Medicare should not be considered controlling though they may be considered along with other facts. If, after careful review, any charge is considered excessive, the claimant should be apprised of the conclusion reached and provided an opportunity to voluntarily reduce the amount of the claim. If this does not result in a proper reduction of the bill and the claim is that of a physician or dentist, the difference in opinions should be referred to the grievance committee of the claimant's professional group for an opinion as to the reasonableness of the charge. If satisfactory settlement of any claim cannot be made, it should be forwarded to BUMED (Code 314) for decision. Payment shall not be withheld to seek payment from health benefit plans or insurance policies for which premiums are paid privately by service members.

(e) Cases involving third party liability. Whenever bills are paid for services provided for a condition which may give rise to a claim against a third party, the approving officer shall comply with the requirements of 32 CFR Part 757.

3. Section 732.44 is revised to read as follows:

§ 732.44 Collection for subsistence.

The accounts of officers (Navy, Marine Corps) receiving treatment in Veterans Administration hospitals, the Canal Zone Hospital, or in civilian hospitals at the Department of the Navy expense will be checked for subsistence. This checkage will be made by Hospital Ration Notice, Navy S & A Form 534, which will be submitted by the officer's commanding officer or activity designated by the commandant to the disbursing officer having custody of the member's pay record. It is the responsibility of the originating activity to insure that checkage has been accomplished in accordance with the Navy Comptroller Manual, paragraph 044025. When officers are hospitalized in an Army, Air Force, or U.S. Public Health Service medical facility, the charge for subsistence will be collected by the facility.

4. Section 732.45 is amended by revising the caption and the section to read as follows:

§ 732.45 Report—Form NAVMED–U, Report of Medical Treatment, Hospitalization, and Allied Services, MED 6320–2.

This report is required in each case of sickness or injury of any person in Subpart B who receives care from any source other than a Federal facility. The report in triplicate shall be prepared by a naval medical or dental officer, when practicable, or otherwise by the senior officer present. The line-of-duty item 10 and the personal payment certificate on the reverse side should not be completed in any case. Form NAVMED–U is available in the Naval Supply System. Completed forms should be forwarded to the approving officer set forth in § 732.43(a), supplemented as appropriate by requirements of instructions issued by approving authorities.

5. Section 732.46 is revised to read as follows:

§ 732.46 Records.

The copy of the paid Public Voucher for Medical Services (NAVCOMPT 2160) or other paid voucher and the accounting card (NAVCOMPT Form 632) containing the accounting classification and cost code information received from Navy Finance Centers, provide all the management information by BUMED under normal circumstances. No other records need be forwarded to BUMED by approving authorities except copies of correspondence or other pertinent documents which, in the judgment of the approving officer, will furnish BUMED with information which might be used to improve administration of the program.

§ 882.0 Purpose.

This part explains Air Force policy on awarding military and nonmilitary decorations, service awards, and unit awards; states the type and describes decorations and awards authorized in the Air Force. It tells what each decoration, service award, and unit award means, the basis or eligibility requirement for the award, who is eligible to receive, and which headquarters is authorized to award. It includes information on decorations and awards conferred by other U.S. agencies and foreign countries and provides information relative to the award or use of special badges, favorable communications, certificates, and related appurtenances. This part applies to all Air Force units, including the Air Force Reserve and Air National Guard.

Subpart A—General

§ 882.1 Objective.

The objective of the Air Force Awards and Decorations Program is to foster morale, incentive, and esprit de corps.

§ 882.2 Decorations and unit awards.

Decorations and unit awards afford a means of accomplishing the above-stated objective through prompt public recognition of acts of exceptional bravery, outstanding achievement, and meritorious service performed by individuals or units. To preserve their integrity, decorations and unit awards may be awarded only to recognize acts or services which are clearly and distinctly outstanding by nature and magnitude. These acts or services must place the individuals' or units' performance significantly above that of their contemporaries and be of such importance that they cannot be appropriately recognized in any other way.

§ 882.3 Service awards.

Service awards normally are awarded to recognize honorable, active, Federal military service during periods of war or national emergency. They are also awarded for participation in specified, significant, military operations, and for specific types of service while on active duty or as a member of the Air Reserve Forces. For the purpose of determining eligibility for service awards, the term "active Federal military service" is interpreted as all periods of military service in a Regular component of the Armed Forces of the United States or any of the Reserve components listed in § 882.70 while on extended active duty, and service as a cadet or midshipman of the U.S. Air Force, Army or Naval academies.

§ 882.4 Other recognition.

Other means of accomplishing the objective stated in § 882.1 are described in this part. They are: Favorable communications, special badges, certificates, lapel buttons, and such special devices as clasps, arrowheads, stars, clusters, and fourrageres.

§ 882.5 Definitions.

As used in this part:

(a) "Awarded" means the act of approving a recommendation for a decoration or the act of confirming entitlement to a service award or device.

(b) "Presented" means the physical transfer (issuing, delivering, handing over, or pinning on) of a decoration, medal, or device from the Air Force to a person entitled to receive it.

§ 882.6 Precedence and wear.

The order of precedence for all decorations and service awards and the method of wearing all decorations, awards, ribbons, badges, and devices are described in AFM 35–10 (Service and Dress Uniforms for AF Personnel).

§ 882.7 Manufacture, sale, and wear.

By law (18 U.S.C. 704) the manufacture, sale, or wear of any USAF decoration, service award, award element, device, or related appurtenance, or the pictorial representation in regulation size of such item or article, is prohibited unless authorized by the Department of the Air Force.

§ 882.8 Use of decorations, awards, and devices in exhibitions.

(a) By public institutions and patriotic societies. Upon DAF approval, Air Force decorations, service awards, ribbons, devices, and streamers for exhibition may be furnished at cost, including charges for packing, mailing, transportation, engraving each medal or decoration and embroidering each streamer with the words "Exhibition Only." These items may be furnished only to museums, libraries, and historical, numismatic, and military societies, and other institutions which provide an opportunity for the public to view them under circumstances beneficial to the Air Force.

(b) By U.S. military organizations and other U.S. Government agencies. Upon DAF approval the items mentioned in paragraph (a) of this section may be furnished for display at a major command headquarters, other Air Force activities approved by a major commander, and at other military departments. They also may be furnished for public displays to U.S. Government agencies not under military jurisdiction.

(c) Where to send requests. All requests for decorations, awards, ribbons, devices, and streamers for exhibit or display will be submitted to USAF Military Personnel Center (AFPMSAM), Randolph AFB, TX 78148, for approval.

(d) Where to send requisitions. Upon approval, requisitions for elements will be submitted by military organizations in accordance with AFM 67–1 (USAF Supply Manual). Upon approval for other than military organizations, Hq USAF makes arrangements for issue of the elements by the Defense Personnel Support Center, Directorate of Clothing and Textiles, 2800 South 20th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19101.

§ 882.9 Procurement and supply.

(a) Requisitioning procedure. The decorations, service medals, ribbons, devices, and unit streamers described in this part (except as in par. (c) of this section) may be requisitioned through normal supply channels in accordance with AFM 67–1. These items will not be locally procured or manufactured. Requisitions for streamers must indicate the authority for the award and the appropriate inscription to be embroidered on the streamer, if applicable.

(b) Items available. The following Federal Supply Catalog list items available through the supply system, together with Federal stock numbers, index numbers, and unit prices.

(1) Decorations, service awards, related devices, and presentation hook attachments for medals or ribbon bars (for clutch and pin type fastening devices)—Federal Supply Catalog C8455.

(3) Individual emblems denoting unit awards—Federal Supply Catalogs C8400/70–1L–AF and C8400/70–MIL–AF.

(c) Items not available. Miniature medals, including decorations and service medals, related miniature devices, miniature ribbons, and the idividual emblems for the Presidential Unit Citations of the Republic of Korea and the Philippine Republic are neither issued nor sold by the Department of the Air Force. Also, the individual emblems for referenced Presidential Citations are not issued by the respective governments of those countries. All miniature items listed may be purchased from base exchanges or from commercial dealers in military devices and appurtenances.

NOTE: Except for the Legion of Merit in the degrees of Chief Commander and Commander, Hq USAF includes a miniature medal in the award package presented to foreign nationals.

§ 882.10 Replacement of decorations and service medals.

(a) Decorations. The person to whom a decoration has been awarded (awardee) or the representative of a person to whom a decoration was posthumously awarded, may receive a replacement decoration without charge, if the previously issued decoration (including medal, bar, ribbon, rosette, or other device issued for wear with or in place of any individual or unit decoration) has been lost, destroyed, or rendered unfit for use, without fault or neglect on the part of the awardee or the representative. All other replacement decorations will be provided at cost price.

(b) Service medals. Any service medal (including ribbon, clasp, star, or similar device prescribed as a part of the medal) which has been lost, destroyed, or rendered unfit for use, without fault or neglect on the part of the owner, may be replaced without charge, if the owner is an Air Force member. However, if the owner is not an Air Force member, the medal may be replaced at cost. For this purpose, an Air Force member includes active duty members, Air Reserve Forces members, and retired members.

(c) Where to send requests for replacement. Requests for replacement decorations and service medals will be routed to the appropriate headquarters/center indicated in the following table, which will verify entitlement and issue the replacement.

Subpart B—U.S. Military Decorations

§ 882.20 Eligibility to receive a military decoration.

The eligibility of a person to receive a decoration listed in § § 882.25 and 882.26 depends on:

(a) Nature and magnitude of the act, achievement, or service. Sections 882.25 and 882.26 explain which types of acts, achievements, and services are considered worthy of recognition.

(b) Relationship of the person to the Air Force. (1) All military personnel on active duty are eligible to receive any U.S. military decoration.

(2) Members of the Reserve components, while participating in authorized periods of training or while in inactive status, may be considered for all military decorations provided the act, achievement, or service was in furtherance of an Air Force mission or function and meets the established criteria. However, acts, achievements, or services performed by the Reserve member as a private citizen which are of principal benefit to private citizens are not the basis for military decorations.

(c) Posthumous awards. Decorations may be awarded following the decease of the persons being honored, in the same manner as awarded to a living person.

(d) Character of service. (1) No decoration will be awarded or presented to any individual whose entire service during or subsequent to the time of the distinguished act, achievement, or service shall not have been honorable. (See 10 U.S.C. 8744; 8749.)

(2) Any award for a distinguished act, achievement, or service may be revoked before presentation if facts subsequently determined would have prevented original approval of the award. Commanders becoming aware of any such instances must immediately report the circumstances and make recommendations to the awarding authority for review and determination of appropriate action.

(e) Number of decorations awarded. There is no limitation placed on the number of decorations that may be awarded to an individual. However, only one decoration may be awarded for the same act, achievement, or period of service. Any subsequent recommendations for the same decoration should be based upon increasingly higher standards of performance and meritorious service.

§ 882.21 Who may submit a recommendation.

Any person having knowledge of the act, achievement, or service believed to warrant the award of a decoration may initiate a recommendation for the award. Preferred recommendations are those initiated by the person's commander or supervisor at the time the act, achievement, or service was performed.

§ 882.22 When to submit recommendations.

Timely presentation is essential to exploit the full potential of decorations. Accordingly, recommendations must be submitted as soon as possible after the act, achievement or service considered to justify award of a decoration.

§ 882.23 Elements of the decoration.

The elements of a decoration include a case containing the medal with suspension ribbon, ribbon bar, clusters (if any), lapel button, or rosette (as applicable); a certificate; a citation, except for the Purple Heart decoration; and the special orders announcing the award. Except for decorations awarded to foreign military personnel, retired or separated U.S. personnel, and posthumous decorations, special orders are not essential at the time of the presentation ceremony and may be furnished later.

§ 882.24 Special entitlements.

(a) Increase in retired pay. Any Regular enlisted member of the Air Force retired under 10 U.S.C. 8914 credited with extraordinary heroism in the line of duty, is entitled to 10 percent increase in retired pay. An enlisted man who has been awarded the Medal of Honor, Air Force Cross, Distinguished Service Cross, or Navy Cross satisfies the requirement for extraordinary heroism for the purpose of this additional pay. The determination of the Secretary of the Air Force regarding such increases in pay is final for those awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross, Airman's Medal, Soldier's Medal, or equivalent Navy decoration, where extraordinary heroism was involved. (See AFM 35–7, (Service Retirements), for further details and submission of applications.)

(b) Medal of Honor recipients. (1) Medal of Honor Roll: Upon written application to the Secretary of the Air Force, each living recipient of the Medal of Honor, who has served on active duty in the armed forces of the United States, and who has attained the age of 40 years, may have his name entered on the Medal of Honor Roll, if the Medal of Honor was awarded for conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty while so serving. Each person whose name is placed on the Roll is certified to the Veterans' Administration as being entitled to receive a special pension of $100 per month for life, if he so desires, payable monthly by that agency. The payment of this special pension is in addition to, and does not deprive the pensioner of, any other pension, benefit, right, or privilege to which he is or may be thereafter entitled (38 U.S.C. 560–562). Necessary application is automatically furnished each Air Force recipient of the Medal of Honor by Hq USAF not less than 90 days before his reaching age 40.

(2) Air transportation: Living recipients of the Medal of Honor are entitled to free transportation on military aircraft within the continental limits of the United States on a "space available" basis. Identification cards for this purpose are furnished by USAFMPC (AFPMSAM). (See AFR 76–6, Responsibilities and Policies for Movement of Traffic on Other Than MATS Scheduled Aircraft.)

(3) Admission to U.S. Service Academies: Sons of Medal of Honor recipients, otherwise qualified, are not subject to quota requirements for admission to any of the U.S. Service Academies. (See annual catalog, U.S. Air Force Academy.)

(4) Wearing of Air Force uniform: Persons awarded the Medal of Honor, are authorized to wear the uniform at any time, except as prohibited in AFM 35–10.

§ 882.25 Military decorations.

(a) Medal of Honor (MH). (1) Description of award: Within a wreath of laurel in green enamel a gold-finished bronze five-pointed star, one point down, tipped with tiefoils and each point containing a crown of laurel and oak on a green enamel background. Centered upon the star an annulet of 34 stars (the number of states in 1862) containing a representation of the head of the Statue of Liberty. The star is suspended by rings from a trophy consisting of a bar inscribed with the word "VALOR" above an adaptation of the thunderbolt from the USAF coat-of-arms. The bar is suspended from a light blue moire silk neckband behind a square pad in center with corners turned in and charged with 13 white stars in the form of a triple chevron.

(2) Established by: Joint Resolution of Congress, July 12, 1862 (amended by act of July 9, 1918), and is awaraded pursuant to 10 U.S.C. 8741.

(3) Awarded to: U.S. military personnel.

(4) Awarded by: The President of the United States.

(5) Awarded for: Conspicuous gallantry and intrepedity at the risk of life above and beyond the call of duty, while a member of the Air Force:

(i) While engaged in an action against an enemy of the United States;

(ii) While engaged in military operations involving conflict with an opposing foreign force; or

(iii) While serving with friendly foreign forces engaged in an armed conflict against an opposing armed force in which the United States is not a belligerent party.

Each recommendation for the Medal of Honor must incontestably prove that the self-sacrifice or personal bravery involved conspicuous risk of life, the omission of which could not justly cause censure.

NOTE: The new Air Force design of the Medal of Honor will be presented to all recipients who are awarded this decoration on or after November 1, 1965. Original design Medals of Honor awarded prior to November 1, 1965, will remain in effect. They will not be replaced by the new Air Force design medal. Replacements for Medals of Honor lost or destroyed, which were awarded prior to November 1, 1965, will be of the original Medal of Honor design. Because of Federal statutes, awards of the new Medal of Honor should not be officially called or referred to as the "Air Force Medal of Honor." It may be generally referred to as "Medal of Honor—Air Force design," or "the (new) Air Force designed Medal of Honor Medal."

(b) Air Force Cross (AFC). (1) Description of award: A bronze cross with an oxidized satin finish. Centered on the cross is a gold-plated American bald eagle, wings displayed against a cloud formation (from the Air Force Crest) encircled by a laurel wreath finished in green enamel. The ribbon is brittany blue, edged with old glory red, and bears a narrow white vertical stripe inside the red edges.

(2) Established by: Public Law 86–593, July 6, 1960, which amended 10 U.S.C. 8742, to change the designation of the Distinguished Service Cross to Air Force Cross for award by the Department of the Air Force.

(3) Awarded to: U.S. and foreign military and civilian personnel.

(4) Awarded by: Department of Air Force. (This authority is delegated to major air commanders during wartime for awards to U.S. military personnel.) The Secretary of Defense must approve all awards to foreign personnel.

(5) Awarded for: Extraordinary heroism, not justifying the award of a Medal of Honor, while serving in any capacity with the Air Force:

(i) While engaged in an action against an enemy of the United States.

(ii) While engaged in military operations involving conflict with an opposing foreign force; or

(iii) While serving with friendly foreign forces engaged in an armed conflict against an opposing armed force in which the United States is not a belligerent party.

(c) Distinguished Service Medal (DSM). (1) Description of award: At the center of a sunburst of 13 gold rays separated by 12 white enamel stars a blue stone representing the firmament. Ribbon is predominantly white and banded in old gold, with ultramarine stripes and smaller old gold stripes.

(2) Established by: Act of Congress on July 9, 1918, and is awarded pursuant to 10 U.S.C. 8743.

(3) Awarded to: U.S. and foreign military and civilian personnel.

(4) Awarded by: Department of the Air Force. The Secretary of Defense must approve all awards to foreign personnel.

(5) Awarded for: Exceptionally meritorious service to the U.S. Government in a duty of great responsibility, while serving in any capacity with the Air Force. During wartime, a duty of great responsibility is one that involves the exercise of authority or judgment in matters which decide the successful outcome of a major military operation. In peacetime, it is a duty which carries the ultimate responsibility for the successful operation of a major command, activity, installation or major program. The discharge of such duty must involve the acceptance and fulfillment of the obligation so as to greatly benefit the interests of the United States.

NOTE: The new Air Force design of the Distinguished Service Medal will be presented to all recipients who are awarded this decoration on or after November 1, 1965. Date of award is based on date of announcement in special orders. Original design Distinguished Service Medals and oak leaf clusters relating thereto, awarded before November 1, 1965, will remain in effect, and be worn or displayed. They will not be replaced by the new Air Force design medal. Replacements for Distinguished Service Medals lost or destroyed, which were awarded before November 1, 1965, will be of the original Distinguished Service Medal design. Persons awarded a Distinguished Service Medal, Air Force design, who are also recipients of the original Distinguished Service Medal, and/or oak leaf clusters thereto, are entitled to wear both the old and new design medal/ribbon, with the new Air Force designed medal and ribbon taking precedence (in wear only) over the original Distinguished Service Medal. Awards of the new Distinguished Service Medal will not be referred to as oak leaf clusters to the original Distinguished Service Medal, and, because of Federal statutes, should not be officially called or referred to as the Air Force Distinguished Service Medal. It may be generally referred to as the "Distinguished Service Medal * * * Air Force design" or "the (new) Air Force designed Distinguished Service Medal". After the Distinguished Service Medal—Air Force design has been awarded, the second and subsequent awards made will be oak leaf clusters, commencing with the first oak leaf cluster and disregarding any oak leaf cluster awarded before November 1, 1965.

(d) Silver Star (SS). (1) Description of award: A small silver star within a wreath centered on a large star of gold-colored metal. The ribbon has a center band of red flanked by equal bands of white; the white bands are flanked by equal blue bands having borders of white lines with blue edgings.

(2) Established by: Act of Congress on July 9, 1918, and is awarded pursuant to 10 U.S.C. 8746.

(3) Awarded to: U.S. and foreign military and civilian personnel.

(4) Awarded by: Department of the Air Force. (This authority is delegated down to commanders of numbered air forces during wartime for awards to U.S. military personnel.) The Secretary of Defense must approve all awards to foreign personnel.

(5) Awarded for: Gallantry in action, that does not warrant a Medal of Honor or Air Force Cross, while serving in any capacity with the Air Force:

(i) While engaged in an action against an enemy of the United States;

(ii) While engaged in military operations involving conflict with an opposing force; or

(iii) While serving with friendly foreign forces engaged in an armed conflict against an opposing armed force in which the United States is not a belligerent party.

Gallantry in action means heroism of high degree involving risk of life.

(e) Legion of Merit (LM). (1) Description of award: A five-rayed white enamel pronged star on a green wreath with crossed arrows. The cloud and stars of the coat of arms of the United States are displayed in the center. The ribbon is red-purple with white edges. The design of the decoration varies according to the degree in which awarded. It is designed as a breast decoration when awarded in the degree of Chief Commander; a collar decoration when awarded in the degree of Commander; and a chest decoration when awarded in the degree of Officer and Legionnaire.

(2) Established by: Act of Congress on July 20, 1942, and is awarded pursuant to 10 U.S.C. 1121.

(3) Awarded to: U.S. and foreign military personnel.

(4) Awarded by: (i) Department of the Air Force for U.S. military personnel. (This authority is delegated to major commanders during wartime.)

(ii) To foreign military personnel: (a) Degree of Chief Commander—The President of the United States.

(b) Degree of Commander, Officer, and Legionnaire—The Secretary of Defense.

(5) Awarded for: Exceptionally meritorious conduct in the performance of outstanding service to the United States. In peacetime, awards to U.S. military personnel are generally limited to recognizing:

(i) Service in an extremely difficult duty which is performed in a clearly exceptional manner, if such service is of marked national or international significance or of marked significance to the Air Force or the Department of Defense; or

(ii) Service which has aided the U.S. in furthering its national policies; or

(iii) Service which has furthered the interests of the security of the U.S. Superior performance of normal duties will not alone justify award of this decoration. Awards to U.S. military personnel are made without degree. Peacetime awards to members of the armed forces of friendly foreign nations are limited to recognizing: Subdivisions (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph, and service which has furthered the interests of the security of the U.S., or of any nation allied or associated with the U.S. during a period of national emergency declared by the President or Congress. Awards to foreign military personnel are made in the Degrees of Chief Commander, Commander, Officer, and Legionnaire. The Degrees of Chief Commander and Commander are comparable to awards of the Distinguished Service Medal to U.S. personnel. Degrees of Officer and Legionnaire are comparable to awards of the Legion of Merit to U.S. military personnel. In order to maintain the prestige and dignity of the medal, and to insure uniformity in awarding the various degrees to foreign nationals, the following criteria are established:

Degree—	Awarded to—
Chief Commander.	Foreign chiefs of state or heads of government.
Commander	The equivalent of a U.S. military Chief of Staff or higher, but not to chief of state.
Officer	General or flag rank personnel below the equivalent of a U.S. military chief of staff; to ranks parallel to colonel (or captain USN) for service in assignments equivalent to those normally held by general or flag rank personnel in the U.S. military service; and to foreign attaches.
Legionnaire	To all other eligibles.

When the decoration is awarded more than once to a military member of a friendly foreign nation, subsequent awards are never made in a degree lower than the one originally awarded. Duplicate awards are given to recipients previously awarded the Legion of Merit in any of the degrees mentioned in this subparagraph.

(f) Distinguished Flying Cross (DFC). (1) Description of award: A bronze cross with rays on which is displayed a propeller. The ribbon is predominantly blue, with a narrow band of red bordered by white lines in the center. The edges of the ribbon are outlined with equal bands of white inside blue.

(2) Established by: Act of Congress on July 2, 1926, and is awarded pursuant to 10 U.S.C. 8749.

(3) Awarded to: U.S. and foreign military personnel.

(4) Awarded by: Department of the Air Force. (This authority is delegated down to commanders of numbered air forces for award to U.S. military personnel during wartime.) The Secretary of Defense must approve all awards to foreign personnel.

(5) Awarded for: Heroism or extraordinary achievement while participating in aerial flight, and serving in any capacity with the Air Force. Both heroism and achievement must be entirely distinctive, involving operations that are not routine.

(g) Airman's Medal (AmnM). (1) Description of award: A bronze medal disk with an oxidized satin finish. The pendant bears a representation of Hermes, son of Zeus, releasing an American Bald Eagle. The ribbon is brittany blue displaying alternately in the center, 13 vertical stripes of the Air Force colors, golden yellow and ultramarine blue.

(2) Established by: Public Law 86-593, July 6, 1960, which amended 10 U.S.C. 8750 to provide the Air Force with a distinctive decoration for award in lieu of the Soldier's Medal.

(3) Awarded to: U.S. and foreign military personnel.

(4) Awarded by: Department of the Air Force. (This authority is delegated down to commanders of numbered air forces for award to U.S. military personnel during wartime.) The Secretary of Defense must approve all awards to foreign military personnel.

(5) Awarded for: Heroism involving voluntary risk of life under conditions other than those of conflict with an armed enemy of the United States, while serving in any capacity with the Air Force. The saving of a life or the success of the voluntary heroic act is not essential.

(h) Bronze Star Medal (BSM). (1) Description of award: A bronze star bearing in the center a smaller star of the same color. The ribbon is predominantly red with a white-edged narrow blue band in the center, and white lines at each edge.

(2) Established by: Executive Order 9419, February 4, 1944, which was superseded by Executive Order 11046, August 24, 1962.

(3) Awarded to: U.S. and foreign military and civilian personnel.

(4) Awarded by: Department of the Air Force. (This authority is delegated down to commanders of air divisions for award to U.S. military personnel during wartime.) The Secretary of Defense must approve all awards to foreign personnel.

(5) Awarded for: Heroic or meritorious achievement or service (not involving participation in aerial flight) under one or more of the following conditions, while serving in or with the Air Force after December 6, 1941:

(i) While engaged in an action against an enemy of the United States;

(ii) While engaged in military operations involving conflict with an opposing foreign force; or

(iii) While serving with friendly foreign forces engaged in an armed conflict against an opposing armed force in which the U.S. is not a belligerent party.

When awarded for heroism, the Bronze Star Medal is marked by a bronze letter "V" (for valor) clasped to the suspension ribbon and ribbon bar. Only one such "V" is authorized. Members of the armed forces of the United States who were awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge or Medical Badge for exemplary conduct in ground combat against an armed enemy between December 7, 1941, and September 2, 1945, may apply by letter to the Awards Branch, Personnel Services Division, The Adjutant General, Department of the Army, Washington, D.C. 20315, for award of the Bronze Star Medal. A copy of the general order announcing the award of either badge should be attached to the application letter, together with a statement as to whether approval of the Bronze Star Medal would duplicate any previous award for the same period of service. If general orders are not available, the specific authority for the award of the badge must be included in the application letter, or attached thereto.

(i) Air Medal (AM). (1) Description of award: A bronze compass rose displaying an eagle in flight bearing lightning flashes. The ribbon is predominantly blue with two orange-gold bands just inside the edges.

(2) Established by: Executive Order 9158, May 11, 1942, as amended by Executive Order 9242A, September 11, 1942.

(3) Awarded to: U.S. and foreign military and civilian personnel.

(4) Awarded by: Department of the Air Force. (This authority is delegated down to commanders of air divisions for award to U.S. military personnel during wartime.) The Secretary of Defense must approve all awards to foreign personnel.

(5) Awarded for: Meritorious achievement while participating in aerial flight, and serving in any capacity with the Air Force. The required achievement to warrant award of the Air Medal is less than that required for award of the Distinguished Flying Cross, but must nevertheless be accomplished with distinction above and beyond that normally expected of professional airmen.

(j) Combat Readiness Medal (CRM). (1) Description of award: Encircling a ring of stylized cloud forms, a border of concentric rays, its rim concave between 12 points, charged with six arrowheads, alternating with the points of two triangular flight symbols, having center lines ridged conversely. One is pointed south and overlapping, and the other pointed north whose apex extends beyond the rim, becoming the point of suspension of the medal. The ribbon is predominantly old glory red and banded in blue, with a narrow dark blue stripe separated by two wider stripes of light blue.

(2) Established by: Secretary of the Air Force, March 9, 1964. Effective date—August 1, 1964.

(3) Awarded to: U.S. military personnel.

(4) Awarded by: Department of the Air Force and major air commanders.

(Major air commanders are authorized to further delegate approval and disapproval authority to commanders of numbered air forces and to commanders of Air Force organizations in the grade of major general or higher.)

(5) Awarded for: Completion of an aggregate of four years of sustained professional performance as a USAF combat ready aircrew or missile launch crew member assigned to an operational unit subject to the Combat Readiness Rating System under the provisions of AFM 55-11 (Air Force Operational Reporting System RCS: AF-V-21). During this period, the aircrew or missile launch crew member must have been:

(i) Certified as combat ready in accordance with USAF and major command qualification criteria; and

(ii) Serving in a missile launch crew position, or in a rated AFSC position as an aircrew member.

NOTE: Aircrew members on special duty with another U.S. military service may be credited with such service for award of the CRM provided they are designated or certified, while so serving, as combat ready in accordance with that service's criteria (if such criteria closely correlates to USAF and parent command criteria) and provided that other requirements stated in this subparagraph are met. A break in combat ready status (requalification, PCS, sickness, or other cause not attributed to any instance of nonprofessionalism) will be considered as qualifying service for award of the CRM, provided the break is not more than 120 days and the individual returns to combat ready status. Initial award—All qualifying service from August 1, 1964. Subsequent awards—A bronze oak leaf cluster for each additional four years of qualifying service. (3) Awarded to: U.S. and foreign military personnel.

(4) Awarded by: The Department of the Air Force to U.S. and foreign military personnel.

(5) Awarded for: (i) U.S. military personnel below the grade of brigadier general—Outstanding achievement or meritorious service rendered specifically on behalf of the Air Force, acts of courage which do not meet the requirements for award of the Airman's Medal or Bronze Star Medal, and sustained meritorious performance by crewmembers may be considered for award of the Air Force Commendation Medal. (The Air Force Commendation Medal will not be awarded to general or flag officers for achievement or services performed while serving in a general or flag officer grade.) It is particularly desirable that emphasis be placed on the award of this decoration to outstanding company grade officers and airmen whose achievements and services meet the prescribed standards. Superior performance of normal duties does not, in itself, constitute automatic justification for an award of the Air Force Commendation Medal. Appropriate remarks on effectiveness and performance reports, favorable communications, locally developed certificates, etc., provide ample means of recognizing the high caliber performance expected of Air Force personnel. Awards should be restricted to the recognition of achievements and services which are clearly outstanding and unmistakably exceptional when compared to similar achievements and accomplishments of personnel of like rank and responsibilities. The successful accomplishment of a predesignated number of tasks or functions is not a valid basis for an automatic award. However, unusual and extraordinary sustained performance may be used as a point of departure in justifying meritorious achievement or service. In instances where many individuals are affiliated with an exceptionally successful program, project, or mission, the Air Force Commendation Medal should be awarded only to the relatively few individuals whose contributions clearly stand out from the others, and who have contributed most to the success of the program.

(ii) Member of the armed forces of a friendly foreign nation—An act of heroism, extraordinary achievement or meritorious service, performed after June 1, 1962, which has been of mutual benefit to a friendly foreign nation and to the U.S. Air Force. (The award of the Air Force Commendation Medal to a member of the armed forces of a friendly foreign nation shall be based upon an act, a service, or an achievement that would satisfy the criteria governing award of this decoration to a military member of the U.S. Air Force.)

(1) Purple Heart (PH). (i) Description of award: A heart-shaped pendant of purple enamel bearing a gold replica of the head of General George Washington, in relief, and the Washington Shield. The shield is in colors. The ribbon is dark purple with white edges.

(2) Established by: General George Washington on August 7, 1782. It was reestablished by War Department General Order No. 3, 1932, and is currently awarded pursuant to Executive Order 11016, April 25, 1962.

(3) Awarded to: U.S. military and civilian personnel.

(4) Awarded by: Department of the Air Force. (During wartime, or as circumstances may indicate, this authority may be delegated to commanders of numbered air forces, and to commanders in the grade of brigadier general or higher of comparable organizations.) All awards are made in the name of the President. The Department of the Air Force will make all awards to repatriated prisoners of war or internees, and to U.S. personnel killed or declared dead.

(5) Awarded for: Wounds received, or death after being wounded, under any of the following conditions, while serving in any capacity with one of the U.S. Armed Forces, after April 5, 1917:

(i) In any action against an enemy of the United States;

(ii) In any action with an opposing armed force of a foreign country in which the armed forces of the United States are or have been engaged;

(iii) While serving with friendly foreign forces engaged in an armed conflict against an opposing armed force in which the United States is not a belligerent party;

(iv) As a result of an act of any such enemy or opposing armed force; or

(v) As the result of an act of any hostile foreign force.

(vi) Posthumous awards: The Purple Heart will be awarded posthumously to any person covered by, and under the circumstances described in this subparagraph, who, after April 5, 1917, has been or may hereafter be killed, or who has died or may hereafter die after being wounded. For such awards, the Purple Heart and appropriate ribbon and appurtenances will be forwarded to the next-of-kin without respect to whether a previous award has been made to such person, except that if the award results from service before December 7, 1941, the next-of-kin must submit application to the Secretary of the Air Force.

(vii) Definitions and criteria: A Purple Heart is authorized for the first wound suffered under the conditions indicated in this subparagraph, but for each subsequent award, an oak leaf cluster shall be awarded. Only one award will be made for more than one wound or injury received at the same instant or from the same missile, force, explosion, or agent. For the purpose of considering an award of this decoration, a "wound" is defined as an injury to any part of the body from an outside force or agent sustained under one or more of the conditions listed in this subparagraph. A physical lesion is not required, provided the concussion or other form of injury received is due to direct enemy, opposing armed force, or hostile foreign force action. A person who is wounded, injured, or killed as a result of a parachute jump from an aircraft disabled by enemy or hostile fire, or, who is wounded, injured or killed by his captors while in a prisoner of war status, is considered to have received such wounds or injuries as a result of direct enemy, hostile, or opposing force actions. A sworn statement from a released prisoner of war outlining circumstances and extent of injury, including date and place injury was incurred, must be submitted and considered in conjunction with other evidence. Further, a wound for which the award is made must have required treatment by a medical officer, and the records of medical treatment for wounds or injuries received under the conditions described in this subparagraph, must have been made a matter of official record. In those instances where medical records are not available for injuries or wounds received while a prisoner of war, a statement must be submitted by a medical officer that examination reveals that the person apparently received injuries or wounds while in a prisoner of war status, and that such injury or wound should have received medical treatment.

(viii) Application: Any person who believes himself eligible for the Purple Heart, but through unusual circumstances no award was made, may submit available facts and evidence to USAF MPC (AFPMSAM), Randolph AFB, TX 78148, for evaluation and awarding action, if appropriate.

NOTE: A U.S. civilian eligible for this decoration is any civilian national of the United States who is wounded, under described circumstances, while serving under competent authority in any capacity with the military forces of the Department of the Air Force; this includes civil service and nonappropriated funds employees of the DAF, technical representatives, and newsmen, who are so serving.

Subpart D—Foreign Decorations

§ 882.40 General policy concerning acceptance and wear of decorations awarded by foreign governments.

(a) Constitutional prohibition. Clause 8, Section 9, Article I, of the Constitution of the United States provides in part that "no person holding any office of profit or trust under them, shall, without the consent of the Congress, accept of any present, emolument, office, or title, of any kind whatever from any king, prince, or foreign state." The Attorney General has rendered an opinion (24 Op. Atty. Gen. 117) to the effect that any type of gift, whether a present, title, or simple remembrance of courtesy, falls within the prohibition against the acceptance of "any present * * * of any kind whatever."

(b) Applicability of Constitutional prohibition. The prohibition stated in paragraph (a) of this section applies to:

(1) All service members of the Department of the Air Force on active duty and all civilian employees of the Department of the Air Force.

(2) All members of Reserve components of the Air Force whether or not on active duty.

(3) All retired Regular Air Force officers.

(4) All retired officers and airmen, when the decoration is proffered in recognition of service performed while on active duty.

(5) All members of the immediate families of the military and civilian personnel designated in subparagraph (1) through (4) of this paragraph.

(c) Definition. As used in this subpart, a foreign decoration means any decoration, related medal, badge, insignia, ribbon, order, emblem, patch, device, wings, button, or related appurtenances—but excludes service awards as explained in § 882.3. In this regard, refer to § 882.80 concerning foreign service awards.

(d) Wear. Only those foreign decorations, or related elements, authorized for wear by AFM 35–10 may be worn on the Air Force uniform.

§ 882.41 Prior Congressional consent.

Congressional authority was given to U.S. Armed Forces personnel to accept decorations proffered by friendly foreign governments in recognition of service performed during the periods listed in this section. However, the decorations must have been presented to and accepted by the intended recipient before the termination date of the applicable Public Law:

(a) World War II. December 7, 1941, through July 24, 1948 (PL 314, 80th Congress).

(b) Berlin Airlift. June 26, 1948, through September 20, 1951 (PL 503, 81st Congress).

(c) Korean Operation. June 27, 1950, through July 27, 1955 (PL 354, 83rd Congress).

§ 882.42 Congressional consent for decorations relating to Vietnam hostilities.

Congressional consent was given (PL 89–257, 89th Congress) to members and former members of the Armed Forces of the United States to accept foreign decorations (explained in § 882.40) proffered by the Government of the Republic of Vietnam, or by the government of any other foreign nation whose personnel are serving in Vietnam in the cause of the Government of the Republic of Vietnam. Any such decoration must be one which is also conferred by such governments upon members of their own military forces and it must be proffered in recognition of service or acts performed in behalf of the Republic of Vietnam on or after March 1, 1961.

(a) Where services must be performed. Service or acts for which the decoration is awarded must have been performed in Vietnam, adjacent waters explained in § 882.68, adjacent lands, or airspace over Vietnam and airspace over adjacent waters and lands.

(b) When acceptance is authorized. These foreign decorations must be proffered and accepted by the recipient before a future date, which will be 1 year after cessation of hostilities or armed conflict in Vietnam.

(c) Restrictions. (1) The principles contained in § 882.20(e), prohibiting the award of more than one decoration for the same act, achievement, or service, applies. However, the acceptance of a foreign decoration in recognition of a single act of heroism or a single achievement does not necessarily preclude acceptance of a foreign decoration for meritorious service, even though the act or achievement occurred during the overall period of service.

(2) Broad-based awards; i.e., awards simultaneously proffered to a large number of members for the same act, achievement, or service such as those normally associated with U.S. service awards, may not be accepted without prior approval of the Secretary of Defense.

(3) The Congressional consent granted in PL 89–257 does not alter the prohibition applicable to members associated with the Military Assistance Program as provided in § 882.45.

§ 882.43 Token acceptance without Congressional consent.

Token acceptance of a foreign decoration, presented by or on behalf of a friendly foreign government, but excluding those foreign decorations defined in §§ 882.42 and 882.45 is permissible without Congressional consent. However, such token acceptance does not constitute an official acceptance, which may be authorized only by Congress, and such decoration may not be retained by the recipient without specific authorization of Congress.

NOTE: See Part 826, Subchapter C of this chapter for information concerning gifts proffered by foreign governments.

(a) Participating in presentation ceremonies. If a member is advised that a friendly foreign government wishes to award him a decoration and that his presence is desired at a presentation ceremony, he may participate in the ceremony and make a token acceptance of the decoration without the consent of Congress.

NOTE: This does not apply to members chapter for information concerning gifts proffered by foreign governments.

(b) Advising donor of Constitutional prohibition. In no case may a member make a token acceptance of a decoration offered by a foreign nation without diplomatically advising an appropriate representative of that government of the requirement of the Constitution cited in § 882.40.

§ 882.44 Requesting Congressional authorization.

(a) Action by recipient. When an individual, as described in § 882.43 receives or makes token acceptance of a decoration, which is not covered by § 882.42, he will:

(1) Forward all elements of the decoration by letter of transmittal to USAF MPC (AFPMSAM), Randolph AFB, TX 78148.

NOTE: All original elements of the award, including certificate, citation, scroll, medal, badge, ribbon, and other appurtenances must be forwarded.

(v) The date and place of the presentation, and the name and title of the person making the presentation.

(vi) A statement of whether the recipient was assigned in any capacity with the Military Assistance Program.

(vii) If the recipient was assigned duties in connection with the Military Assistance Program, a signed statement from the recipient indicating whether the service being recognized was in connection with his Military Assistance Program duties.

§ 882.45 Members associated with the Military Assistance Program.

Air Force service members and civilian employees, regardless of assignment, performing any duty whatsoever in connection with the Military Assistance Program, may not accept the tender of any decoration, award, or gift from foreign governments or officials for duty of this nature. Participation in ceremonies involving any such tender is not authorized. To avoid embarassment, the appropriate foreign officials should be advised of this prohibition. However, awards proffered in recognition of actual combat services or heroism involving the saving of life are excepted and may be received and treated as prescribed in §§ 882.42 or 882.43, as appropriate. Any decoration, award, or gift erroneously accepted by Air Force personnel associated with the Military Assistance Program becomes the property of the U.S. Government. It must be forwarded to USAFMPC (AFPMSAM), Randolph AFB, TX 78148, for disposition. Letters of transmittal will include the information outlined in § 882.44(a)(2) (i) through (vii).

§ 882.46 Decorations to retired personnel.

(a) Reserve component personnel and Regular Air Force airmen. A retired member of a Reserve component of the Air Force or a retired airman of the Regular Air Force, not holding an office of profit or trust under the U.S. Government, may without specific consent of the Congress, accept and keep foreign decorations, provided that the decorations are not proffered in recognition of service performed while the member was on active duty with the Armed Forces of the United States. If proffered for service performed while on active duty, but not for service relating to the Military Assistance Program, then token acceptance only may be made, and the decoration forwarded by the recipient in accordance with § 882.44.

(b) Regular Air Force officers. Retired officers of the Regular Air Force are considered as occupying an office of profit or trust under the U.S. Government and may not accept foreign awards without the consent of the Congress. Token acceptance is permissible, but elements of the award must be forwarded in accordance with § 882.44.

§ 882.47 Decorations awaiting Congressional approval for personnel honorably discharged from the Air Force.

Congressional approval is not required for acceptance and wearing of foreign decorations by personnel who have been honorably discharged from any of the components of the Air Force, provided they have acquired no new office of profit or trust under the U.S. Government. Personnel may obtain their awards by sending a request to USAFMPC (AFPMSAM), Randolph AFB, TX 78148. A signed statement certifying that the person is not employed in any capacity with the U.S. Government must accompany each request.

§ 882.48 Posthumous awards of foreign decorations to deceased members of the Air Force.

The approval of Congress is unnecessary in cases where a foreign decoration is awarded posthumously to a deceased member of the Armed Forces of the United States. If a recipient should die during the period the decoration is held by the Department of State, the elements are withdrawn and forwarded to the legal next-of-kin.

§ 882.49 Awards accepted while a bona fide member of the armed forces of a friendly foreign nation.

Decorations tendered or awarded for service while the recipient was a bona fide member of the armed forces of a friendly foreign nation may be retained without the consent of Congress, provided the decoration was accepted before the recipient's entrance into active service of the armed forces of the United States and acceptance was in accordance with the regulations of the country making the award.

Subpart E—U.S. Service Awards

§ 882.50 Types of awards.

U.S. service awards include medals, ribbon bars, lapel buttons, and other devices (clasps, stars, clusters, arrowheads) which are described in Subpart K of this part.

§ 882.51 Eligibility criteria.

(a) Who is eligible. A person generally is eligible for a service award if he:

(1) Was assigned or attached to and present for duty with a unit serving within the prescribed geographical area established for the award during the designated time period;

(2) Was assigned or attached to and present for duty with a unit designated in appropriate administrative orders as having received the award during the prescribed time period; or

(3) Otherwise meets the requirements for the award stated in the appropriate section of this subpart.

(b) Who is ineligible. No service award will be awarded to a person whose entire service for the period covered by the award was not honorable, nor to a person whose service for the period covered by the award was terminated under other than honorable conditions. However, if a person was awarded and presented an award for service before his dishonorable behavior, the award will not be revoked unless specifically directed by Hq USAF.

§ 882.52 Number of awards a person may receive.

Only one award of a specific U.S. service medal or Philippine service ribbon will be made to the same person. Devices will be awarded to denote additional awards in those instances specified in this part.

§ 882.53 Posthumous service awards.

Next-of-kin are entitled to receive service awards and related devices described in this part which were earned but not presented before the death of the recipient. Duplicate service awards may be furnished free to the parents of the deceased when awards are given to the widow or widower.

§ 882.54 Awards by other U.S. agencies.

Service awards are also awarded by the U.S. Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard. Such awards are made in conformance with the regulations of the awarding authority, and this part will not be construed to nullify them. An Air Force member who has been awarded a service award by one of the other military services may wear the award on the Air Force uniform provided that its wear is not precluded by AFM 35–10.

§ 882.55 Good Conduct Medal and Air Force Good Conduct Medal.

(a) Description.—(1) Good Conduct Medal. A metal disk, 1¼ inches in diameter, bearing in front an eagle standing on a book and a sword, encircled with the inscription "Efficiency-Honor-Fidelity." The ribbon is dark red silk, with three white stripes bordering each edge.

(2) Air Force Good Conduct Medal. The medal pendant is the same as described in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. The ribbon is predominantly light blue, with narrow vertical stripes of red, white, and blue to the right and left of the center of the ribbon.

(b) Requirements for award.—(1) Quality of service. The Good Conduct Medal or the Air Force Good Conduct Medal is awarded for exemplary behavior, efficiency, and fidelity in an enlisted status while in the active Federal military service of the United States. During the period considered for the award, there must be no conviction by a civil court (other than for a minor traffic violation), or by court martial, or record of punishment under Article 15. Where such conviction or record of punishment exists, creditable service toward the Good Conduct Medal or the Air Force Good Conduct Medal begins the day following any time lost under 10 U.S.C. 972 and/or the day following the completion of any punishment imposed by a court martial, including punishment under Article 15. Any period of service covered by a "referral" Airman Performance Report, as defined in AFM 39–62 (Noncommissioned Officer and Airman Performance Report), is disqualifying for the award of the medal.

(2) Length of service. Provided the quality requirements in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph are met, the basic Good Conduct Medal or Air Force Good Conduct Medal may be awarded for periods of continuous service.

(c) Type of medal to be awarded. An airman who qualified for award of the basic Good Conduct Medal or a successive award of the Good Conduct Medal on or before May 31, 1963, will be awarded the Good Conduct Medal, or the appropriate clasp described in Subpart K of this part. An airman who completes the qualifying service on or after June 1, 1963, will be awarded the Air Force Good Conduct Medal. When both medals have been awarded, they must be worn with the Air Force Good Conduct Medal taking precedence over the Good Conduct Medal. After award of the first Air Force Good Conduct Medal, successive awards will be denoted by oak leaf clusters which are identical to the clusters used to denote additional awards of military decorations. Oak leaf clusters are issued in two sizes—large and small—and in two colors—bronze and silver. The large size is worn on the suspension ribbon of the Air Force Good Conduct Medal, and the small size on the ribbon bar. A bronze oak leaf cluster is used for the second through fifth, seventh through 10th, etc., awards of the Air Force Good Conduct Medal. A silver oak leaf cluster is used for the sixth, 11th, etc., award, or in lieu of five bronze oak leaf clusters. (See AFM 35–10 for the proper placement of oak leaf clusters on the suspension ribbon and ribbon bar.)

(d) Computation of total service. Periods of service as a commissioned officer or warrant officer, other than Regular Air Force, will not be considered as an interruption of continuous service, although such periods will not be included in computation of total service accumulated. A period of more than 24 hours between enlistments or between periods of commissioned and enlisted service will be considered a break in continuous active service. Time spent in either aviation cadet or officer candidate status is creditable provided it meets the requirements of paragraph (b) (1) of this section. However, service as a cadet or midshipman in one of the service academies is not creditable.

(e) Service in the Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard. Service performed in the U.S. Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard may not be credited for award of the Good Conduct Medal or Air Force Good Conduct Medal under this part.

(f) Time period required after basic award. After the basic award of the Good Conduct Medal or Air Force Good Conduct Medal, a 3-year period of continuous active service is always required for additional awards of these medals. Service must always meet the requirements of paragraph (b) (1) of this section.
